STATE OF MAINE
ONE HUNDRED AND TWENTY-NINTH LEGISLATURE
FIRST REGULAR SESSION
JOURNAL OF THE SENATE

In Senate Chamber
Thursday
June 6, 2019

Senate called to order by President Pro Tem Nathan L. Libby of Androscoggin County.

Prayer by Pastor Brian Rebert, New Hope Baptist Church in Farmington.

PASTOR REBERT: Shall we pray. My Father, Lord in Heaven, we thank You for this day, this opportunity to pray in the Maine Senate. Father, be with these folks today. Thank You that they come to serve the people of the great state of Maine. But most of all we thank You for Your word, for Jesus. Father, we thank You as King of the Universe. Oh Lord of Lords, sovereign God, before whom we will all bow one day, may we prepare for that day. But now on earth help these men and women today. In Jesus' name. Amen.

Pledge of Allegiance led by Senator Stacey K. Guerin of Penobscot County.

Reading of the Journal of Wednesday, June 5, 2019.

Doctor of the day, Jens Rueter, M.D. of Bangor.

HLS 491

Comes from the House, READ and PASSED.

The Joint Order was READ.

THE PRESIDENT PRO TEM: The Chair recognizes the Senator from Cumberland, Senator Breen.

Senator BREEN: Mr. President, men and women of the Senate, I rise today to congratulate Mr. Rob Tod, a constituent and friend of mine and founder of Allagash Brewery in Portland. Before Maine became tied for second in the United States in breweries per capita and Portland became the foodie capital of the north east, Rob Tod founded Allagash Brewery and began his work perfecting its signature Belgium beer. He did so by himself, even welded together the brewing system with his own hands, proving he is a true Mainer. Since then he has won numerous World Beer Cup gold medals and has grown his company from one employee to 132. Today we honor Mr. Tod for his latest achievement, earning a James Beard Award for this years' Outstanding Wine, Beer or Spirits Producer. He's only the third brewer to receive this prestigious award. The James Beard Foundation is a non-profit organization that shines a light on the importance of food in our lives and promotes sustainability, diversity, and equality in all aspects of the food industry in America. The annual James Beard Awards, often called the Oscars of the food world, recognizes excellence all across the culinary spectrum and represents the American food and restaurant industry's highest honor. Past winners include legendary figures such as Wolfgang Puck, Thomas Keller, and Alice Waters.

Rob's success can be chalked up to hard work, a strong business acumen, and his commitment to producing only Belgian-style beer. Anyone who has stopped at the store to buy a six pack recently and spent twenty minutes trying to decide between the flashy IPAs, pale ales, and sour beers can appreciate Mr. Tod's philosophy. He does one thing and he does it better than anyone else. In many ways, Allagash Brewery represents Maine at its best. The company is committed to using local ingredients and sustainable energy. Its spent grain is used as cattle feed and most of the other materials used in production are kept out of landfills through recycling and side-streaming, and it administers its own community grant program, giving money to many non-profits that help Mainers in need.

In short, Mr. Tod has created a quality product, played a critical role in the creation of a quarter billion dollar industry in Maine, made enormous efforts to be environmentally sustainable, and has pledged to give a significant amount of his profits to his fellow Mainers. He's done a great deal for this state and serves as an example of how not only to be successful in business but responsible, compassionate, and generous. I wish, and I'm sure others do, that we could recognize this monumental achievement appropriately with 35 Allagash Whites. However, that's not an option. Instead I'd like to present Mr. Tod with this Legislative Sentiment and our very best wishes. We appreciate the contribution you have made to Maine's business community, but more importantly, you have made us all proud by helping to put Maine's craft beer industry on the map. Thank you, Mr. President.

THE PRESIDENT PRO TEM: The Chair recognizes the Senator from Cumberland, Senator H. Sanborn.

Senator H. SANBORN: Thank you, Mr. President. I, too, am so pleased to be able to rise today to recognize my good friend, Rob Tod. In 2010, when my husband, Nathan, and I started our brewery Rob had already been paving the way for 13 years. In 1995, he had started Allagash on Industrial Way in Portland with just one beer, a Belgian-style wheat beer called White, and he got huge push-back. It was 1995, after all the beer drinkers then only had a few English-style ales and lots and lots of American lagers to choose from, and here comes Rob with his hazy concoctions brewed with coriander and Curacao orange peel, whatever that was. But Rob stuck with it and he managed to literally redefine what was possible in the craft beer industry in Maine, in the Northeast, and in the United States, and we are all better for it. We personally opened our brewery just 200 yards from Allagash in 2010 and Rob could not have been more gracious, welcoming, and generous to us as newcomers to his neighborhood. At one point, just after we had gotten started, Rob wandered into our tiny brewery where we were brewing just one barrel at a time, 31 gallons at a time, and told us that he had a large piece of equipment that he was taking out of service and he wanted to give it to us for free. We laughed. The thing was probably worth a couple of thousand dollars and it was larger than our entire brew house at the time. 'There's no way we could use that,' my husband told Rob. 'Take it anyways,' he said, 'You'll grow into it.' Rob loaded it up on a forklift and drove it down the street and stashed it in the back of our brewery. Fortunately, Rob was right and a couple of years later that piece of equipment became a critical part of the new brewery. The few thousand dollars we saved in not having to buy a new one helped us actually finish our new brewery and it chugged along for us until just this past spring when it finally went to the scrapyard. I could recount dozens of other stories of Rob's friendship and generosity; bailing us out when we came up short on ingredients, loaning us his talented lab staff to work through quality issues, and sharing beers together at the end of a long week. Every brewer in Southern Maine probably has stories of how Rob and Allagash helped them in some way, big or small. Rob has led by example in passing on the ethos of our industry, that we are stronger when we work together and lift each other up, when we treat our employees well, and when we stand by our values. As part of what has been called a third wave of craft beer in Maine, my husband and I stand on the shoulders of those who came before us, Rob as much as anyone, and I can't think of anyone more deserving of this James Beard Award and I am so pleased to be able to rise and honor him today in the Maine Senate. Thank you.

The Joint Order was PASSED, in concurrence.

THE PRESIDENT PRO TEM: The Chair is very pleased to recognize the founder of Allagash Brewing Company in Portland, Rob Tod of Falmouth. He's the guest today of the Senator from Cumberland, Senator Breen, and the Senator from Cumberland, Senator Heather Sanborn, and the entire Maine Senate. Would Mr. Tod please rise and accept the greetings of the Senate.

Off Record Remarks

THE PRESIDENT PRO TEM: The Chair recognizes the Senator from Somerset, Senator Farrin.

Senator FARRIN: Thank you. Ladies and gentlemen of the Senate, I would like to take a moment on this 75th Anniversary of D-Day to recognize a friend of mine in the back of the Chamber here. Nunzio Biondello 75 years ago was a 19 year old radio operator on a landing craft infantry.

'At 0300 hours on 6 June 1944 LCI 401, with 12 other landing crafts part of Force B, got underway from Plymouth, England, bound for Omaha Beach carrying troops of C Company, 26th Infantry, 1st Division, the 'The Big Red One', to be part of the secondary assault on the beach. Proceeding through swept channels, the convoy reached the assault area about 1530, 6 June, and anchored. Getting underway at 1615, we proceeded to the beach, first attempting to land at Fox Green sectors scheduled. Failing to beach troops, we retracted and finally beached at sector Easy Red at 1800. All troops reached the beach safely in spite of enemy fire concentrated in the area. One man of ships company was wounded by shrapnel burst. The anchor cable was cut to get clear of the beach and they proceeded to the recon. During the air raid about 2300 that night an enemy plane dropped five bombs in a straddle around the ship, evidently attracted by the wake, for we were still underway, attempting to land wounded men on the LST. Failing this, we anchored for the night. At 0755, 7 June, 1944, we were underway, proceeding to England, and at 1900 that night arrived at Portland.'

That's the actual report from Nunzio's commanding officer from that day. Nunzio went on to serve in the Naval Reserves, serving his country in Korea, as well as Vietnam. He served in the Coast Guard as a recruiter, joined the New York National Guard before he and his wife, Margaret, moved to Maine in 1987, retiring as a Maineiac at the 101st Air Refueling Wing in Bangor, Maine. It is my honor and privilege to call Nunz my friend, my partner, and he's a national treasure and I'm so glad he's to be with us today on the 75th Anniversary of D-Day. Thank you.

THE PRESIDENT PRO TEM: The Chair is pleased to recognize in the rear of the Chamber Nunzio Biondello of Litchfield. He is the guest today of the entire Maine Senate. Would he please stand to be recognized and accept the greetings of the Maine State Senate.

THE PRESIDENT PRO TEM: The Chair recognizes the Senator from Aroostook, Senator Carpenter.

Senator CARPENTER: Mr. President, briefly to address the Senate on the record?

THE PRESIDENT PRO TEM: The member may proceed.

Senator CARPENTER: Thank you, Mr. President. I was going to speak after Senator Farrin but I didn't want to step on Nunzio's individual honor. I watched some of the proceedings, some of the television coverage last night of D-Day. I don't know if I could talk about it without getting emotional. The incredible courage those men had as they went in those landing craft, hundreds of thousands of them, watching their fellows around them die. I heard a report of one man who is still alive, he was one of only seven who came out. I think there were 30 something per landing craft. They were walking into almost certain death. The decisions we have to make here today in our everyday, sometimes mundane, lives. Just think about that. Maybe equally important, I want to call our attention to Dwight David Eisenhower, Omar Bradley, George Marshall, that made the decisions to send these men to almost certain death and because they did, and because of the grace of God, changed the history of the world. So I want us to remember that today because 75 years is a long time. I know, I'm almost there. But it's easy to forget incredible courage, incredible life changing, universe changing decisions and I'd respectfully request that when the Senate adjourns today we do so in the memory of the men who died on D-Day.

JOINT RESOLUTION TO SUPPORT THE DEVELOPMENT OF MUTUALLY BENEFICIAL SOLUTIONS TO THE CONFLICTS ARISING FROM THE INTERPRETATION OF AN ACT TO IMPLEMENT THE MAINE INDIAN CLAIMS SETTLEMENT AND THE FEDERAL MAINE INDIAN CLAIMS SETTLEMENT ACT OF 1980

WHEREAS, the ancestors of the members of the federally recognized Indian tribes located in what is now the State have inhabited these lands since time immemorial; and
WHEREAS, the United States of America adopted its Constitution in 1789 and the people of the State adopted their Constitution in 1819; and
WHEREAS, Indian tribes and their members have a legal political status recognized by the United States Constitution, including in Article I, Section 8, by the Constitution of Maine, including in Article X, Section 5, and pursuant to various treaties entered into by the tribes and what is now the State; and
WHEREAS, in 1972, the Passamaquoddy Tribe initiated a claim against the United States Government alleging that the transfer of a significant amount of tribal lands to the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, including the District of Maine, was legally invalid because such transfers were not approved by the United States Government, as required by the federal Indian Nonintercourse Act; and
WHEREAS, in 1975, the United States Court of Appeals for the First Circuit in Joint Tribal Council of the Passamaquoddy Tribe v. Morton affirmed that a trust relationship similar to that between the United States Government and other tribes exists between the Maine tribes and the United States Government that would require the approval by the United States Government of such

This is notification of the Committee's action.

STATE OF MAINE ONE HUNDRED AND TWENTY-NINTH LEGISLATURE COMMITTEE ON TRANSPORTATION

June 3, 2019

Honorable Troy Dale Jackson, President of the Senate
Honorable Sara Gideon, Speaker of the House
129th Legislature
State House
Augusta, Maine 04333

Dear President Jackson and Speaker Gideon:

Pursuant to Joint Rule 310, we are writing to notify you that the Joint Standing Committee on Transportation has voted unanimously to report the following bill(s) out "Ought Not to Pass":

L.D. 1157 An Act To Fix Maine's Roads and Bridges by Establishing a Seasonal Gasoline Tax Adjustment

This is notification of the Committee's action.

land transfers and that the claims of the Maine tribes could proceed; and

WHEREAS, other Maine tribes alleged similar claims; and
WHEREAS, recognizing that protracted litigation would result in substantial economic and social hardship for large numbers of landowners, citizens and communities within the State, the Maine tribes decided it was more prudent to negotiate a settlement of the land claims and other claims rather than continue litigation; and

WHEREAS, the Maine tribes and Federal Government negotiated terms of settlement that were encompassed in the February 10, 1978 memorandum of understanding; and

WHEREAS, the Maine tribes were asked by the Maine Congressional Delegation to negotiate terms related to jurisdictional matters as a part of an overall settlement; and
WHEREAS, negotiations between the Maine tribes and State led to the enactment of An Act to Implement the Maine Indian Claims Settlement in April 1980 by the Legislature, but that Act was not effective until the United States Congress enacted the Maine Indian Claims Settlement Act of 1980 that October; and
WHEREAS, the language of these laws has resulted in disagreements with respect to sustenance and jurisdictional rights of the Maine tribes, and such disagreements have caused protracted and long-standing litigation between the State, Maine tribes and Federal Government; and

WHEREAS, these disagreements have also resulted in the diminishment of rights, privileges, powers and immunities of the Maine tribes compared to those generally enjoyed by other federally recognized Indian tribes within the United States; and
WHEREAS, this diminishment of rights, privileges, powers and immunities of the Maine tribes has caused disenfranchisement, undue hardship and suffering of individual members of the tribes and tribal communities that have resulted in a loss of health, education and general welfare compared to the overall population of the State and the United States; and

WHEREAS, significant time and taxpayer resources have been spent litigating with the Maine tribes rather than focusing on efforts to develop mutually beneficial solutions that allow all of the State's citizenry, including its tribal citizenry, to prosper and progress; and

WHEREAS, the State does not prosper when a specific portion of its citizenry suffers, and the State's resources are better spent on developing jobs, strengthening infrastructure and improving the health, education and safety of all its citizens; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED: That We, the Members of the One Hundred and Twenty-ninth Legislature now assembled in the First Regular Session, on behalf of the people we represent, take this opportunity to recognize that the Maine tribes should enjoy the same rights, privileges, powers and immunities as other federally recognized Indian tribes within the United States; and be it further
RESOLVED: That the Legislature supports a collaborative process to develop amendments to An Act to Implement the Maine Indian Claims Settlement and the federal Maine Indian Claims Settlement Act of 1980 that would clarify that the Maine tribes enjoy the same rights, privileges, powers and immunities as other federally recognized Indian tribes within the United States.

The Joint Resolution was READ.

On further motion by same Senator, TABLED until Later in Today's Session, pending the motion by President JACKSON of Aroostook to ADOPT.

On motion by Senator DOW of Lincoln, supported by a Division of one-fifth of the members present and voting, a Roll Call was ordered.

THE PRESIDENT PRO TEM: The Chair recognizes the Senator from Cumberland, Senator Millett.

Senator MILLETT: Thank you, Mr. President. Ladies and gentlemen of the Senate, the bill before us addresses a critical issue that our families are facing here in Maine, and that is around childcare. As amended, this bill would provide our providers with additional funds for not only providing quality standard care, high quality standard care for our youngest Maine citizens, but for our infants. This is incredibly important for our childcare providers because as more and more of our public schools provide access to public pre-K our childcare providers are left with our youngest, the infants, which is much more expensive for them to offer and is a huge financial strain on their businesses. So, as amended, those providers would see a 35% increase in their funding for all the infants that they have under their care. I really hope that you will join me in supporting our childcare providers. Thank you very much, Mr. President.

THE PRESIDENT PRO TEM: The pending question before the Senate is Acceptance of the Majority Ought to Pass as Amended Report. Is the Senate ready for the question?

The Doorkeepers secured the Chamber.

The Secretary opened the vote.

ORDERS OF THE DAY

Unfinished Business

The following matter in the consideration of which the Senate was engaged at the time of Adjournment had preference in the Orders of the Day and continued with such preference until disposed of as provided by Senate Rule 516.

The Chair laid before the Senate the following Tabled and Later Assigned (5/29/19) matter:

HOUSE REPORTS - from the Committee on CRIMINAL JUSTICE AND PUBLIC SAFETY on Bill "An Act To Bring Maine's Laws Concerning Implied Consent in Operating a Motor Vehicle into Compliance with Recent Opinions of the United States Supreme Court"

H.P. 567 L.D. 762

Majority - Ought to Pass as Amended by Committee Amendment "A" (H-284) (8 members)

Minority - Ought Not to Pass (5 members)

Tabled - May 29, 2019 by Senator LIBBY of Androscoggin

Pending - ACCEPTANCE OF EITHER REPORT

(In House, the Majority OUGHT TO PASS AS AMENDED Report READ and ACCEPTED and the Bill PASSED TO BE ENGROSSED AS AMENDED BY COMMITTEE AMENDMENT "A" (H-284).)

Senator DESCHAMBAULT of York moved the Senate ACCEPT the Majority OUGHT TO PASS AS AMENDED Report, in concurrence.

THE PRESIDENT PRO TEM: The Chair recognizes the Senator from York, Senator Deschambault.

Senator DESCHAMBAULT: Again, thank you very much. Mr. President, this is amended from the original bill and it replaces the original bill. I will explain that Maine's current OUI statutes impose a duty to motorists to submit implied consent and submit to blood, breath, and urine testing without the need of a warrant. However, in 2016 the United States Supreme Court case held that police may not draw blood without a warrant in suspected OUI cases. This bill, L.D. 762, simply seeks to bring Maine's OUI laws into compliance with the Supreme Court case law and regards only to a blood draw. Presently, a law enforcement officer may advise a suspect that he or she has a duty to submit to a warrantless test and that refusing to submit will result in enhanced penalties if convicted. However, the enactment of this bill would make it clear that there is no duty to submit to blood testing unless the police have a warrant or there is a valid exception to the warrant requirement. Consent, however, if you consent, is an exception to the warrant requirement. The police do not need to obtain a warrant if a person consents to a search. The police and prosecutors can still use blood and urine as evidence in OUI cases as long as they do so in compliance with the federal Constitution. The police can: one; obtain a warrant or two; demonstrate the applicability of the exceptions of the warrant requirement. This has always been the case, even in our Maine law, and this bill does nothing to change that. The court ruling has, however, made it clear that breath testing does not require a warrant. The bill leaves Maine statutory language intact regarding breath testing. It is important to note that the U.S. Supreme Court has held civil penalties, such as license suspension, may be imposed if the subject refuses to submit to a warrantless breath testing or blood draws, or refused to give urine sample. I ask that you support the Majority Ought to Pass as Amended Report. Thank you.

THE PRESIDENT PRO TEM: The Chair recognizes the Senator from Kennebec, Senator Cyrway.

Senator CYRWAY: Thank you, Mr. President Pro Tem. Ladies and gentlemen of the Senate, I just have a question because I just don't want to see us weaken our laws on OUIs because people become victims in an accident and if we go and we change this they may have to have a warrant every time you get an accident with an OUI situation and then if there's an injury they can't have a breath test, so then they go to take a blood sample. My question to the President is: what happens, because what we could do before is when you took the blood sample because there was an accident, if they refused then they would get an automatic suspension. Is that going to continue or this going to be effected? So I want to make sure that we're not weakening our laws. We should be strengthening them to help the victims.

THE PRESIDENT PRO TEM: The Senator from Kennebec, Senator Cyrway, has posed a question through the Chair to whoever may care to answer. The Chair recognizes the Senator from Aroostook, Senator Carpenter.

Senator CARPENTER: Thank you, Mr. President. In response to Senator Cyrway's question, if you refuse you are automatically suspended by the Secretary of State's Office. I don't believe this bill will affect that.

THE PRESIDENT PRO TEM: The Chair recognizes the Senator from Kennebec, Senator Cyrway.

Senator CYRWAY: Thank you, Mr. President Pro Tem. Ladies and gentlemen of the Senate, I just want - I don't believe and I'd like to know that for sure before we vote on it because I do not want to make an assumption. I want to make sure that we are not weakening the laws for the victims. Thank you.

THE PRESIDENT PRO TEM: The Chair recognizes the Senator from York, Senator Deschambault.

Senator DESCHAMBAULT: Yes, thank you, Mr. President. As I stated, the police, and this is still in our law, can either obtain the warrant or demonstrate the applicability of an exception to a warrant requirement. That's already in the statute. It doesn't change that part of the law. So if they can point to an exception that's what holds in court.

Senator CYRWAY of Kennebec moved to TABLE until Later in Today's Session pending the motion by Senator DESCHAMBAULT of York to ACCEPT the Majority OUGHT TO PASS AS AMENDED Report, in concurrence.

On motion by Senator VITELLI of Sagadahoc, supported by a Division of one-fifth of the members present and voting, a Roll Call was ordered.

The Chair noted the absence of the Senator from Cumberland, Senator BREEN, and further excused the same Senator from today's Roll Call votes.

The Doorkeepers secured the Chamber.

The Secretary opened the vote.

ROLL CALL (#218)

YEAS: Senators: BLACK, CYRWAY, DAVIS, DOW, FOLEY, GUERIN, HAMPER, KEIM, LAWRENCE, MOORE, TIMBERLAKE, WOODSOME
