

MAINE STATE LEGISLATURE

The following document is provided by the LAW AND LEGISLATIVE DIGITAL LIBRARY at the Maine State Law and Legislative Reference Library
<http://legislature.maine.gov/lawlib>

Reproduced from electronic originals
(may include minor formatting differences from printed original)

Journal and Legislative Record
House of Representatives
One Hundred and Twenty-Ninth Legislature
State of Maine

Daily Edition

First Regular Session beginning December 5, 2018

pages 1 -

LEGISLATIVE RECORD – HOUSE APPENDIX
December 5, 2018 to December 1, 2020

Maliea Kelso, of Skowhegan, a senior at Skowhegan Area High School, who has been named the 2018 Field Hockey Player of the Year by the Morning Sentinel. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 1) the Skowhegan Area High School Field Hockey Team, of Skowhegan, which won the Class A North Championship. This is the team's 18th consecutive regional title. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 2)

Samuel Medina, of Windham, a member of Boy Scout Troop No. 51, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout. This is the highest award in Boy Scouting and is given for excellence in skills development, leadership, personal growth and community service. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 3) the Portland Lions Club, of Portland, which celebrated its 95th Anniversary on April 20, 2018. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 4)

Sandra Ann Brown George, of Montville, a farmer, a gardener and a wildlife conservationist. Mrs. George managed a tree farm, was a Coverts Project Cooperator and a certified Project Wild docent. A sheep farmer, she led a marketing organization connecting lamb producers with markets throughout New England from 1985 to 1988. From 1996 to 2000, she served as the first female president of Maine's largest agricultural organization, the Maine Farm Bureau. She served on the board of directors for Farm Family Mutual Company from 1996 to 2000, and she operated The Heirloom Garden of Maine, one of New England's largest herbaceous heirloom plant collections, from 1996 to 2013. Mrs. George will be long remembered and sadly missed by her family and friends and all those whose lives she touched; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 5)

Luke Conroy, of Berwick, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout. This is the highest award in Boy Scouting and is given for excellence in skills development, leadership, personal growth and community service. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 6)

Garrett Morneault, of Mapleton, a member of Boy Scout Troop No. 170, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout. This is the highest award in Boy Scouting and is given for excellence in skills development, leadership, personal growth and community service. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 7)

George Mathis, of Newport, who received a $250 runner-up Community Champion Award from Molina Medicaid Solutions of Maine for his 15 years of volunteer service at the Togus VA. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 8)

Connie Piselli, of Augusta, on her 90th Birthday. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 9)

Jake Rogers, of Clinton, coach of the Nokomis Regional High School Football Team, who was named Coach of the Year by the Morning Sentinel. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 10) the Nokomis Regional High School Football Team, of Newport, which won the Class C State Championship. Members of the team include Andrew Leali, Kyle Harris, Cade Kreider, Tyler Pelletier, Brock Graves, Andrew Haining, Jayden Brooks, Chance Graves, Beau Briggs, David Wilson, Xavier Rowe, Darius Currie, Elijah Griffith, Seth Woodard, Alex Costedio, James Boyd, Phenyx Hatch, Alfonso Justus, Samuel Donaldson, Zach Dudley, Aaron Ramsey, Hunter Lovering, Andrew Hopkins, Thomas McEwen, Quinton Richards, John Tucker, Nicholas Lincoln, Dylan Gray, Dominick Gould and Ryan McAtee; coaches Eric Moulton, Ryan Robinson, Russell Wilson and Eric Rowell; and head coach Jake Rogers. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 11)

Bernard A. Belanger, of Oxford. Mr. Belanger worked at Robinson Manufacturing Company for over 24 years and served in the Oxford Fire Department for more than 30 years. He also was a member of Santa Visits Oxford for several years and Rock O'Dundee Snowmobile Club. Mr. Belanger will be long remembered and sadly missed by his family and friends; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 12)

Marjorie L. Puiia, of Rumford. Mrs. Puiia was a communicant of Parish of the Holy Savior and held Rumford's Boston Post Cane. Mrs. Puiia will be long remembered and sadly missed by her family and friends; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 13)

Lamey Wellehan, based in Falmouth, which was named the 2018 Retailer of the Year by the National Shoe Retailers Association for its growth and contributions to the communities it serves. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 14)

the Honorable Robert Arthur Benson, of Windham. Mr. Benson worked in the safety and research departments at S.D. Warren. While at the mill, he created two patents that are still used today. During his retirement, he worked at the Woodworker Warehouse and Aubuchon Hardware. He served in the 102nd Legislature representing Mechanic Falls and was proud to sponsor the Range Pond State Park bill. Mr. Benson will be long remembered and sadly missed by his wife of 56 years, Judith, and by his family, friends and colleagues; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 15)

Donald Clifford, of Dixfield, who is celebrating his 95th Birthday on December 29, 2018. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 16)

Elias Thomas, of Shapleigh, who has received the National Association of Realtors Good Neighbor Award for his extraordinary commitment to improving the quality of life in his community. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 17)

Bernice Paine Kane Merrill, of Oxford. Mrs. Merrill will be long remembered and sadly missed by her husband of 40 years, Clarence, and by her family and friends; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 18)

Rosella Pinkham, of New Portland, who celebrated her 100th Birthday on December 15, 2018. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 19)

Isabella Rose Broder, of Houlton, who has served the people of the State for over 20 years as an educational technician in food preparation, a volunteer and an advisory board member at Southern Aroostook Vocational Education in Houlton. We extend our appreciation and best wishes; (HLS 20) the Honorable Charles H. Heino, of Belgrade. Mr. Heino began his career in education in 1955 in Bethel, where he taught seventh and eighth grade and later became principal. He subsequently held other administrative positions, serving as a principal and superintendent in school districts across the State. He was a member of the Maine Education Association and of the Board of Directors of the Maine School Management Association. He retired from education in 1980 and went to work in the insurance industry. In 1990, he was first elected to the Maine House of Representatives and went on to serve for three terms. He also was a licensed Master Maine Guide and a member of the Bethel Masonic Lodge. Mr. Heino will be long remembered and sadly missed by his family and friends and all those whose lives he touched; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 21)

Northeast Packaging Company, located in Presque Isle, which has received the 2019 Business of the Year Economic

LEGISLATIVE RECORD – HOUSE APPENDIX
December 5, 2018 to December 1, 2020

Impact Award from the Central Aroostook Chamber of Commerce. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 22)

Rick and Nancy Duncan, of Presque Isle, who have received the 2019 Citizens of the Year Award from the Central Aroostook Chamber of Commerce. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 23)

Robert Kieffer, of Woodland, who has received the 2019 Lifetime Achievement Award from the Central Aroostook Chamber of Commerce. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 24)

Soderberg Construction Company, located in Caribou, which has received the 2019 Business of the Year Community Impact Award from the Central Aroostook Chamber of Commerce. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 25)

Steve and Prudy Dobson, of Washburn, who have received the 2019 President's Award from the Central Aroostook Chamber of Commerce. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 26) the Honorable Mabel J. Desmond, of Mapleton, former 4-term member of the Maine House of Representatives, on the occasion of her 90th Birthday. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 27)

Pat McKenzie, of Waterville, Kennebec Behavioral Health's administrator for outpatient and substance abuse services, who was awarded the 2018 Hector Bolduc Award by NAMI Maine for her significant contributions to serving people with mental illness in partnership with NAMI Maine. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 28)

Marion Austin, of Newport, who is celebrating her 100th Birthday on January 21, 2019. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 29)

Henry H. Hamilton, of Otisfield. Mr. Hamilton served in the United States Air Force as a military intelligence analyst. He worked as an international humanitarian aid and development professional, serving in West Africa, Eastern Europe and Central Asia. He worked for the Peace Corps, the Federal Government of Germany (GTZ), USAID, the United States State Department, the United Nations and various international nongovernmental organizations. He was a fellow of The Explorers Club of New York City since 1990 and also a member of The Antarctic Society. From 1989 to 1995, he was a storyteller on Alabama Public Radio station WLRH, and he wrote two books, Footloose and Curious and a children's book Night Full Frightful: A Collection of Spooky Rhymes. He served as superintendent of the Maine Wildlife Park in Gray from 2003 to 2005, as president of the Otisfield Historical Society for 9 years and as president of the Otisfield Community Contra Dance, of which he was a founding member. He was a hospice volunteer for 7 years and a shared living provider to individuals with intellectual disabilities for 12 years. He was an original member of the Oxford Hills Honey Bee Club and sang with the Hillsmen Chorus. Mr. Hamilton will be long remembered and sadly missed by his wife of 33 years, Shirley, by his family and friends and by all those whose lives he touched; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 30)

Lisa Louise Grant, of Orrington. Mrs. Grant worked many years with Dahl Chase Diagnostic Services before working in medical supply sales at Thermo Fisher Scientific. She was an active member of the Anah Shriners. Mrs. Grant will be long remembered and sadly missed by her family, friends and colleagues; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 31)

Main-Land Development Consultants, of Livermore Falls, which received a 2018 Governor's Award for Business

Excellence. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 32)

Jessica Gagne, of Biddeford, a journalist with WCSH-TV, who was named Maine Sportscaster of the Year by the National Sports Media Association. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 33)

the Winthrop High School Field Hockey Team, of Winthrop, which won the Class C State Championship. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 34)

Ruth Phillips, of Rockland, who is celebrating her 100th Birthday on February 15, 2019. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 35)

George Bartlett, of Raymond, who has received the 2019 Volunteer of the Year Award from the Sebago Lakes Region Chamber of Commerce. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 36)

Sabre Yachts, of Raymond, which has received the 2019 Business of the Year Award from the Sebago Lakes Region Chamber of Commerce. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 37)

Maude Marin, of St. Agatha, who celebrated her 102nd Birthday on January 16, 2019. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 38)

Genevieve Sturtevant, of Milo, who is celebrating her 100th Birthday on January 28, 2019. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 39)

Paul Mason, of Ogunquit, who is celebrating his 100th Birthday on January 23, 2019. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 40) the University of Maine Black Bears Football Team, of Orono, which won the Colonial Athletic Association Championship and went on to become a National Semifinalist. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 41)

Monica Chipman Pettegrow, of Trenton, a coach of the Sumner Memorial High School Cheerleading Team, who has been named a Penobscot Valley Conference Cheering Coach of the Year. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 42)

the Sumner Memorial High School Cheerleading Team, of Sullivan, which won the Downeast Athletic Conference Championship and was Class C Northern Maine Regional Runner-up. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 43)

Jessica Chadwick Snowdeal, of Sullivan, a coach of the Sumner Memorial High School Cheerleading Team, who has been named a Penobscot Valley Conference Cheering Coach of the Year. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 44)

Aidan McGlone, of Limington, a senior and a football player at Bonny Eagle High School, who has received the Frank J. Gaziano Memorial Offensive Lineman Award for his strong leadership on the field, in the classroom and in the community. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 45)

Henry Evans Zietlow, of St. Paul, Minnesota and Brunswick, a first-year student at Bowdoin College. Mr. Zietlow had a variety of academic interests and was an accomplished violinist. Passionate about the outdoors, he canoed across the Canadian arctic for 2 months in the summer of 2018, and he was a member of the college's varsity rowing team. Mr. Zietlow will be long remembered and sadly missed by his family and friends and all those whose lives he touched; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 46)

Robert Taylor, of Addison. Mr. Taylor had a talent for fixing things and used his gift to help his friends and family and even strangers. He was a member of the Red Knights Motorcycle

LEGISLATIVE RECORD – HOUSE APPENDIX
December 5, 2018 to December 1, 2020

Club and especially enjoyed the annual Toys for Tots ride. Mr. Taylor will be long remembered and sadly missed by his family and friends; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 47)

Edward William Wright, of Columbia. Mr. Wright served in the United States Army and later worked for 32 years as a custodian for School Administrative District #37 schools. He was a member of Tuscan Masonic Lodge #106 in Addison. Mr. Wright will be long remembered and sadly missed by his wife of 42 years, Belinda, and by his family and friends; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 48)

Galen Edgar Alley, of Beals. Mr. Alley loved the water and made his living from it, owning and operating Great Wass Lobster. He also loved racing boats, including the Foolish Pleasure, in which he set the racing record of 77.2 miles per hour. Mr. Alley will be long remembered and sadly missed by his family and friends; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 49)

Scrummy Afters, of Hallowell, which was named the Best Candy Store in Maine by national news outlet MSN. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 50)

Kelly A. Martin, of Fort Kent, Vice Chair of the Board of Trustees of the University of Maine System, who has received the Citizen of the Year Award from the Greater Fort Kent Area Chamber of Commerce for her service and the many important roles she has filled in the volunteer community. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 51)

Dale F. Doughty, of Pittston, who is retiring as Director of the Bureau of Maintenance and Operations with Maine's Department of Transportation after 21 years of public service. Mr. Doughty has also worked as the department's hydrogeologist, Director of Plan and Program Development, Assistant Director of Planning and Region Manager in the Eastern Region. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 52)

Norma J. (Daigle) Shaw, of Caribou. Mrs. Shaw was a member of the Holy Rosary Catholic Church since 1967. She also was a member of the Holy Rosary Sunday Choir since 1980, a member of the funeral choir from 1993 to 2013 and a member of the Ladies of St. Anne since 1975, serving as president from 1995 to 2000. Mrs. Shaw will be long remembered and sadly missed by her family and friends; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 53)

Gregory S. Simmons, of Andover. Mr. Simmons worked for Nine Dragons Paper Mill in Rumford as a Kamyrr Operator and was a member of King Hiram Lodge. Mr. Simmons will be long remembered and sadly missed by his family and friends; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 54)

Randy M. Gagne, of Searsmont, Chief of the Camden Police Department, on his thirty years of service with the department, the past eight years as chief. Since July 2016, Chief Gagne has also served as Chief of the Rockport Police Department. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 55)

Thomas M. Couming, of Kennebunk. Mr. Couming served in the United States Air Force from 1964 to 1968. He had a career in Human Resources and worked nationally as a diversity consultant, creating programs and facilitating trainings for more inclusive workplaces and advocating for the LGBT community, minority groups and women. He helped found the nonprofit Can Do Program, a bottle redemption project whose proceeds were donated to feed the hungry. He also, through that program, mentored teenage volunteers from the community. His concern for Mainers of all ages was reflected in his daily dedication to citizen activism. Mr. Couming will be long remembered and sadly missed by his wife of 48 years, Mary, by his family and friends and by all those whose lives he touched; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 56)

McKenzy Ouellette, of Newfield, a student at Massabesic High School and a player on the girls basketball team, who recently scored her 1,000th career point. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 57)

Elmer Harmon, of Dennysville, who retired from the Naval Computer and Telecommunication Station in Cutler after 40 years of service. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 58) the Waterville Senior High School Girls Soccer Team, of Waterville, which received the Platinum Award for Ethics and Sportsmanship for the Fall 2018 Season from United Soccer Coaches, the world's largest soccer coaches' organization. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 59)

Gregory George Viger, of Rumford. Mr. Viger was well-known for his love of photography and for the many photos he shared with his community. Mr. Viger will be long remembered and sadly missed by his family and friends and all those whose lives he touched; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 60)

Jack Comart, of Readfield, who retired from Maine Equal Justice Partners as Litigation Director after over 14 years of service. Mr. Comart had previously worked as a staff attorney at Pine Tree Legal Assistance, beginning there in 1983. Mr. Comart is held in high esteem by his peers in the legal field, and his legal and policy work is recognized nationwide. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 61)

Hugh Gerard Daley, of Dixfield. Mr. Daley served in the United States Air Force, specializing as a jet engine mechanic. He served three tours in Vietnam and retired in 1983 after a 24-year career. He worked at the Dixfield Nursing Home as the head maintenance supervisor from 1983 to 1998 and worked in the same capacity at Rumford Hospital for four years. He was a Mason in the King Hiram Lodge and a devoted member of the Dixfield American Legion, the Dixfield Congregational Church and the Rumford Veterans of Foreign Wars. He served the Town of Dixfield as a Selectman and Chairman on the Board of Selectmen for 18 years. Mr. Daley will be long remembered and sadly missed by his wife of over 47 years, Vawn, by his family and friends and by all those whose lives he touched; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 62)

Peter F. Miesburger, of Caribou. Mr. Miesburger was a veteran of the United States Air Force, retiring as a Master Sergeant with many years of active duty service in aircraft crash rescue and firefighting services, as chief of the Fire Protection Branch at several air bases in France, England and Alaska and as a Fire Protection Advisor assigned to Headquarters, Republic of Korea Air Force. After retiring, he was employed by the United States Air Force as Fire Chief at Loring Air Force Base and Hanscom Air Force Base, as well as Fire Station Attendant for the Town of Limestone. In the 1990s, he owned a successful fire prevention and safety business throughout Aroostook County. He was a life member of Lister-Knowlton VFW Post 9389, American Legion Post 15, VFW National Home, the Air Force Association, the Vietnam Veterans of America and Disabled American Veterans. He was a member of the Military Order of the Cootie and of the Korean Service Veterans' Association. He was a past Commander of the Department of Maine VFW, National VFW Chief of Staff, past Commander District One, Department of Maine VFW, Post Commander VFW Post 9389 for 5 terms and Quartermaster of VFW Post 9389. He was a founding father of the Northern Maine Veterans Cemetery in Caribou and a member of the Board of Trustees of Maine Veterans' Homes. He was known as an advocate for veterans' rights and entitlements, not only throughout the State but nationwide. Mr. Miesburger will be long remembered and sadly missed by his wife of over 50 years, Jean, by his family and friends and by all those whose lives he touched; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 63)

LEGISLATIVE RECORD – HOUSE APPENDIX
December 5, 2018 to December 1, 2020

the Gardiner Area High School Varsity Field Hockey Team, which won the Class B State Championship. Members of the team include Haley Brann, Madelin Walker, Sarah Foust, Aimee Adams, Jazmin Clary, Kristen Ladner, Maddie Farnham, Piper Lavoie, Amanda Cameron, Maggie Bell, Jillian Bisson, Lindsey Bell, Willow Lavoie, Lani Porter and Alyssa Gould; assistant coach Kristen Collins; and head coach Sharon Gallant. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 64)

the Marshwood High School Football Team, of South Berwick, which won the 2018 Class B State Championship. This is the team's 20th championship. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 65)

Allen Chartier, of Mexico, a captain of the Mexico Fire Department, who has been named the 2018 George Downs Memorial Firefighter of the Year. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 66)

Pinnacle Health and Rehab, of Canton, which received the Eli Pick Facility Leadership Award from the American College of Health Care Administrators, a distinction given to only seven percent of skilled nursing facilities nationwide. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 67)

Androscoggin Home Healthcare and Hospice, in Norway, which has been named the Oxford Hills Chamber of Commerce Business of the Year. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 68)

Barry E. Pottle, of Hermon, President and Chief Executive Officer of Pottle's Transportation, who has been named the 74th Chairman of the American Trucking Associations. In addition to his previous service as the First Vice Chairman of American Trucking Associations, Mr. Pottle has served as the chairman of Truck PAC, the Maine Motor Transport Association and the Truckload Carriers Association. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 69)

Tina Salzarulo, of Surry, who has received the Boston Post Cane, an honor given to the oldest citizen of a municipality. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 70)

Jacob Hobson, of Buxton, a member of Boy Scout Troop No. 349, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout. This is the highest award in Boy Scouting and is given for excellence in skills development, leadership, personal growth and community service. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 71)

Robert Arthur Brown, of Hanover. Mr. Brown was a veteran of the United States Army, having served during the Korean War. He had a lifelong career in timber harvesting and land management, incorporating both traditional logging practices using horses as his partners as well as modern machinery. His Plumbago Mountain Farm was the gateway to the famous Newry Quarries Complex, which he acquired and where he conducted exploratory mining for many years. Mr. Brown will be long remembered and sadly missed by his family and friends; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 72)

Cyndi Robbins, of Poland, Innkeeper of Poland Spring Resort, who has been presented with the Oxford Hills Chamber of Commerce Suzanne Grover Community Service Award. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 73)

the Town of Knox, which is celebrating its 200th Anniversary on February 19, 2019. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 74)

Sarah Warner, of Sanford, a former softball pitcher for the University of New England Softball Team, who has been inducted into the University of New England Varsity Club Athletics Hall of Fame. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 75)

Bob Bauman and Hollie Vanderzee, of Harpswell, leaders of Harpswell Aging at Home, who are recipients of a Real Heroes Community Service Award from the Central and Mid Coast Maine Chapter of the American Red Cross. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 76)

Gail Hart, of Harpswell, an emergency medical technician with Harpswell Neck Volunteer Fire and Rescue Department, who is a recipient of a Real Heroes Public Services Award from the Central and Mid Coast Maine Chapter of the American Red Cross. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 77)

the Town of Thorndike, which is celebrating its 200th Anniversary on February 19, 2019. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 78)

The Row House, Inc., of Hallowell, which is celebrating its 50th Anniversary. Row House, the steward of historic preservation in Hallowell, had its beginnings in the preservation of the Gage Block and its successful creation of the city's 207-acre historic district. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 79)

Machias Savings Bank, of Machias, which is celebrating its 150th Anniversary. In 1869, the bank was chartered as a mutual savings bank to serve the community, and its charter was signed by Joshua Chamberlain. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 80)

Colby McLean, of Birch Harbor, a student and player on the boys basketball team at Sumner Memorial High School, who recently scored his 1,000th career point. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 81) the Presque Isle Middle School Eighth-grade Boys Basketball Team, which won the Aroostook League Championship and had an 11-0 overall record. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 82) the Presque Isle Middle School Sixth- and Seventh-grade Girls Basketball Team, which won the Aroostook League Championship and had an 11-0 overall record. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 83)

Nicholas T. Collins, of Holden, a member of Scout Troop No. 44, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout. This is the highest award in Scouting and is given for excellence in skills development, leadership, personal growth and community service. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 84)

Main Street Skowhegan and the Town of Skowhegan, which set the new Guinness World Record for the most people moose calling simultaneously on June 9, 2018 at the Skowhegan Moose Festival. One thousand and fifty-four people participated in the attempt, led by Registered Maine Guide Roger Lambert. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 85)

Paul Bowen, of Penobscot, who is retiring as Selectman for the town after 25 years of public service. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 86)

the Gardiner Area High School Varsity Field Hockey Team, which won the Class B State Championship. Members of the team include Sada Chaisson, Haley Brann, Madelin Walker, Meagan Ladner, Sarah Foust, Aimee Adams, Jazmin Clary, Kristen Ladner, Maddie Farnham, Piper Lavoie, Leah Pushard, Olivia Tyler, Amanda Cameron, Maggie Bell, Jillian Bisson, Lindsey Bell, Willow Lavoie, Lani Porter, Trinity Marshall, Cassidy Collins, Alyssa Gould and Grace Deering; assistant coach Kristen Collins; and varsity coach Sharon Gallant. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 87)

LEGISLATIVE RECORD – HOUSE APPENDIX
December 5, 2018 to December 1, 2020

Matthew Brown, of Clinton, a senior at Lawrence High School, who is a recipient of a 2019 Principal's Award for outstanding academic achievement and citizenship, sponsored by the Maine Principals' Association. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 88)

Bernard D. Rackliffe, Sr., of Weld, to whom the Town of Weld has dedicated its Town Report for his service to the town and the people of the area. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 89)

the late Catherine "Kati" Sutton, of Waterville and Belgrade, who was memorialized by the Town of Belgrade in its Town Report for her contributions to the community; (HLS 90)

the Honorable Susan Jacques Pines, of Palo Alto, California and Limestone. Mrs. Pines was a nurse who helped her husband, Dr. Philip Pines, with his medical practice in Limestone. She was active in civic affairs in Limestone and in Aroostook County. She was the first female member of the Limestone Rotary, and the first female state legislator elected from Limestone, serving in the Maine House of Representatives from 1981 to 1992. She was active with the Limestone Historical Society, the Girl Scouts, the Limestone Library and the Limestone Republican Committee. When Loring Air Force Base closed, she was a leader of the group planning for the future of Limestone and setting up the Loring Development Authority. She was an early supporter of the Maine School of Science and Mathematics and was instrumental in helping to set up Pines Health Services. She also served on the Board of Cary Medical Center from 1995 to 2000. Mrs. Pines will be long remembered and sadly missed by her family and friends and all those whose lives she touched; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 91)

Lee Holbrook LeRoy, of Portland. Mrs. LeRoy was a graduate of and a competitive swimmer at the University of Maine. She worked as an educational technician with Windham Middle School and was also a Portland Partnership coordinator. Mrs. LeRoy will be long remembered and sadly missed by her husband, William, her family and friends and all those whose lives she touched; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 92)

the Reverend Darwin G. Vail, of Gray, who is retiring as Pastor of Bible Believing Baptist Church in Gray after over 37 years of service. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 93)

Alfie Walker, of Fryeburg, a student at Fryeburg Academy and a member of the boys Nordic ski team, who won the Class A State Nordic Skate Championship. We extend to Alfie our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 94)

Chloe Kirschmann, of Caribou, a student at Caribou High School and a member of the school's wrestling team, who won the Maine State Girls Wrestling Championship in the 220-pound Weight Class. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 95)

Lily Smith, of Falmouth, a student at Falmouth High School and a member of the school's swimming and diving team, who won the Girls Class A State Diving Championship. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 96)

O'Connor Auto Park, in Augusta, which has received the 2019 Large Business of the Year Award from the Kennebec Valley Chamber of Commerce. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 97)

Ally Waller, of Augusta, a senior at Cony High School, who is a recipient of a 2019 Principal's Award for outstanding academic achievement and citizenship, sponsored by the Maine Principals' Association. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 98)

the Central Aroostook High School Varsity Cheerleaders, of Mars Hill, who won the 2019 Class D State Championship. This was the team's sixth consecutive championship in Class D and eleventh overall in the past twelve years. Members of the team include Megan Brewer, Audrey Burt, Natalie Corson, Emma Fletcher, Amy Gerritsen, Gracie Giberson, Daisy Grant, Elizabeth Hotham, Madison Howlett, Mersaydez Johnston, Olivia Pelletier, Jenna Rusby, Jack Schafer, Janelle Tweedie and Jillian Tweedie; and coaches Sami Allen and Janice Lyons. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 99)

Danica Haskell, of Presque Isle, a freshman at Presque Isle High School, who has been named a Distinguished Finalist for 2019 by The Prudential Spirit of Community Awards, a nationwide program honoring young people for outstanding acts of volunteerism. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 100)

Kassidy Mathers, of Island Falls, a senior at Southern Aroostook Community School, who is a recipient of a 2019 Principal's Award for outstanding academic achievement and citizenship, sponsored by the Maine Principals' Association. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 101)

the Central Maine Christian Academy Boys and Girls Basketball Teams, of Lewiston, which won the Maine Christian School Sports League Basketball Championships. Members of the teams include Calvin Jeselskis, Grant Jeselskis, Jaden Legare, Bobby Simond, Alex Hilton, Owen Drake, Gavin Trafford, Dolan Shane, Kallie St. Hilaire, Hannah St. Hilaire, Rachael Frye, Brianna Johnson, Judith Ross, Katelyn Burnette, Anna Wilkins, Olivia Morrisette, Jordan Drake, Abi Hilton and Olivia Sepulveda; and coaches Randy Jeselskis and Jake St. Hilaire. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 102)

the Reverend Lionel Gerard Chouinard, of Lewiston, a priest of the Catholic Diocese of Portland. Over 52 years in active, full-time ministry, Father Chouinard served as parochial vicar or assistant pastor at St. Christopher Parish on Peaks Island, St. Thomas Aquinas Parish in Madawaska and Holy Cross Parish in Lewiston, including as part-time chaplain at St. Dominic High School and as temporary administrator of the parish, and as pastor at Holy Name of Jesus Parish in Machias, St. Theresa of the Infant Jesus Parish in Mexico, St. Augustine Parish in Augusta and Holy Trinity Parish in Lisbon Falls, also assuming responsibility for Our Lady of the Rosary Parish in Sabattus and its Mission, St. Francis, in Greene. He later served as administrator of the parish communities in Lisbon Falls, Sabattus and Green. He also served with the Knights of Columbus and the Daughters of Isabella as a chaplain, as well as with many other organizations. Father Chouinard will be long remembered and sadly missed by his family and friends and all those whose lives he touched; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 103)

Ray LeRoy Cole, of Bethel. While engaged in a career as a high school history teacher and superintendent of schools in Florida and New York, in 1959 Mr. Cole bought a large camp property on Great Pond in Belgrade Lakes with his brother, starting a long-term familial bond with the State that continues today. In 2001 he took up full-time residence in Bethel. He will be long remembered and sadly missed by his wife of 64 years, Joan, and by his family and friends; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 104)

Madison "Maddy" Anne Graham, of Eliot. Ms. Graham was raised in South Berwick and Eliot, attended York High School and Marshwood High School and graduated from Arthur R. Gould School. She was a talented artist, writer and singer. She will be long remembered and sadly missed by her family and friends and all those whose lives she touched; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 105)

LEGISLATIVE RECORD – HOUSE APPENDIX
December 5, 2018 to December 1, 2020

the Cony High School Swim Team, of Augusta, which won the Kennebec Valley Athletic Conference Girls and Boys Class A Championships. Senior Nathaniel Berry set a state record in the 50-yard freestyle event with a time of 20.70 seconds. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 106)

Mari Warner, of Saco, a physical education teacher at Falmouth High School, who was inducted into the Maine Basketball Hall of Fame for her careers as a basketball player and coach at both the high school and collegiate levels. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 107) the Wiscasset Christian Academy Girls Volleyball Team, which won the Education League State Championship for the second year in a row. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 108) the Lisbon High School Cheerleading Team, which won the Class C State Championship, the team's third state title in five years. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 109)

Michael Bachelder, of Skowhegan, a detective with the Skowhegan Police Department, who has received the department's 2018 Officer of the Year Award in recognition of his dedication and commitment to bringing closure to sexual assault victims in the town. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 110)

Manley Brackett, of Limington, who has received the Boston Post Cane, an honor given to the oldest citizen of a municipality. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 111)

Harry Kaiserian, Jr., of Castine, a retired Commander of the United States Navy. Commander Kaiserian spent most of the first part of his naval career at sea. He attended the United States Naval War College and served on the Joint Chiefs of Staff. In 1984, he began teaching as a Professor of Naval Science at the Maine Maritime Academy, and he continued on as Registrar after his retirement from the Navy. He was active in many local organizations, including the Friends of the Witherle Library, the Bagaduce Ambulance Corps, the Wilson Museum, the Senior College at Belfast and the Castine Men's Club. An avid cook, he engaged many readers of the Penobscot Bay Press with his collected recipes and the stories that accompanied them and published a cookbook, K's Kwisine. Commander Kaiserian will be long remembered and sadly missed by his family and friends and all those whose lives he touched; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 112)

Arthur R. St. Peter, of Otis. Mr. St. Peter served in the United States Army in 1970 with the 101st Airborne Division in Vietnam. He was employed with Sea-land Service, Inc. as a Chief Engineer until his retirement in 2000. Mr. St. Peter will be long remembered and sadly missed by his family and friends; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 113)

Richard Stanley Soper, Jr., of Verona Island. Dr. Soper studied entomology, mycology and ecology and spent more than 25 years researching insect pathology. He had over 10 years of administrative and supervisory management experience in improving our nation's ability to maintain its dominant role in agriculture. He was area director of microbial biological control for the United States Government for the state of Georgia and was a research leader with extensive publications and 3 patents on production of insect fungi. He served in the United States Naval Reserve and also was a Mason. Dr. Soper will be long remembered and sadly missed by his family and friends; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 114)

Dallis K. Saunders, of Bucksport. Mrs. Saunders will be long remembered and sadly missed by her family and friends; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 115)

Maynard Donald St. Peter, of Caribou. Mr. St. Peter was a veteran of the United States Army, having served in Germany with the Army Corps of Engineers during the Korean War. He was an active member of the Holy Rosary Catholic Church. Mr. St. Peter will be long remembered and sadly missed by his wife of 58 years, Velma, and by his family and friends; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 116)

Nicholas Anthony Shelton, of China, a member of Troop No. 479, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout. This is the highest award in Scouting and is given for excellence in skills development, leadership, personal growth and community service. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 117)

Alexander Joseph Stewart, of Augusta, a member of Troop No. 479, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout. This is the highest award in Scouting and is given for excellence in skills development, leadership, personal growth and community service. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 118)

the Oxford Hills Comprehensive High School Girls Varsity Basketball Team, of South Paris, which won the Class AA State Championship. Members of the team include Cassidy Dumont, Ella Kellogg, Ceceila Dieterich, Maggie Hartnett, Brooke Carson, Jade Smedberg, Julia Colby, Jadah Adams, Bailey Whitney and Viktoria Sugars; assistant coaches Matt Corbett, Cimeron Colby and Crystal West; and varsity coach Nate Pelletier. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 119)

the Oxford Hills Comprehensive High School Boys Varsity Basketball Team, of South Paris, which won the Class AA North Sportsmanship Award. Members of the team include Jonny Pruett, Spencer Strong, Garrett Record, Jesse Leonard, Ty LeBlond, Keegan Watson, Will Dieterich, Logan Sumner, Colton Carson, Janek Luksza, Colby Huckins, Tanner Herrick, Patrick Paine and Hayden Paine; assistant coach Joe Oufiero; and head coach Scott Graffam. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 120)

the Mt. Ararat and Brunswick Combined Wrestling Team, of Topsham and Brunswick, which won the Class A State Wrestling Championship, the program's first state title. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 121)

Ijeoma Obi, of Bangor, who has received a Hardy Girls Healthy Women Girls Rock! STEM-gineer of the Year Award for her success in the sciences. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 122)

Judy Ingram, of Parsonsfield, to whom the Town of Porter has dedicated its Town Report for her volunteer work and helping the people of the Kezar Falls area. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 123)

Timothy Roche, of Wells, coach of the Wells High School Football Team, who has been named the 2017-2018 Maine State Football Coach of the Year by the National Federation of State High School Associations and the Maine Principals' Association. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 124)

Joseph Buccina, of Rumford, who has received the Boston Post Cane, an honor given to the oldest citizen of a municipality. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 125)

the Woolwich Central School Boys Basketball Team, which won the Busline League Championship. Members of the team include Gavin Baillargeon, David Brown, Andrew Card, Nicholas Pesce, Atticus Simpson-Brown, Rainier Eich, Teagan Slone, Stone Medina, Sam Wilson, Isaiah Kilton, Sebastian Lafer, Trace McFarland and Thomas MacMahan; manager Sophie Harrigan; and coach Shawn Elwell. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 126)

LEGISLATIVE RECORD – HOUSE APPENDIX
December 5, 2018 to December 1, 2020

the Woolwich Central School Girls Basketball Team, which won the Southern Division Championship. Members of the team include Edie McKay, Madysin Rittell, Alexandria Hall, Michaela Pettersen, Hollis James, Gretchen Johnston, Haley Kirkpatrick, Emaleigh Moniz, Chasity Rutledge, Apple Smith, Alexis Melvin and Izzabella Simmons; manager Sophie Harrigan; and coach Shawn Elwell. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 127)

Erik Benner, of Waldoboro, a student at Medomak Valley High School and a member of the wrestling team, who won the Class B State Championship in the 220-pound Weight Class. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 128)

Elias Miller, of Union, a student at Medomak Valley High School and a member of the wrestling team, who won the Class B State Championship in the 160-pound Weight Class. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 129)

the Medomak Valley High School Cheerleading Squad, of Waldoboro, which won the Kennebec Valley Athletic Conference Class B Championship, the team's fifth consecutive KVAC Class B championship victory. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 130)

Thomas P. Goulette, of Guilford, who is retiring as Town Manager of Guilford after over 20 years of public service, with 18 years of service as town manager. Mr. Goulette is a past president of the Maine Town, City and County Management Association and has received the association's Leadership Award. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 131)

Adam John DeWitt, of Sidney, a member of Troop No. 401, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout. This is the highest award in Scouting and is given for excellence in skills development, leadership, personal growth and community service. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 132)

Janice Reed, of Rumford. Mrs. Reed was a licensed real estate broker, working for Shea Real Estate and then Century 21, later forming her own company, Sunnyside Properties, and retiring in 1997. She was very active in the community, having served as President of the Greater Rumford Chamber of Commerce and as a long-term officer of the Rumford Community Home Board of Directors. She was a charter member of the Rumford Book Club for over 45 years and served in various leadership positions. She served as a ballot clerk, was a Christmas in the Valley volunteer for many years and was a longtime member of the Rumford Polar Bears Snowmobile Club. Mrs. Reed will be long remembered and sadly missed by her husband of over 50 years, Thomas, by her family and friends and by all those whose lives she touched; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 133)

the following members of the Windham High School Girls Basketball Team, who have won the 2019 Class AA North Good Sportsmanship Award: Meghan Hoffses; Riley Beem; Alanna Joyce; Hannah Talon; Sarah Talon; Anna Drummond; Molly Hodgkins; Kayla Gorman, Alexis Hirning; Emily Drummond; Mikayla Baiguy; Tara Flanders; Estella Inman; head coach Brody Artes; assistant coach EJ Regan; and assistant coach Mike Flanders. This is the third time in four years the team has received this award. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 134)

the Bonny Eagle High School Girls Cross Country Track Team, of Standish, which won the Class A State Championship. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 135)

the Bonny Eagle High School Boys Basketball Team, of Standish, which won the Class AA South Championship. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 136)

the Skowhegan Area High School Speech Team, which won the Speech Sweepstakes at the Maine Forensic Association State Championship Speech and Debate Tournament. This is the team's second state championship victory in three years. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 137)

Gary Joseph Sacco, of Poland, Chief of the Oxford Fire and Rescue Department, who died shortly after honoring one of his fallen brother firefighters. Chief Sacco became involved with various fire and rescue departments after high school, being passionate about firefighting, and later became Fire Chief for the Town of New Gloucester and also represented the Poland Fire Department before joining Oxford's department. He was a past member of the Metropolitan Fire Chiefs and a current member of the Italian Heritage Center in Portland, Maine Fire Chiefs' Association, International Association of Fire Chiefs and Coastal Mutual Aid, and he was an instructor with the Maine Fire Service Institute. Chief Sacco will be long remembered and sadly missed by his family, friends and fellow firefighters; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 138)

Lydia Gilman, of China, a junior at Erskine Academy, who won first prize at the 2019 Maine's Got Talent Competition singing "If I Ain't Got You Babe." We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 139)

the Brunswick Town Commons, which was established in 1719 as 1,000 acres of common land by the Pejepsot Proprietors and which was crucial in shaping the community of Brunswick as well as Bowdoin College and First Parish Church. The commons was one of the first public lands established in Maine and an early example of community planning in the State and nation and remains a window to the past, a popular recreation destination and a living laboratory. We extend our congratulations and best wishes on the 300th Anniversary of the Brunswick Town Commons; (HLS 140)

Mikayla Reynolds, of North Vassalboro, who has received a Hardy Girls Healthy Women Girls Rock! Community Organizer of the Year Award for seeing the importance of a united community and working to make it happen. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 141)

Chad Johnston, of Lyman, who retired as Deputy Chief of Goodwin's Mills Fire-Rescue after over 30 years of service. Mr. Johnston is receiving the department's Medal of Merit for his service to the towns of Dayton and Lyman as a firefighter, emergency medical technician, fire officer and deputy chief from October 1987 to June 2018. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 142)

the Honorable Roger Reed, of Hermon, Representative of District 103 in the Maine House of Representatives, who has received the Maine Association of Basketball Coaches Bob Brown Contributor Award for his long, successful career as a basketball coach for the youth of the Bangor area. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 143)

the Honorable Sawin Millett, of Waterford, Representative of District 71 in the Maine House of Representatives, who is receiving the Maine Development Foundation 2018 Kenneth M. Curtis Award, which recognizes the efforts of Leadership Maine Alumni who have given selflessly of themselves and demonstrated exceptional leadership in achieving extraordinary things for Maine. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 144)

John Rives Crumpton, Jr., of Oxford, to whom the Town of Oxford has dedicated its Town Report for his service to the

LEGISLATIVE RECORD – HOUSE APPENDIX
December 5, 2018 to December 1, 2020

Nation and his community. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 145)

Sharon Matthews, of Otisfield, to whom the Town of Otisfield is dedicating its Town Report for her long service to the town, including as Clerk, Tax Collector, Treasurer and Registrar of Voters. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 146)

Jacob Bernard, of Mechanic Falls, a senior at Poland Regional High School, who is a recipient of a 2019 Principal's Award for outstanding academic achievement and citizenship, sponsored by the Maine Principals' Association. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 147)

Todd's Salsa, of Glenburn, whose Maple Salsa, Ghost Pepper Salsa and Inner Beauty Hot Sauce won first place in their respective categories at the 2019 World Hot Sauce Awards in Louisiana. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 148)

Galaxie Salsa Company, of Buxton, whose Red Roof Hot and Pin-up Pineapple won second place in their respective categories at the 2019 World Hot Sauce Awards in Louisiana. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 149)

Carol A. Fogg, of Raymond Pond and Punta Gorda, Florida. Mrs. Fogg was a deacon of the East Raymond Chapel and the Alligator Park Chapel. She worked for many years in the banking industry and alongside her husband of 54 years, Robert, in their business, Lakes Region Property Management Company. She was a past member of Eastern Star in Ellsworth and was involved with the Age-Friendly Raymond program. She was very involved in missionary work in Florida working with literacy programs and shoebox Christmas packages for the Immokalee Migrant Workers Program. She organized, prepared and presented the annual Remembrance Celebration at Alligator Park and participated in various care package programs to support our soldiers overseas. Mrs. Fogg will be long remembered and sadly missed by her family and friends and all those whose lives she touched; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 150)

Guyula B. Thompson, of Beals. Mrs. Thompson studied at the Baxter School for the Deaf for a number of years before returning to Beals and becoming actively engaged in the island's activities. She was a member of the Beals Advent Christian Church. Mrs. Thompson will be long remembered and sadly missed by her family and friends; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 151)

the Schenck High School Boys Basketball Team, of East Millinocket, which won the Class D North Championship. Members of the team include players Austin DeRoos, Bryce Pennell, Ethan Pelkey, Travis Thompson, Andrew Goulas, Colby Hannan, Mason Smith, Isaac Adams, Keegan Cottle, Regan Currie, Tyrone Davis, Ryker Ladd, Jesse Stanley, Jonathan Blaisdell and Kaden Hannan; managers Jada Kimball and Austyn Fox; assistant coach Kevin Giberson, and coach Darrick Thompson. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 152)

Captain Mowatt's, of Portland, whose Canceaux Sauce, Jolly Roger and Cololoco won first place in their respective categories at the 2019 World Hot Sauce Awards in Louisiana. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 153)

the Tibbetts Memorial Park Revitalization Committee, of Limerick, to which the Town of Limerick has dedicated its Town Report for its contributions to the town. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 154) the late Carleton L. Moore, the late Larry P. Worster and the late Harper Rhyann Constance Hale, all of Moose River, to whom the Town of Moose River has dedicated its Town Report: Mr. Moore served as a town selectman for 21 years; Mr. Worster was a well-known and lifelong resident of the town; and Harper brought much love and joy to her family and community; (HLS 155)

Guy Anton, of Athens, to whom the Town of Athens has dedicated its Town Report for his long service to the town. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 156)

Walter Grybz, of Lovell, who retired as a lieutenant with the Maine State Police after 29 years of service. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 157)

Tamra Benson, of Turner, a senior at Leavitt Area High School, who is a recipient of a 2019 Principal's Award for outstanding academic achievement and citizenship, sponsored by the Maine Principals' Association. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 158)

William Medd, of Norway, who has received the first-ever Legacy Award from the Oxford Hills Chamber of Commerce for his commitment to the communities of the Oxford hills and the growth of Western Maine Health and Stephens Memorial Hospital, along with the integration of the hospital and services into MaineHealth. For 45 years, Dr. Medd has served the needs of thousands of patients with a focus on bringing accessible health care to rural areas. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 159)

the Hermon High School varsity cheerleaders, who won the 2019 Class B State Championship, their third consecutive championship and the program's eighth in the last nine years. Members of the squad include Alanna Berube, Jasmine Boulier, Brooklyn Brown, Ella Campbell, Kalley Curry, Cali Cyr, Mercedes Davis, Madison Despault, Hailey Gogan, Maddy Higgins, Kristen Lusignan, Hannah Morin, Olivia Nash, Riley Perry, Alexis Raymond, Caitlin Whitehouse and Torria Wittmer; assistant coach Christina Paradis; and coach Kristie Reed. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 160)

Sumner "Sam" Webber, of Hallowell, who is retiring from the Board of the Hubbard Free Library after over 20 years of service, and whose contributions were critical to successfully sorting, cataloging, storing and increasing the library's collection of historic artifacts and documents. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 161)

Kevin Dennison, of Pittston, a deputy sheriff with the Lincoln County Sheriff's Office, who has been named Deputy Sheriff of the Year. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 162)

Louise Adele Bedell, of Camden, who is celebrating her 100th Birthday on May 8, 2019. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 163) the Winthrop High School Boys Basketball Team, which won the Class C State Championship. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 164)

Betsy Parsons, of South Portland, who retired after teaching in Portland public schools for 30 years. Ms. Parsons has been a leader in supporting the education of lesbian, gay, bisexual and transgender students, helping to found in 1996 the southern Maine chapter of the Gay Lesbian and Straight Education Network in order to make schools safe for students, regardless of sexual orientation or gender identity. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 165) the Cape Elizabeth High School Boys Ski Team, which won the Class B Alpine Championship for the second year in a row. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 166) the Cape Elizabeth High School Girls Swim Team, which won the Class B State Championship. Senior Olivia Tighe broke the state record in the 200 freestyle with a time of 1:50.21. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 167)

LEGISLATIVE RECORD – HOUSE APPENDIX
December 5, 2018 to December 1, 2020

the Cape Elizabeth High School Boys Basketball Team, which won the Class B South Championship. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 168)

Darcy Cochran, of Cape Elizabeth, a junior at Cape Elizabeth High School and a member of the girls indoor track team, who won the Class B Championship in the 55 meter hurdles. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 169)

Moriah Geer, of Old Town, the Moxie Case Coach at Maine Equal Justice Partners, who has received the Sharon Barker Student Activism Award from the University of Maine Women's, Gender, and Sexuality Studies Program. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 170)

Willis Roy Hutchins, of Winter Harbor, a member of Troop No. 86, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout. This is the highest award in Scouting and is given for excellence in skills development, leadership, personal growth and community service. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 171)

Wicked Water Graphics, of South Paris, a unique hydrographic printing business, which has received the Rising Star of the Year Award from the Oxford Hills Chamber of Commerce. We extend to owners David Kelso and Linda Engelhardt our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 172)

Barbara Hooper, of Paris, Nutritional Services Manager at the Maine Veterans' Home in South Paris, who has received the Employee of the Year Award from the Oxford Hills Chamber of Commerce. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 173)

Brian M. Jellison, of Augusta, who is retiring as a Principal Auditor with the Audit Bureau of the Office of the State Auditor after 37 years of public service. Mr. Jellison began his career as an entry-level auditor in 1982 and is one of the three remaining OSA auditors who worked at the Department of Audit before it transitioned into the independent office. For his committed and unwavering dedication to public service and the quality of his work, he was recognized as the OSA 2018 Manager of the Year. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 174)

Bruce Harrington, of Fairfield, who is receiving the Elias A. Joseph Award from the Mid-Maine Chamber of Commerce. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 175)

Jessie Wing, of Sidney, who is receiving the Customer Service Stardom Award from the Mid-Maine Chamber of Commerce. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 176)

RiverWalk at Head of Falls, in Waterville, which is receiving the Community Service Project Award from the Mid-Maine Chamber of Commerce. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 177)

Maurice and Son Auto Body Shop, in Waterville, which is receiving the Business of the Year Award from the Mid-Maine Chamber of Commerce. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 178)

Jim Laliberty, of Waterville, who is receiving the Distinguished Community Service Award from the Mid-Maine Chamber of Commerce. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 179)

Jeff Forsythe, of Falmouth, who is receiving the Business Person of the Year Award from the Mid-Maine Chamber of Commerce. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 180)

Victor Esposito, Jr., of Oakland, who is receiving the Outstanding Professional Award from the Mid-Maine Chamber of Commerce. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 181)

Brandi Meisner, of Skowhegan, who is receiving the Rising Star Award from the Mid-Maine Chamber of Commerce. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 182)

Angler's Restaurant, of Newport, which has received the 2019 Business of the Year Award from the Sebasticook Valley Chamber of Commerce. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 183)

Sue Nile, of Corinna, who has received the 2019 Joyce Packard Community Spirit Award from the Sebasticook Valley Chamber of Commerce. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 184)

Brian Bowman, of Newport, who has received the 2019 Delmar L. Doody Award from the Sebasticook Valley Chamber of Commerce. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 185)

Elizabeth L. Tibbetts, of Poland, a senior at Poland Regional High School, who has received the Western Maine Athletic Conference Citizenship Award. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 186)

Fardowsa Muktar, of Lewiston, who has received a Hardy Girls Healthy Women Girls Rock! Health Promoter of the Year Award for supporting and working on wellness policies and programs that promote healthy lifestyles and choices. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 187)

Kendra Sweet, of Concord Township, a senior at Upper Kennebec Valley High School, who is a recipient of a 2019 Principal's Award for outstanding academic achievement and citizenship, sponsored by the Maine Principals' Association. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 188)

Isaac Currier, of Mapleton, a senior at Easton Junior/Senior High School, who is a recipient of a 2019 Principal's Award for outstanding academic achievement and citizenship, sponsored by the Maine Principals' Association. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 189)

Charles D. Libby III, of Windham, who is retiring as a Master Sergeant with the Portland Police Department after almost 25 years of service. Master Sergeant Libby has served as a member of the Special Reaction Team, Tactical Enforcement Unit and as a Field Training officer. He has also worked for Customs and Border Protection and as a United States Marshal. He is a regular instructor, and was Cadre, at the Maine Criminal Justice Academy. He began his career in law enforcement in 1992 with the Mount Desert Police Department. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 190)

Bessie M. House, of Bryant Pond. Mrs. House was a member of the Daughters of Union Veterans, Judith Grover Tent #17 in Bryant Pond for 73 years. Mrs. House will be long remembered and sadly missed by her husband of nearly 69 years, Belmont, and her family and friends; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 191)

Clayton Larrabee, of Knox. Mr. Larrabee was a noted supporter of the Town of Knox, donating land for ball fields and a horse show arena. He was a supporter of the Knox Booster Club and the Knox Historical Society and worked on the town's bicentennial party. He was instrumental in restoring the Knox schoolhouse and offered horse-drawn carriage and sleigh rides at the Christmas tree lighting celebration. Mr. Larrabee will be long remembered and sadly missed by his family and friends and all those whose lives he touched; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 192)

Claire Walker, of Poland, who is celebrating her 90th Birthday. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 193)

Aislynn Laurel Savage, of China, who recently saved the life of her mother and her own life and was recognized by China

Volunteer Fire and Rescue for her lifesaving actions. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 194)

the Central Maine Community College Women's Basketball Team, of Auburn, which won the United States Collegiate Athletic Association Division 2 National Championship. This is the team's second championship victory in three years. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 195)

the Gray-New Gloucester High School Varsity Football Team, in Gray, which won the 2018 Vinny DiFillipo Southwestern Maine Football Officials Team Sportsmanship Award. Members of the team include Paul Hewey, Connor Myatt, Nicholas Nimblett, Andrew Topham, Jared Deschenes, Mikey Foster, Gabriel Gendreau, Scott Lynch, Sabin Merrill, Isaiah Thongsavangh, Ra'Shawn Wright, Tyler Begin, Zebadiah Dufresne, Colin Hayward, Joey Johnson, Trent Overcrash, Tristan Ward, Ben Wildes, Cory DiTomaso, Travis Caron, Griffyn Gomes, Jake Hall, Seb Leighton, Max MacCallum, Ben Pierce and Jeremiah Pye; assistant coach Seth Johnson; and head coach Brian Jahna. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 196)

Harry Orser, of Mars Hill, for his 50 years of membership with the International Association of Approved Basketball Officials, Board #150, officiating games for the youth of the State and serving as board secretary/treasurer, rules interpreter and trainer. We extend our best wishes; (HLS 197)

the Greely High School Boys Basketball Team, of Cumberland, which won the Class A State Championship, the team's third consecutive state championship. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 198)

the Greely High School Girls Basketball Team, of Cumberland, which won the Class A State Championship, the team's second consecutive state championship. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 199)

Haley Stark, of Falmouth, who has received a Hardy Girls Healthy Women Girls Rock! Against the Odds Award for redefining the term "able" and helping to make positive changes for girls in Maine. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 200)

Rylee Saucier, of Caribou, a student at Caribou High School, who was the runner-up in the 113-pound Weight Class at the inaugural Maine Principals' Association Girls State Wrestling Tournament. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 201)

Anthony Woods, of Garland, who won a Gold Medal in the Criminal Justice Category at the 2019 SkillsUSA Maine Championship, a state-level competition for high school and college students enrolled in trade, technical and skilled service instructional programs. He will represent Maine at the National Leadership and Skills Conference in Kentucky. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 202)

Ivanka Hernandez, of Garland, who won a Gold Medal in the Criminal Justice Category at the 2019 SkillsUSA Maine Championship, a state-level competition for high school and college students enrolled in trade, technical and skilled service instructional programs. She will represent Maine at the National Leadership and Skills Conference in Kentucky. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 203)

James G. Sappier, Sr., of Indian Island, a veteran of the United States Air Force and a major figure in Indian politics and culture in the State. Mr. Sappier spent most of his life working to make policies and conditions on Indian Island, in Maine and in the country better for Native Americans. In 1970, he went to work on Indian Island for Mainstream for a year before accepting a coordinator position with the Federal Regional Council in Boston. In 1976, he accepted the administrator position at

Passamaquoddy Pleasant Point. Returning to Indian Island to accept the Director of Trust Responsibilities, he also served as the Chairman of the New England Indian Task Force and was on the Maine Indian Land Claims negotiating committee. In 1982, he accepted the administrator position for the Penobscot Nation. He spent 10 years working in Boston as a Regional Indian Program Manager for the EPA and was Director of USET for 2 years. He served many years as a Penobscot Nation Council Member, Penobscot Representative to Maine and Lieutenant Governor and served multiple terms as Penobscot Chief. Mr. Sappier will be long remembered and sadly missed by his wife of 55 years, Bonnie, his family and friends and all those whose lives he touched; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 204)

the Cheverus/Kennebunk/Old Orchard Beach Girls Hockey Team, of Portland, which won the State Championship. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 205)

Mary and Leo Moody, of Winthrop, who are celebrating their 50th Wedding Anniversary on April 11, 2019. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 206)

Jon and Rosemary Hentz, of Georgetown, who celebrated their 50th Wedding Anniversary on March 27, 2019. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 207)

Dale Chadbourne, of Woolwich, who has been inducted into the Maine Motorsports Hall of Fame. In 2013, Mr. Chadbourne, who has been involved in racing for 50 years, was honored by the Northeast Motorsports Expo for his efforts in keeping the Wiscasset Speedway open. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 208)

Gabriel E. Stocco, of Belgrade, upon his passing at ten years of age. Gabriel touched the hearts of many. He will be long remembered and sadly missed by his family and friends and all those who knew him; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 209)

Will Hays, of Winthrop, who has received both the Evans Spear Award and the Class B South Goaltender of the Year Award from the Class B Coaches Association. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 210)

Nancy MacRae, of Saco, on her retirement. Professor MacRae, an occupational therapist, is a Professor Emeritus of the University of New England. She worked at the Bureau of Mental Retardation before becoming the chief occupational therapist at Pineland Center for 7 years and Program Director for the Aging Cluster. In 1990, she moved to the university, where she served as the Academic Fieldwork Coordinator and as an Assistant Professor and Associate Professor as well as department chair for 6 years. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 211)

Annie Cooke, of Cornville, a senior at Skowhegan Area High School, who has been named the Girls Basketball Player of the Year by the Morning Sentinel. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 212)

David J. Marshall, of Fryeburg, a senior at Fryeburg Academy, who is a recipient of a 2019 Principal's Award for outstanding academic achievement and citizenship, sponsored by the Maine Principals' Association. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 213)

Ana Eliza Souza Cunha, of Orono, who has earned the distinction of being named Salutatorian of the 2019 graduating class of the University of Maine. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 214)

Aila Farrell, of Orono, a Girl Scout who has received the Girl Scout Silver Award. This is the second highest award in Girl Scouting and is given for excellence in skills development, leadership, personal growth and community service. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 215)

LEGISLATIVE RECORD – HOUSE APPENDIX
December 5, 2018 to December 1, 2020

Josie Veilleux, of Orono, a Girl Scout who has received the Girl Scout Silver Award. This is the second highest award in Girl Scouting and is given for excellence in skills development, leadership, personal growth and community service. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 216)

Megan Brewer, of Orono, a Girl Scout who has received the Girl Scout Silver Award. This is the second highest award in Girl Scouting and is given for excellence in skills development, leadership, personal growth and community service. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 217)

Noah White, of Washburn, a senior at Washburn District High School, who is a recipient of a 2019 Principal's Award for outstanding academic achievement and citizenship, sponsored by the Maine Principals' Association. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 218)

Annika Nicholas, of Blaine, a senior at Central Aroostook Junior/Senior High School, who is a recipient of a 2019 Principal's Award for outstanding academic achievement and citizenship, sponsored by the Maine Principals' Association. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 219)

Luke M. Conroy, of Berwick, a senior at Noble High School, who is a recipient of a 2019 Principal's Award for outstanding academic achievement and citizenship, sponsored by the Maine Principals' Association. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 220)

Isabella Messer, of Raymond, recently a Webelos Scout of Pack #51 and now in Scouts BSA, who has been selected as one of twelve delegates from across the country to deliver to the United States Congress the 2018 Report to the Nation. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 221)

Sebastian Shields, of Saco, a seventh grade student at Saco Middle School, who won the Maine State Spelling Bee and will compete at the Scripps National Spelling Bee in National Harbor, Maryland. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 222)

Matthew J. Chapman, of Wiscasset, a senior at Wiscasset Middle High School, who is a recipient of a 2019 Principal's Award for outstanding academic achievement and citizenship, sponsored by the Maine Principals' Association. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 223)

Margaret R. Bragg, of Buckfield, a senior at Buckfield Junior-Senior High School, who is a recipient of a 2019 Principal's Award for outstanding academic achievement and citizenship, sponsored by the Maine Principals' Association. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 224)

Hayden Caldwell, of Pittsfield, a senior at Maine Central Institute, who is a recipient of a 2019 Principal's Award for outstanding academic achievement and citizenship, sponsored by the Maine Principals' Association. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 225)

Rylee Sawyer, of Parsonsfield, a senior at Sacopee Valley High School, who is a recipient of a 2019 Principal's Award for outstanding academic achievement and citizenship, sponsored by the Maine Principals' Association. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 226)

Mikayla Tripp, of Verona Island, a senior at Bucksport High School, who is a recipient of a 2019 Principal's Award for outstanding academic achievement and citizenship, sponsored by the Maine Principals' Association. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 227)

Zackary J. Coughlan, of Hancock, a senior at Sumner Memorial High School, who is a recipient of a 2019 Principal's Award for outstanding academic achievement and citizenship, sponsored by the Maine Principals' Association. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 228)

Bill Sneed, of Prospect, to whom, for contributions to the community, the Town of Prospect has dedicated its Town Report. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 229)

Vivian Smart, of Prospect, who has received the Boston Post Cane, an honor given to the oldest citizen of a municipality. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 230)

Donald Wight, a resident of the Island Nursing Home and Care Facility in Deer Isle, who is the recipient of a Certificate of Lifetime Achievement Award from the Maine Health Care Association's Remember ME project, which honors pioneering, innovative and interesting residents living in Maine's long-term care facilities. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 231)

Diane Terry, of Prospect, who is retiring as a selectman of the Town of Prospect. Ms. Terry began service as a selectman in 1992, having already served as a member of the town's planning board from 1977 to 1992. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 232)

Natalie McCarthy, of Lincoln, a senior at Mattanawcook Academy, who is a recipient of a 2019 Principal's Award for outstanding academic achievement and citizenship, sponsored by the Maine Principals' Association. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 233)

Natalie McCarthy, of Lincoln, who has earned the distinction of being named Salutatorian of the 2019 graduating class of Mattanawcook Academy. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 234)

Lynn Dwelley, of Lincoln, who has earned the distinction of being named Valedictorian of the 2019 graduating class of Mattanawcook Academy. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 235)

James D. Boyd, of Corinna, a senior at Nokomis Regional High School, who is a recipient of a 2019 Principal's Award for outstanding academic achievement and citizenship, sponsored by the Maine Principals' Association. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 236)

Shannon K. O'Roak, of Dexter, a senior at Dexter Regional High School, who is a recipient of a 2019 Principal's Award for outstanding academic achievement and citizenship, sponsored by the Maine Principals' Association. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 237)

Olivia McPherson, of Albion, a senior at Mount View High School, who is a recipient of a 2019 Principal's Award for outstanding academic achievement and citizenship, sponsored by the Maine Principals' Association. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 238)

Alice Cockerham, of Kingfield, a senior at Mt. Abram High School, who is a recipient of a 2019 Principal's Award for outstanding academic achievement and citizenship, sponsored by the Maine Principals' Association. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 239)

Acadia Lane, of Warren, a Girl Scout who has received the Girl Scout Silver Award. This is the second highest award in Girl Scouting and is given for excellence in skills development, leadership, personal growth and community service. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 240)

Jeremy M. Cole, of Bucksport, on his being named the Eastern Maine Community College Student of the Year. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 241)

Robert Glidden, of Orrington. In 1943, Mr. Glidden enlisted in the United States Armed Forces, serving in the 738th Anti-Aircraft Battalion attached to the 2nd Marine Division for the invasion of

LEGISLATIVE RECORD – HOUSE APPENDIX
December 5, 2018 to December 1, 2020

the Mariana Islands during World War II. He started his own business, Glidden Auto Body, after working many years for Bangor Auto Body. He was a 32nd Degree Master Mason, a member of the Anah Shriners, of Bangor, an active member of the Veterans of Foreign Wars, a member of the Orrington Historical Society and a member of the First United Methodist Church. Mr. Glidden will be long remembered and sadly missed by his family and friends; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 242)

Shawn Alan Richards, of Orono. He will be long remembered and sadly missed by his wife of 21 years, Nicole, and his family and friends; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 243)

Wendall L. Tremblay, of Orono. Mr. Tremblay enlisted in the United States Army in 1959 and worked as an instructor at the United States Armed Services Information School at Fort Slocum, New York. He later went to work at the Maine Department of Inland Fisheries and Wildlife as an information specialist before leaving the department to devote himself to writing. He wrote many newspaper and magazine articles, wrote an adventure novel, Siberian Rescue, wrote and published the Maine Outdoorsman's Guide and was the creator of The Maine Sportsman magazine. He worked as a national sales manager for the Wiscasset-based Lincoln Canoe Company and later for Old Town Canoe. He headed up his own agency, Atlantic Associates, representing outdoor products, before becoming a management consultant to businesses in the outdoor industry and conducting sales training seminars throughout the country. He held many leadership positions at the Church of Universal Fellowship in Orono and was a supporter and volunteer for the Orono Land Trust and the Orono Bog Boardwalk, devoting hundreds of hours to leading tours of the Orono Bog. Mr. Tremblay will be long remembered and sadly missed by his family and friends; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 244)

Michael J. Houlihan, of Jay. Mr. Houlihan was a veteran of the United States Army. He worked for Metropolitan Life for two years before becoming town manager of the Town of Bethel, serving from April 1962 to January 1967, when he became town manager for the Town of Freeport, serving until April 1972. He moved to Jay and served as its town manager from May 1972 to October 1986, and he worked for the paper mill there until the strike of 1986. He then worked for the state Department of Human Services before becoming a licensed tax assessor. He was hired as the Town of Jay's tax assessor and retired in 1994. He also worked part-time for some years as a 9-1-1 addressing officer. He was a lifetime member of the Jay Amvets. Mr. Houlihan will be long remembered and sadly missed by his family and friends; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 245)

Stephen L. Haskell, of Palermo. Mr. Haskell was a woodcutter, farmer and avid draft horse puller. He participated in professional draft horse-pulling competitions in New England and Canada for 50 years, winning many blue ribbons and trophies. Mr. Haskell will be long remembered and sadly missed by his family and friends; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 246)

James C. Greenwood, of Sabattus, a senior at Oak Hill High School, who is a recipient of a 2019 Principal's Award for outstanding academic achievement and citizenship, sponsored by the Maine Principals' Association. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 247)

Emily A. Larsen, of Sidney, a senior at Messalonskee High School, who is a recipient of a 2019 Principal's Award for outstanding academic achievement and citizenship, sponsored by the Maine Principals' Association. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 248)

Torey J. Levesque, of Presque Isle, a senior at Presque Isle High School, who is a recipient of a 2019 Principal's Award for outstanding academic achievement and citizenship, sponsored by the Maine Principals' Association. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 249)

Kayla Thayer, of Auburn, on her being named the Central Maine Community College Student of the Year. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 250)

The Camden Herald, part of Courier Publications, based in Rockland. The Camden Herald, which serves the communities of Camden, Rockport, Hope, Appleton and Lincolnville, is celebrating its 150th Anniversary. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 251)

Cindy Leonard, of Rockland, who is retiring as Postmaster of the West Rockport Post Office after nearly 30 years of service. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 252) the Penobscot Valley High School Cheerleading Team, of Howland, which was the Class D North runner-up and won the Class D North Good Sportsmanship Award. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 253) the Penobscot Valley High School Girls Basketball Team, of Howland, which won the Class C North Championship. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 254) the Mattanawcook Academy Cheerleading Squad, of Lincoln, which won the Class C North Good Sportsmanship Award. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 255)

Alec Byron, of Farmingdale, a student and a member of the boys basketball team at Hall-Dale High School, who recently scored his 1,000th career point. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 256)

Ashtyn Abbott, of Farmingdale, a student and a member of the boys basketball team at Hall-Dale High School, who recently scored his 1,000th career point. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 257)

Ashtyn Abbott, of Farmingdale, a senior at Hall-Dale High School, who has been named the Boys Basketball Player of the Year by the Kennebec Journal. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 258)

the Machias Valley News Observer, of Machias, which has received the Community Award from the Machias Bay Area Chamber of Commerce. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 259)

Wayne and Gail Peters, of Roque Bluffs, who have received the Community Award from the Machias Bay Area Chamber of Commerce. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 260)

Wanda Alley, of Machias, an employee of Brown, Holmes and Milliken Insurance Agency, who has received the Community Award from the Machias Bay Area Chamber of Commerce. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 261)

Richard Holbrook Grant, a resident of the Maine Veterans' Home in Machias, who is the recipient of a Certificate of Lifetime Achievement Award from the Maine Health Care Association's Remember ME project, which honors pioneering, innovative and interesting residents living in Maine's long-term care facilities. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 262)

Madison Conlin, of Machias, a senior at Machias Memorial High School, who is a recipient of a 2019 Principal's Award for outstanding academic achievement and citizenship, sponsored by the Maine Principals' Association. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 263)

The Village Woodworker, of Oxford, which has received the 2019 Maine Veteran Owned Small Business of the Year Award from the United States Small Business Administration. We extend to owner Brian Warren our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 264)

LEGISLATIVE RECORD – HOUSE APPENDIX
December 5, 2018 to December 1, 2020

Joseph J. Casalinova, Jr., of Oxford, a veteran of the United States Army and a master builder. Mr. Casalinova owned Building Solutions, LLC, in Oxford. He was the current vice commander of Anderson-Staples American Legion Post #112 and a member of the Oxford Historical Society. Mr. Casalinova will be long remembered and sadly missed by his family and friends; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 265)

Sam Cole, of Windham, a member of Troop No. 51, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout. This is the highest award in Scouting and is given for excellence in skills development, leadership, personal growth and community service. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 266)

Nathan A. Henry, of Brewer, a senior at Brewer High School, who is a recipient of a 2019 Principal's Award for outstanding academic achievement and citizenship, sponsored by the Maine Principals' Association. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 267)

the Honorable Charles C. Kent, Jr., of Benton, former member of the Maine House of Representatives representing Benton in the 101st Legislature, on his 100th Birthday. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 268)

Drew Brooks, of Lyman, who has earned the distinction of being named Valedictorian of the 2019 graduating class of the University of Maine. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 269)

Matthew Karl Dow, Jr., of Albion, a member of Troop No. 446, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout. This is the highest award in Scouting and is given for excellence in skills development, leadership, personal growth and community service. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 270)

Barry and Penelope Morrell, of Belgrade, on the occasion of their 50th Wedding Anniversary. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 271) the Old Town High School Jazz Ensemble, which won the Division III Gold Award at the Maine State Jazz Festival. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 272)

Jeffrey Priest, of Bradley, a music teacher at Old Town High School, for his thirty years of service teaching the youth of the State. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 273)

Levi Trefts, of Old Town, a student at Old Town High School, who received the Outstanding Soloist Award playing trombone at the University of New Hampshire Clark Terry Jazz Festival. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 274)

Mercedes Creighton, of Old Town, a student at Old Town High School, who received the Outstanding Soloist Award playing piano at the University of New Hampshire Clark Terry Jazz Festival. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 275)

Demetrius Porter, of Old Town, a student at Old Town High School, who received the Outstanding Soloist Award playing upright bass at the University of New Hampshire Clark Terry Jazz Festival. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 276)

Annabelle Muscatell, of Old Town, a student at Old Town High School, who received the Outstanding Soloist Award playing alto saxophone at the University of New Hampshire Clark Terry Jazz Festival. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 277)

Adam Regan, of Old Town, a student at Old Town High School, who received the Outstanding Soloist Award playing baritone saxophone at the University of New Hampshire Clark

Terry Jazz Festival. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 278)

Keith Giles, of Fairfield, who has been named the Kennebec Valley Community College Student of the Year. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 279)

Gary Allen, of Cranberry Isles, founder and director of the Millinocket Marathon, who has received the 2019 Governor's Conference on Tourism Originality Award for his creative work in organizing cutting-edge events that help build, empower and activate Maine communities. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 280)

Trace Cyr, of Presque Isle, a member of Troop No. 171, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout. This is the highest award in Scouting and is given for excellence in skills development, leadership, personal growth and community service. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 281)

the Falmouth High School Boys Nordic Ski Team, which won the Class A State Championship. Members of the team include Ethan Livingood, Nate Livingood, Vance Boyd, Ben Rooks, Marcus Goodbody, Jake Mitchell, Joe Dye and Charlie Geci; and coaches Kaitlyn Bernard and Ian Tovell. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 282)

the Bangor High School Boys Basketball Team, which won the Class AA State Championship, the team's 13th state title. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 283)

Michael Oliver, of Waterboro, who has been named the York County Community College Student of the Year. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 284)

William Cripe, of Waterville, who is retiring as pastor of Faith Evangelical Church after 28 years of service. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 285)

Abigail M. Ross, of Gray, a senior at Gray-New Gloucester High School, who is a recipient of a 2019 Principal's Award for outstanding academic achievement and citizenship, sponsored by the Maine Principals' Association. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 286)

David Morton, of Casco, who is retiring as Town Manager of Casco after 46 years of public service. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 287)

the Town of Gray Fire Rescue, which is celebrating its 50th Anniversary of providing emergency medical services. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 288)

Denise LeBlanc, of Skowhegan, Director of the Town of Skowhegan Parks and Recreation Department, for her 30 years of public service. Director LeBlanc has overseen the successful growth of the department during her tenure. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 289) the Bangor High School Girls Swim Team, which won the Class A Girls State Swimming and Diving Championship, the team's 20th state title. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 290)

Denise Rodzen, of Livermore Falls, for her 23 years of public service in her community and as a board member of School Administrative District 23 and Regional School Unit 73, the last several years as board chair. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 291)

Marla St. Pierre, of Scarborough, who is retiring as the Deputy Chief of the Scarborough Police Department after many years of service. Deputy Chief St. Pierre became a reserve officer of the department in 1977 and started full time in 1980. She became a sergeant in 1988, a lieutenant in 1995 and a captain with the responsibilities of deputy chief in 1999, also graduating from the 186th session of the Federal Bureau of

LEGISLATIVE RECORD – HOUSE APPENDIX
December 5, 2018 to December 1, 2020

Investigation National Academy that year. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 292) the Houlton High School Boys Basketball Team, which won the Class C North Championship. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 293)

Cole Winslow, of Houlton, a senior at Greater Houlton Christian Academy, who is a recipient of a 2019 Principal's Award for outstanding academic achievement and citizenship, sponsored by the Maine Principals' Association. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 294)

Dylan Jurson, of Houlton, a senior at Hodgdon Middle-High School, who is a recipient of a 2019 Principal's Award for outstanding academic achievement and citizenship, sponsored by the Maine Principals' Association. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 295)

Alex Wilde, of Houlton, a senior at Houlton Middle/High School, who is a recipient of a 2019 Principal's Award for outstanding academic achievement and citizenship, sponsored by the Maine Principals' Association. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 296)

Thomas M. Berry, of Livermore. Mr. Berry was co-owner of Berry Hill Orchard and store in Livermore, where he worked as an orchardist for over 50 years. He was a member of North Livermore Baptist Church, serving as an organist, deacon and trustee and for 35 years in the North Livermore Baptist Church Quartet. He served as a selectman for the Town of Livermore from 1999 to 2013, as a volunteer fireman and for 9 years as a school board member. He was a member of the Oriental Star Masonic Lodge, Independent Order of Odd Fellows and Norland Grange and an active member of the Maine Apple Growers Association. Mr. Berry will be long remembered and sadly missed by his family and friends and all those whose lives he touched; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 297)

the Honorable Kevin M. Cuddy, of Holden. Justice Cuddy was a Superior Court Justice for the Penobscot County Superior Court, appointed by Governor John E. Baldacci in 2007. He and Sam Lanham founded the law firm Cuddy & Lanham, P.A., which for 23 years represented clients in a wide variety of matters, including class actions involving pharmaceuticals and product defects and civil rights and constitutional issues. Justice Cuddy will be long remembered and sadly missed by his family and friends and all those whose lives he touched; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 298)

Nancy Palmer Van Dyke, of Edgecomb, recipient of a Rotary Lifetime Achievement Award, who is retiring from nursing after over 25 years of service. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 299)

Clay Gleason, of Waterboro, principal of Hollis Elementary School, who has received the National Association of Elementary School Principals 2019 National Distinguished Principal Award. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 300)

Helene Whitaker, of Old Orchard Beach, recipient of a Spirit of America Foundation Award. The Spirit of America Foundation was established to encourage and promote volunteerism, and the foundation presents awards to honor local individuals, organizations or projects in appreciation of community service. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 301)

Louise Reid, of Old Orchard Beach, who has been recognized by the Town of Old Orchard Beach for her public service with Community Friendly Connection. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 302)

Pat Brown, of Old Orchard Beach, recipient of a Spirit of America Foundation Award. The Spirit of America Foundation was established to encourage and promote volunteerism, and the foundation presents awards to honor local individuals, organizations or projects in appreciation of community service. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 303)

Nathan Bloom, of Skowhegan, a member of Troop No. 431, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout. This is the highest award in Scouting and is given for excellence in skills development, leadership, personal growth and community service. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 304)

Jackson Dudley, of Fairfield, a member of Troop No. 431, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout. This is the highest award in Scouting and is given for excellence in skills development, leadership, personal growth and community service. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 305)

Clifford L. Emery, of Buxton, who is retiring as a selectman of the Town of Buxton after 21 years of public service. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 306)

Priscilla "Pat" Lowery, of Topsham, who celebrated her 100th Birthday on March 10, 2019 and has received the Boston Post Cane, an honor given to the oldest citizen of a municipality. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 307) the Camden-Rockport Elementary School Chess Team, in Rockport, which won the Maine State Scholastic Team Chess Championship in the K-3 Category. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 308)

Kristi Bell, of Caribou, who is retiring after many years of service as a licensed practical nurse. Ms. Bell worked at Cary Medical Center as a Pediatric Nurse from 1974 to 1995 and has worked as a Pediatric Nurse at Pines Health Services from 1992 to the present. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 309)

Fernand Ferdinand Corriveau, of Gilead. An entrepreneur, Mr. Corriveau operated a number of businesses, including Fernand F. Corriveau Logging, F&B Wood and Corriveau Hydro Electric. He also provided trucking for hire throughout his career. He also served the Town of Gilead as a selectman for more than 30 years. Mr. Corriveau will be long remembered and sadly missed by his family and friends; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 310)

Norman A. "Bud" Dakin, Jr., of Addison. Mr. Dakin was a veteran of the United States Navy. He purchased the Western Auto Store in Jonesport in 1974. He operated Western Auto and later Jonesport Tire and Auto until 1994. He then went to work for Carver Oil and Dead River Company until his retirement in 2012. He was a member of Tuscan Lodge #106 for many years, serving as secretary for 31 years. Mr. Dakin will be long remembered and sadly missed by his wife of 60 years, Judith, and by his family and friends; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 311)

the Maine School of Science and Mathematics, in Limestone, which has been ranked 2nd out of 17,000 high schools in the nation in the annual assessment by U.S. News & World Report. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 312)

Addison Boisvert, of Scarborough, who won the Class A State Wrestling Championship in the 285-pound Weight Class. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 313) the Scarborough High School Academic Decathlon Team, which won the Academic Decathlon State Championship. Members of the team include Ian Youth, Harshini Chaganti, Reshika Sai Devarajan, Ryan O'Campo, Connor Beaney, Anthony Gatti, Brendan McKelvey, Ethan DiBiase and Lena Wood; and coaches Matthew "Shane" Davis and Jon York. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 314)

LEGISLATIVE RECORD – HOUSE APPENDIX
December 5, 2018 to December 1, 2020

American Legion Post 150, in Mechanic Falls, which celebrated its 100th Anniversary on March 30, 2019. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 315)

Joey Seeley, of Presque Isle, on his retirement from the Presque Isle Police Department after 28 years of service, with 25 years of service to the City of Presque Isle. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 316)

Noah Keene, of Gardiner, a member of Troop No. 672, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout. This is the highest award in Scouting and is given for excellence in skills development, leadership, personal growth and community service. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 317)

the RSU 1 Odyssey of the Mind Team, of Bath, which won the Odyssey of the Mind State Championship and will represent the State at the Odyssey World Final Competition. Members of the team include Nadia Panetski, Gwen Panetski, Elena Trundy, Lily Powers, Sabrina Staeben, Caroline Thelen, Grace Tetreault, Libby Tetzlaff, Silas Green, Isabelle Grendell, Sonya Viselli and Alexis Kiffer; and coaches Judi Mansfield, Robin Kiffer and Angie Boisvert. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 318)

Marlene Doucette, of Orono, for her 50 years of volunteer service with Orono Health Association. We extend our appreciation and best wishes; (HLS 319)

Orono Health Association, which is celebrating its 50th Anniversary on May 8, 2019. A nonprofit formed to provide free dental services to children, the association has expanded to support a variety of health-related needs and activities, including scholarships for those entering health fields, food programs, a medical equipment loan program and a ride service. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 320)

Carrie Hessler-Radelet, of Washington, D.C., the keynote speaker at the University of Maine at Fort Kent's 137th Commencement Ceremony. Ms. Hessler-Radelet is the President and Chief Executive Officer of Project Concern International, a global development organization working with families and communities to enhance health, end hunger, overcome hardship and advance women and girls in 15 countries. She previously served as Director of the Peace Corps, America's iconic international volunteer service organization, with programs in over 65 countries. She is a passionate leader in the effort to empower communities to discover their own sustainable, innovative solutions to poverty. We acknowledge Ms. Hessler-Radelet's accomplishments and service and offer her our best wishes; (HLS 321)

Melford Pelletier, of Wallagrass, who has received the Distinguished Service Award from the University of Maine at Fort Kent. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 322)

Joseph Bjerklie, of Oneonta, New York, on his retirement as Associate Director of Institutional Research with the University of Maine at Fort Kent after many years of public service. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 323)

Jean Louis Michaud, of Fort Kent, on his retirement as a Facilities Maintenance Worker with the University of Maine at Fort Kent after many years of public service. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 324)

Brenda Plourde, of Fort Kent, on her retirement as a Data Management Technician with the University of Maine at Fort Kent after many years of public service. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 325)

Linda Deprey, of Fort Kent, on her retirement as a Development Officer and Foundation Liaison with the University of Maine at Fort Kent after many years of public service. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 326)

Andrew Jacobs, of Fort Kent, on his retirement as Director of Facilities Management with the University of Maine at Fort Kent after many years of public service. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 327)

Reynold Raymond, of Eagle Lake, who has received the Distinguished Service Award from the University of Maine at Fort Kent. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 328)

Diane Abrams, of Cutler, who is retiring as a kindergarten teacher at Elm Street School in East Machias after 36 years of public service. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 329)

the Falmouth High School/Waynflete Boys Alpine Ski Team, of Falmouth, which won the Class A State Championship. Members of the team include AJ Noyes, Gibson Scott, Ben Adey, Andrew Christie, Ben Keller, Jacob Leavitt and Caleb Labbe; and coach Tip Kimball. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 330)

Anunthaya MacDonnell, of Falmouth, who won the Maine State Girls Wrestling Championship in the 120-pound Weight Class. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 331)

Levi Husson, of Hampden, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout. This is the highest award in Scouting and is given for excellence in skills development, leadership, personal growth and community service. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 332)

the Honorable Richard Drummond Gleason, of Auburn. Mr. Gleason was a veteran who served in the United States Army Reserve. He worked in radio, purchasing the station WNXY in Norway in 1975 and renaming it WOXO. He was president and owner of Gleason Media Services, which has two AM radio stations and five FM stations broadcasting from Kennebunk to Rangeley. He also owned and operated a Radio Shack franchise in Oxford from the mid-1980s to 1999. He served as Mayor of Auburn from 2009 to 2011 and on the Auburn City Council from 2006 to 2008. He was president of the Androscoggin County Chamber of Commerce and the Oxford County Chamber of Commerce, local Kiwanis Clubs and the Growth Council, and he served on the boards of many organizations, including the Central Maine Community College Scholarship Foundation, Boys and Girls Clubs of Lewiston-Auburn and The Chapman House. In 2008, the Auburn Business Association named him Citizen of the Year. He also received the Business Leadership Award from the Androscoggin County Chamber of Commerce, the President's Cornerstone Award for Business from the Maine Senate and the Legion of Honor from Kiwanis International. He was a member of the United Methodist Church of Auburn since 2002 and previously of the Second Congregational Church in Norway. Mr. Gleason will be long remembered and sadly missed by his wife of 50 years, Kathy, by his family and friends and by all those whose lives he touched; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 333)

Thomas College, in Waterville, which is celebrating its 125th Anniversary. Founded as a nonsectarian, coeducational college dedicated to career training, Thomas College received from the Legislature the authority to confer four-year degrees in 1963, relocated to its West River Road campus in 1966 and currently offers over 30 undergraduate majors, including accounting, criminal justice, elementary education, sports management, psychology, information technology and business management. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 334)

Peter Murphy, of Auburn, who has been named Auburn Citizen of the Year by the Auburn Business Association. Mr.

LEGISLATIVE RECORD – HOUSE APPENDIX
December 5, 2018 to December 1, 2020

Murphy, a former co-owner of Neokraft Signs, Inc., is a past board member and president of the association, past board chair of the Lewiston Auburn Metropolitan Chamber of Commerce, past president of the Auburn Business Development Corporation and a former volunteer for and participant in Central Maine Medical Center's Associate Program. He is a recipient of the chamber's Ray Geiger Award for his long-term leadership and the Associate Program's Distinguished Service Award. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 335)

Kennebec Valley Community College, in Fairfield, which is celebrating its 50th Anniversary. Recognized by the Aspen Institute as one of the top 100 community colleges in the country, Kennebec Valley Community College offers 30 programs relevant to all areas of Maine's labor market to its over 2,500 students. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 336)

Sol Demers, of Sanford, a student at Sanford High School, who won the Class A State Wrestling Championship Title in the 220-pound Weight Class. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 337)

Myles "Bud" Lemieux, of Sangerville, who has been named Groomer of the Year by the Maine Snowmobile Association for his accomplishments, dedication and volunteerism. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 338)

Scott M. Hanington, of Wypitlock, who has received a Community Service Award from the Professional Logging Contractors of Maine in recognition of 25 years of service as auctioneer at the annual fund-raiser for the Children's Miracle Network. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 339)

Michael Viktor Littlefield, of China, a member of Troop No. 479, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout. This is the highest award in Scouting and is given for excellence in skills development, leadership, personal growth and community service. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 340)

Kathy Sheedy, of Berwick, who has received the town's Citizen of the Year Award for her more than a decade of service to the community. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 341)

Joel Barnes, of Shapleigh, a captain with the Berwick Fire Department, who lost his life while battling a four-alarm apartment fire in Berwick and saving the life of another firefighter. Captain Barnes was a firefighter/paramedic and served in the department as training officer and emergency services coordinator. He had previously served with the Horry County Fire Rescue in South Carolina, South Berwick Rescue, York Ambulance and the Old Orchard Beach Fire Department before joining the Berwick Fire Department in July 2016. He was also an active per diem firefighter in Acton. Captain Barnes will be long remembered and sadly missed by his family, friends and fellow firefighters; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 342)

the Top Ten students of the 2019 graduating class of Winthrop High School: Maguire E. Anuszewski, valedictorian; Nora Walsh Conrad, salutatorian; Nasim Adam; Shelby Page Cobb; Jackson Scott Ladd, Samantha Lynn Neumann; Emily Jean St. Pierre; Clara Margaret Szakas; Makayla Seana Wilbert; and Cameron L. Wood. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 343)

Ethan Couture, of Dixfield, a senior at Dirigo High School, who is a recipient of a Daughters of the American Revolution Good Citizen Award for demonstrating dependability, leadership, service and patriotism. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 344)

Kayden Haylock, of Hartford, a Girl Scout who has received the Girl Scout Silver Award. This is the second highest award in Girl Scouting and is given for excellence in skills development, leadership, personal growth and community service. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 345)

Ruby Haylock, of Hartford, a Girl Scout who has received the Girl Scout Silver Award. This is the second highest award in Girl Scouting and is given for excellence in skills development, leadership, personal growth and community service. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 346)

Ethan Couture, of Dixfield, a senior at Dirigo High School, who is a recipient of a 2019 Principal's Award for outstanding academic achievement and citizenship, sponsored by the Maine Principals' Association. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 347)

Brycen Waugh, a young man from Mexico, who received special recognition from the American Legion for giving all the money he received for his birthday, $520, to support veterans. The money will be used to help purchase Stryker wheelchairs at the Togus VA. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 348)

Janie Wang, of Eliot, owner of Modernist Pantry, LLC, who has received the 2019 Small Business Person of the Year Award from the United States Small Business Administration. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 349)

Charles Richard Hall, a native of Wilton, to whom, for contributions to the community, the Town of Wilton has dedicated its Town Report. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 350)

Ann Tibbetts Smith, of Norridgewock. Before her retirement, Mrs. Smith worked as a social worker for the Department of Health and Human Services. She enjoyed attending church and various pursuits, including gardening and baking. She was well-known for her blankets, pies, pickles and jam. Mrs. Smith will be long remembered and sadly missed by her husband of 23 years, Sidney, and by her family and friends; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 351)

Barbara A. Rohrbaugh, of Hallowell, who is retiring after 25 years of public service as a librarian at the Hubbard Free Library in Hallowell. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 352)

Isaac Dearborn, of West Gardiner, a member of Troop No. 613, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout. This is the highest award in Scouting and is given for excellence in skills development, leadership, personal growth and community service. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 353)

Dolard "Del" Gendron, of Lewiston, on his induction into the Franco-American Hall of Fame. Mr. Gendron, a founder of the business Gendron & Gendron, has been a generous supporter of a number of local institutions and nonprofits, including St. Mary's Hospital, the YWCA, the Dolard & Priscilla Franco Center and Museum L/A. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 354)

Caroline Dubois, of Presque Isle, on her induction into the Franco-American Hall of Fame. Ms. Dubois has taught French for over twenty years, including for the Maine School of Science and Mathematics, for the Caribou School District, for School Administrative District No. 1 in Presque Isle and, as an adjunct professor, for Husson University. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 355)

Karen Rancourt-Thomas, of Waterville, on her induction into the Franco-American Hall of Fame. Ms. Rancourt-Thomas has served as a Waterville City Councilor and as President of the

LEGISLATIVE RECORD – HOUSE APPENDIX
December 5, 2018 to December 1, 2020

Franco-American Society of the Kennebec Valley. She also has organized Waterville's Franco-American Festival and Festival at the Falls and is currently involved in Fort Halifax Days in Winslow. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 356)

Roger Hurtubise, of Biddeford, on his induction into the Franco-American Hall of Fame. Mr. Hurtubise is the host of "The French Hour with Roger" on The Legends radio stations and of "L'Heure Francaise Avec Roger/Our Town" on Biddeford public access television. A veteran of the United States Army, he has served on the Biddeford City Council and been instrumental in organizing the city's La Kermesse Franco-Americaine Festival. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 357)

the late Armand E. Cote, of Lisbon Falls, on his posthumous induction into the Franco-American Hall of Fame. Mr. Cote, a veteran of the United States Army, founded what became The Cote Corporation, a three-generation family business. Mr. Cote, a good corporate citizen and generous philanthropist, delivered and installed Christmas trees in Lewiston and Auburn, contributed to area schools and transported and installed memorials and monuments for veterans and many churches; (HLS 358)

the late Priscilla Gendron, of Lewiston, on her posthumous induction into the Franco-American Hall of Fame. Mrs. Gendron, a founder of the business Gendron & Gendron, was a generous supporter of a number of local institutions and nonprofits, including St. Mary's Hospital, the YWCA, the Dolard & Priscilla Franco Center and Museum L/A; (HLS 359) the late Reverend Rudolph J. Leveille, of Old Town, on his posthumous induction into the Franco-American Hall of Fame. Father Leveille, a Roman Catholic priest, was a pastor in Hallowell, Orono and Brewer. In retirement, he ministered in Bangor, Brewer, Hampden, Winterport, Orono, Indian Island and Bradley. He was active with Old Town Knights of Columbus Le Soiree parties, which celebrated the Franco heritage of the Old Town area; (HLS 360)

Zachau Construction, of Freeport, which is celebrating its 50th Anniversary, having started business in New Gloucester in 1969. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 361)

Eric Braley, of Knox, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout. This is the highest award in Scouting and is given for excellence in skills development, leadership, personal growth and community service. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 362)

the Top Scholars of the 2019 graduating class of Telstar Regional High School, in Bethel: Emily Hanscom, Emalee Harrington, Koley True, Gabriel Pasternak, Sadie Richardson, Georgia Piawlock and Bethany Laird. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 363)

Margaret Eliza Wakelin Carle, of Old Orchard Beach. As a 14-year-old, Mrs. Carle founded the Sandpiper Play School at Biddeford Pool, where she instructed children in sand castle construction and beach lore. As an adult, she taught art in Needham, Massachusetts, in the Bath area and on Long Island. She was a certified green artist, whose works featured all-natural materials, and exhibited her work with local art associations. She curated the community art gallery on Long Island for 10 years. In addition to being an artist and teacher, she was a musician and songwriter for more than 50 years. She performed with autoharp, drums and voice in local choirs and small folk groups. She was a member of the Council of Women, a Native American group, and a woman of faith and devotion. A supporter of the Old Orchard Beach Little League, she made a significant donation for the repair of the league's snack shack, which had been damaged by lightning. Mrs. Carle will be long remembered and sadly missed by her family and friends and all those whose lives she touched; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 364)

Kathleen Hanscom, of Bethel. Mrs. Hanscom, a graduate of Gould Academy, married Rodney Hartley Hanscom on June 6, 1948 and was a homemaker. Mrs. Hanscom will be long remembered and sadly missed by her family and friends; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 365)

Albert A. "Joe" Gaudreau, of Gilead. Mr. Gaudreau was a veteran of the United States Army, having served from 1955 to 1963. He worked for Brooks Brothers Plumbing and Heating in Bethel for 32 years, retiring in 2004. Mr. Gaudreau will be long remembered and sadly missed by his wife of 59 years, Alfreda, and by his family and friends; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 366)

Genevieve Wakeman, of Addison, who has earned the distinction of being named Valedictorian of the 2019 graduating class of Washington Academy. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 367)

Rachel Maker, of Machiasport, who has earned the distinction of being named Salutatorian of the 2019 graduating class of Washington Academy. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 368)

Joseph Arthur Cobb, of Deer Isle. Mr. Cobb was a veteran of the United States Army. He served from 1998 to 2006, including service in the Iraq War, and worked as an E-4 Petroleum Supply Specialist. Mr. Cobb will be long remembered and sadly missed by his family and friends; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 369)

Josh Bubier, of Cornville, a warden investigator of the Maine Warden Service, who has been recognized as the 2018 Game Warden of the Year. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 370)

Emily E. Smith, of Hermon, a senior at Hermon High School, who is a recipient of a 2019 Principal's Award for outstanding academic achievement and citizenship, sponsored by the Maine Principals' Association. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 371)

Jennifer Simon, of Parkman, who has earned the distinction of being named Valedictorian of the 2019 graduating class of Piscataquis Community High School. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 372)

Zachary Wilson, of Sangerville, who has earned the distinction of being named Salutatorian of the 2019 graduating class of Piscataquis Community High School. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 373)

William Wise, a resident of Gorham House, who is the recipient of a Certificate of Lifetime Achievement Award from the Maine Health Care Association's Remember ME project, which honors pioneering, innovative and interesting residents living in Maine's long-term care facilities. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 374)

Sophie Pelletier, of Millinocket, who has earned the distinction of being named Valedictorian of the 2019 graduating class of Stearns Junior/Senior High School. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 375)

Matthew Kowalski, of Millinocket, who has earned the distinction of being named Salutatorian of the 2019 graduating class of Stearns Junior/Senior High School. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 376)

Brooke C. Carmire, of Sanford, a senior at Sanford High School, who is a recipient of a 2019 Principal's Award for outstanding academic achievement and citizenship, sponsored by the Maine Principals' Association. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 377)

LEGISLATIVE RECORD – HOUSE APPENDIX
December 5, 2018 to December 1, 2020

Noah Davis, of Auburn, a senior at Edward Little High School, who is a recipient of a 2019 Principal's Award for outstanding academic achievement and citizenship, sponsored by the Maine Principals' Association. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 378)

Dorothy Murray, of Auburn, on her 100th Birthday. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 379)

the Edward Little High School Girls Alpine Ski Team, of Auburn, which won the 2019 Class A State Championship, as well as the Kennebec Valley Athletic Conference Championship. Members of the team include Rebecca Bassett, Gianna Boulet, Miranda Chadbourne, Jordan Cummings, Maizy Demers, Sarah Lachance, Courtney Larson, Mallory Ouellette and Annabelle Soucie; and coaches Jodd Bowles and Will McMellon. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 380)

Richard Clark, of Wells, on his retirement as a firefighter with the Wells Fire Department after 54 years of service. Mr. Clark has served as a support person, an interior firefighter, an officer and a chief and more recently as a driver operator. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 381)

Robert Froncko, of Wells, on his retirement as a firefighter with the Wells Fire Department after 23 years of service. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 382)

Holden Willard, of Raymond, who won Best of Show at the Cultural Center of Cape Cod The WORKS International Art Competition with his self-portrait Red Portrait. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 383)

Shirley Jackson, of Harpswell, for her 35 years of public service as Harpswell Election Clerk and her 21 years of leadership organizing and emceeding Harpswell's Memorial Day Ceremony. We extend our appreciation and best wishes; (HLS 384) the Top Students of the 2019 graduating class of Dirigo High School, in Dixfield: Ethan Couture, Devon Fletcher, Alexander Gorham, Sophia Jacques, Cassidy Moro, Tucker Olsen, Ashley Perreault, Mariah Ripley, Willow Smith, Alexa Varnum, Gabrielle White and Lillie Williams. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 385)

Richard and Linda Harris, of Poland, who are celebrating their 60th Wedding Anniversary on May 30, 2019. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 386)

the Lisbon High School One Act Drama Team, which won the Class B State Championship. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 387)

Ronaldo Bertrand, a resident of the DLTC Healthcare/The Lamp Memory Care Center in Lisbon, who is the recipient of a Certificate of Lifetime Achievement Award from the Maine Health Care Association's Remember ME project, which honors pioneering, innovative and interesting residents living in Maine's long-term care facilities. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 388)

Grace E. Tibbetts, of Lisbon Falls, a senior at Lisbon High School, who is a recipient of a 2019 Principal's Award for outstanding academic achievement and citizenship, sponsored by the Maine Principals' Association. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 389)

James W. Gray, of Vassalboro, a veteran of the United States Army, who was recognized by the American Legion for his service during World War II. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 390)

Roland Lapointe, of Vassalboro, a veteran of the United States Army, who was recognized by the American Legion for his service during World War II. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 391)

Robert Roux, of Vassalboro, a veteran of the United States Navy, who was recognized by the American Legion for his service during World War II. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 392)

Earl Brown, of Vassalboro, a veteran of the United States Army, who was recognized by the American Legion for his service during World War II. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 393)

Willard Sleamaker, of Vassalboro, a veteran of the United States Navy, who was recognized by the American Legion for his service during World War II. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 394)

Steven Charles Lane, of Franklin. A teacher, Mr. Lane began his career at Sullivan Grammar School before moving to Mountain View School, where he taught middle school for 41 years, coached various sports for 22 years and mentored several young teachers before retiring in 2015. He was devoted to his second family, the Jehovah's Witnesses. Mr. Lane will be long remembered and sadly missed by his wife of over 46 years, Mary Lou, his family and friends and all those whose lives he touched; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 395)

the Fort Fairfield Middle/High School JMG program, which was established on August 22, 2018 and is celebrating the program's accomplishments in its first year of operation. JMG partners with public education and private businesses to offer results-driven solutions to ensure all Maine students graduate, attain postsecondary credentials and pursue meaningful careers. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 396)

Tucker Weeks, of Saco, a Biddeford lifeguard, who is a recipient of a Real Heroes Lifesaver Award from the American Red Cross of Maine, Southern Maine Chapter for saving swimmers struggling in a rip current at Fortunes Rocks Beach in Biddeford. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 397)

Marcio Munch, of Biddeford, a Biddeford lifeguard, who is a recipient of a Real Heroes Lifesaver Award from the American Red Cross of Maine, Southern Maine Chapter for saving swimmers struggling in a rip current at Fortunes Rocks Beach in Biddeford. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 398)

Christopher Lessard, of Saco, a Biddeford lifeguard, who is a recipient of a Real Heroes Lifesaver Award from the American Red Cross of Maine, Southern Maine Chapter for saving swimmers struggling in a rip current at Fortunes Rocks Beach in Biddeford. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 399)

Mira Kuni, of Saco, a Biddeford lifeguard, who is a recipient of a Real Heroes Lifesaver Award from the American Red Cross of Maine, Southern Maine Chapter for saving swimmers struggling in a rip current at Fortunes Rocks Beach in Biddeford. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 400)

Hannah Niles, of Saco, a Biddeford lifeguard, who is a recipient of a Real Heroes Lifesaver Award from the American Red Cross of Maine, Southern Maine Chapter for saving swimmers struggling in a rip current at Fortunes Rocks Beach in Biddeford. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 401)

Judy Kimball, of Biddeford, on her retirement. Dr. Kimball, an occupational therapist, is a Professor Emeritus of the University of New England. In 1980, she became the first director of the Occupational Therapy Program at the university and opened the Occupational Therapy Community Clinic in 1981. She became the first female full professor at the university in 1987. She helped to develop 3 other occupational therapy programs in the

LEGISLATIVE RECORD – HOUSE APPENDIX
December 5, 2018 to December 1, 2020

State and has consulted for over 32 agencies. She is known for her work in sensory integration, craniosacral therapies and sensory modulation interventions. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 402)

Isaac Wiperman, of Presque Isle, who has earned the distinction of being named Salutatorian of the 2019 graduating class of Easton Junior/Senior High School. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 403)

Joshua Rooney, of Presque Isle, who has earned the distinction of being named Valedictorian of the 2019 graduating class of Easton Junior/Senior High School. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 404)

Amanda Halsey, of Fort Fairfield, who has earned the distinction of being named Salutatorian of the 2019 graduating class of Fort Fairfield Middle/High School. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 405)

Chelsea Ouellette, of Van Buren, who has earned the distinction of being named Valedictorian of the 2019 graduating class of Fort Fairfield Middle/High School. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 406)

Sarah Bronson, of Windham, Executive Director of Riding To The Top Therapeutic Riding Center, who has received the 2019 Region 1 PATH International Credentialed Professional of the Year Award for making the center a leader in providing equine-assisted activities and therapies to individuals with a wide range of physical, mental and behavioral challenges. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 407)

Richard Whitney, of Dexter, on his retirement as a history teacher at Dexter Regional High School after 30 years of service. Mr. Whitney, who has been the Key Club advisor since the club's inception in 1998, was named the New England and Bermuda District of Key Club International 2016-17 Leader of Leaders, received the 2019 Dexter Spirit of American Foundation Tribute and was named the Wal-Mart and Sam's Club 2007 Maine Teacher of the Year. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 408)

Elaine "Lainey" Cross, of Bethel, who is retiring from the School Administrative District 44 board after 21 years of service. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 409)

Albert "Jody" Alphonse Gaudreau, Jr., of Gilead. Mr. Gaudreau was a veteran of the United States Marine Corps. A jack-of-all-trades, he worked many jobs, from truck driving to farming. Mr. Gaudreau will be long remembered and sadly missed by his family and friends; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 410) the Gray-New Gloucester High School Girls Basketball Team, of Gray, which won the Class B State Championship. Members of the team include Brooke Martin, Emma West, Madysen West, Sarah Fecteau, Mikaela Ryan, Whitney Dwyer, Alexa Thayer, Brianna Jordan, Abbey Michaud, Eliza Hotham, Chelsea Davis, Samantha Fortin, Jordan Grant and Gabriella Sernyk; assistant coaches Matt Andreasen, Danielle Hunt and Grace Kariotis; and head coach Michael Andreasen. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 411)

Randy Gray, of Skowhegan, who is retiring as code enforcement officer and from his other duties with the Town of Skowhegan after more than 30 years of public service. Mr. Gray recently received the Distinguished Service Award from the Maine Resource Recovery Association and has been selected to receive the Code Enforcement Officer of the Year Award from the Maine Building Officials and Inspectors Association. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 412)

John Martin, of Gray, a student and a player on the boys basketball team at Gray-New Gloucester High School, who recently scored his 1,000th career point. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 413)

James Ausprey, of Whiting, who is retiring as a teacher at Washington Academy after 40 years of service. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 414)

Ed Browne, a resident of the Maine Veterans' Home in Machias, who is celebrating his 100th Birthday on June 25, 2019. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 415)

Florence M. McCann, of Falmouth. Mrs. McCann was an active member of Falmouth Congregational Church, serving on many committees and as president of the afternoon and evening guilds and as a member of the choir for over 60 years. She also attended Cousins Island Chapel. In Florida, she was an associate member of The Stuart Congregational Church. In her early years, she was an active member of the Falmouth Historical Society. She received the Town of Falmouth's Boston Post Cane in August 2013, and lived to the age of 107. Mrs. McCann will be long remembered and sadly missed by her family and friends; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 416)

Kayla Raymond, of Standish, who has earned the distinction of being named Salutatorian of the 2019 graduating class of Bonny Eagle High School. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 417)

Julia Morin, of Buxton, who has earned the distinction of being named Valedictorian of the 2019 graduating class of Bonny Eagle High School. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 418)

Beverly Bennett, of Buckfield, who is celebrating her 90th Birthday. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 419)

Annie Choi, of Paris, a senior at Oxford Hills Comprehensive High School, who is a recipient of a 2019 Principal's Award for outstanding academic achievement and citizenship, sponsored by the Maine Principals' Association. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 420)

Hartley "Skip" Mowatt, Jr., of Paris, who is retiring as Chief of the Paris Police Department after 28 years of public service. Chief Mowatt has served with the department since he took a part-time job in 1991, working his way up from part time to full time, and being promoted to sergeant in 1998 and chief in 2016. He served as a school resource officer for School Administrative District 17 for almost 10 years. While serving as a sergeant, he took a 5-year leave of absence starting in 2004 when his Army National Guard unit was deployed to Iraq. He also worked for the West Paris Fire Department for 10 years. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 421) the Top Students of the 2019 graduating class of Mountain Valley High School, in Rumford: Mackenzie Arsenault, Aaron Cameron, Sarah Cunningham, Wendy Ducas, Cameron Gallant, Garrett Garbarini, Kennedy Hamner, Keziah Hartzell, Taylor Henry, Gabriel Ladd, Dillon McPherson and Noah Ronan. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 422)

Emily Vraux, of Greenville, who has earned the distinction of being named Salutatorian of the 2019 graduating class of Greenville Consolidated School. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 423)

Dakota Morehouse, of Rockwood, who has earned the distinction of being named Valedictorian of the 2019 graduating class of Greenville Consolidated School. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 424)

Barbara Finkelstein, of Wells. Dr. Finkelstein is retiring as President of York County Community College after over four decades of service in higher education. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 425)

LEGISLATIVE RECORD – HOUSE APPENDIX
December 5, 2018 to December 1, 2020

Kade Kelley, of Falmouth, who has earned the distinction of being named Valedictorian of the 2019 graduating class of Falmouth High School. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 426)

John Auer, of Falmouth, who has earned the distinction of being named Salutatorian of the 2019 graduating class of Falmouth High School. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 427) the Landing School, in Arundel, which recently celebrated its 40th Anniversary during the annual event at which the school's students launch the boats they have built. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 428)

Jeanne Crocker, of Scarborough, who is retiring after many years of service in Maine's schools. Ms. Crocker has served as a French and Spanish teacher, an assistant principal and principal, assistant executive director of the Maine Principals' Association, an adjunct professor at the University of Southern Maine and Portland Public Schools director of school management and interim superintendent. She has received many awards and recognitions during her career, including being chosen as Maine's High School Principal of the Year in 2003. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 429)

Eric T. Wight, of Bethel. Mr. Wight was the last watchman on the fire tower on Old Spec Mountain. He removed the cabin from the tower in the summer of 1959. He also served in the United States Armed Forces in 1960 as a tank driver for the Maine National Guard. He worked for the Department of Inland Fisheries and Wildlife as a game warden from 1963 to 1985, retiring as a sergeant, having headed the department's search and rescue team. He wrote a book, Maine Game Wardens, telling his stories and accounts of his fellow wardens and the service's history. Mr. Wight will be long remembered and sadly missed by his wife of over 56 years, Karen, and by his family and friends; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 430)

Earlene "Kitty" Ahlquist Chadbourne, of Cumberland. Mrs. Chadbourne was a poet, writer, historian and artist. She wrote a poetry chapbook, The Pearl Collection, contributed articles for Scarborough at 350: Linking the Past to the Present and Saco Churches and wrote A Child's Life 90 Years Ago: Recollections of Florence and Earle Ahlquist 1923-1946, Scarborough, Maine. She volunteered many hours to charitable work, including with Stonecroft's Christian Women's Club, Maine Poets Society, Chadbourne Family Association, Maine Nordmenn - Sons of Norway Chapter, Piscataqua Pioneers, Saco Bay Rotary, of which she was a charter member and a Paul Harris Fellow, and Dyer Library. She also held posts with the Daughters of the American Revolution and her local chapter, the Elizabeth Wadsworth Chapter of Greater Portland. Mrs. Chadbourne will be long remembered and sadly missed by her husband of 30 years, Ted, her family and friends and all those whose lives she touched; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 431)

Bailee Kinney, of Minot, who has received the Girl Scout Gold Award. This is the highest award in Senior Girl Scouting and is given for excellence in skills development, leadership, personal growth and community service. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 432)

Mairead Murphy, of York, who has received the Girl Scout Gold Award. This is the highest award in Senior Girl Scouting and is given for excellence in skills development, leadership, personal growth and community service. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 433)

Amelia Searfoss, of Pownal, a Girl Scout who has received the Girl Scout Gold Award. This is the highest award in Senior Girl Scouting and is given for excellence in skills development, leadership, personal growth and community service. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 434)

Michaela Banks, of Lowell, a senior at Penobscot Valley High School, who is a recipient of a 2019 Principal's Award for outstanding academic achievement and citizenship, sponsored by the Maine Principals' Association. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 435)

Brianna Moon, of Howland, who has earned the distinction of being named Valedictorian of the 2019 graduating class of Penobscot Valley High School. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 436)

Lauren Reed, of Enfield, who has earned the distinction of being named Salutatorian of the 2019 graduating class of Penobscot Valley High School. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 437)

Eleanor Thompson, of Raymond, who is celebrating her 90th Birthday on June 6, 2019. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 438)

Sebastian Neubauer, of Fairfield, a member of Troop No. 485, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout. This is the highest award in Scouting and is given for excellence in skills development, leadership, personal growth and community service. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 439)

Bill Leithiser, of Old Town, who has been named the 2019 Maine Music Educator Administrator of the Year in recognition of his exceptional support to and outstanding accomplishments furthering the advancement of music education in the schools of Maine. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 440)

Kylene Neal, of East Millinocket, who has earned the distinction of being named Salutatorian of the 2019 graduating class of Schenck High School. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 441)

Olivia Gallant, of Medway, who has earned the distinction of being named Valedictorian of the 2019 graduating class of Schenck High School. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 442)

Barbara Austin, of Dover-Foxcroft, who has been named a Valley Grange 2019 Community Citizen of the Year for her community involvement, including her efforts with Project Linus and the Dover-Foxcroft Kiwanis Community Christmas Project. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 443)

Judy Raymond, of Dover-Foxcroft, who has been named a Valley Grange 2019 Community Citizen of the Year for her community involvement, including her efforts with Project Linus and the Dover-Foxcroft Kiwanis Community Christmas Project. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 444)

Carvor J. Pendexter, of Washburn, a member of Troop No. 177, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout. This is the highest award in Scouting and is given for excellence in skills development, leadership, personal growth and community service. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 445)

Jon Heath, of Camden, a member of Troop No. 200, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout. This is the highest award in Scouting and is given for excellence in skills development, leadership, personal growth and community service. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 446)

David Stackpole, of Trenton, a teacher at Ellsworth Elementary-Middle School, who is retiring after 45 years of service teaching sixth grade at the school and 32 years coaching

LEGISLATIVE RECORD – HOUSE APPENDIX
December 5, 2018 to December 1, 2020

girls junior varsity basketball. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 447)

Stephen Fay, of Ellsworth, for his 20 years of service on the board of the James Russell Wiggins Down East Family YMCA. We extend our appreciation and best wishes; (HLS 448) the Scarborough High School Boys Indoor Track Team, which won the Class A State Indoor Track Championship, the team's 4th championship in a row and 10th in 12 years. Members of the team include William Arpin, Sebastien Baba, Joshua Baba, Zachary Barry, Noah Batoosingh, Bryce Beeler, Ryland Bissell, Anthony Breen, Alex Callahan, William Cassellius, Benjamin Cassellius, Ethan Charette, Carter Chen, Anthony Clavette, Connor Coffin, Tristram Coffin, Nicholas Connolly, Taylor Daigle, Salvator DeBenedetto, Corey Dennen, Carlo Dexter, Noah Drapeau, Brian Farino, Jayden Flaker, Jarett Flaker, Diego Gatti, Anthony Gatti, David Geng, Jacob Goff, John Goff, Ian Gott, James Grant, Andrew Granzier, Benjamin Hatch, Griffin Hebert, Mason Hertlein, Cameron Jalbert, Aidan Joyce, Maxwell Keller, Raymond Kieu, Nolan Lamontagne, Joshua Lane, Ashtin Laxson, Michael LeGage, Brandon L'Heureux, Nolan Libby, Erik LoSacco, Nathan Mars, Toby Martin, Peter Martin, Spencer Matteo, Evan Morgan, James Mullen, Logan Nappi, Wilfred Nji, Harrison Osborne, Warren O'Shea, William Pulvino, Ashton Record, Ethan Shaw, Daniel Smith, Jack Somers, William St. Germain, Parker Todd, David Undlin and Lucas Wright; pole vault coaches Seth Albert and Josh Gelfand; jump coach Toni McQuinn; hurdles coach Steve Ross; throw coach Curtis Damon; and head coach Derek Veilleux. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 449)

Bruce Thompson, of Livermore, who is retiring as a mathematics teacher at Dirigo High School after 50 years of teaching. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 450)

Tania Clark, of Dixfield, who is retiring as an English teacher at T.W. Kelly Dirigo Middle School after 37 years of teaching. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 451)

Craig Coulthard, of Dixfield, who is retiring as an industrial arts teacher at Dirigo High School after 38 years of teaching. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 452)

Emily Hanscom, of West Bethel, a senior at Telstar High School, who is a recipient of a 2019 Principal's Award for outstanding academic achievement and citizenship, sponsored by the Maine Principals' Association. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 453)

Julia Pomeroy, of Livermore Falls, who has been named the All-Region Girls Alpine Skier of the Year by the Sun Journal. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 454)

Hannah Leary, of Harpswell, who has received a Hardy Girls Healthy Women Girls Rock! Entrepreneur of the Year Award for creating her own successful business from scratch. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 455)

Abigail Ross, of Gray, who has earned the distinction of being named Valedictorian of the 2019 graduating class of Gray-New Gloucester High School. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 456)

Lillian Wilson, of Gray, who has earned the distinction of being named Salutatorian of the 2019 graduating class of Gray-New Gloucester High School. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 457)

Sarah Parent, of Poland, who has earned the distinction of being named Salutatorian of the 2019 graduating class of Poland Regional High School. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 458)

Holly Young, of Poland, who has earned the distinction of being named Valedictorian of the 2019 graduating class of Poland Regional High School. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 459)

Homer Wayne Carr, of Otis. Mr. Carr served in the United States Army in Germany during the Korean Conflict. He worked for Bangor Mental Health Institute for 36 years, and he was a dedicated member of the Glad Tidings Church, in Bangor, where he served as head and honorary usher for over 60 years and two terms on the church's board. Mr. Carr will be long remembered and sadly missed by his family and friends; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 460)

Ivy Whittaker-Deming, of Waterboro, who has received a Hardy Girls Healthy Women Girls Rock! Title IX Champion of the Year Award for advocating for girls' equal access to sports, including athletic facilities, coaching, education and equipment. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 461)

Rodney Edward Gray, of Prospect. Mr. Gray attained the rank of Master Sergeant in the Air National Guard and served for 22 years at Dow Air Force Base in Bangor. In 2006, he retired from teaching building construction at Southern Maine Community College after 36 years of service. He was a member of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, which he served several years in leadership roles, including as Branch President, Bishop and Councilor. Mr. Gray will be long remembered and sadly missed by his wife of 57 years, Christine, his family and friends and all those whose lives he touched; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 462)

Gerald Samuel Savitz, Jr., of Andover. After working as a biological technician for the United States Department of the Interior, Bureau of Sport Fisheries and Wildlife, Mr. Savitz worked at Monmouth County Park System in New Jersey as a principal park naturalist, providing outdoor education and environmental interpretation, until he became the Executive Director of Friends of the Monmouth County Park System, Inc. In Andover, he served as a town selectman, served on the Olde Home Day Committee, one year contributing the theme name of "Andover - Nature's Playground," and judged the town's annual garden contest. Mr. Savitz will be long remembered and sadly missed by his family and friends; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 463)

Lloyd Waterhouse, of West Paris, pastor of the Grace Fellowship Church, who recently celebrated his 90th birthday. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 464)

Elisabeth Parker, of Northport, who has earned the distinction of being named Salutatorian of the 2019 graduating class of Maine Central Institute. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 465)

Caitlin McKenney, of Harmony, who has earned the distinction of being named Valedictorian of the 2019 graduating class of Maine Central Institute. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 466) the Top Ten students of the 2019 graduating class of Waterville Senior High School: Kai Rabideau, Carter Jones, Eban Charles, Gabriel Ferris, Conrad Ayers, Adam Livshits, Madeleine Hallen, Merline Feero, Elwin Moss and Brock Jolicoeur. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 467)

Grace Despres, of Fayette, who has earned the distinction of being named Valedictorian of the 2019 graduating class of Maranacook Community High School. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 468)

Haley Froisland, of Raymond, who has earned the distinction of being named Salutatorian of the 2019 graduating class of

LEGISLATIVE RECORD – HOUSE APPENDIX
December 5, 2018 to December 1, 2020

Windham High School. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 469)

the Windham High School Boys Track Team members Connor Abbotoni, Anthony Sawyer, Mason Rosborough and Ethan Wert, all of Windham, who are the 2019 Southwestern Maine Activities Association 4x400 Champions and who set a new school record in the event. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 470)

Mikayla Baiguy, of Windham, who has earned the distinction of being named Valedictorian of the 2019 graduating class of Windham High School. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 471) the Top Ten students of the 2019 graduating class of Bucksport High School: Mikayla Tripp, valedictorian; Hannah Ferrell, salutatorian; Hank Austin; Emily Erickson; Dylan Wight; Sarah Low; James Terrill; Drew Smith; Austin Clement; and Brittney DeWitt. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 472)

James Hotham, of Blaine, who has earned the distinction of being named Salutatorian of the 2019 graduating class of Central Aroostook High School. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 473)

Annika Nicholas, of Blaine, who has earned the distinction of being named Valedictorian of the 2019 graduating class of Central Aroostook High School. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 474)

Noah White, of Washburn, who has earned the distinction of being named Salutatorian of the 2019 graduating class of Washburn District High School. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 475)

Edwin McLaughlin, of Perham, who has earned the distinction of being named Valedictorian of the 2019 graduating class of Washburn District High School. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 476)

Grace Kirkpatrick, of Eddington, who has earned the distinction of being named Salutatorian of the 2019 graduating class of John Bapst Memorial High School. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 477)

Aino Rudloff-Eastman, of Exeter, who has earned the distinction of being named Salutatorian of the 2019 graduating class of Dexter Regional High School. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 478)

Shannon O'Roak, of Exeter, who has earned the distinction of being named Valedictorian of the 2019 graduating class of Dexter Regional High School. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 479) the Reverend Frank Murray, of Bangor, pastor of St. Paul the Apostle Parish and formerly a member of the Maine House of Representatives representing Bangor, who has received the 2018 Theological College Alumnus Lifetime Service Award. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 480)

Joseph L. Ferris, of Brewer, for his years of public service. Mr. Ferris serves as a member of the Brewer City Council and has served twice as mayor, as well as on the Brewer School Board and with the Brewer Economic Development Corporation. He was a University of Maine baseball player and was named the most outstanding player in the 1964 College World Series, and he is the sixth Black Bear to have his number displayed on the university's Wall of Legends. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 481)

Eliot Small, of Hampden, who has earned the distinction of being named Valedictorian of the 2019 graduating class of Hampden Academy. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 482)

Brady Lobdell, of Hampden, who has earned the distinction of being named Salutatorian of the 2019 graduating class of Hampden Academy. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 483)

Marc Bowering, of Wilton, who has retired as a detective with the Farmington Police Department after 20 years of service, and who previously worked for the Wilton Police Department for 10 years. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 484)

Bruce Audie, of Saco, who is retiring as a school bus driver for Saco schoolchildren after 5 1/2 years of service and who previously served for 37 years in the Biddeford Police Department. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 485)

Kristina Joan Wilson, of West Paris, who has earned the distinction of being named Salutatorian of the 2019 graduating class of Oxford Hills Comprehensive High School. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 486) the Southern Aroostook Community School Girls Basketball Team, of Dyer Brook, which won the Class D North Championship. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 487)

Madeline Buswell, of Winter Harbor, who has earned the distinction of being named Valedictorian of the 2019 graduating class of Sumner Memorial High School. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 488)

Tara Flubacher, of Winter Harbor, who has earned the distinction of being named Salutatorian of the 2019 graduating class of Sumner Memorial High School. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 489)

Katherine Sylvia Ledger, of Amity, who has earned the distinction of being named Valedictorian of the 2019 graduating class of Hodgdon Middle-High School. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 490)

Rob Tod, of Falmouth, founder of Allagash Brewing Company in Portland, who has received the prestigious James Beard Foundation Outstanding Wine, Beer or Spirits Producer Award. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 491)

Friedrich DB Wilcox, of Caribou, who has earned the distinction of being named Valedictorian of the 2019 graduating class of Caribou High School. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 492)

Emily N. Michaud, of Caribou, who has earned the distinction of being named Salutatorian of the 2019 graduating class of Caribou High School. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 493)

Jennifer Crone, of Danforth, who has earned the distinction of being named Valedictorian of the 2019 graduating class of East Grand School. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 494)

Barbara Hawkes, of Westbrook. Mrs. Hawkes was the longtime City Clerk of Westbrook and a co-owner with her husband Al of Hawkes TV Sales and Service, Event Recording Studio and the Sound Cellar at Hawkes Plaza, where she was in charge of purchasing, hiring, accounting and payroll. She was elected Westbrook City Clerk in 1994 and served seven two-year terms. Mrs. Hawkes will be long remembered and sadly missed by her family and friends and by all those whose lives she touched; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 495)

Al Hawkes, of Westbrook. Mr. Hawkes was a country and bluegrass music legend and was considered a national treasure and an icon of the City of Westbrook. Mr. Hawkes wrote and performed Song of Westbrook, which was named the official song of the city, on his 2015 album, I Love the State of Maine.

LEGISLATIVE RECORD – HOUSE APPENDIX
December 5, 2018 to December 1, 2020

He formed his first band, The Al Hawkes Hillbillies, in high school and was part of Allerton and Alton, considered to be perhaps the first interracial bluegrass music duo in the country. Through his and his wife Barbara's recording studio, Event Records, he recorded a number of noted bluegrass musicians. He later focused on the family business, Hawkes TV Sales and Service, which operated until 1989. He received many honors, including induction into the Maine Country Music Hall of Fame in 1980 and being named the group's Bluegrass Artist of the Year in 1983 and Folk Artist of the Year in 1984. Mr. Hawkes will be long remembered and sadly missed by his family and friends and by his public; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 496)

Theresa Gagne, of Waterville, who celebrated her 100th Birthday on April 18, 2019. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 497)

Mallory Gilman, of Danforth, who has earned the distinction of being named Salutatorian of the 2019 graduating class of East Grand School. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 498)

Tessa Mott, of Lincolnville, who has earned the distinction of being named Salutatorian of the 2019 graduating class of Camden Hills Regional High School. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 499)

Augusta Stockman, of Camden, who has earned the distinction of being named Valedictorian of the 2019 graduating class of Camden Hills Regional High School. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 500)

Olivia Tiner, of Winslow, a sophomore at Winslow High School, who has been named the Girls Track and Field Athlete of the Year by the Morning Sentinel and Kennebec Journal. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 501)

Megan Steele, of Auburn, who has earned the distinction of being named Salutatorian of the 2019 graduating class of Edward Little High School. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 502)

Oliver Hall, of Auburn, who has earned the distinction of being named Valedictorian of the 2019 graduating class of Edward Little High School. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 503)

Spruce Mountain Middle School, of Jay, whose students produced the annual Worldof7billion.org Video Contest Best Video from Maine. The school's winning one-minute video identified a real-world problem tied to population growth and proposed a solution. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 504)

Eleanor M. Murphy, of Berwick, recipient of a Spirit of America Foundation Award. The Spirit of America Foundation was established to encourage and promote volunteerism, and the foundation presents awards to honor local individuals, organizations or projects in appreciation of community service. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 505)

Ethan W. Boardman, of Scarborough, a member of Troop No. 47, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout. This is the highest award in Scouting and is given for excellence in skills development, leadership, personal growth and community service. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 506)

the Top Ten students of the 2019 graduating class of Mount View High School, in Thorndike: Olivia McPherson, valedictorian; Orla Foley, salutatorian; Paul Alley; Megan Bennett; Jack Valleau; Rachelle Ravin; Stella Tirone; Niamh Foley; Payton Pomeroy; and Alyvia Ripley. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 507)

Alverda Mae Beal, of Beals. Mrs. Beal was devoted to her family and enjoyed countless hours of photography and scrapbooking and her card ministry. She was a member of the Advent Christian Church on Beals Island. Mrs. Beal will be long remembered and sadly missed by her husband of 63 years, Stanley, and by her family and friends; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 508)

Lucien Wallace, of Sebago, who has earned the distinction of being named Valedictorian of the 2019 graduating class of Lake Region High School. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 509)

Cole Winslow, of Hodgdon, who has earned the distinction of being named Valedictorian of the 2019 graduating class of Greater Houlton Christian Academy. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 510)

Emily Smith, of Hermon, who has earned the distinction of being named Salutatorian of the 2019 graduating class of Hermon High School. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 511)

Emma Davis, of Hermon, who has earned the distinction of being named Valedictorian of the 2019 graduating class of Hermon High School. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 512)

Samuel Peterson, of Holden, who has earned the distinction of being named Valedictorian of the 2019 graduating class of John Baptist Memorial High School. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 513)

Mary Leighton, of Temple, who is retiring as a Special Services Teacher with Regional School Unit 73 after many years of service. Ms. Leighton previously worked at Regional School Unit 9 and Regional School Unit 36. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 514)

Cynthia Paradis, of Turner, who is retiring as a Special Services Teacher at Spruce Mountain High School after many years of service. Ms. Paradis has also served in the Leavitt school district, at the old Livermore Falls High School and at Readfield Elementary School. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 515)

Brad Bishop, of Waterville, who is retiring as a teacher at Spruce Mountain Middle School after many years of service. Mr. Bishop has also taught at Morse High School and Lawrence High School and has coached high school football in Maine for 37 years. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 516)

Taneli Koskela, of Bethel, who is a recipient of a 2019 Real Heroes Award from the American Red Cross of Maine for helping to save the lives of a couple sleeping in a burning house. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 517)

Trivett Clough, of Bethel, who is a recipient of a 2019 Real Heroes Award from the American Red Cross of Maine for helping to save the lives of a couple sleeping in a burning house. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 518)

Brady Chapman, of Milton Township, who is a recipient of a 2019 Real Heroes Award from the American Red Cross of Maine for helping to save the lives of a couple sleeping in a burning house. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 519)

Katelyn Robinson, of Garland, a health occupations student at Tri-County Technical Center, who has been named the center's Student of the Year. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 520)

Anne Wilkinson, of Dayton, an inductee of the Maine Music Educators Association 2019 Hall of Fame, who is retiring as a performing arts teacher at Thornton Academy after over 20 years of service. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 521)

LEGISLATIVE RECORD – HOUSE APPENDIX
December 5, 2018 to December 1, 2020

Molly Calkins, of Oakland, who has earned the distinction of being named Valedictorian of the 2019 graduating class of Messalonskee High School. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 522) the Scarborough High School Boys Track Team, which won the Class A State Track and Field Championship, the team's third state title in four years. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 523)

Jarrett Flaker, of Scarborough, a student at Scarborough High School, who won the 100, 200 and 400 at the Class A Boys State Track and Field Championship. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 524) the Top Ten students of the 2019 graduating class of Marshwood High School, in South Berwick: Noble Mushtak, Courtney Thim, Elyse Hassett, Alayna Melino, Natalie Herbold, Nicolette Gardner, Katherine Page, Makenna Janes, Liam Coomey and Michaela Tero. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 525)

Grace Carlson, of Belgrade, who has earned the distinction of being named Salutatorian of the 2019 graduating class of Messalonskee High School. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 526)

Peter Conway, of Milton Township, who is a recipient of a 2019 Real Heroes Award from the American Red Cross of Maine for helping to save the lives of a couple sleeping in a burning house. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 527)

Robert A. Frost, Jr., of Brunswick. Mr. Frost was a veteran of the United States Army who served during the Korean War. He worked in accounting at The Times Record before he opened Frosty's Donut Shop in Brunswick, which he operated for 46 years with his wife, June. They also visited local nursing homes, where Mr. Frost would sing and Mrs. Frost played the accordion, and gave leftover doughnuts to the Tedford homeless shelter, Spindlegirls and other organizations, and he volunteered at the Coastal Humane Society. Mr. Frost will be long remembered and sadly missed by his family and friends and all those whose lives he touched; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 528)

the Sacopee Valley High School Boys Track Team, of Hiram, which won the Class C State Track and Field Championship. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 529)

Deb Morang, of Dixfield, who has received the Distinguished Citizen Award from the Town of Dixfield for her contributions to her community, including her efforts to help area youth and heading up the Outdoor Market. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 530)

Matt Overlock, of Troy, a student at Mount View High School, who won the javelin at the Class C Boys State Track and Field Championship. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 531)

Shala Davis, of Troy, a student at Mount View High School, who won the discus at the Class C Girls State Track and Field Championship. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 532)

Sage Pound, of Montville, a student at Mount View High School, who won the 1,600 at the Class C Girls State Track and Field Championship. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 533)

Travis Snyder, of Saco, a student at Thornton Academy, who won the pole vault, 300 hurdles and 110 hurdles at the Class A Boys State Track and Field Championship. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 534)

Jason Montano, of Saco, a student at Thornton Academy, who won the shot put and discus at the Class A Boys State Track and Field Championship. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 535)

Khang Vinh Truong, of Sanford, who has earned the distinction of being named Valedictorian of the 2019 graduating class of Sanford High School. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 536)

Samuel Mercer, of Sanford, who has earned the distinction of being named Salutatorian of the 2019 graduating class of Sanford High School. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 537)

Scott Colby, of Belgrade, on his retirement as a physical education teacher at Messalonskee High School after nearly four decades of service. During his time at the school, he also coached football for more than 35 years. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 538)

Alexandra Walsh, of Presque Isle, who has earned the distinction of being named Valedictorian of the 2019 graduating class of Presque Isle High School. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 539)

Bob Fowler, of Cumberland, Executive Director for Milestone Recovery, who has been recognized by Crossroads for his over 25 years of work in behavioral health treatment and administration. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 540)

Joshua Linkletter, of Athens, a senior at Madison Area Memorial High School, who is a recipient of a 2019 Principal's Award for outstanding academic achievement and citizenship, sponsored by the Maine Principals' Association. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 541)

Robert Lobley, a lifelong resident of Orrington and volunteer in the community, who has been named the Orrington Old Home Week 2019 Citizen of the Year. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 542)

John McNally, of Patten, who has earned the distinction of being named Valedictorian of the 2019 graduating class of Katahdin Middle/High School. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 543)

Alyssa Barylski, of Patten, who has earned the distinction of being named Salutatorian of the 2019 graduating class of Katahdin Middle/High School. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 544)

Keegan Delaney, of New Gloucester, a member of Troop No. 349, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout. This is the highest award in Scouting and is given for excellence in skills development, leadership, personal growth and community service. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 545)

Sofie Matson, of Falmouth, a student at Falmouth High School, who won the 1,600 and 3,200 at the Class A Girls State Track and Field Championship. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 546)

Keith Longbottom, of Georgetown. Since 2007, Mr. Longbottom and his wife have owned and operated the Five Islands Lobster Company, a favorite of locals and tourists alike. Mr. Longbottom will be long remembered and sadly missed by his family and friends and all those whose lives he touched; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 547)

Margaret Zorach, of Georgetown. At 102 years of age, Mrs. Zorach was the holder of the Georgetown Boston Post Cane. She, along with her husband, oversaw the extensive works of his parents, William and Marguerite Zorach, and her sister-in-law, Dahlov Ipcar, and made several major donations of the family art to museums across the country. Mrs. Zorach will be long remembered and sadly missed by her family and friends and all those whose lives she touched; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 548)

LEGISLATIVE RECORD – HOUSE APPENDIX
December 5, 2018 to December 1, 2020

Robert E. Hubbard, of Skowhegan. Mr. Hubbard had a varied career: he was a tanker crew boss with the United States Forest Service at Mt. Baker-Snoqualmie National Forest in Washington, a ship's carpenter at Gloucester Marine Railways, a forestry technician at North East Resource Associates in Danvers, Massachusetts, a carpenter on Wyman Dam in Moscow and for S.D. Warren in Hinckley and sole proprietor of Mobil Dimension Custom Sawing in Solon. He was known as "Ranger Bob" during his 20 years as resource manager of Lake George Regional Park in Skowhegan and Canaan, the construction of which he oversaw, and was a mentor to generations of students serving internships at the park. Mr. Hubbard will be long remembered and sadly missed by his family and friends and all those whose lives he touched; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 549)

Tony Sohns, of Bangor, a co-owner of the Rock and Art Shop. Mr. Sohns was a teacher, storyteller and adventurer with an infectious enthusiasm for natural wonders whose many talents found an outlet in his family's shops in Bangor, Ellsworth and Bar Harbor. He was a collector of rocks and insects from an early age, and he enjoyed drawing audiences out of their comfort zone to appreciate creatures they would otherwise not. Mr. Sohns will be long remembered and sadly missed by his family and friends and all those whose lives he touched; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 550)

Sheila Comerford, of East Winthrop, who is retiring as Executive Director of the Maine Psychological Association after 26 years of service, addressing issues such as parity for mental health services, social justice and the impact of mental health struggles on communities and families. Earlier, she was the Director of the Maine Committee on Aging, advocating for the needs of vulnerable populations in Maine. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 551)

Sydney Thompson, of Caribou, who has earned the distinction of being named Salutatorian of the 2019 graduating class of Presque Isle High School. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 552)

William Robert Dieterich, of South Paris, who has earned the distinction of being named Valedictorian of the 2019 graduating class of Oxford Hills Comprehensive High School. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 553)

Gerald J. LeBlanc, of Presque Isle. Mr. LeBlanc, who loved anything with a motor, taught small engine repair through the School Administrative District 1 adult education program. He owned and operated Winnie's Dairy Bar and Restaurant and served as vice president of LeBlanc Foods, Inc., making, packing and shipping gourmet lobster stew throughout the United States. He was a member of the Presque Isle Area Chamber of Commerce, various snowmobile clubs, the Presque Isle Fish and Game Club, the Maine Restaurant Association and the Maine State Chamber of Commerce. Mr. LeBlanc will be long remembered and sadly missed by his family and friends and all those whose lives he touched; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 554)

Jeffrey Paradis, of Augusta. Mr. Paradis was one of Maine's most effective advocates for veterans struggling with post-traumatic stress disorder after service overseas. He was one of the first soldiers to deploy to Afghanistan in support of Operation Enduring Freedom on October 7, 2001. He produced a video that has been shared over 100,000 times and viewed over 4 million times, and he can easily be credited with saving dozens of lives by showing veterans "You're worth it." He worked as the friendly and outgoing bartender at The Black & Tan in Augusta, where he greeted locals and legislators with genuine hospitality. Mr. Paradis will be long remembered and sadly missed by his family and friends and all those whose lives he touched; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 555)

Carly Warn, of Winslow, a student at Winslow High School, who won the triple jump at the Class B Girls State Track and Field Championship. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 556)

Sharon Beaver, of Augusta, who is retiring from teaching music at Farrington Elementary School and Hussey Elementary School after 46 years of service. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 557)

Marcia Hughes, of Augusta, who is retiring from teaching fourth grade at Farrington Elementary School after 48 years of service. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 558)

Elizabeth Chadwick, of Augusta, who is retiring from teaching fifth grade at Farrington Elementary School after 47 years of service. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 559) the Mattanawcook Academy Girls Tennis Team, of Lincoln, which won the 2019 Class C State Tennis Championship. This is the team's second consecutive state title. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 560)

Jeanne Kempers, of Fairfield, who retired from the Fairfield Police Department after serving the Town of Fairfield for nearly 36 years. Previously, Ms. Kempers taught in School Administrative District 49. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 561)

Richard Bates, of Camden, who is retiring as Rockport Town Manager after a career in public service that began in 1974 in Derry, New Hampshire. Mr. Bates took up the position of Parks and Recreation Director in Raymond, New Hampshire in 1977 before becoming the town's manager in 2000. In 2013, he became Rockport Town Manager. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 562)

Timothy P. Wilson, of Portland, who has been inducted into the Maine Sports Hall of Fame for his more than 50 years in education, public service and coaching. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 563) the Searsport District High School Baseball Team, which won the Class D South Championship. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 564)

the Southern Aroostook Community School photography class, of Dyer Brook, including Collin Grant, Esther Green, Nathan Mahan, Selena Botting, Rose Arnts, Breanne Wright, Jaelyn Francis, Brianna Daggett and Gracie Brewer, which won the 2019 Maine Learning Technology Initiative T-Shirt Design Competition. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 565)

Francis E. Pulsoni, of Buxton. Corporal Pulsoni is retiring from the Buxton Police Department after 30 years of service. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 566)

Douglas Bracy, of York, who is retiring as York Police Chief after beginning work with the department in 1977. Chief Bracy has also served on the York Hospital board of directors for a decade, serving as president for a year, and is a member of the York Beach Fire Department, for which he has served as assistant chief. He served as an executive board member of the Maine Chiefs of Police Association, including as President, and served as an instructor at the Maine Criminal Justice Academy. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 567)

Brenda Bracy, of York, who is retiring from her work at the York Senior Center, part of the town's Department of Parks and

LEGISLATIVE RECORD – HOUSE APPENDIX
December 5, 2018 to December 1, 2020

Recreation. Mrs. Bracy began working at the York Police Department in 1977, remaining at the department for 18 years before working for Parks and Recreation. She also is a founding member of the York chapter of the Dream Factory, which grants the wishes of terminally ill children, and has served on the York Ambulance board for 15 years. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 568)

Michael Caudle, of South Portland, who has received the 2019 eco-Excellence Award in the Individual Category from ecomaine for leading the charge in reducing waste and increasing recycling in South Portland, specifically at Redbank Village. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 569) the Brewer High School Girls Track Team, which won the Class B State Track and Field Championship. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 570)

Bruce W. Johnson, of Brewer and Springdale, Arizona. Mr. Johnson taught grades four and five at Gouldville School in Presque Isle and coached the JVII team at Presque Isle High School before going into sales, starting with Autowize and moving on to Maremont, Parts Wholesalers and Unicef before opening his own business, Today's Technology, in Bangor and Brewer, from which he retired in 2010. He was a member of All Souls Congregational Church for over 30 years, serving on many committees, teaching Sunday School and serving as a deacon and moderator. He was a member of the Brewer City Council for two terms and coached PAL basketball as well as youth soccer in Brewer. Mr. Johnson will be long remembered and sadly missed by his wife of over 46 years, Colleen, and by his family and friends; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 571)

Lester Burton Young, of Brewer. Mr. Young was an educator from 1975 to 2011, teaching in Vanceboro, Glenburn and Brewer. He served as a teaching and supervising principal at Glenburn Elementary School and as principal of Pendleton Street, State Street and Washington Street Schools in Brewer, as well as Business Manager of the Brewer School Department. He also served for a year as superintendent of School Administrative District 63 and served as the Owner's Representative for the Brewer Community School Construction Project. In 2011 he was named Brewer's Citizen of the Year. He was a member of the Northeast Elementary Principal Association, the Maine Principals' Association, serving on many committees, and the Penobscot River Educational Partnership. He attended All Souls Congregational Church in Bangor. Mr. Young will be long remembered and sadly missed by his family and friends and all those whose lives he touched; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 572)

Zander Bourne, of Hallowell, a student at Hall-Dale High School, who won the 1,600 race walk at the Class C Boys State Track and Field Championship. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 573)

the Top Ten students of the 2019 graduating class of Gardiner Area High School: Sarah Foust, valedictorian; Casey Bourque, salutatorian; Mollie Berglund; Erin Frankhauser; Anna Chadwick; Renee Rossi; Sophia Staniszewski; Kiara Goggin; Anna Toman; and Kristen Ladner. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 574)

Susan F. Feiner, of Yarmouth, Emeritus Professor of Economics and Women and Gender Studies at the University of Southern Maine. Dr. Feiner has received from the University of Maine Women's, Gender, and Sexuality Studies Program and Rising Tide Center a 2019 Maryann Hartman Award, which recognizes Maine women whose achievements provide inspiration to women and honors the legacy of the late associate professor of speech communication who was a distinguished educator, feminist, scholar and humanitarian. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 575) the Lisbon High School Baseball Team, which won the Class C State Championship. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 576)

the Cape Elizabeth High School Girls Lacrosse Team, which won the Class B State Championship. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 577)

Fran Kessler, of Kennebunk, who is retiring as the Kennebunk High School Licensed Clinical Social Worker after 26 years of service providing advice, counsel and support to all of the school's students. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 578) the Dexter Regional High School Softball Team, which won the Class C North Championship. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 579)

Jaynie Flaherty, of Old Orchard Beach, who has received the Hall of Fame Award from the Old Orchard Beach Chamber of Commerce for her long-standing history and significant service impact within the community. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 580) the Old Orchard Beach Community Food Pantry and Resource Center, which has received the Non-profit Organization of the Year Award from the Old Orchard Beach Chamber of Commerce for its significant contributions to the overall culture, health and viability of the community. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 581)

Camryn Blatchford, of Old Orchard Beach, a student at Loranger Memorial School, who is a recipient of the Secretary of State's Eighth Grade Citizenship Award, honoring students for civic awareness, scholastic achievement and community service. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 582)

Roy W. Baker, of Old Orchard Beach. Mr. Baker served in the United States Army during World War II as a radar mechanic for the 9th Bombardment Squadron located on Tinian Island. He became a Melrose, Massachusetts firefighter and served as an emergency medical technician on the Rescue Squad at the Melrose Fire Department headquarters. He served as a firefighter for 25 years. He also was a civil engineer for Hayes Engineering for over 15 years. He was a member of the Masonic Lodge in Melrose and coached hockey and Little League baseball. During summers in Ocean Park in Old Orchard Beach, he volunteered at Royal Family Kids Camp, a summer program for disadvantaged youths sponsored by the Saco First Baptist Church, for which he served on the Board of Directors. Mr. Baker will be long remembered and sadly missed by his wife of 78 years, Ruth, and by his family and friends; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 583)

Carol Davis, of Old Orchard Beach. Mrs. Davis helped found the Old Orchard Beach Community Food Pantry and served as its director since its inception in 2012. Previously, she was a volunteer at the Old Orchard Beach Food Pantry. She was passionate about ensuring others were not going hungry, and she created a friendly environment for people in need. Mrs. Davis will be long remembered and sadly missed by her family and friends and all those whose lives she touched; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 584)

Catherine Morrill Day Nursery, of Portland, which is celebrating its 100th Anniversary. The nursery, Maine's oldest licensed child care facility, which received reaccreditation from the National Association for the Education of Young Children in 2017, continues its mission to provide quality care for Portland's children. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 585)

LEGISLATIVE RECORD – HOUSE APPENDIX
December 5, 2018 to December 1, 2020

the Brewer High School Girls Softball Team, which won the Class B State Championship. This is the team's second state title in two years. We extend to all the members of the team our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 586)

Tristan Perreault, of Garfield Plantation, a member of Troop No. 179, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout. This is the highest award in Scouting and is given for excellence in skills development, leadership, personal growth and community service. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 587)

Samuel Brown, of Scarborough, a member of Troop No. 47, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout. This is the highest award in Scouting and is given for excellence in skills development, leadership, personal growth and community service. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 588)

Jeremy Judd, of Mechanic Falls, a warden with the Maine Warden Service, who received the K9 Search and Rescue of the Year Award for rescuing a 58-year-old Sanford woman with the help of K9 Tika. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 589)

Shane Slicer, of Waterford, a teacher at Oxford Hills Comprehensive High School, who is being inducted into the Unum Teachers' Hall of Fame. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 590)

James Harold Young, of Bethel, recipient of a Spirit of America Foundation Award. The Spirit of America Foundation was established to encourage and promote volunteerism, and the foundation presents awards to honor local individuals, organizations or projects in appreciation of community service. Mr. Young was recognized for his service to the community, including his 50 years with the Bethel Fire Department. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 591)

Sheila Crowley, of Jonesport. Ms. Crowley worked in several area banks and retired after working for many years at Church's True Value. Ms. Crowley will be long remembered and sadly missed by her family and friends; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 592)

Hulda "Huddy" Hinkley Peterson, of Harrington. In 1972, Mrs. Peterson and her husband, Charlie, purchased and settled into her grandparents' former home in Harrington, "The Triple H Ranch," which was home to the Christmas wreath business she operated for over thirty years. She also co-owned a marine worm business with her husband, was a driver for WHCA, was a property manager and raked blueberries. Mrs. Peterson will be long remembered and sadly missed by her family and friends; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 593)

Alverna Leona Williams, of Jonesport. Mrs. Williams will be long remembered and sadly missed by her family and friends; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 594)

Irma Elaine Pelletier, of Jonesport. Ms. Pelletier will be long remembered and sadly missed by her family and friends; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 595)

Harold Russell Seekins, of Orland. Mr. Seekins started working in the St. Regis Paper Mill in Bucksport as a magazine loader before working his way up to being a maintenance supervisor, retiring after more than 35 years of service. He was a master handyman and an accomplished woodworking carpenter and home builder. Mr. Seekins will be long remembered and sadly missed by his wife of 59 years, Jane, his family and his friends; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 596)

Eric J. Berube, of Oxford. Mr. Berube, an avid outdoorsman, was a longtime assistant operations manager of Frye Island, where he was a jack of all trades, helping to sustain the island and its community. Mr. Berube will be long remembered and sadly missed by his family and friends; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 597)

Foster Leo Ward and Deborah Lee Nelson, of Monson, who are celebrating their 50th Wedding Anniversary on June 28, 2019. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 598)

James E. Eshleman, of Norway. Dr. Eshleman is retiring from a career in medicine he began in 1973. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 599) the Greenville Consolidated School Softball Team, which won the Class D South Championship. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 600)

Amanda Severy, of Litchfield, who prevented a school bus accident by stepping in and controlling the vehicle after the driver suffered a heart attack. She was recognized by a Maine State Police Special Award of Commendation for her actions. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 601)

Brian Bean, of Corinth, who rescued a couple who were overcome by carbon monoxide fumes inside their home and who was recognized by the Maine State Police with a bravery award for his lifesaving actions. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 602)

the Bath-Tsugaru Student Exchange Program, which is celebrating its 30th anniversary. The program is part of the sister-city relationship between the City of Bath and Tsugaru City, Japan. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 603)

Jonathan Roy, of Albion, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout. This is the highest award in Scouting and is given for excellence in skills development, leadership, personal growth and community service. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 604)

Michael Roy, of Albion, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout. This is the highest award in Scouting and is given for excellence in skills development, leadership, personal growth and community service. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 605)

Seth Pellerin, of Albion, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout. This is the highest award in Scouting and is given for excellence in skills development, leadership, personal growth and community service. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 606)

the Summa Cum Laude students of the 2019 graduating class of Hall-Dale High School, in Farmingdale: Emily Allen, Grace Begin, Bryce Bragdon, Alec Byron, Alixx Canwell, Kieran Dionne, Emily Drappeau, Hazel Houghton, Isaac Lawrence, Laura Molesworth, Grace Moulton, Anthony Romano, Eli Spahn, Austin Stebbins and Gabrielle Theriault. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 607)

Ronald and Luciana Marcotte, of New Gloucester, who celebrated their 50th Wedding Anniversary on May 31, 2019. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 608) the Scarborough High School Baseball Team, which won the Class A State Championship. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 609)

the Scarborough High School Softball Team, which won the Class A State Championship. This is the team's third straight state title. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 610)

Michael Joseph Phelan, of Northport. Mr. Phelan served in the United States Air Force and later worked for the United States Postal Service. After retiring to Northport, he worked at the Belfast YMCA and was a member of St. Francis Catholic Church and the Knights of Columbus. Mr. Phelan will be long remembered and sadly missed by his family and friends; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 611)

LEGISLATIVE RECORD – HOUSE APPENDIX
December 5, 2018 to December 1, 2020

William N. Therrien, Sr., of Jay. Mr. Therrien worked at the International Paper Mill in Jay, Bath Iron Works and Verso Paper in Jay. He was a member of the International Paper Quarter Century Club and the Amvets Post 33 Firing Squad. Mr. Therrien will be long remembered and sadly missed by his family and friends; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 612)

Thomas A. Kenney, of Belgrade. Mr. Kenney worked a carpenter and was a member of the Carpenter's Union Local 620, of Madison, New Jersey. He relocated to Maine in 1980 and worked as a self-employed carpenter/builder for over 30 years. Mr. Kenney was a former member of the Belgrade Lions Club and the Belgrade Lakes Fire Department. He will be long remembered and sadly missed by his family and friends; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 613)

Kathy Welch, of York, who is retiring as a school counselor at Coastal Ridge Elementary School after 36 years of service. Ms. Welch was named Maine School Counselor of the Year in 2013 and represented Maine as the American School Counselor Association 2016 Counselor of the Year. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 614)

Ralph E. Alley, of Beals. Mr. Alley served in the United States Navy from 1950 to 1954, during the Korean War. He worked for over 80 years in ocean employment, harvesting sardines, scallops, quahogs, shrimp, fish and lobsters. He was one of the founding fathers of BJ CO-OP, a proud member of the National Rifle Association and a member of Masonic Lodge #188, Ancient Free and Accepted Masons. He also was a painter and loved music, playing the guitar, writing songs and performing with The Jamboree. Mr. Alley will be long remembered and sadly missed by his wife of 61 years, Joyce, and his family and friends; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 615)

Anne Langlois, of Richmond. Ms. Langlois lived in Middletown, New Jersey, where she worked as a computer programmer and was very involved with the Board of Education, PFA and PTA and helped start Project Prom. In 2003, she moved to Maine and became active with the York County Democratic Committee, first as the secretary and later as chair, and volunteered at Portland Head Light. Ms. Langlois will be long remembered and sadly missed by her family and friends; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 616)

Edward Gogins, of South Portland, Chief of the South Portland Police Department, who is retiring after a nearly 50-year career in law enforcement. Chief Gogins is credited with turning around the police department after he took up his post 25 years ago. Before serving as chief, he rose up through the ranks of the Portland Police Department. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 617)

the Maine State Housing Authority, headquartered in Augusta, which is celebrating its 50th Anniversary. Established as a quasi-public housing agency charged with expanding affordable housing opportunities for the State's low-income and moderate-income families and individuals, MaineHousing has been helping Maine citizens own, rent, repair and heat their homes since 1969. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 618)

Luis Ayala, of Dover-Foxcroft, a teacher at Foxcroft Academy and the coach of the academy's wrestling team. Mr. Ayala, who has coached the team to six state championships in 17 years, has been inducted into the Maine Amateur Wrestling Alliance Hall of Fame. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 619)

Loretta F. Mayhew, of Cherryfield. Mrs. Mayhew will be long remembered and sadly missed by her husband of 55 years, Carl, and her family and friends; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 620)

Shirley E. "Crow" Alley, of Jonesport. Mr. Alley was known as the "Wrinkle King" of Washington County. He dug worms and clams and in recent years enjoyed lobster fishing. Mr. Alley will be long remembered and sadly missed by his wife of 30 years, Linda, and his family and friends; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 621)

Agnes Taylor, of Beals. Mrs. Taylor grew up in Fischbachau, Germany and married Dorough Taylor, who was serving in the United States Army and stationed in the Munich area, eventually moving to the United States and becoming a United States citizen. She worked many jobs, mostly in manufacturing, often becoming a manager through hard work and talent. In 1970, she and her family moved to Beals Island, where she worked blueberry raking, wreath making, clam digging and periwinkling. She also worked as a manager of sea urchin processing facilities, establishing new processing plants in the United States and Canada. Mrs. Taylor will be long remembered and sadly missed by her family and friends; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 622)

Donna M. Alley, of Beals. Mrs. Alley worked at many jobs through the years and most recently worked at Wyman's in Cherryfield. Mrs. Alley will be long remembered and sadly missed by her family and friends; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 623)

John Edward Hovey IV, of Skowhegan. John was a student at Skowhegan Area Middle School. He loved learning real world skills, working at construction sites with his father, John, as a stern man on lobster boats or at his mother Janine's business, Alice's Restaurant. He will be long remembered and sadly missed by his family and friends and all those whose lives he touched; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 624)

Gilbert Russell Avery, of Casco. Mr. Avery and his wife, Wilma, owned and operated Little Rigby Antiques in the Pikes Corner store. He was employed by Dielectric Communications in Raymond for 43 years and continued to train new employees for many years after his retirement. Earlier, he was employed by MS Hancock as a board piper. He joined the Casco Fire Department in 1948 and served as an active volunteer firefighter for 67 years. He also served on many town committees and helped to plan the Casco sesquicentennial celebration. Mr. Avery will be long remembered and sadly missed by his family and friends and all those whose lives he touched; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 625)

Sydney Ames, of Skowhegan, a student at Skowhegan Area High School, who has been named the Softball Player of the Year by the Morning Sentinel. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 626)

Don Plourde, of Readfield, coach of the Cony High School baseball team, who has been named the Baseball Coach of the Year by the Kennebec Journal. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 627)

Sam Payne, of Lewiston, a student at Lewiston High School, who has been named the 2019 All-Region Boys Lacrosse Player of the Year by the Sun Journal. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 628)

Crispin Kamundala, of Lewiston, a student at Lewiston High School, who has been named the 2019 All-Region Boys Track and Field Athlete of the Year by the Sun Journal. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 629)

Ben St. Laurent, of Lewiston, a student at Lewiston High School, who has been named the 2019 All-Region Boys Tennis Player of the Year by the Sun Journal. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 630)

Julia Svor, of Lewiston, a student at Lewiston High School, who has been named the 2019 All-Region Girls Tennis Player of the Year by the Sun Journal. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 631)

LEGISLATIVE RECORD – HOUSE APPENDIX
December 5, 2018 to December 1, 2020

Avery Lutrzykowski, of Auburn, a student at Saint Dominic Academy, who has been named the 2019 All-Region Girls Lacrosse Player of the Year by the Sun Journal. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 632)

Shana Goodall, of Orono, a teacher at Orono High School, who was named the 2019 Maine History Teacher of the Year by the Gilder Lehrman Institute of American History. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 633)

Renys, of Belfast, which is celebrating its 70th Anniversary, the department store having been founded in Damariscotta in 1949 and growing to 17 locations across the State. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 634)

Derek Veilleux, of Gorham, the coach of the Scarborough High School Boys Track Team, who was named 2019 Coach of the Year by the U.S. Track & Field and Cross Country Coaches Association. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 635)

Chris Libby, of Orono, the coach of the Orono High School Girls Track Team, who was named 2019 Coach of the Year by the U.S. Track & Field and Cross Country Coaches Association. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 636)

Hannah Steelman, of Orono, a sophomore at Wofford College and a graduate of Orono High School, who won the 3,000-meter steeplechase at the 2019 North American, Central American and Caribbean Under 23 Championships. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 637)

Rick Lashua, of Auburn, who is being inducted into the Maine Baseball Hall of Fame. After graduating from Edward Little High School, Mr. Lashua helped the University of Maine advance to the College World Series four straight years from 1981-84 while compiling a .337 batting average. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 638)

Edgar Joseph Bernard, of Rumford, who is celebrating his 90th Birthday on August 15, 2019. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 639)

Nancy D. Carr, of Dixfield, who is retiring as a teacher at T.W. Kelly Dirigo Middle School after 38 years of public service. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 640)

Walls TV, Appliances & Home Furniture, of Machias, which is celebrating its 50th Anniversary as a business. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 641)

Marylou and Horace Moore, of Machiasport, who are celebrating their 50th Wedding Anniversary on August 16th, 2019. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 642)

Camile and Corrine Lausier, of Van Buren, who are celebrating their 65th Wedding Anniversary on August 28, 2019. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 643)

William Franklin "Bill" Barden, of Augusta. Mr. Barden was a graduate of Cony High School and served for 22 years in the Maine Army National Guard, retiring as a sergeant. He was employed by Hudson/Statler Tissue and also worked at and managed his family's businesses, Barden's Shop Rite and Laundry in Augusta and Barden and Sons Grocery and Laundry in Gardiner. His community service activities included membership in the Gardiner Lions Club and the Abanaki Knights of Columbus Council, where he earned the degree of Grand Knight. Mr. Barden will be long remembered and sadly missed by his family, friends and all those whose lives he touched; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 644)

Caroline V. Gould, of Bethel. After graduating from high school and college in Rhode Island, Mrs. Gould moved to Bethel in 1962, where she was hired as a first grade teacher at the Ethel Bisbee School. During her teaching career, she was part of the team that helped establish the comprehensive contract for teachers in School Administrative District 44, and she also led community efforts such as the Boxtops & Campbell Soup Labels campaign. Mrs. Gould will be long remembered and sadly missed by her family, friends and all those whose lives she touched; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 645)

Maurice Bouchard, of Lewiston, who is celebrating his 102nd Birthday on August 3, 2019. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 646)

Margaret Bulger "Etta" Watson, of Rumford. Mrs. Watson was a graduate of Stephens High School in Rumford and was a communicant of the Parish of the Holy Savior St. Athanasius St. John Church. She will be long remembered and sadly missed by her family and friends; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 647)

Aldona S. Reid, of Rumford. Mrs. Reid was a graduate of Stephens High School in Rumford and worked as a Demonstrator for the Rumford Light Company. She was a communicant of the Parish of the Holy Savior St. Athanasius St. John Church. Mrs. Reid will be long remembered and sadly missed by her family and friends; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 648)

John and Heather Linnehan, of Ellsworth, who are celebrating their 50th Wedding Anniversary on August 16, 2019. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 649)

Brian M. Walsh, of Hermon, Principal of Hermon High School, who has received the 2019 Maine Principal of the Year award from the National Association of Secondary School Principals. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 650)

Hermon Baptist Church, of Hermon, which is celebrating its sesquicentennial anniversary. The church was first organized as the Freewill Baptist Society on March 13, 1869. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 651)

George W. Emery, VADM (SS) USN (Retired), of Kennebunkport, who is being honored by the USS Maine Base chapter of the United States Submarine Veterans, Incorporated for 50 years of submarine qualification. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 652)

Paul R. Adams, LCDR (SS) USN (Retired), of Boothbay Harbor, who is being honored by the USS Maine Base chapter of the United States Submarine Veterans, Incorporated for 50 years of submarine qualification. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 653)

Leonard W. Knowlton, CTIS (SS) USN (Retired), of Liberty, who is being honored by the USS Maine Base chapter of the United States Submarine Veterans, Incorporated for 50 years of submarine qualification. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 654)

Thomas G. Cox, RMC (SS) USN (Retired), of Caribou, who is being honored by the USS Maine Base chapter of the United States Submarine Veterans, Incorporated for 50 years of submarine qualification. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 655)

John P. Bay, RMSN (SS), of Minot, who is being honored by the USS Maine Base chapter of the United States Submarine Veterans, Incorporated for 50 years of submarine qualification. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 656)

Jean Pratt, of Newburgh, who is retiring after 38 years of public service employment with the Newport District Court. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 657)

Barry Lee Wyman, of Woolwich. Mr. Wyman was a longtime landscaper with Jorgensen Landscaping and a Deacon at Small Point Baptist Church. He served as a mentor for young people through his work as a football and basketball coach, through teaching swimming to children with disabilities and through working with youth at the Bath Area YMCA. Mr. Wyman will be long remembered and sadly missed by his family, his friends and all those whose lives he touched; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 658)

LEGISLATIVE RECORD – HOUSE APPENDIX
December 5, 2018 to December 1, 2020

John Clinton "J.C." Day, of Bethel. Mr. Day was a veteran of the United States Army who served in Vietnam for two years. He will be long remembered and sadly missed by his wife of 48 years, Susan, and his family and friends; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 659)

Pam Whelan-Roy, of York, who is retiring from Village Elementary School after a 42-year career in education, with 33 of those years teaching kindergarten. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 660)

Sybil Baker, of Hallowell. Ms. Baker was born in England and raised in New Jersey and Vermont. She pursued acting in New York in 1950, touring with and serving as an understudy for Katherine Hepburn in As You Like It, attending an acting class with Grace Kelly and performing with James Dean in off-off Broadway productions. She later worked as a newspaper reporter and copy editor, working at papers including the Niagara Falls Gazette and Danbury News Times before working at the New York Daily News, San Francisco Examiner, Oakland Tribune and Los Angeles Times. In 1975, she won a National Endowment for the Humanities Fellowship to study writing for a year at Stanford University. She moved to Hallowell in 2003 and became an active member of the Unitarian Universalist Community Church of Augusta and the Unitarian Universalist Church of Brunswick. She also enjoyed writing and performing with The Theater Project of Brunswick. Ms. Baker will be long remembered and sadly missed by her family and friends and all those whose lives she touched; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 661)

Herbert Bailey Lilly, Jr., of Woolwich. Mr. Lilly worked at Bath Iron Works for 42 years. He was well-known as Woolwich's alewife harvester, in which capacity he served for over 50 years. He also served as a town selectman and for many years was the town's representative to the Bath Water District. Mr. Lilly will be long remembered and sadly missed by his family and friends and all those whose lives he touched; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 662)

Samuel Manning, of Camden. Mr. Manning was a veteran of the United States Navy who served during the Korean War. He worked briefly as a salesman before becoming a carpenter, illustrator and commercial artist. He settled in Camden in 1969 and, an avid sailor and oarsman, became a Camden Harbor fixture. He authored, coauthored and illustrated several books and was a frequent contributor to WoodenBoat magazine and other publications. In 1998, he and his wife, Susan, were featured in a video documentary, aired on PBS, called Islands in Time: Rowing to Matinicus Rock, Maine. Mr. Manning will be long remembered and sadly missed by his family and friends and those whose lives he touched; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 663)

John Edwin Dority, of Augusta. Mr. Dority served for 53 years with the Maine Department of Transportation. Initially working as a summer laborer, he rose through the ranks to serve as Director of Maintenance and Operations and then, for the 13 years before his retirement in 2009, as Chief Engineer. He had a natural ability to take charge in the middle of any crisis and was at his best during blizzards, ice storms and hurricanes. He was proud that a member of the Dority family had worked with the Department of Transportation for over 100 years and honored that the safety and performance training center in Fairfield was named after him. After his retirement, he served on the Maine Turnpike Authority Board of Directors for 9 years and chaired the Turnpike's Long Range Planning Committee. Mr. Dority will be long remembered and sadly missed by his family and friends and all those whose lives he touched; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 664)

Ruth Grauert, of Mount Vernon, Founder and Artistic Director of Bearstow, a summer arts retreat dedicated to the preservation and appreciation of the natural environment, who celebrated her 100th Birthday on March 24, 2019. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 665)

Nathan Ryan Willett, of Presque Isle, a member of Troop No. 171, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout. This is the highest award in Scouting and is given for excellence in skills development, leadership, personal growth and community service. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 666)

Stanley J. Masalsky, Jr., of Rumford and Falmouth, Massachusetts. Mr. Masalsky served for four decades as an educator and administrator in the Canton Public Schools in Massachusetts, initially as a teacher and a coach. He is best remembered as Canton High School's longtime Athletic Director, his service earning him recognition as National Athletic Director of the Year in 1998. Mr. Masalsky will be long remembered and sadly missed by his family and friends and all those whose lives he touched; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 667)

Matthew Scott, of Belgrade, who has been selected to receive a United States Environmental Protection Agency 2019 Environmental Merit Lifetime Award to honor his contributions toward preserving and protecting our natural resources. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 668)

Alton R. Hodgson, of Rumford, who is celebrating his 90th Birthday on September 14, 2019. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 669)

Delia Cummings, of Millinocket, who is celebrating her 100th Birthday on October 7, 2019. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 670)

Bill and Mary Ann Marciniak, of Houlton, who are celebrating their 50th Wedding Anniversary on September 27, 2019. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 671)

Bob Myers, of Scarborough, whose company, Myers Test Equipment, is celebrating its 25th Anniversary in business. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 672)

Robert M. Savary, of Bath, who is retiring as Deputy Chief of the Bath Police Department after 27 years of service. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 673)

Rita Bernier, of Windham, who has retired after 44 years of service to the Windham community, including service as a school bus driver, Town Clerk and Assistant Town Clerk. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 674)

Leslie C. Brewer, of Bar Harbor, cofounder of the College of the Atlantic and a veteran of the United States Army. Mr. Brewer served in the Signal Corps during World War II. He was stationed at the Paris Repeater Station and became commanding officer before the end of his service in Europe. He received the Bronze Star and Ribbon of Commendation. He later was recalled to service during the Korean Conflict and served an additional number of years in the United States Army Reserve, retiring in 1963 as a major. He managed F.J. Brewer & Sons Electrical, was a partner in C.E. Marcyes Real Estate and Insurance, built and managed The Golden Anchor Inn, founded and operated MDI Data Associates and served as Director of the First National Bank of Bar Harbor. In 1968, he and Father James Gower established College of the Atlantic, whose board of trustees he served on for 50 years. He was instrumental in creating Mount Desert Island High School, improving Mount Desert Island Hospital, building Birch Bay Retirement Village, enhancing the Bar Harbor Historical Society, enabling the Village Improvement

LEGISLATIVE RECORD – HOUSE APPENDIX
December 5, 2018 to December 1, 2020

Association to undertake and complete numerous restoration projects and supporting the Bar Harbor YMCA. He served continuously on Bar Harbor and Mount Desert Island governmental committees and in elected offices from 1955 to 1991. He was a lifelong member of St. Saviour's Episcopal Church, where he served on the vestry, as Treasurer and as Junior and Senior Warden. Mr. Brewer will be long remembered and sadly missed by his family and friends and all those whose lives he touched; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 675)

Jordan Labbe, of Eagle Lake, a member of Troop No. 189, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout. This is the highest award in Scouting and is given for excellence in skills development, leadership, personal growth and community service. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 676)

Travis May, of Paris, a member of Troop No. 130, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout. This is the highest award in Scouting and is given for excellence in skills development, leadership, personal growth and community service. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 677)

David and Shirley Reid Gifford, of Skowhegan, who celebrated their 60th Wedding Anniversary on July 12, 2019. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 678)

Patricia Ann Kimball, of Bethel. Mrs. Kimball will be long remembered and sadly missed by her family and friends; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 679)

Elsie Roberts Seames, of Greenwood. Mrs. Seames worked for over 25 years at Echo Wood Products in Locke Mills. She will be long remembered and sadly missed by her family and friends; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 680) the 60th anniversary of the Brunswick Toastmasters, Club #2156. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 681)

Emily MacCabe, of Wilton, the Department of Inland Fisheries and Wildlife media and graphics supervisor, who has been named the Information and Educational Professional of the Year by the Northeast Conservation Information and Education Association. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 682)

Daniel Smith, of Gorham, who won First Place in the 9/10 Age Group in the 1500 Meter Race Walk at the USA Track and Field Hershey National Junior Olympic Championship Meet. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 683)

October 10, 2019 as the 108th National Day of the Republic of China. The Republic of China, commonly known as Taiwan, became a nation on October 10, 1911 after over 2,000 years of imperial rule and was formally established as a republic on January 1, 1912. The Republic of China was the first republic in Asia and the first full-fledged democracy in Chinese history. It shares with Maine the common values of freedom, democracy, human rights and the rule of law. We extend our congratulations to the good citizens of Taiwan as they celebrate this anniversary and we send them our continued best wishes; (HLS 684)

Doug Harlow, of Athens, a longtime newspaperman known as a consummate storyteller and dogged community journalist. Mr. Harlow was hired as a contracted correspondent for the Morning Sentinel in Waterville in January 1988. He worked for the newspaper for 31 years, primarily reporting on Somerset County from the newspaper's Skowhegan bureau. While he reported on high-profile stories over the years, he was an avid community journalist, covering crime, business, municipal government and the arts. Mr. Harlow will be long remembered and sadly missed by his family and friends and all those whose lives he touched; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 685)

Janette Frances Lamson, of Rumford Point. Mrs. Lamson worked as a postmistress in Rumford Point and Hanover and, a graduate of the Golden Beauty School in Portland, practiced her skills in hairdressing. Family history and heritage being important to her, and taking pride in her community, she was a member of the local Order of Pythion Sisters, where she held the office of Most Excellent Grand Chief, served as a scout leader, belonged to the hospital auxiliary and supported congregational activities for both the Rumford Point and Rumford Center churches. Mrs. Lamson will be long remembered and sadly missed by her family and friends and all those whose lives she touched; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 686)

Theresa Mudgett, of Bangor, who is retiring from Eastern Maine Development Corporation after 31 years of service working as a Career Advisor, Senior Career Advisor, Career Pathways Manager and Program Manager. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 687)

Joel Wilkinson, of Windsor, Colonel of the Maine Warden Service, who is retiring after 27 years of service. Colonel Wilkinson joined the Maine Warden Service in 1992, serving over the years as a District Warden, Investigator, Sergeant, Captain, Acting Major, Acting Commissioner and Colonel. Early in his career, while working as a Deputy Warden, he also served as a reserve officer with the Gorham Police Department and the Oxford County Sheriff's Department and as a patrolman for the Windham Police Department. We extend our appreciation and best wishes; (HLS 688)

Eleanor Randall Spinney, of South Portland, who is celebrating her 100th Birthday on October 3, 2019. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 689)

Larry Lord, of Jay, a maintenance worker for LEAP in Farmington. Mr. Lord smelled gas in the basement at the offices of LEAP, quickly evacuated the building and called the fire department. Soon thereafter, the building exploded and was destroyed, and Mr. Lord was injured. We extend to Mr. Lord our appreciation for his lifesaving actions; (HLS 690)

James Alexander Armstrong Loft, of Standish, a member of Troop No. 70, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout. This is the highest award in Scouting and is given for excellence in skills development, leadership, personal growth and community service. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 691)

Cape Elizabeth High School, which has been recognized as a National Blue Ribbon School by the United States Department of Education. National Blue Ribbon Schools are recognized for their overall academic performance or their progress in closing achievement gaps among certain groups of students. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 692)

Gary Fortier, of Ellsworth, who is retiring from the Ellsworth City Council after 24 years of service. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 693)

Jacob True, of Peru, an Eagle Scout with Troop No. 580, who has received from the Pine Tree Council a Certificate of Merit in recognition of his meritorious action in saving the life of a man who was choking. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 694)

Chelsea Summers, of Owl's Head, Town Clerk of Hope, who received the Rookie of the Year Award from the Maine Town and City Clerks' Association. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 695)

LEGISLATIVE RECORD – HOUSE APPENDIX
December 5, 2018 to December 1, 2020

Laverne (Huot) Talbot, of Harrison, who celebrated her 90th Birthday on September 27, 2019. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 696)

Marilyn "Marnie" McLaughlin Ward, of Medway. Mrs. Ward worked as a bookkeeper at Mack Baking Company in Brewer and at the Schick Razor Factory in Connecticut before moving with her family back to her hometown of Medway. There, she kept the books for the family business, Ward's Auto Body Shop. Interested in antiques, she also owned and operated her own business, Marnie's Barn, which was well-known for its selection of fine antiques and affordable used furniture. After recovering from breast cancer, she counseled other women in the Katahdin region facing the same diagnosis. Mrs. Ward will be long remembered and sadly missed by her family, including the Honorable Karleton Ward, Jr., her friends and all those whose lives she touched; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 697)

Remy Joel Pettengill, of China, a member of Troop No. 479, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout. This is the highest award in Scouting and is given for excellence in skills development, leadership, personal growth and community service. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 698)

Heather Whitaker, of Gorham, a teacher at Gorham Middle School, who has been named the 2020 Maine Teacher of the Year. As the 2020 Maine Teacher of the Year, Ms. Whitaker will travel throughout the state and country collaborating with other educators to support the efforts underway to prepare all students for college, work and civic life. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 699)

Henry David Kindler, of Kennebunk, a member of Troop No. 304, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout. This is the highest award in Scouting and is given for excellence in skills development, leadership, personal growth and community service. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 700)

Wells High School, which received the National Athletic Trainers' Association Safe Sports School Award for the significant steps it has taken to keep its athletes free from injuries. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 701)

Donald Clavette, of Madawaska, a deacon of the Roman Catholic Church who serves in the parishes of Notre Dame du Mont Carmel in Madawaska, Our Lady of the Valley in Saint Agatha and St. Peter Chanel in Van Buren, who has been named the Roman Catholic Diocese of Portland's 2019 Deacon of the Year. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 702)

Willard Thorndike Wight, of Camden. Mr. Wight will be long remembered and sadly missed by his family and friends; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 703)

Tim Dietz, of Kennebunk, the owner of Dietz Associates and a community leader in the Kennebunks. He was recently recognized at the Kennebunk, Kennebunkport and Arundel Chamber's annual meeting, where he received the Joel Stevens Community Spirit Award. Mr. Dietz will be long remembered and sadly missed by his family and friends and all those whose lives he touched; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 704)

Orman (Jim) Wheeler, of Fairfield, for his 50 years of service with the Victor Grange #49. We extend our appreciation and best wishes; (HLS 705)

Marilyn Tozier, of Fairfield, for her 50 years of service with the Victor Grange #49. We extend our appreciation and best wishes; (HLS 706)

Sheryl Ritchie, of Bath, who was named Citizen of the Year by the City of Bath on Citizen Involvement Day for her commitment to her community. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 707)

Evelyn Levesque, of East Millinocket, who is celebrating her 90th Birthday on November 16, 2019. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 708)

the Honorable Raymond A. Wallace, of Dexter. Mr. Wallace served in the United States Army and was a Vietnam veteran. He worked at Dexter Shoe Company as a patent engineer for 35 years and served on many community boards, including the Maine Highlands Federal Credit Union Supervisory Committee. He was acting Chaplain for the V.F.W. in Dexter and a longtime member of the New Hope Baptist Church. From 2011 to 2018, he represented Dexter in the Maine House of Representatives. Mr. Wallace will be long remembered and sadly missed by his wife of 54 years, Donna, his family and friends and all those whose lives he touched; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 709)

Rhonda Clements, of New York, New York, Doctor of Education, who has received the University of Maine at Presque Isle Distinguished Alumni Award. Dr. Clements has written and edited 11 books in the area of movement, play and game activities for children and is a past president of the American Association for the Child's Right to Play and has served as a training consultant to numerous state education departments and the United States Department of Health and Human Services. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 710)

Macelle Durost, of Wiscasset, who has received the University of Maine at Presque Isle Distinguished Educator Award. Ms. Durost has been a teacher, teaching principal, special education director, principal, assistant superintendent and interim administrator and has served as state representative for Maine to the National Association of Elementary School Principals national conference, receiving the NAESP Sharing the Dream Award. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 711)

Heidi Rackliffe, of Washburn, who has received the University of Maine at Presque Isle Graduate of the Last Decade Award. Ms. Rackliffe is the Director of the Hope and Prosperity Resource Center and Coaching Supervisor at ACAP and is involved with the Presque Isle Kiwanis Club, Washburn PTO, Washburn After School Program and Aroostook Community Collaborative. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 712)

Alan Gordon, of Presque Isle, who has received the University of Maine at Presque Isle Distinguished Faculty/Staff Award. Mr. Gordon has been a committee member for the State of Maine Learning Results, UMPI Hall of Fame Committee and UMPI Pride Committee and an advisor to the UMPI PE Majors Club and over 28 years has coached and taught many men's soccer, women's basketball and physical education students. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 713)

Douglas and Angela Smith, of Jay, who are celebrating their 50th Wedding Anniversary on November 27, 2019. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 714)

Colby R. Stokes, of Hermon, a member of Troop No. 44, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout. This is the highest award in Scouting and is given for excellence in skills development, leadership, personal growth and community service. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 715) the Southern Maine Community College Men's Soccer Team, of South Portland, which won the Yankee Small College Conference Championship. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 716)

the Southern Maine Community College Women's Soccer Team, of South Portland, which won the Yankee Small College

LEGISLATIVE RECORD – HOUSE APPENDIX
December 5, 2018 to December 1, 2020

Conference Championship. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 717)

Miriam "Minna" Morgan, of South Woodstock. Mrs. Morgan worked for Eastern Distributors from 1949 to 1982. She will be long remembered and sadly missed by her family and friends; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 718)

Nate Pelletier, of Oxford, coach of the Oxford Hills Comprehensive High School Girls Basketball Team, who has been recognized as the 2018-2019 National Federation of High Schools State Basketball Coach of the Year. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 719)

the South Portland High School Marching Band, which won the First Place Gold Medal at the Maine Band Directors' Association Marching Band Finals. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 720)

Parker Smith, of West Gardiner, a member of Troop No. 613, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout. This is the highest award in Scouting and is given for excellence in skills development, leadership, personal growth and community service. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 721)

Richard Regan, of Harpswell. Mr. Regan taught high school chemistry for 31 years. After his retirement, he devoted his time to his community. He served as a volunteer firefighter for 35 years and later joined the Board of Directors of the Orrs and Bailey Island Fire Department, serving for 9 years. He volunteered with the Friends of Peary's Eagle Island and was a founding member of Harpswell Aging at Home, helping to establish the Home Repairs Program and serving as a member of the Chores Team. Mr. Regan will be long remembered and sadly missed by his family and friends and all those whose lives he touched; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 722)

Fred Cantu, of Brunswick. Mr. Cantu was a 22-year veteran of the United States Navy who was known as a mentor of many young sailors who went on to become leaders. He was a dedicated employee of the Town of Harpswell for 11 years, first as Recycling Center Transfer Station Manager and later as a Code Officer. Mr. Cantu will be long remembered and sadly missed by his family and friends and all those whose lives he touched; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 723) the Greely High School Boys Cross Country Team, of Cumberland, which won the Class B State Championship. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 724)

the Greely High School Girls Cross Country Team, of Cumberland, which won the Class B State Championship. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 725)

Peter Kowalski, of Turner, who is retiring as Executive Director of John F. Murphy Homes, a premium provider of services to adults and children with intellectual and development disabilities and autism spectrum disorder, after 35 years of service. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 726)

Charles Edwin Treworgy, of Milo. Mr. Treworgy worked at Brown and Sharp in Providence, Rhode Island and at Sylvania in Waldoboro as a manufacturing engineer before returning to Milo to run the Milo Greenhouse and teach at Milo High School and Penquis Valley High School as an English teacher. He was active with the Kiwanis Club of Milo, which he served as President, and participated in the Milo Town Hall Performance Center renovation and with Maine Community Foundation Piscataquis County and many other activities and organizations, including the Little Red Schoolhouse, on whose board he served. He sang as a soloist at weddings, funerals, church services and holiday celebrations and directed choirs at his local churches as well as memorable Christmas Cantatas during the 1960s and 1970s. Mr. Treworgy will be long remembered and sadly missed by his family and friends and all those whose lives he touched; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 727)

Edgar Eugene Gammon, of Dover-Foxcroft and Englewood, Florida. Mr. Gammon served in the United States Army from 1951 to 1953 and in the Maine Army National Guard until 1973, retiring with the rank of Lieutenant Colonel. He owned and operated Rowell's Garage in Dover-Foxcroft from 1954 to 1995. He served as a director and as President of the Maine Automobile Dealers Association and on the Foxcroft Academy Board of Trustees for 19 years. He volunteered for many civic organizations, was involved in town government and was actively involved with the Dover-Foxcroft Kiwanis Club for 55 years, serving as President and Lieutenant Governor of the local district and Governor of the New England District, Director for the New England District Foundation and Chairman of the Investment Committee. He also served as Advisor to the Key Club for 8 years and as the Finance Advisor for New England District Circle K. Mr. Gammon will be long remembered and sadly missed by his family and friends and all those whose lives he touched; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 728)

Brian Sleeper and Sean Mitchell, of York, who have been named the York Businesspeople of the Year. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 729)

Mark Gay, of York, who has been named the York Volunteer of the Year. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 730)

Richard Leigh, of York, who has been named the York Citizen of the Year. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 731)

the Mount View High School Boys Soccer Team, of Thorndike, which won the Class C North Championship. Members of the team include Brennan Grant, Anthony Lepore, Hayden Porter, Atlas Hubbard, Noah Jacobs, Draedyn Furrow, Aiden Hubbard, Levi Winslow, Elijah Allen, Dylan Gallagher, Max Eastham, Kevin Kinney, Cole Ripley, Zachary Suitor, Cameron Rae, Connor Aitken, Gunnar Martin, Isaac Widmer, Sean Raven, Tyler Russell, Declan Knowlton, Joe Grassi, Logan Strout, Ruben Schofield, Nicholas Cobb, Nicholas Finley, Jake Hamel, Jaden Von Oesen, Ricky Nelson and Ryan Oliver; assistant coach Art Farris; and head coach Jeremy Von Oesen. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 732)

Harry Moore, of Lisbon, a Sergeant with the Lisbon Police Department, who has retired after 40 years of service with the department. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 733)

Dorothy Jane Alley, of Jonesport. A wife, mother and grandmother who was most happy raising her family, Mrs. Alley attended the Community of Christ Church, and for many years she packed fish and shucked clams. Mrs. Alley will be long remembered and sadly missed by her family and friends; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 734)

the Cape Elizabeth High School Girls Soccer Team, which won the Class B State Championship. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 735)

the Pond Cove Playground Committee, of Cape Elizabeth, recipient of a Spirit of America Foundation Award. The Spirit of America Foundation was established to encourage and promote volunteerism, and the foundation presents awards to honor local individuals, organizations or projects in appreciation of community service. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 736) the Camden Hills Regional High School Girls Soccer Team, of Rockport, which won its fourth consecutive Class A State Championship. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 737)

Webber-Lefebvre American Legion Post 74, of Kennebunk, which is celebrating its 100th Anniversary. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 738)

Theodore J. Axelsen, Jr., of Kennebunk. Mr. Axelsen served four years in the United States Air Force, attaining the rank of Staff Sergeant and receiving the Outstanding Airman of the Quarter Award. He became a history teacher at the Middle School of the Kennebunks, where he enthusiastically engaged with and mentored his students. He served as Middle School Athletic Director and coached several sports, and he ran a basketball camp for middle school students during summers. For forty years, he donned his Santa Claus suit and shared the spirit of Christmas throughout the Kennebunk area. Mr. Axelsen will be long remembered and sadly missed by his family and friends and all those whose lives he touched; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 739)

Ron Deshaies, of Porter, Code Enforcement Officer/Building Inspector for the Town of Porter, for his 25 years of service. We extend our appreciation and best wishes; (HLS 740)

Elijah Allen, of Palermo, a student at Mount View High School and a player on the boys soccer team, who has been named the Kennebec Valley Athletic Conference Player of the Year. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 741) the Central Aroostook High School Boys Soccer Team, of Mars Hill, which won the 2019 Class D State Championship, the team's first state title. Members of the team include Brayden Bradbury, Sam Brewer, Jacob Carvell, Hayden Kingsbury, Zach O'Leary, Ethan Pryor, Bryan Anthony, Malachi Fitzherbert, Cody McCrum, Grayson McKenney, Sam Rowe, Josh Thomas, Lucas Haines, Frank Kearney, James Keenan, William Anthony, Ryder Brewer, Keynan Campbell, John Coffin, Malachi Couture, Brighton Kingsbury, Lane McCrum and Liam Shaw; manager Mersaydez Johnston; and head coach Wallace Endy. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 742)

Julia Van Steenberghe, of Old Town, a Presidential Scholar at the University of Maine, who has been crowned Miss Maine USA. Miss Van Steenberghe will represent Maine at the national Miss USA pageant. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 743)

Jamie Dorr, of Bath, who has received a 2019 Patriots Difference Maker of the Week Award from the New England Patriots Foundation to recognize her commitment to Midcoast Community Alliance. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 744)

Scott Higgins, of Winslow, a captain of the Winslow Fire Department and an instructor at the Central Maine Fire Attack School. Captain Higgins served with the department for 18 years. At the school, for which he served as president in 2017 and 2018, he taught over 700 students in 10 years. Captain Higgins will be long remembered and sadly missed by his family and friends and all those whose lives he touched; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 745)

Raelene Allen, of Skowhegan, a teacher at Madison Area Memorial High School, who has been named a Financial Educator of the Year by the Maine JumpStart Coalition for her commitment to financial education and passion for teaching. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 746)

Erin Taylor, of Cape Elizabeth, school nurse at Pond Cove Elementary School, who has been named the Maine School

Nurse of the Year by the Maine Association of School Nurses. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 747)

Bill Green, of Cumberland, who is retiring as News Center Maine's outdoors reporter after more than 47 years with the station. Mr. Green, the host of Bill Green's Maine and The Green Outdoors, has served as a reporter, anchor and executive producer and has specialized in telling stories about Maine's outdoors. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 748)

Weltha Sargent, of Winter Harbor, who has received the Boston Post Cane, an honor given to the oldest citizen of a municipality. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 749) the Mount Ararat High School Eight-man Football Team, of Topsham, which won the first Eight-man Football State Championship. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 750)

David Grant, of Houlton, Golf Coach of Houlton Middle/High School, who has been named the Golf Coach of the Year by the Maine Principals' Association. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 751)

Archie M. Alley III, of Bangor. Mr. Alley served in the United States Navy Seabees for 10 years, including 3 years in a battalion overseas, and instructed diesel mechanics. He also enjoyed racing lobster boats. Mr. Alley will be long remembered and sadly missed by his family and friends; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 752)

Dennis P. Dalheim, of Wayne, on his retirement as a principal auditor in the Office of the State Auditor after 35 years of continuous service with the State, including 23 years of continuous service in the Office of the State Auditor. Mr. Dalheim is highly regarded for his service, and his work as the office's coordinator for the State of Maine's annual charitable appeal has been greatly appreciated. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 753)

Joseph Greaves, of Mapleton, Soccer Coach of Presque Isle High School, who has been named the Soccer Coach of the Year by the Maine Principals' Association. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 754)

Sami Jo Allen, of Mars Hill, Cheering Coach of Central Aroostook High School, who has been named the Cheering Coach of the Year by the Maine Principals' Association. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 755)

Edmund Peter Couture, of Sidney, a member of Troop No. 401, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout. This is the highest award in Scouting and is given for excellence in skills development, leadership, personal growth and community service. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 756)

Gilbert R. Turcotte, of Winthrop. Mr. Turcotte enlisted in the United States Army in 1965 and became a member of the Special Forces. He was stationed in numerous places, including Japan, Vietnam and, from 1976 to 1984, with Detachment A, a group of about 90 Green Berets working against enemy forces in Berlin, Germany. He retired from the Army having attained the rank of Sergeant Major and was inducted as a "Distinguished Member of The Special Forces Regiment" in May 2018. He went on to work for the Winthrop Police Department for four years, as a detective in the Kennebec County Sheriff's Department for twelve years and for the Sabattus Police Department for seven years. He delivered meals to senior citizens in the Winthrop area and advocated for local veterans through the American Legion, helping them receive veterans benefits. He was also involved with the Department of Agriculture's FarmShare Program, helping elderly people get fresh produce from local farms. Mr. Turcotte will be long remembered and sadly missed by his family and friends and all those whose lives he touched; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 757)

the Honorable Ann Elizabeth Peoples, of Westbrook. Mrs. Peoples worked as a theater director, stage manager, union worker in the tech department at SD Warren and documentary film producer. In 1994, she became a member of the Westbrook City Council, and she was elected to the Maine House of Representatives, serving from 2007 to 2014 and again in 2019. She worked for accessible transportation, environmental justice and caregivers rights and championed the construction of Westbrook's skate park and redevelopment of the Dana Warp Mill. Mrs. Peoples will be long remembered and sadly missed by her family and friends and all those whose lives she touched; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 758)

Joseph C. Rouhana, of Falmouth, a member of Troop No. 93, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout. This is the highest award in Scouting and is given for excellence in skills development, leadership, personal growth and community service. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 759)

Zachary J. Derhak, of Falmouth, a member of Troop No. 93, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout. This is the highest award in Scouting and is given for excellence in skills development, leadership, personal growth and community service. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 760)

Dana Welch, of Gray, a health and physical education teacher at Gray-New Gloucester Middle School, who has been named the Elementary Physical Education Teacher of the Year by the Maine Association of Health, Physical Education, Recreation and Dance. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 761)

Steve LaVallee, of Gray, who is retiring as the Town of Gray Public Works Director after 50 years of public service. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 762)

Damon Warren, of Franklin, a student at Sumner Memorial High School, who has been named the Eastern Maine Sports 2019 Boys Soccer Player of the Year. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 763)

Ruth Foster's, of Ellsworth, on its 35 years in business selling children's clothing. The shop is owned by the Honorable Ruth Foster, who served in the Maine House of Representatives from 1981 to 1990 and the Maine Senate from 1991 to 1994. We extend our appreciation and best wishes; (HLS 764)

Sam Anderson, of Hiram, a member of Troop No. 375, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout. This is the highest award in Scouting and is given for excellence in skills development, leadership, personal growth and community service. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 765)

the Greenville Fire Department, which earned the Safety and Health Award for Public Employers (SHAPE) certification from the Maine Department of Labor, recognizing it for voluntarily undertaking a rigorous safety achievement program for its workplace. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 766)

Edward Murray Collins, of Rockland. Mr. Collins worked for Maine Congressman David F. Emery as a legislative assistant focusing on environmental and marine matters before beginning the practice of law in Rockland in 1985. Active in his community, he served with the North Haven Foundation, the North Haven Development Corporation, the Megunticook Watershed Association and St. George Community Sailing and on the boards of the Farnsworth Art Museum, the Camden Public Library, the Georges River Land Trust and the Mid-Coast Mental Health Association. He was the president of the Rockland Cemetery Association and a board member of MCH Neighbor Foundation and the Center for Maine Contemporary Arts, and he was a past president of the Knox County Bar Association and a member of the Maine Bar Association. Mr. Collins will be long remembered and sadly missed by his family and friends and all those whose lives he touched; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 767)

Julia Colby, of South Paris, a student at Oxford Hills Comprehensive High School and a player on the girls basketball team, who scored her 1,000th career point. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 768)

Bhreagh Kennedy, of Skowhegan, a senior at Skowhegan Area High School and a player on the school's field hockey team, who has been named the Central Maine Field Hockey Player of the Year. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 769)

Bhreagh Kennedy, of Skowhegan, a senior at Skowhegan Area High School and a player on the school's field hockey team, who has received the Miss Maine Field Hockey Award. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 770)

Sarah Boeckel, of South Portland, coach of the Cape Elizabeth High School volleyball team, who has been named Volleyball Coach of the Year by the Portland Press Herald. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 771)

John Alfred St. Germain, of Turner. Mr. St. Germain served in the United States Army, including in Vietnam as a member of the 82nd Airborne Special Forces, and attained the rank of sergeant. He worked as police officer in Old Orchard Beach, as a paramedic, including with Rescue, Inc. in Brattleboro, Vermont and MEDCU in Portland, as an EMT instructor at Southern Maine Vocational Technical Institute and for Maine EMS inspecting ambulances. He was a licensed massage therapist and a Reiki Master Teacher, and he volunteered for many years at Trek Across Maine as a massage therapist. He was a member of the American Legion, the Oriental Star Lodge #21, Ancient Free and Accepted Masons, and the Ancient and Accepted Scottish Rite of Freemasonry. Mr. St. Germain will be long remembered and sadly missed by his family and friends; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 772)

Katherine D. "Nana" Westleigh, of Bethel. Ms. Westleigh worked as a cook for several area inns and restaurants, tended bar for many years and worked as a flagger. She also volunteered at the District Exchange for many years. Ms. Westleigh will be long remembered and sadly missed by her family and friends and all those whose lives she touched; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 773) the Cape Elizabeth High School Mock Trial Team, which won the 2019 State Championship. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 774)

Walter W. Fegel, of Oakland, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout. This is the highest award in Scouting and is given for excellence in skills development, leadership, personal growth and community service. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 775)

Nathan Abbott, of Durham, a member of Troop No. 145, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout. This is the highest award in Scouting and is given for excellence in skills development, leadership, personal growth and community service. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 776)

LEGISLATIVE RECORD – HOUSE APPENDIX
December 5, 2018 to December 1, 2020

Robert Susi, of South Portland, who retired as an officer of the Falmouth Police Department after 30 years of service, including 26 years as School Resource Officer in the Falmouth schools. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 777)

the Honorable Arthur C. Verow, a lifelong resident of South Brewer. Representative Verow was a member of the 129th Legislature, representing Brewer in the House of Representatives, and previously served in the 126th and 127th Legislatures. He worked at Eastern Fine Paper and was the City Clerk of Brewer for 40 years. He served on the Brewer City Council and was Mayor of Brewer for two terms. He was named the Brewer Citizen of the Year. He served as president of the Maine Town and City Clerks Association, the State's Animal Advisory Committee and the Maine Municipal Association's Legislative Policy Committee. He was a communicant of St. Paul the Apostle Parish, as well as a member and past president of the Bangor Breakfast Kiwanis Club and an advisor to the John Bapst Key Club. He also was a prolific writer, publishing stories locally and sharing them with his friends and family. He was an advocate for the unborn, the disabled and the elderly. Representative Verow will be long remembered and sadly missed by his wife of 54 years, Frances, his family and friends and all those whose lives he touched; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 778)

Arthur J. Blank, of Bar Harbor, who is retiring as President and Chief Executive Officer of Mount Desert Island Hospital after more than 20 years of service. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 779)

Jeff Hudson, of Presque Isle, coach of the Presque Isle High School girls basketball team, who has recently achieved his 400th coaching victory. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 780)

Cole Farms, a restaurant in Gray owned and operated by Brad Pollard and his family, which is celebrating 68 years of business. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 781)

Larry Gardner, of Fort Fairfield, coach of the Fort Fairfield Middle/High School basketball team, who has recently achieved his 400th coaching victory. Mr. Gardner has coached basketball for over 30 years. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 782)

Janet "Janie" Shepard Vogt, of Bethel. Mrs. Vogt managed Shepard's Camps on Lake Penneesseewassee with her mother and sister for many years. She gardened in the English cottage style, and her gardens were featured in local and national publications. Mrs. Vogt will be long remembered and sadly missed by her husband of 68 years, Frank, her family and her friends; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 783)

the late Perley Morrison Sprague, of Lincolnville, former Chief of the Rockport Police Department, whose name will be formally dedicated on the National Law Enforcement Officers Memorial in Washington, D.C., which honors officers who have died in the line of duty; (HLS 784)

Brent Colbry, of Etna, who is retiring as superintendent of School Administrative District 54 after more than 45 years of service as an educator, the past 17 years in Skowhegan schools. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 785)

Tom Griffin, of Scarborough, coach of the Scarborough High School softball team, who has been named a Coach of the Decade by the Portland Press Herald. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 786)

Derek Veilleux, of Scarborough, coach of the Scarborough High School boys indoor and outdoor track teams, who has been named a Coach of the Decade by the Portland Press Herald. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 787)

Bella Dickinson, of Scarborough, a player on Scarborough High School athletic teams, who has been named a Red Storm Athlete of the Decade by the Portland Press Herald. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 788)

Jarret Flaker, of Scarborough, a player on Scarborough High School athletic teams, who has been named a Red Storm Athlete of the Decade by the Portland Press Herald. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 789)

the Honorable Galen Cole, of Bangor. Mr. Cole was a World War II veteran of the United States Army and a recipient of the Purple Heart and the Bronze Star. He worked 50 years for Cole's Express, including decades as president, growing the company into a regional carrier serving Maine, northern New England and the Canadian Maritimes. Very involved in civic and public life, he served on the Bangor City Council and as Mayor of Bangor and 24 years on the University of Maine Development Council, including several years as its president. He founded the Galen Cole Family Land Transportation Museum in Bangor, which has been visited by more than half a million people from all 50 states, every Canadian province and dozens of foreign countries. He was a lifelong champion for Maine's veterans, serving as President of the 5th Armored Division Association, and particularly through his walking stick recognition program. The Military Order of the Purple Heart selected him for its National Americanism Award, the 101st Air Refueling Wing gave him its Distinguished Service Award and the Maine American Legion named him Citizen of the Year and later presented him with the Distinguished Service Award. He received the Norbert X Dowd Lifetime Achievement Award from the Bangor Chamber of Commerce, the Business Leader of Maine Award from the Maine Chamber of Commerce, the Friend of Education Award from the Maine Education Association and an Honorary Doctorate of Business Administration from Husson University. He served terms on the vestry, followed by service as Junior, later Senior, warden, of Bangor's St. John's Episcopal Church. Mr. Cole will be long remembered and sadly missed by his family and friends and all those whose lives he touched; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 790)

Connor DeMerchant, of Presque Isle, a student at Presque Isle High School and a player on the hockey team, who recently scored his 100th career point. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 791)

Richard Engels, of Presque Isle, who has received the Central Aroostook Chamber of Commerce 2020 Lifetime Achievement Award for his many efforts in Aroostook County, including his practice of the law for 50 years, his over 45 years of service as a Rotarian and his contributions to civic life. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 792)

S.W. Collins Company, located in Caribou, Houlton, Lincoln, Presque Isle and Fort Kent, which has received the Central Aroostook Chamber of Commerce 2020 Business of the Year Economic Impact Award. Celebrating its 175th year in 2019, the company offered local organizations the opportunity to apply for funding totaling $20,000 to invest in the people that live and work in their communities. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 793)

Tweedie, Inc., including the Hillside, Mars Hill and Star City IGAs, located in Fort Fairfield, Mars Hill and Presque Isle, which has received the Central Aroostook Chamber of Commerce 2020 Business of the Year Community Impact Award. Owner Josh Tweedie's support of these communities has included sponsorships, many volunteer hours and donations to community efforts and to people in need. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 794)

LEGISLATIVE RECORD – HOUSE APPENDIX
December 5, 2018 to December 1, 2020

Floyd Rockholt, of Presque Isle, who has received the Central Aroostook Chamber of Commerce 2020 President's Award for his 25 years of service on the Board of Directors of the Chamber of Commerce and his tireless efforts to further the Crown of Maine Balloon Fest. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 795)

Deidre McMahon, of Presque Isle, who has been named the Central Aroostook Chamber of Commerce 2020 Citizen of the Year for her service with the Kiwanis Club, her fund-raising for children and her work on area boards. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 796)

Gage Letourneau, of Presque Isle, a student at Presque Isle High School and a player on the hockey team, who recently scored his 100th career point. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 797)

Roger Dalton, of Phippsburg. Mr. Dalton was a veteran of the United States Army. For 25 years, he worked as a barber, and he also worked as a diet aide and head cook at a nursing home for 20 years. A drummer, he performed with many bands and especially enjoyed country music. Mr. Dalton will be long remembered and sadly missed by his family and friends and all those whose lives he touched; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 798)

Leigh Michelle Thurlow, of Lowell. Ms. Thurlow worked as a video editor at WLBZ in Bangor and, for many years, as the Multi-Media Instructor at Northern Penobscot Tech Region III in Lincoln, where she brought many opportunities into the program, such as the "Pet of the Week" videos at the Humane Society, and continuously updated technologies for video production, photography, coding and graphic design for the benefit of her students. She was proud of her students and their successes. Ms. Thurlow will be long remembered and sadly missed by her family and friends and all those whose lives she touched; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 799)

Geraldine LaChance, of Casco. Mrs. LaChance, who lived most of her life in Westbrook but was also a worldwide traveler, was active with the Westbrook-Warren Congregational Church, volunteered at senior lunches and knit scarves for local grammar school students. As a young woman, she was a member of Eureka Grange and the 4-H club, and she worked at several department stores. Mrs. LaChance will be long remembered and sadly missed by her family and friends; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 800)

Lawrence Murch, of Raymond, who has been named the Fair Person of the Year by the Maine Association of Agricultural Fairs for the significant impact he has made in Maine's agricultural fairs. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 801)

Tim Brewer, of Mars Hill, coach of the Houlton High School boys basketball team, who has achieved his 300th coaching victory. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 802)

Ruth Gray, of Old Town. Ms. Gray served overseas in World War II as a Red Cross volunteer, driving a half-track through the Battle of the Bulge to support soldiers behind the front lines. A self-taught photographer, she published her photographs in various periodicals, including National Geographic Magazine, worked for Holiday Magazine and took photographs for local businesses. She was a member of the Library League, working to raise money for the Old Town Public Library, including for the library addition built in 1991. In 2010, she established a scholarship through the Maine Community Foundation to help Old Town students attend college, offering awards to students pursuing careers in science or medicine and those demonstrating the ability and desire to pursue postsecondary education. Ms. Gray will be long remembered and sadly missed by her family and friends and all those whose lives she touched; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 803)

Kevin Copeland, of Otis, a United States Army Operation Desert Storm veteran, for his 22 years of service as Selectman of the Town of Otis, as well as for his volunteer service as a firefighter and lifeguard. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 804)

Norma Landry, of Fort Kent, Director of the Dental Program for Fish River Rural Health, who has been named the Greater Fort Kent Area Citizen of the Year for her extensive and devoted community service. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 805)

the Bonny Eagle High School Girls Cross Country Track Team, of Standish, which won the Class A State Championship. Members of the team include Delany Hesler, Emmaline Pendleton, Hannah Stevens, Emma Abbott, Ella Dunn, Gwendolyn Catalano and Emma Noonan; and coach Mike Burleson. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 806)

the Bonny Eagle High School Football Team, of Standish, which won the Class A State Championship. Members of the team include Jacob Humphrey, Aidan Walcott, Johnathan Merrill, Zac Oja, Trent Nevelis, Nate Ferris, Zach Maturo, Alex Dyer, Nick Klein, Bode Day Coombs, Keegan Meredith, Shaun Brilliant, Ryan Tomison, Cam Gardner, Garison Emerson, Izak Alie, Mitchell Havu, Mason Ryan, Cam MacDonald, Chase Graves, Dawson Bradway, Ethan Hall, Dom Gordon, Owen Luedders, Trevor Perkins, Kegan Sicina, Jordan French, Cam Boston, Nolan Davis, Garrett Gonyea, Nick Riker, Devon Carter, Eli LeBlanc, Jake McDonald, Jace Sellick, Jesse Charette, Brody Ernst, Chase Harris, Drew Dubois, John Dugan, Ethan Robbins, Connor Leeman, Will Horton, Thomas Horton, Jake Harriman, Carlos Tribaldos, Jake Esty and Collin Lizotte; managers Jasmine Collins, Jordan Tardif and Jordan Gryskwicz, freshman coaches John Trull and Jordan Adams, assistant coaches Ben Ledue, Josh Lund, Andrew Nielsen and Jake Newcomb; and head coach Kevin Cooper. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 807)

Zach Maturo, of Standish, a student at Bonny Eagle High School and a member of the football team, who has been named the 2019-20 Gatorade Maine Football Player of the Year for his athletic and academic excellence and his exemplary character. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 808)

Kris Croteau, of Skowhegan, a guidance counselor at Messalonskee Middle School in Oakland, who has been named the 2020 Maine School Counselor of the Year by the Maine School Counselor Association. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 809)

Charlotte Parker, of Trenton, who is celebrating her 100th Birthday on February 10, 2020. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 810)

Ashleigh Bolduc, of Ogunquit, a senior at Wells High School, who is a recipient of a 2020 Principal's Award for outstanding academic achievement and citizenship, sponsored by the Maine Principals' Association. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 811)

Francesca Ramsdell, of Wells, a senior at Wells High School, who has received the Western Maine Conference Citizenship Award for 2020, which recognizes a student's character and contributions to the student's educational, athletic and social environments and volunteer service. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 812)

LEGISLATIVE RECORD – HOUSE APPENDIX
December 5, 2018 to December 1, 2020

Logan Bedell, of Wells, a senior at Wells High School, who has received the Western Maine Conference Citizenship Award for 2020, which recognizes a student's character and contributions to the student's educational, athletic and social environments and volunteer service. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 813)

Adrian L. Phair, of Oakland, who has been selected as the 2020 Maine Mother of the Year by American Mothers, Inc. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 814)

Samuel Dale Fegel, of Oakland, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout. This is the highest award in Scouting and is given for excellence in skills development, leadership, personal growth and community service. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 815)

Kieren Sears, of Oakland, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout. This is the highest award in Scouting and is given for excellence in skills development, leadership, personal growth and community service. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 816)

Mackenzie Mayo, of Oakland, a senior at Messalonskee High School, who is a recipient of a 2020 Principal's Award for outstanding academic achievement and citizenship, sponsored by the Maine Principals' Association. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 817)

Lexi Mittelstadt, of Wilton, a student at Mt. Blue High School and a player on the girls basketball team, who recently scored her 1,000th career point. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 818)

the Monmouth Academy Cheerleading Team, which won the Class C South Championship. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 819) the Town of Winter Harbor, which is celebrating the 125th Anniversary of its incorporation on February 21, 2020. Winter Harbor was originally settled in 1762 as a plantation known as "Musquito Harbor" and was renamed in 1854. Its schooners transported lumber and laths back and forth to Boston and the Canadian provinces in the 1830s; for much of the 1800s, most workers were employed in the cod ground fishery. As an outcome of the development of the summer colony on Grindstone Neck, the town incorporated in 1895. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 820)

Colby Carlisle, of Presque Isle, a student at Presque Isle High School and a player on the hockey team, who recently scored his 100th career point. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 821)

Marilyn Curtis, of Exeter, for her 30 years of public service with the Town of Dexter as the town's Finance Director and Tax Collector, including service as interim town manager. We extend our appreciation and best wishes; (HLS 822)

Peter Murray, of Dexter, coach of the Dexter Regional High School boys basketball team, who has achieved his 300th coaching victory. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 823)

Connie Brown, of Bucksport, who is retiring as Town Clerk of Orland after 29 years of public service. We extend our appreciation and best wishes; (HLS 824)

Claude Thomas, of Unity. Mr. Thomas was a veteran of the United States Army, who after his service returned to work on the family farm. He continued farming until 1975, when he joined Local 320 Carpenter Millwright Union in Waterville. Upon retiring, he started growing and peddling potatoes, which he pursued for 30 years, becoming known as "The Traveling Man." Mr. Thomas will be long remembered and sadly missed by his family and friends and all those whose lives he touched; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 825)

Thomas Perkins, of Dedham. Mr. Perkins will be long remembered and sadly missed by his family and friends; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 826)

Bud and Marita Kilton, of Sorrento, who celebrated their 69th Wedding Anniversary on February 3, 2020. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 827) the Honorable Donald G. Alexander, of Winthrop, who has retired as a Justice of the Maine Supreme Judicial Court after 41 years of service on the bench. Justice Alexander, who is the State's longest serving jurist, first became a District Court judge in 1978 and was appointed to the Maine Superior Court in 1980 and the Supreme Judicial Court in 1988. His book, Maine Jury Instruction Manual, which was first published in 1985 and has gone through many editions, has had and will continue to have an enduring effect on Maine law. We extend our appreciation and best wishes; (HLS 828)

Arthur "Bennie" Benedetto, a lifelong resident of Jay, who has received the Boston Post Cane, an honor given to the oldest citizen of a municipality. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 829)

Maple Moose, in Easton, operated by C.J. and Jodi King and family, which has been named the Maine Maple Syrup Producer of the Year by the Maine Maple Producers Association. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 830)

Donald Katlin, of Gilead, who is retiring from the Bethel Water District after nearly 43 years of public service. Mr. Katlin held the positions of assistant superintendent and superintendent during his career. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 831) the Town of Oakland, which has received the Community Service Project of the Year Award from the Mid-Maine Chamber of Commerce. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 832)

Cushnoc Brewing Company, of Augusta, which received the President's Award from the Kennebec Valley Chamber of Commerce for its leadership, exemplary business image, revenue growth and job creation in the community. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 833) the Town of Hartland, which is celebrating its Bicentennial in 2020. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 834)

Garrett Cullivan, of Unity, a member of Troop No. 233, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout. This is the highest award in Scouting and is given for excellence in skills development, leadership, personal growth and community service. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 835)

Virginia Thompson Williams, of Gorham, who is celebrating her 100th Birthday on February 14, 2020. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 836)

Roger Hooper, of Lyman, for his 41 years of dedicated service to Goodwins Mills Fire-Rescue, including nearly 8 years of service as the first full-time chief, and his service to the towns of Dayton and Lyman. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 837)

Andrew Gousse, of Augusta, a Civil Air Patrol Cadet, who has received the Amelia Earhart Award, which marks completion of Phase III of the Civil Air Patrol Cadet Program, is received by less than five percent of cadets and recognizes sustained excellence in all four areas of cadet life: leadership, aerospace, fitness and character. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 838)

LEGISLATIVE RECORD – HOUSE APPENDIX
December 5, 2018 to December 1, 2020

Augusta Elks Lodge #964, which received the Community Service Award from the Kennebec Valley Chamber of Commerce. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 839)

the Central Aroostook High School Varsity Cheerleaders, of Mars Hill, who won the Class D State Championship. This is the team's seventh straight Class D title and its twelfth in thirteen years. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 840)

Hammond Lumber Company, a fourth-generation family-owned company headquartered in Belgrade, which has received the National Safety Council 2019 Industry Leader Award for excellent safety performance within its industry. Hammond Lumber has received many safety awards through the years, including from the Northeastern Lumber Manufacturers Association and ProSales magazine, which recently named the company the 2020 Dealer of the Year, in part for its award-winning safety program. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 841)

Parker Brewer, of Houlton, a senior at Greater Houlton Christian Academy, who is a recipient of a 2020 Principal's Award for outstanding academic achievement and citizenship, sponsored by the Maine Principals' Association. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 842)

Linda L. French, of Smithfield, for her 20 years of public service as Smithfield Town Clerk and with the Somerset County Clerks Association, as well as for her decades of extensive volunteer work. We extend our appreciation and best wishes; (HLS 843)

Meredith Messer, of Camden, Camden Hills Regional High School varsity girls soccer head coach, who has been named the National Girls Soccer Coach of the Year by the National Federation of State High School Associations. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 844)

Lorenzo E. Miller, Jr., of Andover. Mr. Miller was a veteran of the United States Navy, serving from 1956 to 1959. He worked for Puiia Lumber as a driver and yardman before retiring and was a member of the Knights of Pythias. Mr. Miller will be long remembered and sadly missed by his family and friends; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 845)

Virginia Hastings Gamble, of Bethel. Mrs. Gamble worked as a social worker and later started Ginny's Bloomers in the 1970s, and in the 1980s she served as a consultant for Color Me Beautiful and became a national trainer for the company. A passionate gardener, she achieved the title of Master Gardener. She was a member of PEO International and a devoted alumna of Bates College, and annually she walked in the Revlon Walk for Cancer in New York City in honor of her sister. Mrs. Gamble will be long remembered and sadly missed by her family and friends; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 846)

Robert Woodbury, of Freeport. Mr. Woodbury, a lifelong resident of Maine, served as a lieutenant in the United States Army during the Vietnam War. After the war, Mr. Woodbury returned to Maine, where he was a school teacher and principal and eventually superintendent of schools for the Madison School District. He was also an Adjutant for American Legion Post #35 for 11 years. In 1990, he moved to Gray, where he was superintendent of schools for 4 years before retiring. After retirement, he moved to his family's home in Freeport, where he lived until his passing. Mr. Woodbury will be long remembered and sadly missed by his family and friends and all those whose lives he touched; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 847)

Joe Bruns, of Mexico, a lieutenant of the Mexico Fire Department, who has been named the 2019 George Downs

Memorial Firefighter of the Year. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 848)

Erik Benner, of Waldoboro, a student at Medomak Valley High School and a member of the wrestling team, who won the Kennebec Valley Athletic Conference Individual Championship in the 195-pound Weight Class. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 849) the Medomak Valley High School Cheerleading Squad, of Waldoboro, which won the Class B South Championship. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 850)

the Maine Central Institute Girls Indoor Track Team, of Pittsfield, which has received the 2019-2020 Class B Sportsmanship Award. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 851)

Justin Bryant, of Eliot, a senior and a football player at Marshwood High School, who has been awarded the James J. Fitzpatrick Trophy. The Fitzpatrick Trophy is given to the top senior high school football player in the State based on voting by the State's coaches and the media. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 852)

Verna Parlin, of Mercer, to whom, for contributions to the community, the Town of Mercer has dedicated its Town Report. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 853)

Lester A. Blake, of Pownal, a lifetime member of the Pownal Fire Department, who has retired as Fire Chief after 22 years of service. We extend our appreciation and best wishes; (HLS 854)

John Sherman Appleby, Sr., of Lubec. Mr. Appleby was a veteran of the United States Coast Guard, retiring as a chief boatswain's mate in 1986. He was an active life member of the American Legion Stuart-Green Post #65 in Lubec; he was Past Commander of Post #65, Past Washington County Commander and Past 6th District Commander. Mr. Appleby will be long remembered and sadly missed by his family and friends and all those whose lives he touched; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 855)

Claude Dumond, of New Canada. Mr. Dumond, a veteran of World War II and a farmer, was hired in 1954 to serve as town manager of New Canada, a position he held for 32 years. In 1958, he became a full-time town manager for Eagle Lake and in 1968 started his 18-year career as town manager of Fort Kent, serving until his retirement in 1986. Of his many accomplishments in town government, his greatest was the flood prevention dikes in Fort Kent built by the United States Army Corps of Engineers. In 1986, he was named Manager of the Year by the Maine Town and City Manager's Association. He was a past president of the Aroostook County Town and City Managers Association and served on the Maine Municipal Association's legislative committee and various other boards. He was a 73-year devoted member, finance officer and Post Commander of the American Legion Post 133 in Fort Kent. He was a past president of the Fort Kent Rotary Club and a State Court Trustee and a past Chief Ranger of St. Anthony's Ct. of the Catholic Order of Foresters in Wallagrass and was named Forester of the Year in 1989. He was a past Faithful Pilot in the 4th Degree Knights of Columbus, of which he was a member for over 70 years. He was a communicant of St. Joseph Catholic Church in Soldier Pond, where he was a lifelong member of the choir group. He served as president of the parish council, lector and eucharistic minister. In 1996, the Greater Fort Kent Area Chamber of Commerce named him the Citizen of the Year, and he received a Maine Healthcare Association 2014 Remember ME Achievement Award. Mr. Dumond will be long remembered and sadly missed by his family and friends and all those whose lives he touched; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 856)

LEGISLATIVE RECORD – HOUSE APPENDIX
December 5, 2018 to December 1, 2020

Franklin R. MacNeil, of Bath. Mr. MacNeil was a veteran of the United States Navy. He served aboard the aircraft carrier USS Valley Forge during the Korean Conflict. He was a long-time letter carrier for the United States Postal Service in Bath, retiring in 1988, then working as a custodian for the Bath School Department, delivering flowers for Kennebec Greenhouse and transporting cars for local dealerships. He was an active member of Bath United Methodist Church, enjoying the companionship of its Men's Group. He also was a member of the National Association of Letter Carriers for over 50 years. Mr. MacNeil will be long remembered and sadly missed by his wife of 62 years, Sylvia, his family and friends and all those whose lives he touched; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 857)

Ora St. Peter, of Caribou. Mrs. St. Peter was a homemaker who entered the workforce after her children left home. She worked at Converse, where she put her sewing and organization skills to work. She was a lifelong member of the Holy Rosary Catholic Church. Mrs. St. Peter will be long remembered and sadly missed by her family and friends; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 858)

Alan H. Hawkins, of South Portland. A lifelong educator, Mr. Hawkins worked as a teacher and administrator in communities across Maine, including Millinocket, Wiscasset, Cape Elizabeth and South Portland. He was a lifetime member of the National Education Association and Maine Education Association, as well as a member and a leader in a number of local education associations. He also held memberships at the New England Historical Genealogical Society, Maine Historical Society, South Portland Historical Society, Hiram Lodge, South Portland Lions Club and Rotary of South Portland/Cape Elizabeth. Mr. Hawkins will be long remembered and sadly missed by his wife of 44 years, Margaret, his family and friends and all those whose lives he touched; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 859)

Olivia Neely, of Old Town, a freshman at Old Town High School, who has been named a Distinguished Finalist for 2020 by The Prudential Spirit of Community Awards, a nationwide program honoring young people for outstanding acts of volunteerism. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 860)

Matthew Miles, of Rumford, a student at Mountain Valley High School and a member of the wrestling team, who won the Class B State Championship in the 126-pound Weight Class. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 861)

Andrew Belisle, of Sanford, a sergeant with the Kennebunk Police Department, who is retiring after 45 years in law enforcement, including 29 years of service in Kennebunk as well as service in Sanford and Lebanon. We extend our appreciation and best wishes; (HLS 862)

Gabriel Daniels, of Buxton, a member of Troop No. 349, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout. This is the highest award in Scouting and is given for excellence in skills development, leadership, personal growth and community service. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 863)

the Honorable James J. Campbell, Sr., of West Newfield. Mr. Campbell was employed by the former Courier-Citizen as Plant Manager and later by Beacon Communications, both in Massachusetts, before moving to Maine. He served on the Biddeford City Council from 1976 to 1992 and was actively involved with the York County Area Agency on Aging, York County Rod and Gun Club, Limerick/Newfield Lions, Saco River Corridor Commission, Newfield Historical Society and Newfield Fire and Rescue. He represented Newfield in the Maine House of Representatives from 2003 to 2010 and again from 2013 to 2016. Mr. Campbell will be long remembered and sadly missed by his wife of 63 years, Shirley, his family and friends and all those whose lives he touched; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 864)

Glen A. Gisel, Sr., of Raymond. Mr. Gisel was a veteran of the United States Navy, serving for over 20 years. He was actively involved with the Boy Scouts of America, regularly bringing his Brunswick troop to Camp Hinds in Raymond. After his naval career, he worked as Camp Ranger at Camp Hinds. He also worked as a Raymond school bus driver, volunteered with Raymond Fire and Rescue and was Rescue Captain for nearly 10 years. For more than 20 years, he owned and operated Downeast Sharpening and Small Engine Repair. He was a member of the American Legion. Mr. Gisel will be long remembered and sadly missed by his wife of 54 years, Judy, his family and friends and all those whose lives he touched; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 865) the Lewiston High School Girls Hockey Team, which won the State Championship. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 866)

Orean Getchell Dionne, of Brunswick, who is celebrating her 100th Birthday on March 26, 2020. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 867)

William Carrolton, of Bath, a student at Morse High School and a member of the boys indoor track team, who won the State Class B Shot Put Title. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 868)

Caden Frost, of Standish, a sophomore at Bonny Eagle High School and a member of the wrestling team, who won the Class A State Championship in the 106-pound Weight Class for 2020 and finished second in the Class A finals in 2019 as a freshman. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 869)

Colby Frost, of Standish, a junior at Bonny Eagle High School and a member of the wrestling team, who won the Class A State Championship in the 126-pound Weight Class for 2020, won the Class A State Championship in 2019 and finished second in the State Finals as a freshman in 2018. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 870)

Tyler Cox, of Waldoboro, a student at Medomak Valley High School and a member of the wrestling team, who won the State Class B Championship in the 170-pound Weight Class. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 871) the Medomak Valley High School Girls Indoor Track 4x800 Relay Team, of Waldoboro, which won the State Class B Title. Members of the relay team are Serena Blasius, Mackenzie Emerson, Alexis Parent and Olivia Parent. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 872) the Kezar Lake Watershed Association, of Lovell, to which, for contributions to the community, the Town of Lovell dedicated its 2019 Town Report. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 873)

Jim and Mary Hannaford, of Hiram, to whom, for contributions to the community, the Town of Hiram dedicated its 2019 Town Report. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 874)

Deja Douglas, of Bath, a student at Morse High School and a member of the wrestling team, who won the High School Girls State Championship in the 220-pound Weight Class. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 875)

Ellery Stevens, of Skowhegan, for his many years of contributions to his community. Mr. Stevens has been a member of the Fairview Grange #342 for 65 years. We extend our appreciation and best wishes; (HLS 876)

David Hartford, of Smithfield, for his many years of contributions to his community. Mr. Hartford has been a member of the Fairview Grange #342 for 70 years, a member of the Lebanon Masonic Lodge for 50 years, a founding member of the Smithfield Fire Department and the Fire Chief in the 1980s, a member of the School Administrative District 54 board and a member of the Smithfield Maine Historical Society. We extend our appreciation and best wishes; (HLS 877)

LEGISLATIVE RECORD – HOUSE APPENDIX
December 5, 2018 to December 1, 2020

Eda Perkins, of Andover, who has received the Boston Post Cane, an honor given to the oldest citizen of a municipality. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 878)

Annika Carey, of Embden, a senior at Carrabec High School, who is a recipient of a 2020 Principal's Award for outstanding academic achievement and citizenship, sponsored by the Maine Principals' Association. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 879)

William Deering, of Bangor. Dr. Deering was a veteran of the United States Navy, having enlisted during World War II. He later became a psychologist and served as Chief Psychologist and Director of Psychological Services at Bangor State Hospital, leading the Program Directors for State and Federal Psychologists. After his retirement, he continued in private clinical practice for a few decades. He also served as a medic in the Army National Guard and retired as a colonel. He served as President of the Maine State Retarded Children Association and as President of the James A. Taylor Hospital Board of Trustees and was a founder of the New England College of Osteopathic Medicine. He was an active member of multiple charitable and other groups, including East Orrington Congregational Church and EEOC's Ladies Aid, and organized many local Veterans Day and Memorial Day parades. He received a Lifetime Achievement Award for 66 years of service to the Maine State Employees Association. Dr. Deering will be long remembered and sadly missed by his family and friends and all those whose lives he touched; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 880)

Line-X of Western Maine, in Paris, which has received the Rising Star Award from the Oxford Hills Chamber of Commerce for succeeding in its first year of business, winning national awards and hitting sales marks beyond what was expected. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 881)

Ronald Fowler, of Lewiston, Oxford Hills Technical School Law Enforcement Instructor, who has been recognized by Veterans of Foreign Wars Post 9787 as a regional winner of the National Citizenship Education Award for his promotion of citizenship education in his program. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 882)

Logan Carter, of Sullivan, a student at Sumner Memorial High School and a member of the boys indoor track team, who placed 2nd in the mile race at the Penobscot Valley Conference Championship. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 883)

Skye Howard, of Gouldsboro, a student at Sumner Memorial High School and a member of the girls indoor track team, who received the Penobscot Valley Conference Small School Sportsmanship Award and placed 2nd in the 800-meter race at the conference championship. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 884)

Nataly Battis, of Sullivan, a student at Sumner Memorial High School, who has received the Downeast Athletic Conference Sportsmanship Award for Girls Varsity Basketball and Cheering. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 885)

Rhiannon Alley, of Winter Harbor, a senior at Sumner Memorial High School, who is a recipient of a 2020 Principal's Award for outstanding academic achievement and citizenship, sponsored by the Maine Principals' Association. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 886)

Gary Dyer, of Otisfield, who has received the Suzanne Grover Community Service Award from the Oxford Hills Chamber of Commerce for his dedication to the Oxford Hills over the years in giving his time to helping the towns of Otisfield and Oxford. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 887)

Rickie Jack, of Oxford, the captain of the Oxford Police Department, who has been named Employee of the Year by the Oxford Hills Chamber of Commerce for his long service with the department and in the community. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 888)

Valley View Orchard Pies, of Oxford, which has been named the Business of the Year by the Oxford Hills Chamber of Commerce for its expansion over the year and turning the business into a profitable company, as well as for helping local schools and other local businesses. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 889)

Claudette Salinger-Pierce, of Oxford, a second grade teacher at Guy E. Rowe Elementary School, who has received the Citizen Teacher of the Year Award from the Veterans of Foreign Wars of the United States, Department of Maine for her leadership in integrating her class with the community and bringing the community into her classroom. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 890)

Harold J. Gray, of Penobscot, a staff sergeant in the Maine Army National Guard. Staff Sergeant Gray, wounded in the line of duty in Iraq, was awarded the Purple Heart in 2004. Staff Sergeant Gray will be long remembered and sadly missed by his family and friends and all those whose lives he touched; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 891)

James Llewellyn Barnes, of Bethel. Mr. Barnes was a veteran of the United States Marine Corps. He joined the Foreign Service in 1966 and served as a consular officer in Sierra Leone and Honduras. He was awarded the Department of State Meritorious Honor Award, given for "a special act or service or sustained outstanding performance." During his 36-year period with Leon Tempelman & Son and Lazare Kaplan & Son, he worked and lived in many African countries. He was a member of the American Legion Post 81, in Bethel. Mr. Barnes will be long remembered and sadly missed by his wife of 60 years, Eliza Haven Barnes, his family and his friends; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 892)

James Arthur Kierstead, of Camden. Mr. Kierstead was a lifelong master brick mason who owned his own masonry company in Camden, and examples of his craftsmanship can be seen throughout the town. He served 44 years as a member of the Federal Masonic Lodge No. 6 and was a longtime member of Camden Lion's Club, from which he received the Melvin Jones Award. He was a board member of the Mid-Coast Solid Waste Corporation, a member of the Camden Planning Board, a Town of Camden selectman and a member of the Knox County Airport Advisory Board. He was a longtime volunteer firefighter serving with the Camden Fire Department's Atlantic Engine Company No. 2. He also was an active member of the town's Veterans' Honor Roll Committee and worked tirelessly to help raise the funds and develop the design of the memorial honoring Camden's veterans. Mr. Kierstead will be long remembered and sadly missed by his wife of 52 years, Linda, his family and friends and all those whose lives he touched; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 893)

the South Portland High School Girls Basketball Team, which won the Class AA South Championship. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 894)

Marty Milligan, of Rumford, who is being inducted into the Maine Sports Hall of Fame with the Class of 2020. Mr. Milligan, winner of the Fitzpatrick Trophy in 1972 and a three-year starter

LEGISLATIVE RECORD – HOUSE APPENDIX
December 5, 2018 to December 1, 2020

at defensive end for Dartmouth College, is President of Global Sports Connection, which assists international student-athletes seeking to attend college in the United States. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 895)

David Osgood, of York, a captain of the York Beach Fire Department, who has received a Joel Barnes Heroism Award. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 896)

Daniel Gile, of York, a firefighter with the York Village Fire Department, who has received a Joel Barnes Heroism Award. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 897)

Stephen Carr, of York, a firefighter with the York Village Fire Department, who has received a Joel Barnes Heroism Award. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 898)

Pamela Bois, of Richmond, who has received the Good Samaritan Real Hero Award from the Central and Mid Coast Maine Chapter of the American Red Cross. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 899)

Lawrence Foster, of Richmond, who has received the Good Samaritan Real Hero Award from the Central and Mid Coast Maine Chapter of the American Red Cross. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 900)

Owen Brigham, of Bowdoin, who has received the Youth Community Real Hero Award from the Central and Mid Coast Maine Chapter of the American Red Cross. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 901)

Bob Garver, of Harpswell, whose company, Wicked Joe Organic Coffees, has been designated Best in the World by B Corporation, a global organization setting standards of verifiable social and environmental performance, public transparency and legal accountability. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 902)

the Kennebunk High School Girls Swimming and Diving Team, which won the school's first Class A State Championship. Members of the team include Annalise Cowing, Nina Sharp, Grace Girard, Chloe Matthews, Ella Yentsch, Rowan Pow, Maya Olin, Camilla Rawlings, Kaia Wirth and Emma Thomas; and coaches Andrew Coulombe, Susan Donaher and Guy Pollini. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 903)

Standard Waterproofing, in Winslow, which has received the 2020 Business of the Year Award from the Mid-Maine Chamber of Commerce for its commitment to growth and contributions to the community. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 904)

Chuck Hays, of Manchester, president and chief executive officer of MaineGeneral Health, who has received the 2020 Business Person of the Year Award from the Mid-Maine Chamber of Commerce for his leadership, integrity, professionalism and vision. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 905)

Gary Levesque, of Oakland, an insurance agent of New York Life, Inc., who has received the 2020 Elias A. Joseph Award from the Mid-Maine Chamber of Commerce for his service to the chamber. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 906)

Heather Mackenzie Thorne, of Winslow, an associate broker with Coldwell Banker Plourde Real Estate, who has received the 2020 Rising Star Award from the Mid-Maine Chamber of Commerce for her success in business and community involvement. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 907)

Tracy Warren, of Oakland, a vice president and loan officer of Kennebec Savings Bank, who has received the 2020 Customer Service Stardom Award from the Mid-Maine Chamber of Commerce for the exceptional service she provides the bank's customers. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 908)

Richard Hopper, of Fairfield, president of Kennebec Valley Community College, who has received the 2020 Outstanding Professional Award from the Mid-Maine Chamber of Commerce for his contributions to the community. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 909)

Danny Ring and the Ring Family Farm, of Canaan, recipients of a Spirit of America Foundation Award. The Spirit of America Foundation was established to encourage and promote volunteerism, and the foundation presents awards to honor local individuals, organizations or projects in appreciation of community service. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 910)

Abigail Stevens, of Island Falls, a senior at Southern Aroostook Community School, who is a recipient of a 2020 Principal's Award for outstanding academic achievement and citizenship, sponsored by the Maine Principals' Association. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 911)

Jeffrey A. Cammack, of Dedham. Mr. Cammack served with the Bangor Fire Department from 1979 to 2012, retiring as Chief after sixteen years of service in that position. He went on to serve as the Executive Director and legislative advocate for the Maine Fire Chiefs' Association. Mr. Cammack will be long remembered and sadly missed by his family and friends and all those whose lives he touched; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 912)

Gregory Lee Lemar, of Dresden. Mr. Lemar began digging worms alongside his father and brothers at 10 years of age. In the 1980s, he drove 18-wheelers, for 40 years, he cut and sold Christmas trees and, in 1985, he opened Greg's Used Autos. He was a member of the Auto Auction of New England, Southern Auto Auction and Acadia Auto Auction. Mr. Lemar will be long remembered and sadly missed by his family and friends; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 913)

Richard Desmarais, of Ogunquit. Mr. Desmarais is considered to be one of the best football players and all-around athletes that Maine has produced. Shattering records in every sport he played as a high school student, including baseball, basketball and track, he went on to become a standout athlete at Boston University and a professional football player, playing as a running back for the Canadian Football League Rough Riders and being named Rough Rider Rookie of the Year. In 2008, he was inducted into the Maine Sports Hall of Fame. After his football career, he became a top national salesman for the Nokia Corporation. Mr. Desmarais will be long remembered and sadly missed by his family and friends and all those whose lives he touched; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 914)

Charlotte Frost, of Gray, who is celebrating her 100th Birthday on March 17, 2020. Mrs. Frost is the holder of the town's Boston Post Cane, an honor given to the oldest citizen of a municipality. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 915)

David Halligan, of Falmouth, coach of the boys varsity basketball and soccer teams at Falmouth High School, who recently achieved his 1,000th victory in boys varsity sports. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 916)

Gerry Jackson, of Clinton, who is celebrating her 100th Birthday. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 917) the Camden Snow Bowl middle school girls alpine ski team, of Camden, which won the Maine Junior Ski League Alpine State Championship. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 918)

LEGISLATIVE RECORD – HOUSE APPENDIX
December 5, 2018 to December 1, 2020

the Maine Central Institute Wrestling Team, of Pittsfield, which won the Class B Sportsmanship Award. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 919)

Grace Linkletter, of Athens, a senior at Madison Area Memorial High School, who is a recipient of a 2020 Principal's Award for outstanding academic achievement and citizenship, sponsored by the Maine Principals' Association. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 920)

Jim Tarbox, of Harrison, who is receiving a Medal of Honor in recognition of his 55 years of service to the Harrison Volunteer Fire Department. We extend our appreciation and best wishes; (HLS 921)

Allan Denison, of Harrison, who is receiving a Medal of Honor in recognition of his 60 years of service to the Harrison Volunteer Fire Department. We extend our appreciation and best wishes; (HLS 922)

the Honorable Mark Samson, of Auburn, Dirigo Federal Credit Union President and Chief Executive Officer, who has received the Ken Addison Small Business Advocacy Award from the Lewiston Auburn Metropolitan Chamber of Commerce for his commitment to small business advocacy and his successful volunteer efforts to advance and improve the overall small business community. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 923)

the Edward Little High School Boys Varsity Basketball Team, of Auburn, which won the 2019-20 Class AA State Championship. This is the team's second state title in three years. Members of the team include Patrick Anthoine, Austin Brown, Quincy Coachman, Maxwell Creaser, Tyson Green, Storm Jipson, Jamaine Luizzo, Tong Maiwen-Diing, Dan Milks, RJ Nicholas, Devonte Scott, John Shea and Cam Yorke; and head coach Mike Adams. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 924) the Honorable Thomas R. W. Longstaff, of Waterville, who has received the 2020 Distinguished Community Service Award from the Mid-Maine Chamber of Commerce. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 925)

Timothy Hinton, of Winslow, an officer of the Waterville Police Department, who has received the department's Medal of Valor. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 926)

the Sumner Memorial High School Cheering Team, of Sullivan, which won the Class C State Championship. In addition to this year's state championship, the team also won the Downeast Athletic Conference Championship, the Penobscot Valley Conference Championship and the Northern Maine Regional Championship. Members of the team include Rhiannon Alley, Devin Moshier, Nataly Battis, Autumn Mowery, Abigail Bell, Scarlet Capitano, Skylar Soule, Robin Faulkingham, Emilee Hutchins, Emaly Ryder, Madlyn Warren, Ainsley Alley, Marissa Colby and Sage Soule; and coaches Jessica Snowdeal and Monica Pettegrow. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 927)

Monica Pettegrow, of Trenton, a coach of the Sumner Memorial High School Cheering Team, who has been named a 2020 Penobscot Valley Conference Coach of the Year. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 928)

Jessica Snowdeal, of Sullivan, a coach of the Sumner Memorial High School Cheering Team, who has been named a 2020 Penobscot Valley Conference Coach of the Year. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 929)

the Hermon High School Varsity Cheerleaders, who won the 2020 Class B State Championship. This is the team's fourth consecutive championship and ninth in the last ten years. Members of the team include Alanna Berube, Jasmine Boulier, Brooklyn Brown, Ally Coxson, Kalley Curry, Cali Cyr, Madison Despault, Megan Dorr, Hailey Gogan, Madison Higgins, Riley Perry, Alexis Raymond, Lyndsee Reed, Michaela Sautler, Madison Smith, Caitlin Whitehouse and Torria Wittmer; assistant coaches Christina Paradis and Kaitlenn Turner; and coach Kristie Reed. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 930)

Jordan Grant, of New Gloucester, a student at Gray-New Gloucester High School and a player on the girls basketball team, who recently scored her 1,000th career point. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 931) the Greely High School Boys Ice Hockey Team, of Cumberland, which won the Class B State Championship for the 2nd consecutive year and for the 5th time since 2009. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 932)

Bryce Lausier, of Glenburn Center, a senior at Hampden Academy and a player on the boys basketball team, who has been named Mr. Maine Basketball for 2020 by the Maine Association of Basketball Coaches. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 933) the Mt. Blue High School Girls Nordic Ski Team, of Farmington, which won the Class A North Good Sportsmanship Award. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 934) the Mt. Blue High School Girls Alpine Ski Team, of Farmington, which won the Class A North Good Sportsmanship Award. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 935)

Taylor Gordon, of Farmington, a freshman at Mt. Blue High School and a member of the girls alpine ski team, who won the Class A State Slalom Title. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 936)

Emma Charles, of Farmington, a sophomore at Mt. Blue High School and a member of the girls Nordic ski team, who won the Class A State Classical Title. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 937) the Mt. Blue High School Girls Nordic Ski Team, of Farmington, which won the Class A State Championship. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 938)

the Mt. Blue High School Girls Alpine Ski Team, of Farmington, which won the Class A State Championship. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 939)

Kaci Alley, of Jonesport, a student at Narraguagus Junior/Senior High School and a player on the girls basketball team, who recently scored her 1,000th career point. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 940)

Ronald Lee Peabody, of Jonesport. Mr. Peabody was an accomplished guitarist, playing in eastern and central Maine with the Rubber Band, Ambush and Gunshy. He worked for many years at Carver Oil Company and as a self-employed interior painter, and he lettered boats. Mr. Peabody will be long remembered and sadly missed by his family and friends and all those whose lives he touched; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 941)

Costas T. Lambrew, of Scarborough. Dr. Lambrew dedicated his career to advancing research, training and quality health care for all. He was a pioneer in cardiology, recognized nationally and internationally. He developed one of the first paramedic pre-hospital cardiac care programs in the United States and helped create cardiopulmonary resuscitation programs. His research on thrombolysis in myocardial infarction advanced care for patients with acute heart attacks. He worked at Maine Medical Center from 1977 to 2004, beginning as a Physician Educator in Emergency Medicine and later becoming Vice President of Health Affairs; Director, Division of Cardiology and Cardiac

LEGISLATIVE RECORD – HOUSE APPENDIX
December 5, 2018 to December 1, 2020

Intensive Care Unit; and Chief of Cardiology. He helped to advance Maine Medical Center to become one of the top 100 best cardiac care hospitals in the country. He led a cardiology fellowship program that trained many of the cardiologists practicing in Maine today. In addition to his work at Maine Medical Center, he worked at the National Institutes of Health, New York Hospital, Nassau County Medical Center and Unum. He was a professor of medicine at Cornell University, the State University of New York at Stony Brook and the University of Vermont. He was an active member and held various positions with the American Heart Association, American Medical Association, American College of Physicians and American College of Cardiology. He was named a Master of the College of Cardiology in 2004. Dr. Lambrew will be long remembered and sadly missed by his wife of 55 years, Patricia, his family and friends and all those whose lives he touched; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 942)

the Honorable Stephen Patrick Hanley, of Gardiner. Mr. Hanley was a veteran of the United States Air Force. He worked as a pipefitter for Scott Paper, which later became SAPPI Pulp and Paper, in the Somerset Plant for many years until he retired and also worked as a reserve officer for the Skowhegan Police Department, Gardiner Police Department and Kennebec County Sheriff's Office. He was a member of the board of the Gardiner Boys and Girls Clubs and served on the board of the Gardiner Federal Credit Union. He served several terms on the Gardiner City Council and eight years in the Maine State House of Representatives, representing Gardiner and Randolph. He was a lifetime parishioner of St. Joseph's Catholic Church in Gardiner, a 4th degree member of the Knights of Columbus Assembly #348 and a member of the American Legion Smith Wiley Post 4, the National Rifle Association and the Sportsman's Alliance of Maine, as well as a volunteer for Wreaths Across America. Mr. Hanley will be long remembered and sadly missed by his wife of 55 years, Sheila, his family and friends and all those whose lives he touched; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 943)

Rebecca Joy Leonard, of Thomaston. Mrs. Leonard taught music at Lura Libby School, Thomaston Grammar School, Georges Valley High School and Rockland District High School and, after the high schools combined, at Oceanside High School and finished her teaching career at Oceanside Middle School. She produced, directed and raised funds for 17 musicals, bringing her students a broader experience of music. She served for several years as choir director at Littlefield Memorial Baptist Church and as director of the Thomaston Baptist Church's Living Christmas Tree Choir for 10 years. Mrs. Leonard will be long remembered and sadly missed by her family and friends and all those whose lives she touched; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 944)

John Swanson, of Raymond. Mr. Swanson was a veteran of the United States Army and served as a chaplain in the Maine Army National Guard for over 20 years, retiring as State Chaplain with the rank of colonel. He received the Army Commendation Medal and the Legion of Merit awards. He was ordained into the United Church of Christ in 1962, beginning his active ministry with the Mexico Congregational Church, the three churches Presumpscot Union Parish in the Windham area and finally the First Congregational Church, United Church of Christ in Bridgton and South Bridgton Congregational Church. He served the First Church in Bridgton for 26 years, retiring in 1996. He served the Maine Conference, was moderator of the Cumberland Association of Churches and Oxford-Union Association, was chairman of the Division of Ministry and held leadership roles for Rockcraft Lodge. He led program development for Pilgrim Lodge and later was a camp dean and counselor for the UCC summer youth camp. He and his wife, Mary Jane, were leaders in the UCC Marriage Encounter program and served as the National Pastoral Couple for the UCC. He was active with the local Red Cross and Salvation Army and trained hospice volunteers. He was an active participant in the chaplaincy program at Northern Cumberland Memorial Hospital, assisted the Bridgton Police Department and provided counseling to the Bridgton community. Mr. Swanson will be long remembered and sadly missed by Mary Jane, to whom he was married for 59 years, by his family and friends and by all those whose lives he touched; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 945)

Paul Fox, of Monmouth, a pillar of his community. Mr. Fox worked as an auto mechanic at Coe's Chevrolet, Bill Martin's Chevrolet and Augusta Chevrolet, but was best known as a member of the Monmouth Fire Department and an organizer of the Monmouth Fair. He joined the fire department in 1958 and was promoted to assistant chief in 1975 and chief in 1995, serving in the position for 9 years and for 62 years overall. He helped modernize the department in the 1970s and 1980s, buying new fire trucks and helping to operate the department on a shoestring budget. More recently, he helped with repairs at the station, with permitting and with fire warden duties, as well as volunteering to cut brush along 46 miles of roadways. As a member of the Cochnewagon Agricultural Association, he helped organize the Monmouth Fair for 54 years. Mr. Fox will be long remembered and sadly missed by his family and friends and all those whose lives he touched; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 946)

Linda Shepherd Gilson, of Hallowell. Mrs. Gilson worked for the State of Maine for more than 33 years, retiring as Director of Financial/Professional Services in 2001. She was a former trustee and president of the Hubbard Free Library and a lifetime member of the Friends of the Hubbard Free Library. As a retiree, she spent much of her time volunteering as Hallowell's Planning Board Chair and Ward Clerk and recently as a board member of the city's Centennial Burial Ground Association. She also was a board member of Arch Beta's board of directors and the Row House. Mrs. Gilson will be long remembered and sadly missed by her husband of 58 years, James, her family and friends and all those whose lives she touched; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 947)

John Rogers, of Strong, who is retiring as Director of the Maine Criminal Justice Academy after 17 years of service in the position and many years of service in law enforcement. We extend our appreciation and best wishes; (HLS 948)

John Bednarik, of Montville, who had served as a selectperson for the Town of Montville. Mr. Bednarik will be long remembered and sadly missed by his family and friends and all those whose lives he touched; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 949) the Central Aroostook High School Girls Basketball Team, of Mars Hill, which won the Class C State Championship. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 950)

Janice Cerabona, of Eliot, who has received the Fabyan Drake Good Citizen Award for her many years of outstanding service to her community, including her more than 40 years of teaching and her volunteer work at local schools and with the Eliot Historical Society and its District No. 8 Schoolhouse, Aging in Place Committee and Bicentennial Committee. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 951)

Cecelia Dieterich, of Paris, who has earned the distinction of being named Valedictorian of the 2020 graduating class of Oxford Hills Comprehensive High School. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 952)

Marissa Paine, of Paris, who has earned the distinction of being named Salutatorian of the 2020 graduating class of Oxford

LEGISLATIVE RECORD – HOUSE APPENDIX
December 5, 2018 to December 1, 2020

Hills Comprehensive High School. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 953)

Caroline C. Hammond, of Auburn, a senior at Edward Little High School, who is a recipient of a 2020 Principal's Award for outstanding academic achievement and citizenship, sponsored by the Maine Principals' Association. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 954)

Owen Filbbert, of Windham, who has earned the distinction of being named Valedictorian of the 2020 graduating class of Windham High School. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 955)

Robert Phillips, of Orrington, for his more than 30 years of coaching softball in the town. Mr. Phillips has coached all age groups from the farm league to Little League All-Stars to the town's own Center Drive School softball team, has hosted tournaments for teams from across the State and has worked to make softball affordable for all players. We extend our appreciation and best wishes; (HLS 956)

John Foster, of Bucksport, a senior at Bucksport High School, who is a recipient of a 2020 Principal's Award for outstanding academic achievement and citizenship, sponsored by the Maine Principals' Association. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 957)

Rachel Sickles, of Corinna, a senior at Dexter Regional High School, who is a recipient of a 2020 Principal's Award for outstanding academic achievement and citizenship, sponsored by the Maine Principals' Association. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 958)

Roger Jackson, of Oxford, who is celebrating his 80th Birthday. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 959)

Robert K. Plummer, of Oxford, who celebrated his 85th Birthday on March 9, 2020. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 960)

the Oxford Hills Comprehensive High School Girls Basketball Team, of South Paris, which won the Class AA State Championship. Members of the team include Sierra Carson, Molly Corbett, Chloe Estes, Celia Melanson, Ella Kellogg, Viktoria Sugars, Cassidy Dumont, Madi Day, Brooke Carson, Jade Smedberg, Maggie Hartnett, Cecelia Dieterich and Julia Colby; team managers Jaylee Bean, Kaitlyn McKinnon and Kori Kahkonen; assistant coaches Matt Corbett, Cimeron Colby and Ryan Ricci; and head coach Nate Pelletier. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 961)

Julia Colby, of South Paris, a senior at Oxford Hills Comprehensive High School and a player on the girls basketball team, who has been named Miss Maine Basketball for 2020 by the Maine Association of Basketball Coaches. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 962)

Nicholas R. Diconzo, of Rumford, who celebrated his 90th Birthday on June 20, 2020. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 963)

Tonya Prentice, of Bryant Pond, a teacher at Woodstock Elementary School, who has been named the 2020 Oxford County Teacher of the Year. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 964)

Delilah Poupore, of Saco, Executive Director of Heart of Biddeford, who has received the 2020 William F. King, Jr., Downtown Champion Award from the Maine Development Foundation. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 965)

Logan Perkins, of Exeter, who has earned the distinction of being named Salutatorian of the 2020 graduating class of Dexter

Regional High School. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 966)

Mary McDonald, of Georgetown, for her service to the Town of Georgetown and the Town of Arrowsic. For at least 20 years, she served in Georgetown, beginning with the Solid Waste Committee, and later as the town's treasurer and bookkeeper and assistant to the selectmen; in Arrowsic, she served as treasurer for 10 years. We extend our appreciation and best wishes; (HLS 967)

Geoffrey Birdsall, of Georgetown, for his 18 years of service on the Georgetown Board of Selectmen and for his further service to his community. We extend our appreciation and best wishes; (HLS 968) the Long Reach Swim Club, of the Bath Area Family YMCA, which won the Maine State YMCA Swimming Championship. This is the team's 30th consecutive victory at the annual championship and 38th overall. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 969)

the Top Ten students of the 2020 graduating class of Winthrop High School: Gabrielle Jones Blanco, Ian Dow, Samantha Eileen Allen, Sara E. Condon, Alexis Ann Emery, Madeline Louise Fenlason, Natalie Frost, Nikki MacDonald, Natalie Rogers and Aaliyah Wilson-Falcone. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 970)

Jordyn Cowger, of Danforth, who has earned the distinction of being named Valedictorian of the 2020 graduating class of East Grand School. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 971)

Noah Sixberry, of Danforth, who has earned the distinction of being named Salutatorian of the 2020 graduating class of East Grand School. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 972) the establishment of the Lebanon Chapter of the American Legion Auxiliary in Maine during the commemoration and celebration of the 100th Anniversary of the American Legion Auxiliary in the United States of America. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 973)

Zachery Chasse, of Fort Kent, a member of Troop No. 189, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout. This is the highest award in Scouting and is given for excellence in skills development, leadership, personal growth and community service. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 974)

Mason Peterson, of Waterville, who has been named the Kennebec Valley Community College 2020 Student of the Year. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 975)

Zach Maturo, of Standish, a 2020 graduate of Bonny Eagle High School and a player on the school's football and boys basketball teams, who was named the <Emphasis Type="Italic">Portland Press Herald</Emphasis> Male Athlete of the Year. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 976)

Emma Abbott, of Limington, who has earned the distinction of being named Salutatorian of the 2020 graduating class of Bonny Eagle High School. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 977)

Hannah Milne, of Buxton, who has earned the distinction of being named Valedictorian of the 2020 graduating class of Bonny Eagle High School. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 978)

Delaney Faulkner, of Buxton, a student at Bonny Eagle Middle School, who won the 2020 Doodle 4 Google Contest for the State of Maine. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 979)

LEGISLATIVE RECORD – HOUSE APPENDIX
December 5, 2018 to December 1, 2020

Marcel Chalou, of Easton, who has been named the Northern Maine Community College 2020 Student of the Year. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 980)

Hillary Hallett, of Easton, Director of the Easton Recreation Department, who has received the 2020 William V. Haskell Distinguished Professional of the Year Award from the Maine Recreation and Parks Association. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 981)

Robert Lefebvre, of Gorham, who is retiring as Chief of the Gorham Fire Department after 36 years of service with the department. Chief Lefebvre was appointed part-time chief in 1984 and the town's first full-time chief in 1987; he has been honored with several awards and was named Cumberland County Fire Chief of the Year. We extend our appreciation and best wishes; (HLS 982)

Eben Shaw, of Turner, Principal of Leavitt Area High School, who has been named the 2020 Maine Principal of the Year by the Maine Principals' Association. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 983)

Jack and Ann Sylvester, of China, on the occasion of their 55th Wedding Anniversary. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 984)

Betty Lewey, of Pleasant Point, who has retired as Passamaquoddy Head Start Program Director after 42 years of public service. In 2016, Ms. Lewey received the Marcia Lovell Award for Innovation in Early Care and Education from Maine Roads to Quality for the significant contributions she made to the development of the early care and education field in Maine. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 985)

Pat and Paul Boisvert, of Berwick, recipients of a Spirit of America Foundation Award. The Spirit of America Foundation was established to encourage and promote volunteerism, and the foundation presents awards to honor local individuals, organizations or projects in appreciation of community service. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 986)

YuJai Lin, of Falmouth, who has earned the distinction of being named Salutatorian of the 2020 graduating class of Falmouth High School. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 987)

Claudia Spelman, of Falmouth, who has earned the distinction of being named Valedictorian of the 2020 graduating class of Falmouth High School. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 988)

A.J. Noyes, of Falmouth, a student at Falmouth High School and a member of the boys' Alpine ski team, who won the 2020 Class A State Slalom and Giant Slalom Championships and was named the Varsity Maine Boys' Skier of the Year. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 989)

the Hermon High School Girls Varsity Basketball Team, which won the 2019-20 Class B North Championship. This is the squad's first regional title since 1994. Members of the team include Allison Cameron, Mercedes Campbell, Charlotte Caron, Faith Coombs, Ashley Cote, Sydney Gallop, Madison Lebel, Grace Page, Paige Plissey, Christa Rogers, Megan Tracy and Elizabeth Wyman; assistant coaches Jason Coleman, Shawn Good and Liza Muth; and head coach Chris Cameron. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 990)

Brendan Boyle, of South Berwick, recipient of a Spirit of America Foundation Award. The Spirit of America Foundation was established to encourage and promote volunteerism, and the foundation presents awards to honor local individuals, organizations or projects in appreciation of community service. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 991)

Abigail McNally, of Millinocket, who has earned the distinction of being named Valedictorian of the 2020 graduating class of Stearns Junior-Senior High School. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 992)

Jacob Kowalski, of Millinocket, who has earned the distinction of being named Salutatorian of the 2020 graduating class of Stearns Junior-Senior High School. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 993)

Noah Bilodeau, of Greenville, who has earned the distinction of being named Valedictorian of the 2020 graduating class of Greenville Consolidated School. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 994)

Thomas C. Watt, of Greenville, who has earned the distinction of being named Salutatorian of the 2020 graduating class of Greenville Consolidated School. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 995)

Edward Emerson Hendrickson, of Presque Isle, on the occasion of his 100th Birthday. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 996)

Nick D. Archer, of Westfield, on his retirement as the Northern Maine Regional Office Director of the Maine Department of Environmental Protection. Mr. Archer's achievements over his long career include the Washburn dam removal and the restoration of 80,000 acres of brook trout and Atlantic salmon habitat in the Salmon Stream watershed. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 997)

Seth Ethan-Michael Tapley, of Hodgdon, a senior at Hodgdon Middle-High School, who is a recipient of a 2020 Principal's Award for outstanding academic achievement and citizenship, sponsored by the Maine Principals' Association. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 998)

the Lubec Congregational Christian Church on its 200th Anniversary. The church's first building was completed on August 17, 1820; upgrades and changes over the decades include replacement of the steeple after the original 125 1/2 foot spire was severely damaged by the famous Saxby Gale of 1869. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 999)

Adrien Durgin, of Porter, to whom, for contributions to the community, the Town of Porter has dedicated its Town Report. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 1000)

Wayne Russell Poland, of Windham, an advocate for workers known by all as a voice of reason and for his hard work, level-headedness and dogged determination to better the lives of workers everywhere. Mr. Poland was an employee of the United States Postal Service and an active member of the American Postal Workers Union, serving as a Steward and a Craft Director and, for 22 years, as the Local President of the Portland Maine Area Local #458. He also spent 10 years as the Maine State APWU President. On his retirement from the Postal Service in 2002, Governor John Baldacci declared a "Wayne Poland Day" at the Maine State House. In his retirement, he served as part of the Southern Maine Labor Council, for which he served as Secretary Treasurer, and was active with the Maine State AFL-CIO, for which he served on the executive board. He was awarded a lifetime membership award from the APWU Auxiliary for his years of dedicated service and the Bridgebuilder Award and was named a Working Class Hero by the SMLC in 2012. Mr. Poland will be long remembered and sadly missed by his wife of 56 years, Doris Bellefeuille, his family and friends and all those whose lives he touched; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 1001)

Henry J. Gilbert, of Lewiston. Mr. Gilbert served in the United States Marine Corps during World War II and was wounded in action in March 1945 at Iwo Jima. He received the Purple Heart Medal, Presidential Unit Citation Ribbon, Asiatic-Pacific Campaign Medal, American Campaign Medal, World War II Victory Medal and Rifle Sharpshooter Badge. Before the war, he worked as a lumberman and as a brick maker at Morin and Dennis Brickyards. He later worked for two construction companies before starting Gilbert Construction in 1966, building houses and commercial buildings, from which he retired in 2011. He was devoted to his community and was always ready to lend a helping hand. He was a 74-year life member of the American Legion Post 22, and he volunteered his time to refurbish the original brick-making machine of Morin's brickyard, which became a major artifact of Museum L-A. Mr. Gilbert will be long remembered and sadly missed by his wife of 49 years, Lois, his family and friends and all those whose lives he touched; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 1002)

Dehra Olson, of Bryant Pond. Mrs. Olson worked in local manufacturing and in the home. She will be long remembered and sadly missed by her family and friends; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 1003)

Brent Curtis Angevine, of Bethel. Mr. Angevine had a career in the equipment repair business and was a member and past Master of the Bethel Masonic Lodge, a member of Shriners International, chair of the Bingham Forestry Committee and chair of the Bethel Water District Trustees. His love for traveling and tasting tours led him on the great venture of Steam Mill Brewing with a lifelong friend. Mr. Angevine will be long remembered and sadly missed by his family and friends and all those whose lives he touched; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 1004)

Margaret Gardiner, of Woolwich. Ms. Gardiner, a World War II veteran of the Women's Army Corps and an accomplished breeder of Morgan horses, worked to improve the Morgan breed as useful and sound horses and invested in research at the University of Pennsylvania to address equine neurological defects and ataxia. Devoted to promoting riding among youth, she welcomed many young people into the world of farming in the 4-H, the Girl Scouts and the Pony Club. Ms. Gardiner will be long remembered and sadly missed by her family and friends and all those whose lives she touched; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 1005)

Thomas J. Ryan, of York, a world-renowned cardiologist and clinical scholar representing the best of academic cardiology. Dr. Ryan served as a captain in the United States Army Medical Corps from 1955 to 1957. He was appointed Professor of Medicine at Boston University School of Medicine in 1971. He was Chief, Section of Cardiology at Boston Medical Center from 1971 to 1994, after which time he continued to practice medicine, educate trainees and conduct significant cardiovascular research and influence health care policy as a Senior Consultant in Cardiology. In 1991, at 63 years of age, he became a Fulbright Scholar at Oxford University, studying clinical trial design and epidemiology. He was a leader in the landmark Coronary Artery Surgery Study and helped formulate national practice guidelines with the American Heart Association and the American College of Cardiology. He was a leader in the American Heart Association at the local and national levels; he was elected president in 1985 and served an unprecedented two consecutive terms. Among his many awards are the American Heart Association's James B. Herrick, Paul Dudley White and Gold Heart awards. His superb clinical skills and reverence for clinical medicine are memorialized in the Thomas J. Ryan Chair of Medicine at Boston University School of Medicine. Dr. Ryan will be long remembered and sadly missed by his family and friends and all those whose lives he touched; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 1006)

Arnold Alvin "Joe" Nickerson IV, of Arundel, who died on January 23, 2020 after his boat sank in the Atlantic Ocean 50 miles off Portland. Mr. Nickerson spend most of his life on the water. In his early years, he lobstered with his father out of Cape Porpoise before running a number of fishing vessels out of Portland and Dutch Harbor, Alaska, later spending many years fishing off Cape Porpoise and Portland. In 2019, he was elected as the chairman of the board of directors of the Maine Coast Fishermen's Association, having previously served as vice chair for 7 years and helped to build the organization from a volunteer group of fishermen to one of the most respected commercial fishing advocacy organizations in the country. Mr. Nickerson will be long remembered and sadly missed by his wife of 34 years, Sharon, his family and friends and all those whose lives he touched; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 1007)

Stephen Allen Broadbent, of Auburn, a passionate advocate for clean water. For more than forty years, Mr. Broadbent worked in the water and wastewater industries. He will be long remembered and sadly missed by his family and friends and all those whose lives he touched; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 1008)

Julie Dimperio Holowach, of Bailey Island in Harpswell and Naples, Florida. Prior to retiring in 2016, Ms. Holowach had a successful career as a fashion executive. A marathon runner, golfer, reader, and passionate gardener, she was active in her community, contributing her talents to many organizations, including the Harpswell Garden Club, Orrs and Bailey Island Yacht Club and Orrs Island Book Club. She was an active volunteer with the Coastal Botanical Gardens and Harpswell Aging at Home and was committed to helping Maine business development, serving on the Board of Directors of Sea Bags Maine. Ms. Holowach will be long remembered and sadly missed by her family and friends and all those whose lives she touched; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 1009)

Juliet C. Holmes-Smith, of Portland. Ms. Holmes-Smith worked in Portland at the Family Crisis Shelter as an advocate to ensure that children were safe and not silenced by trauma caused by domestic violence. Later, she became a lawyer and worked at Pine Tree Legal Services representing victims of domestic violence, going on to serve as Executive Director of the Volunteer Lawyers Project and successfully establishing it as an independent agency. She also helped establish a clinic at Preble Street Resource Center for those experiencing homelessness, a guardianship program to assist families affected by the opioid crisis, a bankruptcy clinic and a clinic for small businesses impacted by the COVID-19 pandemic. She was a member of Cumberland County's Violence Intervention Partnership, in 2001 she was appointed to the Maine Commission on Domestic and Sexual Abuse and she served on the Judicial Branch's Domestic Violence Advisory Committee. In 2004, she was appointed to the Family Law Advisory Committee and later to the Victim Compensation Board for the State of Maine, and she served as Chair of the Justice Action Group Pro Bono Sub Committee. Ms. Holmes-Smith will be long remembered and sadly missed by her family and friends and all those whose lives she touched; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 1010)

Christopher Pinkham, of Boothbay, who died on January 23, 2020 after the boat he was working on sank into the Atlantic Ocean 50 miles off Portland. Mr. Pinkham came from a long line of fishermen. He worked aboard his father's boat from a young age, and he went on to fish on a variety of vessels. For a time, he also worked at Bath Iron Works and as a painter. He returned to fishing, spending the past year fishing on his own boat, the F/V Ginger, hoping to pass down the family tradition to his children. Mr. Pinkham will be long remembered and sadly missed by his wife, Jessica, his family and friends and all those whose lives he touched; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 1011)

LEGISLATIVE RECORD – HOUSE APPENDIX
December 5, 2018 to December 1, 2020

Norman Jolliffe, Jr., of Orono. Mr. Jolliffe began his working life as an English and History high school teacher in Brooklyn, New York. He later moved to Maine and farmed, gardened and hunted. He became a Registered Maine Guide and operated his guiding service, Seven Arrows, for many years. He also authored two books on the subject of hunting. Mr. Jolliffe will be long remembered and sadly missed by his wife of 55 years, Anita, his family and friends and all those whose lives he touched; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 1012)

Jamie Russell, of Lagrange, on his retirement after 37 years of teaching and coaching, as well as 35 years of service as a referee with the Eastern Maine Board of Soccer Officials. Mr. Russell taught Physical Education and Project Adventure at Central High School for 32 years, coached soccer, baseball and basketball teams, with 395 career wins in basketball and one Eastern Maine Championship in 2001, and served as President of Penquis League/Penobscot Valley Conference Class C/D Basketball Coaches since 1992 and as a member of the Executive Committee of the Maine Basketball Hall of Fame. We extend our appreciation and best wishes; (HLS 1013)

Donald Newberg, of Harpswell. Dr. Newberg served in the United States Army and was stationed in Germany. He earned his doctorate in geology from Harvard University, taught at Colgate University, Bates College and Bowdoin College and founded D.W. Newberg Associates, Inc., providing mapping services for the State of Maine and working on hydrogeologic assessment, subdivision planning and property use design. He served as a firefighter with the Harpswell Neck Fire Department, as a volunteer and board member of the Harpswell Heritage Land Trust and as a fund-raiser for multiple sclerosis through the annual 150-mile bike ride. Dr. Newberg will be long remembered and sadly missed by his family and friends and all those whose lives he touched; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 1014)

Marguerite M. Kelly, of Harpswell. Ms. Kelly worked as a Certified Public Accountant with Deloitte & Touche for 14 years, becoming a Senior Audit Manager specializing in financial institution initial public offerings. In 1992, she moved to Egypt, where she learned Arabic and helped found a unique United States/Egypt charitable nonprofit addressing low childhood cancer survival rates, serving as the organization's vice chair. In 2000, she moved to Harpswell and served as a member of the Town of Harpswell Budget Advisory Committee. She became Town Treasurer in 2004 and guided the town through its first issuance of bonds in 2018. She also served as a board member of Coastal Humane Society. Ms. Kelly will be long remembered and sadly missed by her family and friends and all those whose lives she touched; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 1015)

Jordyn Cowger, of Danforth, a senior at East Grand School, who is a recipient of a 2020 Principal's Award for outstanding academic achievement and citizenship, sponsored by the Maine Principals' Association. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 1016)

Hedy Smith, of Buxton, a secretary with Regional School Unit 6, who has been named the State Secretary of the Year by the Maine Principals' Association. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 1017)

Cliv Dore, of Pleasant Point, a former Passamaquoddy Tribal Governor and one of the early negotiators of the 1980 Maine Indian Claims Settlement Act. Mr. Dore served three terms as Tribal Governor at Pleasant Point, from 1984 to 1986 and from 1991 to 1997. He also served as Lieutenant Governor, Tribal Health Director and Director of the Pleasant Point Housing Authority. He helped oversee the creation of more housing at Pleasant Point and later advocated for the creation of a Passamaquoddy casino in Calais. For many years, he operated Longacre Enterprises, producing balsam fir Christmas wreaths. A veteran of the Vietnam War, he served in the United States Army and the United States Air Force a total of 22 years, reaching the rank of Master Sergeant and retiring as an Officer of Special Investigations. Mr. Dore will be long remembered and sadly missed by his wife of 35 years, Frances, his family and friends and all those whose lives he touched; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 1018)

Henry Hudson, of Harrison. Mr. Hudson will be long remembered and sadly missed by his family and friends; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 1019)

Molly Neptune Parker, of Princeton, a master basket maker specializing in fancy baskets and the first female lieutenant governor of Indian Township. Ms. Parker, a celebrated and collected artist, was a founder and president of the Maine Indian Basketmakers Alliance, a nonprofit organization dedicated to teaching and preserving the craft. In 2012, she was named a National Heritage Fellow, an honor given to nine American artists each year by the National Endowment for the Arts. She was a forceful advocate for her people and was a council member when the Passamaquoddy Tribe won its land back from the federal government in 1980. She also ran a restaurant, Molly's Luncheonette, which served classic diner food along with Passamaquoddy specialties like hulled corn soup, stewed muskrat and fry bread. Ms. Parker will be long remembered and sadly missed by her family and friends and all those whose lives she touched; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 1020)

Damien Pickel, of Milo, Town Manager and Chief of Police of Milo. Chief Pickel will be long remembered and sadly missed by his family and friends and all those whose lives he touched; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 1021)

Clayton A. Winchenbach, of Warren. Mr. Winchenbach was a veteran of the United States Marine Corps. He owned and operated The Village Market, the center of activity in the town, before turning it into an antique store, Winks Whimseys, after his retirement. He served as a volunteer firefighter and ambulance driver, served on several town boards, was involved in the creation of two town parks, helped run Warren Day and was a member of the Georges River Canal Association and the Warren Historical Society. Most recently, he served on the board of the Warren Sanitary District. Mr. Winchenbach will be long remembered and sadly missed by his wife of 63 years, Joan, his family and friends and all those whose lives he touched; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 1022)

Paul S. Andrews, of Warren. Mr. Andrews was a veteran of the United States Army and served during the Korean Conflict. He worked at Penobscot Poultry in Belfast for many years before becoming a supervisor with the USDA Farmers Administration, retiring in 1995. He was a member of the Second Congregational Church, for which he served as a trustee for many years and sang in the choir, and was a longtime member of the Warren Fire Department. Mr. Andrews will be long remembered and sadly missed by his wife of 57 years, Janet, his family and friends and all those whose lives he touched; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 1023)

the Veazie Police Department, which has earned a 2019 New England Community Policing Award from the New England Association of Chiefs of Police. Selected by a committee of New England police chiefs based on its successful community policing programs, the Veazie Police Department is the only police department in Maine to win the award. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 1024)

LEGISLATIVE RECORD – HOUSE APPENDIX
December 5, 2018 to December 1, 2020

Dave Barrows, of Lincolnville. Mr. Barrows was a Town of Lincolnville selectman for several years and was well-known for his quiet demeanor and good sense in solving the town's thorniest issues. Mr. Barrows will be long remembered and sadly missed by his family and friends and all those whose lives he touched; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 1025)

Veterans of Foreign Wars Post 7997, of Old Orchard Beach, which has received the Post Century Award for its 100 years of serving local veterans. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 1026)

Marion Hylan Barr, of Hallowell, who is retiring as Director of the Office of Policy and Legal Analysis within the Maine Legislature after twenty-eight years of service. Ms. Hylan Barr was hired as a Legislative Analyst in the Office of Policy and Legal Analysis in 1992, becoming a Senior Legislative Analyst in 2005 and the Director in 2011. We extend our appreciation and best wishes; (HLS 1027)

Alice Ann Buck, a lifelong resident of Hallowell. Ms. Buck was a nurse who worked in various hospitals, including the Maine General Hospital and Waterville Osteopathic Hospital, and she also worked at Boynton's Market, where she enjoyed interacting with customers. She was a member of St. Matthew's Episcopal Church and taught Sunday school. She participated in many Old Hallowell Day events and as a warden at the polling booths and was active in all youth sports. She was a recipient of the Spirit of America Ward for volunteerism and was Hallowell Citizen of the Year in 2002. Ms. Buck will be long remembered and sadly missed by her family and friends and all those whose lives she touched; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 1028)

Rowell's Garage, of Dover-Foxcroft, which has been named the 2020 Business of the Year by the Piscataquis Chamber of Commerce for its commitment to growth as a company, its employees and the community it serves. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 1029)

Bob Bahre, of Paris. Mr. Bahre was a well-known businessman, developer and auto-racing entrepreneur. He was a prominent backer of the Oxford Casino in its development and start-up. In the late 1970s, Governor James Longley appointed him to the Maine Guarantee Authority, which became the Finance Authority of Maine. Though he never divulged the extent of his giving, he became known for his generosity. Besides his St. Catherine of Sienna Church in Norway, he contributed annually to a number of churches in Maine and New Hampshire. He was a major contributor to Stephens Memorial Hospital in Norway and made extensive contributions to the Oxford Hills Comprehensive High School scholarship fund and other scholarship funds in Maine and New Hampshire. He was recognized with a number of community awards and was inducted in the Maine Sports Hall of Fame in 2017. Mr. Bahre will be long remembered and sadly missed by his family and friends and all those whose lives he touched; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 1030)

Stephen Meister, of Winthrop, a Doctor of Medicine and the Medical Director of the Edmund N. Ervin Pediatric Center, who is the recipient of a 2020 Giraffe Award for Lifetime Achievement given by the Maine Children's Alliance, a statewide, nonpartisan advocacy organization committed to improving the lives of all of Maine's children, youth and families. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 1031)

Deb Large, of Farmingdale, on her retirement as Music Director at Hall-Dale High School, where she began teaching in 1998 after teaching in Montana and New York. Ms. Large started at Hall-Dale in a half-time position teaching band and chorus before becoming full-time and adding music theory, music history, jazz band and jazz choir to the program. All four of her performing groups received highest honors at festivals outside of the State, Broadway/Disney, a performance she added in her second year, was a cornerstone of the school year and the craft fair she organized became a community tradition. She also brought joy and unity to the community with a Holiday Festival, during which the music students raised funds for a sister school in Africa. She became the first high school music teacher in the State to earn National Board Certification and throughout her career received many honors and recognitions. We extend our appreciation and best wishes; (HLS 1032)

James M. Donnelly, of Presque Isle. Mr. Donnelly honorably served his country for 21 years in the United States Air Force. During his military career, he reached the rank of master sergeant and served in both the Korean War and Vietnam Conflict. Mr. Donnelly will be long remembered and sadly missed by his family and friends; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 1033)

Lynn Snow, of Thomaston, a fifth grade Science and Literacy teacher at Thomaston Grammar School, who has been named a 2020 National Excellence in Teaching about Agriculture Award recipient by the National Agriculture in the Classroom Organization. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 1034)

John Kilbride, of Portland, Chief of the Yarmouth Police Department, who has received the Fitzpatrick Award from the Maine Gun Safety Coalition. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 1035)

Mary Hawkes, of Lincoln, on her retirement from Northern Penobscot Tech Region III after over 30 years of service. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 1036) the Greely High School Boys Golf Team, of Cumberland, which won the Class A State Championship, with Andrew Klein winning the individual championship. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 1037)

Surrey Hardcastle, of Harpswell, who has received the 2020 Maine Council on Aging Trailblazing Award for her innovative actions and advocacy, in the face of COVID-19, to make Maine a safer place to age with dignity, health, purpose and security. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 1038)

Leroy "Roy" Day, of Bryant Pond, for his 75 years of service with the American Legion Jackson-Silver Post #68 in Greenwood. We extend our appreciation and best wishes; (HLS 1039)

Dillon Kingsbury, of Presque Isle, coach of the Central Aroostook High School Girls Varsity Basketball Team, who has been named the 2019-2020 State Basketball Coach of the Year by the National Federation of State High School Associations. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 1040)

Donna Jordan, of Standish, Regional School Unit 6 School Nurse at Bonny Eagle Middle School, who has been named School Nurse of the Year by the Maine Association of School Nurses. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 1041)

Kevin Cooper, of Buxton, coach of the Bonny Eagle High School Football Team, who has been named the 2019-2020 National Federation of High School Sports Coach of the Year for the New England District, the 2019-2020 Southern Maine Athletic Association Coach of the Year and the 2019-2020 Maine Football Coaches Association Coach of the Year. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 1042)

David Chapais, of Perry, a lieutenant with the Pleasant Point Police Department, who died while on duty. Lieutenant Chapais will be long remembered and sadly missed by his family and friends and all those whose lives he touched; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 1043)

LEGISLATIVE RECORD – HOUSE APPENDIX
December 5, 2018 to December 1, 2020

Kimberly Sampietro, of Gorham, Principal of Dayton Consolidated School, who has been named Maine Principal of the Year by the National Association of Elementary School Principals. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 1044)

Jen France, of Vienna, an instructor at the Somerset Career and Technical Center, who has been named the 2020 Somerset County Teacher of the Year. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 1045)

Edgar Maynard Post, of South Thomaston, who is celebrating his 100th Birthday on March 14, 2021. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 1046)

Janna Schuster, of Peru, who is retiring as the Town of Mexico's bookkeeper after 33 years of public service. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 1047)

the Town of Poland Public Works Department, which received the 2019 Public Works Excellence Award from the Maine Chapter of the American Public Works Association for the department's transfer station revetment project. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 1048)

Tom Flacke, of Morrill. A natural leader and a stalwart community presence, Mr. Flacke served as Morrill's first selectman for more than 10 years. Mr. Flacke will be long remembered and sadly missed by his family and friends and all those whose lives he touched; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 1049)

Keegan Brooks, of Raymond, a member of Troop No. 800, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout. This is the highest award in Scouting and is given for excellence in skills development, leadership, personal growth and community service. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 1050)

Alec Brooks, of Raymond, a member of Troop No. 800, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout. This is the highest award in Scouting and is given for excellence in skills development, leadership, personal growth and community service. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 1051)

Benjamin Gerard Legasse, of Windsor, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout. This is the highest award in Scouting and is given for excellence in skills development, leadership, personal growth and community service. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 1052)

Obeline Crowley, of Beals, who celebrated her 103rd Birthday on August 29th, 2020. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 1053)

Eddie Look, of Jonesport. Mr. Look will be long remembered and sadly missed by his family and friends; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 1054)

Chris Ireland, of Jonesport. Mr. Ireland will be long remembered and sadly missed by his family and friends; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 1055)

Elliot Beal, of Beals. Mr. Beal will be long remembered and sadly missed by his family and friends; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 1056)

William Merchant, of Addison. Mr. Merchant will be long remembered and sadly missed by his family and friends; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 1057)

Carroll Merchant, of Addison. Mr. Merchant will be long remembered and sadly missed by his family and friends; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 1058)

Patricia Stevens, of Addison. Mrs. Stevens will be long remembered and sadly missed by her family and friends; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 1059)

Ellenor Kilton, of Jonesport. Ms. Kilton will be long remembered and sadly missed by her family and friends; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 1060)

John Trapp, of Addison. Mr. Trapp will be long remembered and sadly missed by his family and friends; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 1061)

Vickey Johnson, of Jonesport. Ms. Johnson will be long remembered and sadly missed by her family and friends; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 1062)

the Honorable Walter L. Bunker, of Ellsworth. Mr. Bunker was a veteran of the United States Navy who proudly served in the Pacific Theater during World War II. He was a lobster fisherman and later owned his own lobster pound and dealership. He also went into the real estate field and worked as an associate broker. He served as a member of the Maine House of Representatives six terms, from 1967 to 1974 and from 1977 to 1980, and was on the Sea and Shore Fisheries, Fisheries and Wildlife and Marine Resources committees, the last of which he chaired. He was elected to the Hancock County Commission, where he served for five terms, with several of those years as chair. He served on the Board of Trustees at Maine Coast Memorial Hospital for 18 years and was an honorary member at the time of his passing. He was a member and past Chair of Eastern Maine Development Corporation. After his retirement from the county commission, he continued to work as Supervisor of the Unorganized Territories. Mr. Bunker will be long remembered and sadly missed by his family and friends and all those whose lives he touched; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 1063)

Michael Kelley, of Jonesport. Mr. Kelley will be long remembered and sadly missed by his family and friends; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 1064)

Sanford Kelley, of Jonesport. Mr. Kelley will be long remembered and sadly missed by his family and friends; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 1065)

Craig Rumery, of Addison. Mr. Rumery will be long remembered and sadly missed by his family and friends; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 1066)

Velora Rumery, of Addison. Mrs. Rumery will be long remembered and sadly missed by her family and friends; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 1067)

Jay Kelley, of Beals. Mr. Kelley will be long remembered and sadly missed by his family and friends; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 1068)

Brittany Alley, of Beals. She will be long remembered and sadly missed by her family and friends; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 1069)

Ordman Alley, of Beals. Mr. Alley will be long remembered and sadly missed by his family and friends; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 1070)

Dickey Beal, of Jonesport. Mr. Beal will be long remembered and sadly missed by his family and friends; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 1071)

Harry Stevens, of Addison. Mr. Stevens will be long remembered and sadly missed by his family and friends; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 1072)

Kim Davis, of Addison. Ms. Davis will be long remembered and sadly missed by her family and friends; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 1073)