Senate called to order by President Michael D. Thibodeau of Waldo County.

Prayer by Pastor Michael Richards, Falmouth Congregational Church, UCC in Falmouth.

PASTOR RICHARDS: Thank you. Please join me in a word of prayer. Glorious God, we gather this morning to conduct the work of the State of Maine. Our country is in the midst of change and we ask Your blessing upon each and every member of our nation and this state. As we begin our work today may we open our hearts and minds and look at each and every action we take today with the best intent for those we serve. The work is not easy and there are many challenges and decisions facing us before we head for rest tonight. Give us the strength and energy to tackle our tasks justly and fairly for all concerned. Grant us Your guidance as we consider the work before us today. Help us to put aside the influence of outside pressures and focus on what is best for all the people and institutions of this great state. May we work with integrity and exhibit the high ethical standards that are expected of us. We ask Your blessing on our deliberations.
Guide us not only today but each and every day that we have the privilege of serving others. In Your name, most Holy One, we pray. Amen.
