ONE HUNDRED TWENTY-NINTH LEGISLATURE
SECOND REGULAR SESSION
20th Legislative Day
Tuesday, March 17, 2020

The House met according to adjournment and was called to order by the Speaker.

Prayer by Honorable Thomas H. Skolfield, Weld.

National Anthem by Honorable Craig V. Hickman, Winthrop.

Pledge of Allegiance.

The Journal of Thursday, March 12, 2020 was read and approved.

At this point, pursuant to her authority under House Rule 201, the Chair addressed the House.

Speaker GIDEON: So, as the Good Representative from Weld started his words today with saying this is really a time like none of us have ever experienced before, and so, I wanted to just start today by saying good morning and by thanking you, each and every one of you, for leaving your homes and your families to be here today to do this work. I know it is not an easy decision and I know that I have often remarked from up here about your dedication, but today it is even more striking.

As elected officials, I know we all know this, have a grave and urgent responsibility to take decisive action and to confront the crises that we may face, including the one that we do today. And we often talk about bipartisanship but the work we are about to complete today is really, in my experience, an unprecedented response to an unprecedented public health emergency.

Working today is the only way that we'll be able to mitigate this pandemic here in Maine and I want to express how grateful I am to Governor Mills and to Senate President Jackson and also to Senator Dow and to Representative Dillingham and all the other leaders in all caucuses for their unwavering commitment to coordinate the response that we are doing today. I know many of us are worried about our loved ones, our spouses, our parents, our children, and we are also thinking about the doctors and nurses and frontline healthcare workers who are fulfilling their oath to put others ahead of themselves. I'm thinking about parents who are now at home with small children and trying to do their jobs, and businesses across Maine who are bracing themselves for an unprecedented economic hardship. But what I do know is that we are all in this together and we are resilient. And, as Mainers, maybe we even coined the term hunker down. I don't know if any of you saw this really sort of what I thought was amazing and beautiful thing about the Italians and how they are standing on their balconies singing to each other even as they are confined to their homes and I thought about that and thought well, we might not see us doing that here in Maine but we'll probably have our own version of doing that. Maybe it's stacking wood for neighbors or something like bringing groceries to those who can't get out themselves because that is just the Maine way.

So, before we get to our work today, I want to take a moment to also recognize and thank the people who have been here working since last Thursday pretty much nonstop. Under incredible pressure and unreasonable circumstances as we often put them in, our nonpartisan staff has performed tremendously. The Revisor's office and OPLA have been here nonstop, as well as OFPR, ensuring that we can do what we need to do today. And so, if you see them today, please thank them. If you can, even pop your head into the office and say an extra thank you to make sure that it happens. And the only other thing I ask is that when we all leave this building to please take good care of yourselves and of each other, as I know that we will do.

Our goal today is to get through this work as efficiently as possible and also to make it worthwhile for you to be here. That being said, and I think as people have already learned in their individual caucuses or communications, we are going to be moving around in a different manner through this calendar in order to be as efficient as possible. So, I will try to carefully announce where we are and where we're moving to to keep everyone literally on the same page through that process.

COMMUNICATIONS

The Following Communication: (H.C. 384)

STATE OF MAINE
129TH LEGISLATURE

March 13, 2020

The 129th Legislature of the State of Maine
State House
Augusta, Maine

Dear Honorable Members of the 129th Legislature:

In coordination with all caucus leaders, as Presiding Officers we have decided to suspend our legislative session upon the completion of our work today in an effort to mitigate the spread of COVID-19. The Legislature will consider bills directly related to coronavirus response, health care, and other critical pieces of legislation deemed necessary, then adjourn sine die. Other unfinished matters will be carried over until the Legislature reconvenes. We will evaluate on a bi-weekly basis when it is safe and responsible for the legislature to return.

We appreciate your patience and understanding as we continue to respond to this rapidly changing public health crisis. Hundreds of lawmakers, advocates and legislative staffers come from all across the state to gather at the State House each day. Public participation is a hallmark of our work and until large gatherings are deemed safe, suspending the legislative session is the responsible thing to do.

We have made this decision with the ultimate goal of protecting the health and well-being of all Mainers and limiting the strain on our first responders, health care professionals and hospitals. All of us have a role to play to slow and prevent the spread of COVID-19 and that includes those in the Legislature. Thank you for doing your part. Together, we will face this challenge.

Sincerely,
S/Troy Jackson
President of the Senate
S/Sara Gideon
Speaker of the House

The Following Communication: (H.C. 385)

STATE OF MAINE
OFFICE OF THE GOVERNOR
AUGUSTA, MAINE

March 16, 2020

The 129th Legislature of the State of Maine

State House
Augusta, Maine

Dear Honorable Members of the 129th Legislature:

First, I extend my gratitude for your service to your communities, particularly during this unprecedented moment in time, and for your work with my Administration to prepare for and respond to the 2019 novel coronavirus, also known as COVID-19.

I understand that it is your intention, upon the completion of certain critical legislative business today, to adjourn sine die and to continue legislative work as part of a Special Session of the 129th Legislature at a time when it is deemed safe and prudent to reconvene.

I agree with the wisdom of the decision to adjourn and believe it will protect the health and safety not only of members of the Legislature and the staff, but the members of the public with whom we interact.

It is my intention to call the Legislature back for a Special Session when it is safe and prudent. It is my strong preference that a Special Session deal with only the most pressing matters.

Thank you for your work to protect the health, economic security, and well-being of our state and people.

Sincerely,
S/Janet T. Mills
Governor

SECRETARY OF STATE

AUGUSTA, MAINE 04333-0148

March 16, 2020

Honorable Robert B. Hunt

Clerk of the House

2 State House Station

Augusta, Maine 04333

Dear Clerk Hunt:

Enclosed please find my official certification to the 129th Legislature of the citizen initiative petition entitled "Resolve, To Reject the New England Clean Energy Connect Transmission Project".

Sincerely,

S/Matthew Dunlap

Secretary of State

---

STATE OF MAINE
SECRETARY OF STATE

I, Matthew Dunlap, Secretary of State, hereby certify that written petitions bearing valid signatures of 69,714 electors of this State were addressed to the Legislature of the State of Maine and were filed in the office of the Secretary of State on February 3, 2020, requesting that the Legislature consider a resolve entitled, "Resolve, To Reject the New England Clean Energy Connect Transmission Project".

I further certify that the number of signatures submitted is in excess of ten percent of the total votes cast in the last gubernatorial election preceding the filing of such petitions, as required by Article IV, Part Third, Section 18 of the Constitution of Maine, that number being 63,067.

I further certify this initiative petition to be valid and attach herewith the text of the legislation circulated on the petition's behalf.

I further certify that on March 13, 2020, a petition for review of final agency action was filed in Kennebec County Superior Court requesting that the Court reverse the decision by the Secretary of State that the direct petition for initiated legislation is valid.

In testimony whereof, I have caused the Great Seal of the State of Maine to be hereunto affixed. Given under my hand at Augusta on the sixteenth day of March in the year two thousand and twenty.

S/Matthew Dunlap
Secretary of State

Representative BERRY of Bowdoinham, moved that the accompanying Resolve, To Reject the New England Clean Energy Connect Transmission Project

(I.B. 1) (L.D. 2164)

Be REFERRED to the Committee on ENERGY, UTILITIES AND TECHNOLOGY, ordered printed and sent for concurrence.

The SPEAKER: The Chair recognizes the Representative from Bowdoinham.

Representative BERRY: Thank you, Madam Speaker. Madam Speaker and Men and Women of the House, if as planned, we adjourn today sine die, I want it to be clear that we may be unable to hold a public hearing on the initiated bill before us, LD 2164, or to take any other action within the window available to us prior to the next election. For this reason, and in case our adjournment does in fact prevent further action on the item before us by the 129th Legislature, I would like the record to reflect that notwithstanding the provisions of mere law, our inaction during a time of civil emergency should not in any way interfere and is not in any way intended to interfere with the constitutional rights of Maine citizens under Article IV, Part 3, Section 18. This includes the constitutional rights of 69,700 Maine citizens who have signed petitions or have otherwise acted to bring this ballot measure to the voters of Maine as well as the constitutional rights of all other citizens to have a say in this matter. Thank you, Madam Speaker.

Subsequently, the accompanying Resolve was REFERRED to the Committee on ENERGY, UTILITIES AND TEHCNOLOGY, ordered printed and sent for concurrence.

The SPEAKER: The Representative from Pittston has requested permission to speak on the record. Seeing no objection, the Representative may proceed on the record.

Representative HANLEY: Thank you, Madam Speaker, Ladies and Gentlemen of the House. I know that these are trying times and everyone has a little bit of edge in their life, but it is also St. Patrick's Day and if anything can make you smile, it's an Irishman. So, and it's been said that God created whisky to prevent the Irish from ruling the world. There could be some truth to that. But St. Patrick, of course, was an incredible man and a true figure of history. Green beer has ruined his memory and that's too bad, you know, but nonetheless, I invite all of you to look into the history, the true history of St. Patrick. It's quite an interesting life. And I would also like to give you all now an Irish blessing: May you be in Heaven half an hour before the devil knows you're dead. Thank you, Madam Speaker.

The SPEAKER: The Chair recognizes the Representative from Oxford, Representative Dillingham, who wishes to address the House on the record.

Representative DILLINGHAM: Thank you, Madam Speaker and Members of the House. It's been said that crisis doesn't create character, it reveals it. In the past week, I've seen peoples' character revealed. I've seen friends, neighbors, local businesses stepping up and providing assistance to those in need. I've seen free meals offered by restaurants to our elderly and our students displaced by unfolding events. Neighbors helping neighbors. My cousin's son, Jackson, picking up supplies and delivering to elderly folks in our family who have compromised health issues, teachers and administrators that have quickly put together online teaching and learning curriculum, like my daughter. I know Representative Haggan was disappointed to cancel a big project but excited to learn a new skill and build an online class. And of course more than learning goes on in our schools and these same dedicated individuals implemented procedures and stuffed backpacks to ensure children receive the food they need. The list goes on and on and we all learn that our lives have been altered for the foreseeable future.

Seeing acts of concern, compassion and kindness strengthens my connection to what makes Maine special. It is the Maine we know and love and why I am so proud to represent my State in this building. In the coming days as we face unprecedented challenges, I have no doubt Mainers will rise to the occasion and we will get through this together. I also want to thank not only the other leaders but members of the Appropriations Committee for the work that they've put in over the past few days as well as our staff and nonpartisan staff, along with those in the Chief Executive's office. Crisis does reveal character, and I am thankful to have the honor to serve with all of you.

The SPEAKER: The Chair recognizes the Representative from Portland, Representative Moonen, who wishes to address the House on the record.

Representative MOONEN: Thank you, Madam Speaker, Colleagues of the House. I don't know if I can compete with that. That was very well done.

I just want to say that, you know, as we all know, we are in unprecedented times here in this State and in this country and the last few days have been very inspiring. We have seen members of this body remain thoughtful and fiercely advocate for quick and decisive and proactive action to help the people of Maine in this time of crisis. We've seen incredible bipartisanship on the budget, on a bond package, on COVID response, and it's just really been special to be a part of. We have worked across agencies, across the Legislature, across the Chief Executive's office, all in a collaborative spirit of putting the people of Maine first. And I just want to thank you, Madam Speaker, for your leadership, my colleagues on the other side of the aisle including the leaders, the members of the Appropriations Committee, and the folks down the hall who have just done remarkable work in a very, very short timespan to get us as prepared as we can be as we leave here tonight. And just to wish us all Godspeed and good luck and can't wait to see you all again when we're out of this crisis. Thank you, Madam Speaker.

The SPEAKER: The Chair is pleased to recognize in the back of the Chamber, her Excellency, the Governor of the great State of Maine, Janet T. Mills.

Governor MILLS: Thank you for attending to the urgent business of the hour today so diligently. You know, years from now people will be looking back on us on this day, on this hour, at this time; what will they say? What will they write about us? Charles Dickens wrote, "It was the best of times, it was the worst of times, it was the season of Light, it was the season of Darkness, it was the spring of hope, it was the winter of despair."

Spring arrives Thursday. It's often said we cannot control everything that happens to us, but what we can control and what we must control is how we react to those things that do happen to us. And in a real sense today, the future, our future, is in our own hands. When anxiety and concern for the unknown fill the air, when your child or grandchild tells you they're kind of scared, tell them it's okay to be scared. Anxiety is normal. The future is uncertain. But we have each other. Tell them in the words of the great philosopher, Winnie the Pooh, you are braver than you believe, stronger than you seem, and smarter than you think. And that we will get through this together, for we are all family. And we have been here before in one way or another. We've fought wars together, we've survived blizzards, ice storms, terrorist attacks on our nation.

Today, I remember Walt Wheeler sitting in the back row of this Chamber and Representative Ann Peoples and I believe they would say tell them that hard times make strong people. That we are a small but sturdy State and a strong and sturdy nation. That although the things we've gotten used to will change and although our lifestyles may adapt, every generation has within it, within themselves to create happiness and hope. That their true security is here in the brain and the heart and the soul. They would say, too, that it's good to take a nice walk outside, put aside the static and the noise, the TV, the internet, the clatter and the chatter, that it's good to see the signs of spring, hear the robin, find a crocus, think about the future and know the goodness of this land and our people.

Ann Peoples was someone for whom the glass was never half full. It was always full, she'd say, it's just that sometimes the glass is half filled with air, but it is full. She's telling us that today. We will rise to the challenge as we deal with capacity problems, address the logistics of feeding children, distributing groceries and supplies, caring for seniors, paying bills, keeping businesses and people alive and well, of supporting our health care workers and those living alone and others in need. Fred Rogers, Mr. Rogers, said, quote, when I was a boy and I would see scary things on the news, my mother would say look for the helpers. You'll always find people who are helping. The helpers are everywhere and they are here. They are cooking meals for children, they are preparing to plant a garden, they are providing shelter for the homeless and care to those in need and they are here in this building. You have put pen to paper today to create remedies for those who will be hardest hit. They are those who rise above fear to rely on fact and science, ignoring noise, myth and suspicion. Those who put their trust in one another, those who think outside the box, those who focus on what we can do, not on what we cannot. Those who act now with compassion, caution, courage. Those who keep their distance from us today to preserve our space, our place and our people for tomorrow. Staying apart now in order that we will stay safe in the future, keeping those distances to bring us together again.

What will they say about us years from now? They will say Maine sacrificed but Maine stood strong. Maine people were tough, Maine people hung together, Maine provided the helpers, Maine people survived and Maine rose again better than ever. God bless and keep you and yours. God bless the State of Maine. Please accept my virtual handshake to each of you and a virtual but heartfelt hug to all the people of Maine. Thank you.

At this point, pursuant to her authority under House Rule 201, the Chair addressed the House.

Speaker GIDEON: Members of the 129th Legislature, we started with the wonderful words from Representative Skolfield, the Member from Weld, I'm correcting myself as I correct all of you usually, and we're able to finish this evening with our own Governor, Janet Mills. And I only want to say these short words to you, which is that I have always believed that at the beginning and the end of the day, we all want the same things and want the same things for people, we just have different ideas sometimes about how to get there, but I think that today and these last days culminating today were the absolute example of that. And I want you to know that I am and will remain in admiration of all of you and look forward to joining you together in this Chamber again.

On motion of Representative FARNSWORTH of Portland, the House adjourned without day at 9:49 p.m., Tuesday, March 17, 2020.
