STATE OF MAINE
ONE HUNDRED AND TWENTY-NINTH LEGISLATURE
FIRST REGULAR SESSION
JOURNAL OF THE SENATE

In Senate Chamber
Tuesday
February 12, 2019

Senate called to order by President Troy D. Jackson of Aroostook County.

Prayer by Pastor Jonathan Lang, Emmanuel Assembly of God in Livermore Falls.

PASTOR LANG: Let's pray. Our gracious Heavenly Father, we give You thanks today because this is the day that You have made and we will rejoice and be glad in it. We pray and ask You today for wisdom, that great gift of right judgment. I also pray today for the courage and conviction to do what is right. We also know from Your word what You require of us, Lord, to do justly. I pray, Lord, that we would love righteousness because righteousness exalts a nation. I also pray today, Heavenly Father, that we would love mercy, that we would think and reflect on those that need the most help in our society and look on them with compassion. We also pray today, Heavenly Father, that we would walk in humility with You and with everyone around us. I pray today, Lord, that our speech will be filled with grace, that You would return civility back to our civilization. I also pray today, Heavenly Father, that You would put Your special blessing upon everyone represented here. The mantle of leadership and authority is a heavy one that bears the burden and a stress and a toll on many lives. I pray today for the families of all our elected officials; the Executive Branch, the Legislative Branch, the Judicial Branch, Lord. I pray today for their families, for their marriages, for the blessing of their lives. We pray for the blessing and prosperity of our state and nation because if it is prosperous, Lord, then we will prosper as well. I also pray, Heavenly Father, that we would pursue truth and in the pursuit of it find peace. We ask all these things in Your name. Amen.

Pledge of Allegiance led by Senator Stacey K. Guerin of Penobscot County.

Reading of the Journal of Monday, February 11, 2019.

Doctor of the day, Nicole McCann, M.D. of South Portland.

Honorable Janet T. Mills
Governor of Maine

I am pleased to submit the State of Maine Management Letter related to our audit of the State's Comprehensive Annual Financial Report for the year ended June 30, 2018. In the course of conducting this audit, we became aware of matters that offer opportunities for our government to improve its operations. Recommendations regarding these matters accompany this Management Letter as Management Letter Comments. A separate Management Letter will be issued this spring following the conclusion of the Single Audit for the year ended June 30, 2018.

Please feel free to contact me with questions you may have. Like you, we are committed to improving our State government for the benefit of our citizens. Healthy discussion of the problems found and solutions considered are part of a dialogue that aims at improvement. I welcome your thoughts and inquiries about these matters.

Respectfully submitted,

S/Pola A. Buckley, CPA, CISA
State Auditor

ORDERS OF THE DAY

Out of order and under suspension of the Rules, the Chair laid before the Senate the following Tabled and Later Assigned (2/5/19) matter:

JOINT RESOLUTION - Recognizing February 6, 2019 as National Girls and Women in Sports Day
S.P. 196

Tabled - February 5, 2019 by Senator BREEN of Cumberland

Pending - ADOPTION

THE PRESIDENT: The Chair recognizes the Senator from Cumberland, Senator Breen.

Senator BREEN: Thank you, Mr. President. Mr. President, men and women of the Senate, it's really my pleasure and honor to present this Joint Resolution recognizing February 6th as National Girls and Women in Sports Day, and you'll see in a few minutes we have some very distinguished guests here to help us celebrate that today. I was so pleased to put in this Joint Resolution, to be asked, because, as a high school and college athlete myself, I have benefited enormously from sports programs throughout my whole life. Some of the things that playing sports, for me, prepared me and helped me do - helped me learn was preparation, self-discipline, sacrifice - certainly in college where I had to balance my sports obligations with my employment obligations and my academic obligations - teamwork, starting at the bottom of the heap and earning a place on the starting line-up, how to win and how to lose with grace and dignity, and, just as importantly, how to show up. I know that there are a lot of athletes today who have very, very involved parents who make sure that they get to every game and every practice. I have great admiration for those parents. Those were not my parents. I have terrific parents, but I was one of six kids and if you wanted to do something you got yourself there and that's the way I grew up. It's not because my mother played any sports. My mother does not have an athletic bone in her body. It's because I learned all of this for one very, very simple reason; Title 9. Title 9 was landmark federal legislation that passed in 1972 when I was 7 years old. That law turned the tide, making sure that any educational institution that offered federal funding for boys to participate in sports also made that sure that girls had the very same opportunity. So when that law was passed when I was 7 years old I had the enormous benefit of having teachers, community members, all sorts of folks step forward and start coaching girls in ways they hadn't ever been coached before. Along with the law came funding and that's what we continue to have today. It was the community, it was government, it was legislation that made this opportunity available to me and so many of my peers and the folks that are here today. I love terrific parents but it's what government does that makes things available to everyone in the community, not just parents. So with that, I thank you, Mr. President, and I believe you're going to read the names of our guests today. Thank you.

The Joint Resolution was ADOPTED.

Sent down for concurrence.

THE PRESIDENT: The Chair would like to recognize in the rear of the Chamber Melissa DeRan who is the Bates College Women's Volleyball coach; Ali Dougal, Bowdoin College women's soccer; Adam Goldbert, Vice President of Business Development, Maine Mariners; Ellery Gould, Bowdoin College Assistant Women's Soccer Coach; Sheila Brennan Nee, Director of Maine

Sports Commission; Parise Rossignol, University of Maine Women's Black Bears basketball, a Van Buren native; Seth Woodcock, Senior Associate Athletic Director for Development, University of Maine; Amy Vachon, University of Maine Black Bears Women's Basketball Coach; and Sara Vanderwood, Verrill Dana Government Affairs Consultant and sled dog racer. Would they all please rise and accept the greetings of the Maine State Senate.

ORDERS

Joint Order

Expression of Legislative Sentiment recognizing:

The City of Auburn, which is celebrating its Sesquicentennial on February 22, 2019. We extend our congratulations and best wishes;

SLS 76

Sponsored by Senator CLAXTON of Androscoggin.
Cosponsored by Representatives: BICKFORD of Auburn,
MELARAGNO of Auburn, SHEATS of Auburn.

The Joint Order was READ.

THE PRESIDENT: The Chair recognizes the Senator from Androscoggin, Senator Claxton.

Senator CLAXTON: Thank you, Mr. President and men and women of the Chamber. I just want to invite you to help celebrate Auburn's 150th birthday. It's a year-long celebration, but on February 22nd there'll be 25 to 30 cakes scattered throughout the town, the city, at various establishments. If you'd like a piece stop by. You can find out where they are, just speak to me. Auburn was part of - settled on land that the Abenaki Nation sold to the settlers in 1714 in a Treaty of Portsmouth. It was initially known as Bakertown and it then it was known as Poland and then it's Minot, but in 1842 it became Auburn. I'd like to feature that Auburn property evaluations have gone up $100 million in the last five years, as part of our contribution to the renewal on either side of the Androscoggin, and invite you all to help us celebrate the 150th birthday. Thank you.

The Joint Order was PASSED.

Sent down for concurrence.
