STATE OF MAINE
ONE HUNDRED AND TWENTY-THIRD LEGISLATURE
FIRST REGULAR SESSION
JOURNAL OF THE SENATE

In Senate Chamber
Tuesday
March 20, 2007

Senate called to order by President Beth Edmonds of Cumberland County.

Prayer by Reverend Susan O. Gilpin of Prides Corner United Church of Christ in Westbrook.

REVEREND GILPIN: In 1995 a sociologist named Robert Putnam published a book called Bowling Alone. He documented that people no longer bowl in bowling leagues in the great numbers in which they used to. They bowl alone. People don't join the Masons in the numbers that they used to, or the PTA, or the church. The bonds that knit our communities together have withered. Everybody in this room is here because we know that we don't sink or swim alone. Ultimately, we don't bowl alone. We bowl together. I want to ask God's blessing on the important work that you do for our state. Let us pray.

Eternal God, we thank You for all those organizations which knit us together and we thank You for our state Senate and the men and women here who devote their time and energy to strengthening the bonds of our society and improving our state government. Bless them as they deliberate here within these walls and outside of these walls. At the end of the day, give us a stronger commonwealth than we had when we walked in. Amen.

Pledge of Allegiance led by Senator John L. Martin of Aroostook County.

Reading of the Journal of Thursday, March 15, 2007.

Doctor of the day, Skip MacDonald, MD of Dover-Foxcroft.
