SPECIAL SENTIMENT CALENDAR

In accordance with House Rule 519 and Joint Rule 213, the following item:

In Memory of:

Gary D. Sullivan, of Sanford, a prominent educator and longtime active member of the community. Mr. Sullivan was born in Sanford and was a 1964 graduate of St. Ignatius High School. He received his bachelor's degree from the University of Maine and his master's degree from the University of Southern Maine. Mr. Sullivan dedicated his career to education, teaching history at Kennebunk High School, serving as a guidance counselor at Noble High School and as director of the guidance department at Biddeford High School. During the last 10 years of his education career, he was the director of the Sanford and Saco Centers of the University of Maine System. We acknowledge his commitment to his profession, to his community and to the State. He will be greatly missed and long remembered by his loving wife of 40 years, Lorraine, his loving family and those whose lives he touched;

(SLS 543)

On OBJECTION of Representative TUTTLE of Sanford, was REMOVED from the Special Sentiment Calendar.

READ.

The SPEAKER: The Chair recognizes the Representative from Sanford, Representative Tuttle.

Representative TUTTLE: Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Mr. Speaker, Men and Women of the House. Mr. Sullivan and I were friends for 40 years. I think four years ago Gary was here for Welcome Back Day with his best friend Perry Wood, who was a page here, I think, in the late '60s. Perry's brother Frank Wood and I served together in this House and Frank went on to become a State Senator. As the Clerk has mentioned, Mr. Sullivan died on January 8, 2012, of Lou Gehrig's disease. He fought a tremendous battle. You know, in all my life, I always say that if we had more people like Gary Sullivan that this state and nation would be a much better place. Gary, I think, will always be remembered for his dedication to his family, his compassion for others, his love of life, and especially his Irish wit. He loved to laugh and to give the gift of laughter to others. So rest in peace my friend and as I said before, if we had more people like you, the world would be a much better place. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER: The Chair recognizes the Representative from Sanford, Representative Boland.

Representative BOLAND: Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Mr. Speaker, Ladies and Gentlemen of the House. I just wanted to add my word of appreciation for Gary Sullivan. He was just a terrific figure in town, always a smile right up to the very end and worked in a lot of aspects of town government and community. I served with him on one of the town boards and he just never ceased to amaze in his kindness, always reaching out and saying to send people to him when he heard of maybe a student or young person who was in need because he dealt with guidance issues. In his professional life, he worked for the theater, the gymnasium, all sorts of things in town, and his son today is the editor of the Sanford News and carries on a wonderful tradition of appreciation for family and community. So I just wanted to add my words of thanks to him for a good life.

Subsequently, the Sentiment was ADOPTED in concurrence.

The SPEAKER: The Chair recognizes the Representative from Whiting, Representative Burns, who wishes to address the House on the record.

Representative BURNS: Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Mr. Speaker, Ladies and Gentlemen of the House. This is a little bit unusual. I want to speak today for just a moment about a sentiment that was done on behalf of some of the students at Lubec Elementary School and done out of session, so that's why it doesn't appear on your calendar today. But most of those students are here today, along with this group that we just recognized. If I can just briefly go over the history of what took place that prompted this sentiment.

Back in the spring of 2010, a volunteer, Ron Pesha, who is a retired professor from New York State University, met with a group of sixth grade students at the time. Seth Doherty, Emma Page, Austin Serrato, Robert Wallace, and Stephanie Wright. And he listened to their ideas about the upcoming bicentennial celebration that you heard us speak about so proudly that took place last summer, the 200th anniversary for the Town of Lubec. Emma Page, one of the students, asked "Does the Town of Lubec have a town flag?" Large cities do, but rarely do small communities. So upon checking, they found out that they didn't. Immediately the students started planning and they all agreed they could get a seamstress, they could do a design, and the boys started suggesting fundraisers.

Next, Emma Page returned with a design for that flag, a good design, bold and colorful, no fine lines or excessive detail. Because of all the work that went on in the project, not specifically school related, Emma automatically owned the copyright of this flag. Emma and Seth Doherty showed the design and impressed the Bicentennial Committee in Lubec. The class planned on their own a school bake sale, requesting permission from Mr. Doak, the principal, and by that time he had been joined by Julia Smith also. And with money for supplies, a local constituent of mine, Julie Keen, offered to sew the original flag and an enormous job was done to perform that. The flag is now on permanent exhibit in the school cafeteria. I'm not sure, I haven't been back out in the hallway, but I think it may be here for you to take a look at today. They were asked to bring it down and I hope you will take an opportunity.

Students showed the flag to the selectmen, which was voted into the bicentennial flag and placed on the town meeting ballot. Additional funds were raised for a commercially-printed, weather-resistant nylon flag. Students Seth Doherty and Robert Wallace carried the flag on July 3rd in the Fourth of July parade. It was raised at the monument in the park in Lubec on July 4th. On August 2nd, the citizens of Lubec voted it in as their official town flag. The City of Denver, this might be interesting to you, that the City of Denver has a flag for their community designed by high schoolers some 90 years ago. That is the only one we were able to find when we googled it, so this is a pretty unique experience. These students are here today along with a group of 25 students, and later on, after the House session is over, President Raye and I are going to present them with a special sentiment for this exemplary act of volunteerism for their community and their school. So thank you very much, Mr. Speaker.
