STATE OF MAINE
ONE HUNDRED AND TWENTY-EIGHTH LEGISLATURE
SECOND REGULAR SESSION
JOURNAL OF THE SENATE

In Senate Chamber
Wednesday
January 3, 2018

Pursuant to the provisions of Article IV, Part Third, Section 1 of the Constitution and the laws of the State of Maine, the Senate convened in the Senate Chamber at 10:00 o'clock in the morning and was called to order by President MICHAEL D. THIBODEAU of Waldo County.

Prayer by Pastor Aaron Martin, Winterport Baptist Church.

PASTOR MARTIN: Let us pray. Dear Heavenly Father, we just thank You, Lord, for this great State of Maine that we're all privileged to be a part of. We just thank You that You are very powerful, our Creator. We just thank You that You know all about us, you're very personal. From every hair on our head You know. We just thank You that we can't hide from You. Wherever we go You are there, and this all means that, yes again, You are personal. With that being said, Lord, I just pray that we would look at each individual here and as we deal with each other, and as we kind of do life in a small way at the State House with one another, as we represent big things, important things, that we would recognize beneath the surface the individual, that we would listen with our hearts, we would realize that there're things beyond a vote, beyond an agenda, beyond a law, beyond our own way, and there's a person. We might not always agree with them, they even might be hard to like some days, but isn't that life. We can still respect each other, hold each other with integrity, and realize there might be a marriage that's having a hard time, there might be sickness, a spouse with cancer, there might be a grandchild sick, there might be a grandchild coming into the world, there might be the end of the month where there is some financial constraints, there might be all those things going on. I just pray that each person here would see beneath what goes on here in a business sense and see the hearts and love on one another. I pray that there would be unity of spirit, unity of affection, and unity of love, and that everything would be done with selflessness and humility. Pride often can be a stumbling block. We just thank You that each one here is doing a duty and I pray that they count it a privilege to serve the people of Maine and I pray that they would love on the people that they represent and also listen to them, what they have to say, and learn about their life to better represent what they need, what their desires are and their wants, because isn't that why we're all here. Not for ourselves but for each one here, for our grandchildren, for our children, to make things better and I pray that we always consult You for our wisdom and word of God, which has never done me wrong, and stands the test of time. I ask all these things and a blessing upon today and each one here, individually, and their families, in Jesus' name. Amen.

Pledge of Allegiance led by Senator Garrett Paul Mason of Androscoggin County.

Doctor of the day, Angus Christie, M.D. of Falmouth.

An Expression of Legislative Sentiment recognizing:

United States Army First Sergeant Ryan McCarthy, of Belgrade Lakes, who won the title Noncommissioned Officer of the Year in the Department of the Army Best Warrior Competition, a prestigious Army-wide competition including warriors ranked corporal through sergeant first class from active duty, National Guard and reserve units. We extend to First Sergeant McCarthy our congratulations and best wishes;

SLS 658

Sponsored by Senator SAVIELLO of Franklin.
Cosponsored by Representatives: BLACK of Wilton, HILLIARD of Belgrade.

THE PRESIDENT: The Chair recognizes the Senator from Franklin, Senator Saviello.

Senator SAVIELLO: Thank you, Mr. President. Ladies and gentlemen of the Senate, about seven years ago I met a young man who had just gotten home from an overseas war on terrorism and I had the opportunity to shake his hand and welcome him home and today I get the special opportunity to recognize him for his special service and a special award. But as most of you know, you've read the history of what this gentleman has done, but I want to tell you the rest of the story. Thanks to his Dad I have the rest of the story. To say Ryan was full of energy when he was a boy and into his teens is the understatement of the year. Like trying to herd cats was a good way to put it. Along with his competitive, inquisitive, and 'heck, let's try it anyways' nature, certainly made for challenging moments for his mother and his father when he was growing up. Ryan is now an expert in executing complex waterborne combat operations, but it didn't start out so smoothly. When he was 10, he was told not to take the canoe out on the lake by himself; if the wind kicked up he would go sailing away. So, of course, you know what he did, he took it anyway when his mother and father were out of sight. Some complete strangers spotted him from the shore and rescued him a good mile out in the middle of the lake, heading in the wrong direction. Lesson learned for his future military career and it served as a good opportunity to meet our new neighbors, who we also became good friends with. Ryan was also very competitive, which helped him in through the tough environments like Sapper and Ranger school and combat tours in Iraq and Afghanistan. His competitive spirit was evident early on. He always knew to cry pretty hard if he lost at the family croquet or volleyball game when he was young. He logged the most penalties whilst playing on the Messalonskee hockey school team, and he drove his sister crazy by turning everything into a competition. If a score was being kept, game on.

The good news is that as time went on he has been able to channel all his energy and enthusiasm into a successful career in the U.S. Army. All his summers on the lake waterskiing, kneeboarding, fishing, sailing, and swimming prepared him well to ultimately become a Sergeant First Class, an Army Ranger and Sapper, and achieve his qualifications in Airborne, Air Assault, plus others. His mother and I couldn't be more proud of the profession he has chosen and the service to his country.

Just to give you an example of some of the awards this young man has been awarded. His decorations include the Meritorious Service Award, the American Commendation Medal, the Army Achievement Medal, the Meritorious Unit Commendation, the Army Good Conduct Medal, the National Defense Service Medal, the Afghanistan Service Medal, the Iraq Campaign Medal, the Global War on Terrorism, the Non-Commissioned Officer Professional Development Ribbon, the Senior Leader Course Distinguished Honor Graduate, Army Services Ribbon, Overseas Services Ribbon, and multiple awards of all of these things that I've just described. The Ranger Tab, the Basic Army Instructor, the Parachute Badge. We were joking about that before we came in. The Air Assault Badge, the Sapper Tab, and Sergeant Audie Murphy Award.

SFC McCarthy now is a member of the 82nd Airborne Division in North Carolina. He is a platoon sergeant with the 307th Brigade Engineer Battalion, and he lives there with his wife and his 1 year old child. Thank you very much, Mr. President.

PASSED.

Sent down for concurrence.

THE PRESIDENT: The Chair is extremely pleased to introduce some very special guests today. Army First Class Sergeant Ryan McCarthy, Ted McCarthy, Tracy Devoll, and Staff Sergeant Travis Mills. Would they please all rise and accept the greetings of the State Senate.

At this point a message was received from the House of Representatives, borne by Representative GOLDEN of Lewiston, informing the Senate that a quorum of Representatives was assembled for the consideration of such business as may come before that Body.

---

Out of order and under suspension of the Rules, on motion by Senator MASON of Androscoggin, the following Senate Order:
