STATE OF MAINE
ONE HUNDRED AND TWENTY-THIRD LEGISLATURE
SECOND REGULAR SESSION
JOURNAL OF THE SENATE

In Senate Chamber
Thursday
February 7, 2008

Senate called to order by President Beth Edmonds of Cumberland County.

Prayer by Reverend Douglas W. Drown of First Congregational Church in Bingham.

REVEREND DROWN: Good morning all. In other states
Legislative chaplains wear clerical collars. In Maine we wear Bean boots. There is quite a wonderful book that was written about ten or eleven years ago by a woman named Marianne Williamson. It's titled Healing the Soul of America. I recommend it. In it she writes these words, 'Transforming our hearts is a prerequisite for transforming our world. We will not achieve any higher minded political goals until we transform the political process. We cannot transform the political process without transforming ourselves. We need less to get the message out than to get the message in. As Gandhi said, 'My life is my message.'

May we all ponder these words as citizens and as people of faith. The transformation of society begins with the transformation of the heart. As we offer our hearts to the God who made us, the God who calls us. Would you pray with me?

Loving and eternal God, in whose hands our lives are held and who calls us to love our neighbors as we love ourselves, we offer to You the deliberations of this chamber this day. We are here because we love this state. We are here because we care about it; its economy, its environment, its welfare, its people.
Thus we ask Your blessing upon this Senate. Help its members to see and live this, their calling. In seeking the common good, we pray for the State of Maine and all who live in it, this great and wonderful place so richly blessed by You. In Your holy and gracious name, we offer to You these, our prayers. Amen.

Senator ROSEN: Thank you, Madame President. In relation to L.D. 2111, I'd like to pose a question through the Chair if I may.

THE PRESIDENT: The Senator may pose his question.

Senator ROSEN: Thank you, Madame President. In reading the bill there is authority granted to the Commissioner to acquire property and placement sites for the implementation of the tower system. The question that I wish to pose is that the bill itself is not specific in terms of a particular location but seems to appear to be a general granting of authority for the Department to acquire properties wherever they may be needed. That is a point of clarification. If, in fact, we need to spend a little time beyond this question that is posed, I would request that the Chair of the Committee, on my behalf, offer a tabling motion. Thank you.
