STATE OF MAINE
ONE HUNDRED AND TWENTY-EIGHTH LEGISLATURE
FIRST REGULAR SESSION
JOURNAL OF THE SENATE

In Senate Chamber
Tuesday
January 10, 2017

Senate called to order by President Michael D. Thibodeau of Waldo County.

Prayer by Pastor Glenn Peterson, Hope Baptist Church.

PASTOR PETERSON: Heavenly Father, I thank You for the passion of these Senators to serve the people of the State of Maine. They want to help people, that is why they are here today, but they have a difficult job. They are frequently in a hurry or under stress. Most days they have so much to do in such a small window of time. I am sure that sometimes their passion to get things done often takes precedence over their calling from You to love people well. Rather than enjoying the diversity of perspectives, insights, and emotional wiring in others, it's tempting to just endure people. Sometimes we can even resent people who slow us down or get in our way. So today help these Senators to accept each other, regardless of whether or not they agree with one another. Father, I am grateful that You are the God who gives patience and encouragement because we need both. We need patience to enjoy and accept the rich tapestry of people and perspectives that surround us, where we live, work, and play, and we need encouragement to keep on keeping on in the midst of long days. Lord, make us kinder and more flexible today. Suffering from the hardening of the categories may be normal, but it isn't necessary. When others grate on our nerves, give us grace in our heart. When we want to roll our eyes in annoyance, help us to roll up our sleeves in service. For Your glory, Father, make us more like the Jesus who kindly served his disciples by washing their feet. So we pray in Your wonderful and merciful name. Amen.

Pledge of Allegiance led by Senator Scott W. Cyrway of Kennebec County.

Reading of the Journal of Thursday, January 5, 2017.

Joint Resolution

WHEREAS, the Legislature has learned with deep regret of the death of:

Clinton B. "Bill" Townsend, of Canaan, a tireless advocate for Maine's environment for over 50 years. Mr. Townsend began work with the Natural Resources Council of Maine in 1960. A skilled attorney, he helped lead the campaign to create the Allagash Wilderness Waterway and also helped to stop a dam at Big Amberjackmockamus Falls as well as the proposed Basin Mills Dam in the lower Penobscot watershed. He led many negotiations over the years to stop destructive practices and protect places at risk. Mr. Townsend was a member of the council's Board of Directors for nearly 30 years and served as president from 1965 to 1970. He also served the State in numerous posts, including as a member of the Land Use Regulation Commission, the Land for Maine's Future Board, the Whitewater Rafting Advisory Committee and the Task Force on Water Pollution Control. President George H.W. Bush appointed him as one of three American commissioners of the North Atlantic Salmon Conservation Organization. Mr. Townsend will be long remembered for his dedication to environmental issues and will be sadly missed by his loving family and many friends;

HLS 14

Comes from the House READ and ADOPTED.

READ.

THE PRESIDENT: The Chair recognizes the Senator from Cumberland, Senator Carson.

Senator CARSON: Good morning, Mr. President. I am unfamiliar with the process. I would like to speak very briefly with regard to Clinton Townsend at the appropriate time.

THE PRESIDENT: The Senator may proceed.

Senator CARSON: Thank you, Mr. President. I had the great privilege of being mentored by Bill Townsend, the tree giant among conservation leaders in our state and also an extraordinary community leader. There's a great synopsis of the contributions that Bill Townsend made to the life of our state, particularly to the long-term health and well-being of our environment. I would like simply to add something that his daughter said at his memorial service last Friday in Canaan, and that is that one day, hopefully soon, again the first salmon caught in the Penobscot River, which Bill worked so hard and so long to restore, will be sent to the President of the United States to be served at the White House. Thank you, Mr. President.

ADOPTED, in concurrence.
