First Regular Session

STATE OF MAINE
ONE HUNDRED AND TWENTIETH LEGISLATURE
FIRST REGULAR SESSION
JOURNAL OF THE SENATE

In Senate Chamber
Thursday
March 15, 2001

Senate called to order by Joy J. O'Brien, Secretary of the Senate.

Senator CATHCART of Penobscot was appointed to serve as President Pro Tem for the session.

The Secretary requested the Sergeant-At-Arms escort the Senator from Penobscot, Senator CATHCART to the rostrum where she assumed the duties as President Pro Tem.

Senate called to order by President Pro Tem MARY R. CATHCART of Penobscot County.

Prayer by Reverend J. John Keggi, SOSc, of St. Mark's Episcopal Church in Augusta.

REVEREND KEGGI: For us in the church, the Lenten season begins with Ash Wednesday when ashes are imposed with the words "remember that you are dust and to dust you shall return." It's a salutary reminder that all of our self-importance, our cleverness, our grand works, and our monuments will eventually crumble and it all will return to dust. Our moment on that stage of life, as Shakespeare had it, may be sound and fury, signifying nothing. And the psalm sings out "unless the Lord builds the house, the labor is in vain who build it. Unless the Lord watches over a city, in vain the watchman keeps his vigil. It is in vain that you rise so early and go to bed so late. Vain too to eat the bread of toil." And in our hymn 75 in our hymnal we sing "like the flowers of a field they perish like grass our works decay. The power and pomp of nations shall pass like a dream away. But the word of the Lord, God, endureth. The arm of the Lord is strong. He stands in the midst of nations and he will right the wrong. He shall feed his flock like a shepherd. The lambs he'll gently hold. To pastures of peace he'll lead them and bring them safe to his fold." You see, remember that we are dust and to dust we shall return. But it is stardust that we are made out of. It is stardust to what we return. We may be frail, we may be fallible, we may be often foolish. But we are creatures of God and the crown of His creation. We are humble but we are also lifted up to a meaningful life if we can set aside our self-will, our pride, our vanity in order to walk with God, to do the will of the Lord in humble and pray for discernment for what we are called to do. So let us pray.

Oh, God, a fountain of wisdom, whose will is good and gracious and whose law is truth, we beseech thee to guide and bless our Senators and Representatives in the legislature of this state, that they may enact such laws that shall please thee. To the glory of thy name and the welfare of these people. Amen.

Lord, grant us the strength and courage to do Your will.
Amen.

Senator McALEVEY: Thank you, Madame President. Men and women of the Senate. As you know we, from time to time, have the honor to recognize special people for special and major accomplishments throughout this state. I'm pleased today that we have a couple from my district, from Newfield, who have reached a milestone in their lives that is seldom reached by many other people in this state which certainly deserves major recognition by this body. Earland and Mary Gerry were married 60 years ago today and they are here today with their family to share their celebration with us. I'm very pleased that they took the time to come up here to be recognized. In my career, my limited legislative career of 7 years, I can only think of two occasions where people have been honored for their 60th wedding anniversary. I commend them and congratulate them and before they leave today, I wish that they would tell me what their secret is. Thank you, Madame President.

THE PRESIDENT PRO TEM: The Chair recognizes the Senator from York, Senator McAlevey.

Senator McALEVEY: Thank you, Madame President. Ladies and gentlemen of the Senate. Today I have for your consideration, unofficially, Massabesic Day in this chamber. It is my pleasure to honor Coach Morin for his award of being named Coach of the Year by the Southern Maine Athletic Association. We also have, which had appeared previously on this calendar, some other people from Massabesic High School, MSAD 57, who have also received some very special awards in this state. We have high school principal Jim Stevenson who received the Maine Principal of the Year award. We also have an individual who is a member of the team and who received the Fitzpatrick Award for Most Outstanding Athlete in the state. And of course we have, and I'm very pleased to present to you, the Class A State Championship Football team for last year from Massabesic. It's a major accomplishment. These young men are student scholars who work very hard in both the classroom and on the athletic field. Each and every one of these individuals are a good example of what role models for the rest of the students in the State of Maine are and should be. They conduct themselves and keep their lives unsullied and they present themselves in such a manner that I'm very pleased that they are here today. I'm very pleased for their accomplishments, not only on the field but off the field and in their actions in school and out of school. They typify what is best about our public education system. Thank you.

THE PRESIDENT PRO TEM: The Chair thanks the Senator from York, Senator McAlevey, and is pleased to recognize the Massabesic High School football team; Coach of the Year John Morin; Assistant Coaches Joe Bush, Andy Solati, and Kevin Poulin; Athletic Trainer Richard Labonte; Superintendent Fred Bechard; District Chair Lee Steele of the School Board; Headmaster James Stevenson, Principal of the Year; Team Captain Jason O'Tash, who received the Fitzpatrick Award; Ed Sharpe, representing the Boosters Club; Gloria Dyer of the school board; and joined by football boosters, parents and friends.
