STATE OF MAINE
ONE HUNDRED AND TWENTY-SEVENTH LEGISLATURE
FIRST REGULAR SESSION
JOURNAL OF THE SENATE

In Senate Chamber
Tuesday
February 10, 2015

Senate called to order by President Michael D. Thibodeau of Waldo County.

Prayer by Pastor Arthur Fairbrother, Jr., Royal Ridge Church of God in Scarborough.

PASTOR FAIRBROTHER: Let us pray. Loving and precious heavenly Father, we gather here in Augusta today as we continue to deal with the challenging work that faces the great state of Maine and this, the 127th Maine Senate. Father, we gather humbly, acknowledging our own individual faults, barriers, and limitations, asking You to forgive us and strengthen us and help us and guide us. Father, we gather with a sense of openness and transparency, asking You to help us leave personal agendas aside and truly consider what is best for our state and the people thereof. Father, we gather with a sense of purpose, knowing that we bring a wide array of gifts and talents that can help us advance our state. Father, we gather with a sense of hope, knowing that we have Your help, power, and strength, and most importantly love, available to us. We request, Father, that You show Your mercy, grace, compassion, peace, and kindness upon us this day as we meet for the purpose of strengthening our great state and the great people who reside here. Heavenly Father, help our differences not to divide us. May our good intentions continue to broaden beyond our own personal world view. Help us to include those who we may have initially forgotten or even disagreed with. God, we pray that the end result of our work here, not only today but each and every day, will accomplish Your will and achieve something far beyond our expectations and dreams for Maine. Finally, God, we pray a blessing not only on the Senate but all three branches of the State's government. Father, we plead with You to help the Executive, Judicial, and Legislative Branches of Maine government to work together for the greater good for the people of this great state that we call home. Father, I pray for a personal blessing on all the men and women here today and upon their families, businesses, and all their personal activities. Help us to accomplish Your will. Father, we ask this in the name of Your son, Jesus. Amen.

Pledge of Allegiance led by Senator Kimberley C. Rosen of Hancock County.

Reading of the Journal of Thursday, February 5, 2015.

RE: Annual report of the Workers' Compensation Board pursuant to 5 M.R.S.A. § 12023(2)

Dear President Thibodeau and Speaker Eves:

I am submitting this annual report on behalf of the Workers' Compensation Board (Board) pursuant to 5 M.R.S.A. § 12023(2).

A. A list of all procurements exceeding $10,000 in the preceding year for which competitive procurement was waived under the policies adopted pursuant to section 12022, subsection 3, including procurements exceeding $10,000 that were made under contracts previously entered into for which competitive procurement was not required. The list must include the names of the vendors and costs associated with those procurements.

- The Board did not have any such procurements.

B. A list of all persons to which the entity made contributions greater than $1,000 in the preceding year and the total amount contributed to each.

- International Association of Industrial Accident Boards and Commissions (IAIABC) -- $1,500.00. These funds pay for the Board's membership in the IAIABC which is directly related to the Board's mission and activity. As one example, the Board has worked extensively with IAIABC (and other states) to develop protocols for electronic filing of information.

C. A description of changes made in the preceding year to the written policies and procedures required by section 12022 or to the procedures used by the governing body to monitor compliance with those policies and procedures.

- No changes have been made to the Board's policies and procedures.

Very truly yours,

S/Paul H. Sighinolfi, Esq.
Executive Director/Chair

ORDERS

Joint Order

Expression of Legislative Sentiment recognizing:

Charles Marshall, of Auburn, on the celebration of his serving as the organist at West Auburn Congregational Church for 70 years. Members of the church, Marty and Cheryl Lang, have produced a compact disk of Mr. Marshall playing a number of familiar hymns in honor of this anniversary. We send our appreciation to Mr. Marshall for his longtime and dedicated commitment to the church and to the community and we congratulate him on his 70th anniversary of serving the church;

SLS 118

Sponsored by Senator BRAKEY of Androscoggin.
Cosponsored by Representatives: BICKFORD of Auburn,
MELARAGNO of Auburn.

READ.

THE PRESIDENT: The Chair recognizes the Senator from Androscoggin, Senator Brakey.

Senator BRAKEY: Thank you, Mr. President. I rise today to recognize Charles Marshall of Auburn for 70 years of service playing the organ at West Auburn Congregational Church, since before World War II. During all that time Mr. Marshall, I'm told, can count on a single hand the number of times he has missed a service. Every Sunday morning parishioners gathered to worship and Charles Marshall opened with a musical prelude, a different selection of music each week. After 70 years Mr. Marshall has said that he occasionally thinks of retirement but he is so beloved by the congregation that they won't hear of it. Of course, as a family man, Charles Marshall says there is only one thing he loves more than playing church music, his wife of 60 years, June, without whom he says the music would not be possible. I'm honored to speak to this sentiment and pleased to have with us today Charles and June Marshall: their children, Brendon Norwood, Bruce and Sharon Marshall: and their friend, Bill Hess. Thank you for the time to address this Body.

Joint Resolution

On motion by Senator MASON of Androscoggin, the following Joint Resolution:

JOINT RESOLUTION RECOGNIZING FEBRUARY AS 2-1-1 MAINE MONTH

WHEREAS, 2-1-1 Maine is a comprehensive statewide directory of over 8,000 health and human services available in the State; and

WHEREAS, in order to promote the 2-1-1 Maine health and human services and emergency preparedness hotline, which helps Maine citizens get access to needed resources, we recognize February 2015 as 2-1-1 Maine Month; and

WHEREAS, 2-1-1 Maine helps to identify existing gaps in health and human services; and

WHEREAS, throughout the State, 2-1-1 Maine provides around-the-clock service through efficient and effective responses to questions arising from the growing complexities and needs in health, socioeconomic and human services; and

WHEREAS, 2-1-1 Maine provides emergency operations during times of natural and other disasters, including providing accurate and timely information for preparations and longer-term referrals for follow-up services, and valuable information for community planning and for future matching of resources and unmet needs; and

WHEREAS, during this past year, 2-1-1 Maine has directed over 13,000 Mainers to heating and utility assistance services that may have prevented people from contacting the wrong agency for a federal Low-Income Home Energy Assistance Program benefit, prevented utility shutoffs and saved people from spending winter nights without fuel assistance; and

WHEREAS, since 2006, 2-1-1 Maine call specialists have assisted with more than 570,000 requests to locate health and human services information; and

WHEREAS, 2-1-1 Maine handles a number of specialized services, including assisting the Maine Center for Disease Control and Prevention with H1N1 influenza calls and the gambling helpline, and is also a resource to find information about such needs as heating assistance and tax preparation; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED: That We, the Members of the One Hundred and Twenty-seventh Legislature now assembled in the First Regular Session, on behalf of the people we represent, take this opportunity to recognize February 2015 as 2-1-1 Maine Month.

THE PRESIDENT: The Chair recognizes the Senator from Kennebec, Senator Katz.

Senator KATZ: Thank you, Mr. President. Men and women of the Senate, if you need to find afterschool care for yourself or a constituent where do you look? If you are looking for counseling services or elder care information or heating assistance or ways to volunteer or problems with a utility, wouldn't it be nice if you could just dial one number and get answers to all those questions in one simple place? Well, we can. It's as easy as 2-1-1. Their slogan says it all, "Thousands of Services, One Place to Find Them." You hear a lot about public/private partnerships and this is one that really works. A combination of efforts of the United Way, the Opportunity Alliance, and the State of Maine. That's why we are all honored to recognize 2-1-1 and recognize this Joint Resolution and thank them for the work they do on behalf of all of our constituents. Thank you, Mr. President.

THE PRESIDENT: The Chair recognizes the Senator from Androscoggin, Senator Mason.

Senator MASON: Thank you, Mr. President. Ladies and gentlemen of the Senate, I just wanted to take the moment to recognize the folks at 2-1-1 for all the incredible work that they do. I recently learned about 2-1-1 in a meeting a week and a half ago. A couple of folks came in and talked about this. Honestly, I really didn't know that it existed, but I'm really glad that it does. Five hundred and seventy thousand calls since 2006. Mainers have been able to call in and get help for everything from heating assistance to benefits assistance and everything in between. I would encourage the membership, as well as the partisan staff in each office, to really take advantage of this resource when talking with constituents. Thank you, Mr. President.

On motion by Senator MASON of Androscoggin, ADOPTED.
