STATE OF MAINE
ONE HUNDRED AND TWENTY-FOURTH LEGISLATURE
FIRST REGULAR SESSION
JOURNAL OF THE SENATE

In Senate Chamber
Wednesday
January 7, 2009

Senate called to order by President Elizabeth H. Mitchell of Kennebec County.

Prayer by Reverend Dr. Thomas L. Blackstone, Green Street
United Methodist Church of Augusta.

REVEREND BLACKSTONE: Will you join me in prayer. Gracious and faithful God, here are Your children who assemble this morning in this new year to do the business of the people of the state of Maine. It is a time when hearts are troubled for the welfare of our most vulnerable citizens who woke up this morning in houses that were too cold, to eat from tables that were too empty, and to go to schools and work places that are struggling. It is a troubled time for our economy but we are, as ever, a people of persistent hope, unlimited industry, and compassionate generosity. On behalf of all communities of faith I ask You to inspire the souls of those in this room this morning. Honor their bold belief that ideas matter, that democracy and dialog are worth the time and effort, and that the pounding of a gavel in Augusta can improve the health, education, and welfare of boys and girls in Rumford, senior citizens in Buxton, caregivers in Old Town, farmers in Caribou, shipbuilders in East Boothbay, and fishermen in Milbridge. Forgive our faults and failures. We know that we are flawed creatures, that in days past we have dreamed too little and surrendered our ideals too quickly, but on this day and in this place may our best qualities emerge to cease the opportunities that always dwell in the midst of crisis.

Bless especially President Mitchell as she promotes the cooperation and fashions the compromises that will become the enduring legacy of the 124th session. May she inspire in her colleagues of both parties the innovation and openness that the times require. We place ourselves, our visions, and our agendas in Your strong work-worn hands. Amen.

Pledge of Allegiance led by Senator Seth A. Goodall of Sagadahoc County.

Reading of the Journal of Wednesday, December 3, 2008.

Doctor of the day, Dr. Judith Chamberlain, MD of Brunswick.

Off Record Remarks

Out of order and under suspension of the Rules, on motion by Senator BARTLETT of Cumberland, the following Joint Order:

Ordered, the House concurring, that when the House and Senate adjourn, they do so until Tuesday, January 13, 2009, at 10:00 the morning.

READ and PASSED.

Ordered sent down forthwith for concurrence.

Joint Order

The following Joint Order:

H.P. 63

Whereas, the State possesses an extraordinary abundance of natural resources that should be harnessed to produce clean energy; and

Whereas, the citizens of the State are overly reliant on foreign oil to power their vehicles, homes and businesses; and

Whereas, the State has unique opportunities to create jobs, ease energy costs by reducing energy consumption and increasing efficiency and reduce pollution and carbon emissions; and

Whereas, these opportunities raise issues that are generally heard by several different joint standing committees of the Legislature; and

Whereas, to capitalize on these opportunities the State must catalog its current resources and develop a plan to address the State's energy needs; now, therefore, be it

ORDERED, the Senate concurring, that the Joint Select Committee on Maine's Energy Future is established as follows.

1. Establishment. The Joint Select Committee on Maine's Energy Future, referred to in this order as "the committee," is established.

2. Membership. The committee consists of 17 members of the Legislature: 5 Senators appointed by the President of the Senate and 12 members of the House appointed by the Speaker of the House. The President of the Senate shall appoint 3 members from the party holding the largest number of seats and 2 from the party holding the 2nd-largest number of seats. The Speaker of the House shall appoint 7 members from the party holding the largest number of seats and 5 members from the party holding the 2nd-largest number of seats. The first-named Senate and House members shall serve as co-chairs of the committee.

3. Duties. The committee shall develop a plan with benchmarks and consider legislation to achieve energy sustainability, reduce consumption through energy efficiency, reduce carbon emissions and promote economic development through renewable energy resources in the State. The committee shall make recommendations regarding the allocation of any funds for weatherization, energy assistance, development of renewable energy sources or energy-based workforce development received from the State, the Federal Government or other outside sources.

4. Authority. The committee may hold hearings for information gathering or, on any legislation referred to it, refer legislation to other committees and may submit legislation.

5. Staff assistance. The committee shall share a committee clerk with a joint standing committee named by the President of the Senate and the Speaker of the House. The Office of Policy and Legal Analysis and the Office of Fiscal and Program Review shall provide staffing to the committee and may, with the permission of the President of the Senate and the Speaker of the House, obtain technical assistance from appropriate sources.

6. Compensation. Members of the committee are entitled to receive the legislative per diem as defined in the Maine Revised Statutes, Title 3, section 2.

7. Report. The committee shall submit its findings and recommendations along with any necessary implementing legislation to the 124th Legislature by April 15, 2009.

8. Termination. The committee terminates June 17, 2009.

Comes from the House, READ and PASSED.
