STATE OF MAINE
ONE HUNDRED AND TWENTY-EIGHTH LEGISLATURE
FIRST REGULAR SESSION
JOURNAL OF THE SENATE

In Senate Chamber Thursday
January 5, 2017

Senate called to order by President Michael D. Thibodeau of Waldo County.

Prayer by Pastor Arthur Fairbrother Jr., Royal Ridge Church of God.

PASTOR FAIRBROTHER: Good morning. First of all, let me say thank you for your service to our state and your sacrifice of time and talent. You do not go unnoticed or unappreciated and I want to thank you also for the opportunity to be here this morning and to open with prayer. Let us pray.

Precious Heavenly Father, we come humbly before You today with gracious hearts and we are thankful, Lord God, that we have the privilege to pray and that You will keep the promises that You hear our prayer, Lord God. Father, we thank You for the promise that if we abide in You and words abide in us then we can ask what we desire and will receive it. Father God, this morning we ask You, Lord God, today to just bless this Body, the 128th Senate of the great State of Maine. God, I pray for every elected official in this Chamber. Father, we pray for their families and their careers and their desires of their hearts. Lord, we ask You that You would keep them in good health, that You would bless them and protect them as they honor You in their decisions today. Father God, I pray, Father, with the spirit of gratitude that we were born in this great state and, Father, I pray that every decision that today, Lord God, will be done for the wellbeing of our entire state, Lord God, not special interests, Lord God, or small groups, but for the entire people. Father, I pray for a productive day today, not just today but every day that we live, and, Father, just be with each and every one of us today. We pray in Your precious and holy name. Amen.

Pledge of Allegiance led by Senator Kimberley C. Rosen of Hancock County.

ORDERS

Joint Order

Expressions of Legislative Sentiment recognizing:

William Neubauer, of Shawmut, a member of Boy Scout Troop No. 485, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout. This is the highest award in Boy Scouting and is given for excellence in skills development, leadership, personal growth and community service. For his Eagle Scout project, William made and arranged to have made 50 quilts for Redington-Fairview General Hospital to give to children admitted to the hospital. We extend our congratulations to William on this achievement;

Sponsored by Senator CYRWAY of Kennebec.
Cosponsored by Representative: PICCHIOTTI of Fairfield.

READ.

THE PRESIDENT: The Chair recognizes the Senator from Kennebec, Senator Cyrway.

Senator CYRWAY: Thank you, Mr. President. Ladies and gentlemen of the Senate, I'm honored today to have as my guest, William Neubauer, and his father, Jeff. William has recently attained the rank of Eagle Scout. For his project William chose to make, and have made, 50 quilts for Redington-Fairview General Hospital in Skowhegan. He has given them to the children who are admitted to the hospital. I have high admiration for Scouts who are able to reach this high rank. They are dedicated, hardworking individuals who value community service and helping their neighbors. My grandson is currently working on reaching that rank of Eagle Scout, so I understand the hard work and time that it takes for a Scout to complete their Eagle Scout project. It is no easy task. William started in Scouting at 6 years old and is a member of the O.A., which is the National Honor Society of Boy Scouts. He volunteers at his local church and has been a Section and Assemble leader for multiple music groups in school. He lives by the motto "See a need, fill a need." William is an excellent example of his peers and to all of us of what it means to put others first. William graduated from Lawrence High School in June and is now attending the School of Music at the University of Southern Maine, where he is studying to become a music teacher. I have no doubt that he will be successful in his studies and that he has a terrific future ahead of him. I am pleased William will be able to join us today and I send him my best wishes for continued success. Thank you, Mr. President.

PASSED.

Sent down for concurrence.

THE PRESIDENT: The Chair is pleased to recognize in the rear of the Chamber Jeff Neubauer and William Neubauer of Shawmut. Would they please rise and accept the greetings of the Senate.

All matters thus acted upon were ordered sent down forthwith for concurrence.

Senate at Ease.

The Senate was called to order by the President.

Off Record Remarks

All matters thus acted upon were ordered sent down forthwith for concurrence.

On motion by Senator MASON of Androscoggin, ADJOURNED, pursuant to the Joint Order, until Tuesday, January 10, 2017 at 10:00 in the morning.
