STATE OF MAINE
ONE HUNDRED AND TWENTY-THIRD LEGISLATURE
FIRST REGULAR SESSION
JOURNAL OF THE SENATE

In Senate Chamber
Wednesday
May 9, 2007

Senate called to order by President Beth Edmonds of Cumberland County.

Prayer by Reverend Dr. Thomas Blackstone of Green Street United Methodist Church in Augusta.

REVEREND BLACKSTONE: Good afternoon. I'm told that a brief word of encouragement today might be in order. I'm not clear whether that's because the support staff feels you are in need of encouragement or if it's a matter of tradition. At least one person said you might be grumpy. You are in fact in day 38 of the Legislative session and perhaps you can already taste the coffee brewed for the late nights to come. You have been sent here to do nearly impossible work by voters who reserve the right to criticize you while you do it, many of whom would have preferred someone else to be sitting in your seat and most of whom think they could do a better job if they had the time. Such is the stress free life of a Senator. I suspect it is a day for public servants such as yourselves to take a deep breath and to renew your sense of public vocation which called you to offer yourself for service in this chamber in the first place. Deep in your recent or distant past is a quiet conversation with someone who means or meant the world to you: a spouse, a friend or mentor, a community or spiritual leader. As you saw your life through the eyes of that person you began to realize that you had the gifts, interests, and passion to serve the people of Maine in this extraordinary way. I encourage you, then, as you go about this day's business to recall that person's face, that moment in time, and to persist in making your highest hopes for our state a reality, setting aside the cynicism and discouragement that are an inevitable part of democracy in action. The business you carry out this afternoon will soon belong to history and with each pounding of the gavel you are fashioning your legacy to the next generation. May God grant that it be a legacy worthy of your life's calling; a legacy of wisdom, compassion, and bold optimism. Our children and their children, even to the seventh generation, deserve no less. Amen.

Reading of the Journal of Tuesday, May 8, 2007.

Off Record Remarks

The Chair noted the absence of the Senator from Hancock, Senator DAMON and further excused the same Senator from today's Roll Call votes.

PAPERS FROM THE HOUSE

Joint Orders

The following Joint Order:

H.P. 1328

ORDERED, the Senate concurring, that the Joint Standing Committee on Legal and Veterans Affairs shall submit, to the House, legislation to make substantive changes regarding the Maine Clean Election Act.

Comes from the House, READ and PASSED.

READ and PASSED, in concurrence.

The following Joint Order:

H.P. 1330

ORDERED, the Senate concurring, that the Commission To Study Strategies To Promote Financial Literacy is established as follows.

1. Commission To Study Strategies To Promote Financial Literacy established. The Commission To Study Strategies To Promote Financial Literacy, referred to in this order as "the commission," is established.

2. Membership. The commission consists of the following 9 members: 3 Senators appointed by the President of the Senate and 6 members of the House of Representatives appointed by the Speaker of the House. The 9 members must include at least 2 members from each of the following joint standing committees: the Joint Standing Committee on Education and Cultural Affairs; the Joint Standing Committee on Judiciary; and the Joint Standing Committee on Insurance and Financial Services.

3. Participation of state agencies; interested persons. The commission may request the participation of and seek the advice and expertise of the Treasurer of State, the Attorney General and the Department of Professional and Financial Regulation in carrying out its duties. The commission shall request input from interested parties representing the interests of kindergarten to grade 12 education, adult education, higher education, financial institutions, nonprofit financial literacy education providers, employers, labor and consumers. In conducting its duties, the commission may meet with any other individuals, departments, organizations or institutions it considers appropriate.

4. Appointments; convening of committee. All appointments must be made no later than 30 days following the adjournment of the First Regular Session of the 123rd Legislature. The first-named members appointed from each body are co-chairs of the commission.

5. Duties. The commission shall:

A. Review the experience in Maine and in other states with promoting and teaching financial literacy to children and adults;

B. Review the existing federal, state and private resources relating to financial literacy education;

C. Develop recommendations for the best methods for teaching financial literacy to children and adults;

D. Consider the establishment of a clearinghouse to make financial literacy educational materials widely accessible to the public; and

E. Develop recommendations for legislation or other government action to promote the development of financial literacy education programs in this State.

6. Staff assistance. The Legislative Council shall provide necessary staffing services to the commission.

7. Compensation. Legislative members of the commission are entitled to receive the legislative per diem and reimbursement for travel and other necessary expenses related to their attendance at authorized meetings of the commission.

8. Report. No later than December 5, 2007, the commission shall submit a report that includes its findings and recommendations, including suggested legislation, for presentation to the Joint Standing Committee on Insurance and Financial Services and the Legislative Council. The Joint Standing Committee on Insurance and Financial Services is authorized to introduce legislation related to its report to the Second Regular Session of the 123rd Legislature related to the recommendations in the commission's report.

9. Extension. If the commission requires a limited extension of time to complete its study and make its report, it may apply to the Legislative Council, which may grant an extension.

10. Budget. The chairs of the commission, with assistance from the commission staff, shall administer the commission's budget. Within 10 days after its first meeting, the commission shall present a work plan and proposed budget to the Legislative Council for its approval. The commission may not incur expenses that would result in the commission's exceeding its approved budget. Upon request from the commission, the Executive Director of the Legislative Council shall promptly provide the commission chairs and staff with a status report on the commission's budget, expenditures incurred and paid and available funds.

Comes from the House, READ and PASSED.

READ.

On motion by Senator MARTIN of Aroostook, placed on the SPECIAL STUDY TABLE, pending PASSAGE, in concurrence.
