STATE OF MAINE
ONE HUNDRED AND TWENTY-NINTH LEGISLATURE
FIRST REGULAR SESSION
JOURNAL OF THE SENATE

In Senate Chamber
Wednesday
June 12, 2019

Senate called to order by President Troy D. Jackson of Aroostook County.

Prayer by Senator Rebecca J. Millett of Cumberland County.

SENATOR MILLETT: Good morning. This is from Beatitudes by Jan Phillips. Blessed be the earth and those who tend her, for she is the source and sustenance of our lives. Blessed be the children who hunger for food, learning, and homes that are safe, for their future is shaped by our choices today. Blessed be the refugees fleeing the violence of war and poverty, may they find shelter, peace, and work that sustains them. Blessed be those who are calling for freedom, resisting oppression, and risking their lives in the struggle for justice, for they are the shapers of a brighter world. Blessed be the persecuted and wrongly judged, for theirs is a sorrow lessened only by mercy and human kindness. Blessed be the prophets who speak and write of a world beyond war, for theirs are the words becoming flesh. Blessed be the storytellers, music makers, and artists at life, for they are the true light of the world. Blessed be the tender hearted who mourn and grieve the wars we fought, the lives we lost, may peace ride in on the river of their tears. Blessed be.

Pledge of Allegiance led by Senator Kimberley C. Rosen of Hancock County.

Reading of the Journal of Tuesday, June 11, 2019.

Off Record Remarks

Out of order and under suspension of the Rules, the Senate considered the following:

ORDERS

Joint Orders

Expressions of Legislative Sentiment recognizing:

Hardwood Products Company, of Guilford, which is celebrating 100 years of operation. Founded by Lloyd Cartwright as the Minto Toothpick and Specialty Company in Saginaw, Michigan, the company moved to Guilford in 1920 and became Hardwood Products Company, LP, now known as the parent company of Hardwood Products Company, LLC and Puritan Medical Products, LLC. The company, which is owned and operated by the 3rd and 4th generations of the founding family, is the largest employer in Piscataquis County, with 550 full-time employees. We extend our congratulations and best wishes;

SLS 656

Sponsored by Senator DAVIS of Piscataquis.
Cosponsored by Representative: STEARNS of Guilford.

The Joint Order was READ.

THE PRESIDENT: The Chair recognizes the Senator from Piscataquis, Senator Davis.

Senator DAVIS: Thank you, Mr. President. Mr. President, it is an absolute honor for me to rise today to recognize Hardwood Products Company as they celebrate 100 years in business. Hardwood Products started out as a Minto toothpick and Specialty Company, solely producing mint flavored toothpicks. Over the years, as market demands have increased and changed, the business separated into two operating businesses to meet two different markets. Today Hardwood Products Company and Puritan Medical Products produce a broad variety of wood products. Hardwood Products Company manufactures products for food service, dairy, industrial industries such as spoons, stirring sticks, and toothpicks. Puritan Medical Products is known worldwide for producing healthcare, critical environmental, food safety, drug manufacturing industries items such as tip applicators, tongue depressors, DNA sample swabs, and on and on. Collectively, Hardwood Products is the largest employer of Piscataquis County with more than 550 fulltime workers. The company, which started 100 years ago, is still owned by the same family that started it. I believe this speaks volumes for the quality of products they manufacture, business relationships they have created over a lifetime, and how they treat their employees. My brother-in-law worked there for many years. My sister-in-law still works there to this day. They value their employees and provide competitive health plans, which we had a good discussion on yesterday, which we all know is of great importance to the people today. I believe we are very fortunate to have Hardwood Products and Puritan Medical Products in Guilford and in the state of Maine and I am pleased to be able to congratulate them on the celebration of their 100th anniversary in business. Thank you, Mr. President.

The Joint Order was PASSED.

Sent down for concurrence.

THE PRESIDENT: The Chair is extremely pleased to recognize in the rear of the Chamber Guilford Hardwood Products. Virginia Templet, Christina O'Halloran, Scott Wellman, Chuck Martell, Bruce Jones, and Lisa Wentzell, all from the Hardwood Products Company and Puritan Medical Products Company in Guilford. They are the guests today of the Senator from Piscataquis, Senator Davis, and the entire Maine Senate. Would they please rise and accept the greetings of the Maine Senate for their outstanding work for Maine.

Lina Michaud, of Augusta, who has been selected as the 2019 Maine Mother of the Year by the Maine Chapter of American Mothers, Inc. We extend our congratulations and best wishes;
SLS 657

Sponsored by Senator POULIOT of Kennebec.
Cosponsored by Representatives: BRADSTREET of Vassalboro,
DOORE of Augusta, FECTEAU of Augusta.

The Joint Order was READ.

THE PRESIDENT: The Chair recognizes the Senator from Kennebec, Senator Pouliot.

Senator POULIOT: Good morning, ladies and gentlemen of the Senate. I am pleased that Lina Michaud of Augusta is able to join us this morning. She has been named, despite the best efforts of Senator Herbig, as the 2019 Maine Mother of the Year and she represented Maine in April at the 2019 Mother of the Year Convention in Washington D.C. Lina devotes much of her time to her growing family and the youth in her local community through her membership with the Elks, promoting scholarships, organizing the Greater Augusta Area Back to School event, and is an advisor for the Antlers, which is the Junior Elks program. She is a supporter of the Maine Children's Cancer Program, Camp to Belong Maine, Kinship Group of Central Maine, Betsy Ann Ross House of Hope for Homeless Female Veterans, Family Violence Project, and numerous other charitable programs. She's also a member of St. Michael's Parish, the Augusta Emblems Club 233, Veterans of Foreign War, and American Legion Post 2 Auxiliaries, and serves as the ABC Quilts coordinator for the Maine Chapter of American Mothers. Lina is very proud to be the fourth member of the Club Calumet in Augusta to be nominated for this honor and is proud of her Franco-American heritage. In closing, I'd like to thank her for everything that she does and congratulate her on being presented this very deserving honor. Thank you, Mr. President.

The Joint Order was PASSED.

Sent down for concurrence.

THE PRESIDENT: The Chair is very pleased to recognize Lina Michaud and her husband, Michael Michaud, and her many, many guests that are here with her today. All from the city of Augusta. They are the guests today of the Senator from Kennebec, Senator Pouliot, but I think where we all have mothers she's the guest of everyone here in the Maine Senate and thank you so much for all your work. Would Lina please rise and accept the greetings of the Maine Senate.

William Carpenter, of Stockton Springs. Dr. Carpenter is retiring from teaching literature and writing at College of the Atlantic after 48 years of service. We extend our congratulations and best wishes;

SLS 655

Sponsored by Senator HERBIG of Waldo.
Cosponsored by Representative: HUTCHINS of Penobscot.

The Joint Order was READ.

THE PRESIDENT: The Chair recognizes the Senator from Waldo, Senator Herbig.

Senator HERBIG: Thank you, Mr. President. Women and men of the Senate, it is my privilege to welcome Bill Carpenter of Stockton Springs and his lovely wife, Donna Gold, to the Senate today. Bill is retiring after teaching at the College of the Atlantic for 48 years. Bill grew up in the Waterville area, went to Dartmouth College, earned his Ph.D. in English from the University of Minnesota, and was teaching literature at the University of Chicago when he saw an article in the Maine Times about a new college opening on Mt. Desert Island. Missing Maine, he took a risk and accepted a position at the College of the Atlantic, and thank goodness he did. The College President, Darron Collins, told me about Bill's profound contributions to the College, the wider community, and the state of Maine. As he said, 'Bill was the first faculty member hired and had a tremendous impact on me, as a student, from 1988 to 1992, and as President beginning in 2011. He has a voracious curiosity and sense of wonder. He's a renowned author and a tremendous teacher.' Over the past half century, Bill has taught world literature, Shakespeare, creative writing, history, film, Maine mythology, poetry, and more to generations of students. He has also written three award winning collections of poetry and two novels. Darron also told me that whether in the classroom, in the dining hall, or on his sailboat, or in his office, one cannot help but emerge from time spent with Bill and feel like a better, wiser, more compassionate person. That is such an incredible compliment. On behalf of the Maine Legislature, it is my great honor to present Bill Carpenter with a Legislative Sentiment. Bill, we are all so much better off because you took a risk and returned to Maine. Thank you for inspiring present and future leaders, instilling a passion for literature and creative writing in our students, and enriching the great state of Maine we all know and love. Congratulations.

The Joint Order was PASSED.

Sent down for concurrence.

THE PRESIDENT: The Chair is very pleased to recognize in the rear of the Chamber Bill Carpenter and his wife, Donna Gold, from the town of Stockton Springs. They are the guests today of the Senator from Waldo, Senator Herbig. Would they please rise and accept the greetings and congratulations of the Maine Senate.

THE PRESIDENT: The Chair recognizes the Senator from Kennebec, Senator Cyrway.

Senator CYRWAY: Thank you, Mr. President. Ladies and gentlemen of the Senate, just a question to the Chair, the President. What does the new amendment do, to the Floor. I just wanted to find clarity on that.

THE PRESIDENT: The Senator from Kennebec, Senator Cyrway, has definitely posed a question through the Chair about what the new amendment is on item 7-2 for anyone that can answer. The Chair recognizes the Senator from Androscoggin, Senator Libby.

Senator LIBBY: Thank you, Mr. President. Men and women of the Senate, I pulled up the amendment on the on-line system so I can read it to the Body if that's helpful. The amendment is a unanimous report of the Committee. Replaces the bill, which is a concept draft. Has an Emergency Preamble in the clause of the Legislation. It establishes a certification program within DHHS governing testing facilities for adult use. It requires these testing facilities under adult use to be certified by the Maine CDC and adds an appropriation and allocation section. That's the committee amendment. Thank you, Mr. President.

THE PRESIDENT: The Chair recognizes the Senator from Kennebec, Senator Cyrway.

Senator CYRWAY: Thank you, Mr. President. Ladies and gentlemen, I just was concerned because I had heard that some of these lab testing facilities wanted to be connected to the other facilities that do raise the crops, or whatever. So I just wanted to make sure that they were independent of those facilities and be on their own. So that's what I wanted to make sure that we make sure that they are independent and away from the facilities.

PAPERS FROM THE HOUSE

Joint Resolution

The following Joint Resolution:

H.P. 1312

JOINT RESOLUTION DESIGNATING JUNE 27, 2019 AS POST-TRAUMATIC STRESS INJURY AWARENESS DAY

WHEREAS, all veterans of the United States Armed Forces possess the basic human right to the preservation of personal dignity and deserve the investment of every possible resource to ensure their lasting physical, mental and emotional well-being; and

WHEREAS, the diagnosis known as post-traumatic stress disorder, or PTSD, was initially formulated in 1980 by the American Psychiatric Association to more accurately assess and assist veterans who had endured severe combat stress in Vietnam; and

WHEREAS, combat stress is an invisible wound that has historically been unjustly portrayed as a mental illness caused by a preexisting flaw of character or ability, and the word "disorder" carries a stigma that perpetuates this misconception; and

WHEREAS, it has been shown through electromagnetic imaging that these invisible wounds can cause physical changes to the brain that more accurately indicate an injury than a disorder; and

WHEREAS, referring to invisible wounds as a disorder may discourage the injured from seeking proper and timely medical treatment; and

WHEREAS, referring to invisible wounds as post-traumatic stress injury, or PTSI, is less stigmatizing and viewed as more honorable, and this designation can favorably influence those affected and encourage them to seek treatment without fear of retribution or shame; and

WHEREAS, post-traumatic stress injury can occur following exposure to extremely traumatic events other than combat such as, but not exclusive to, interpersonal violence, life-threatening accidents and natural disasters; and

WHEREAS, post-traumatic stress injury satisfying the criteria for a diagnosis of post-traumatic stress disorder in the Diagnostic and Statistical Manual of Mental Disorders deserves disability compensation equal to that allowed for PTSD under the law; and

WHEREAS, while all citizens suffering post-traumatic stress injuries deserve our compassion and consideration, those brave men and women of the United States Armed Forces who have received these wounds in operational action against an enemy of the United States further deserve our clear and obvious recognition; and

WHEREAS, timely and appropriate treatment of post-traumatic stress injury can diminish complications and avert suicides; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED: That We, the Members of the One Hundred and Twenty-ninth Legislature now assembled in the First Regular Session, on behalf of the people we represent, take this opportunity to designate June 27, 2019 as Post-Traumatic Stress Injury Awareness Day and respectfully urge the Department of Health and Human Services and the Department of Defense, Veterans and Emergency Management to continue working to educate victims of interpersonal violence, combat, life-threatening accidents or natural disasters and their families, as well as the general public, about the causes, symptoms and treatment of post-traumatic stress injury.

The following Joint Resolution:

H.P. 1313

JOINT RESOLUTION RECOGNIZING SEPTEMBER 1-7, 2019 AS RESILIENCY WEEK IN MAINE

WHEREAS, natural hazard mitigation is the effort to reduce loss of life and property by lessening the impact of disasters. It is most effective when implemented under a comprehensive, long-term mitigation plan; and

WHEREAS, the Pre-Disaster Mitigation Grant Program, administered by the Federal Emergency Management Agency, or FEMA, is designed to assist states and local communities in implementing a sustained pre-disaster natural hazard mitigation program; and

WHEREAS, the recently enacted federal Disaster Recovery Reform Act of 2018 makes money available for states and communities to undertake pre-disaster mitigation measures and creates new incentives for states to implement measures to improve the disaster resilience of buildings; and

WHEREAS, since 1908, natural disasters have cost the country more than one trillion dollars; and

WHEREAS, climate change has increased the probability of extreme weather and thereby natural disasters; and

WHEREAS, disasters and increased disaster recovery times affect local and state economies in lost payrolls and lost sales and income tax; and

WHEREAS, according to a FEMA-commissioned study conducted by the National Institute of Building Sciences, every $1 spent on natural hazard mitigation provides the nation with $6 in future benefits; and

WHEREAS, 25% of small businesses that are impacted by a natural disaster never reopen their doors; and

WHEREAS, September is National Preparedness Month, an occasion to recognize the need for all Americans to prepare for a disaster and plan for recovery after a disaster; and

WHEREAS, natural hazard mitigation planning is a key process used to break the cycle of disaster damage, reconstruction and repeated damage; and

WHEREAS, effective pre-disaster mitigation reduces the demand for relief services on volunteer organizations, such as disaster rescue and recovery teams, along with food banks and homeless shelters that serve our communities by changing their operations to provide additional services to those affected by disaster; and

WHEREAS, the development of awareness throughout Maine of the need to improve building resiliency and develop long-range mitigation strategies for protecting people and property from future disasters is essential to the future of our economic growth, health and well-being; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED: That We, the Members of the One Hundred and Twenty-ninth Legislature now assembled in the First Regular Session, on behalf of the people we represent, take this opportunity to declare the week of September 1-7, 2019 as Resiliency Week in Maine to raise public awareness about the continuing need to plan for future disasters by instituting a pre-disaster natural hazard mitigation strategy, and we honor the brave men and women who, as first responders, selflessly provide aid in a disaster to safeguard Maine citizens.

THE PRESIDENT: The Chair recognizes the Senator from Cumberland, Senator Carson.

Senator CARSON: Thank you, Mr. President. I rise to speak in opposition to the pending motion. Ladies and gentlemen of the Senate, there are, unfortunately, too many stories of people, especially young people, who purchase firearms and commit suicide shortly afterwards. One of these stories is from Lewiston in 2004 and is told in the documentary film 'There Ought to Be a Law.' Larry Belanger Jr. killed himself in his Lewiston apartment on May 23, 2004, roughly 36 hours after buying a shotgun at Walmart. In a note he left behind Larry gave no explanation for his decision. His mother, Catherine Crowley, found her son's body when she went looking for him in his apartment, which was located in a house next door to hers. Some of you may have seen the movie that was made about his mother's quest for a law to enact a waiting period. In 2012, after the shooting at Sandy Hook Elementary School, an incident which is vividly etched in all of our memories, two researchers at Harvard University studied the impact of a waiting period in 43 states and the District of Columbia. More than 38,000 people die in gun related incidents every year, most recently reported 2016, and these account for more deaths than motor vehicle crashes. If the United States could lower our firearm death to that of Finland, the high income country with the second highest gun violence death rate, roughly 20,000 fewer people would die from guns every year. However, there has been no meaningful reduction in the U.S. firearm related death rate for more than a decade. In 2017, Maine lost 174 to gun violence. In Maine 86% of gun deaths are by suicides, like that of Larry Belanger Jr. To address this serious problem we must reassess the laws governing the sale, possession, and ownership of firearms which are used in half of all suicides. Of all suicide attempts with a firearm 90% results in death. L.D. 1099 would require a 72 hour waiting period to purchase a firearm. By passing this bill Maine would join numerous other states with mandatory waiting periods for firearm purchases, including California, Florida, the District of Columbia, Hawaii, Illinois, and Rhode Island. Some of these states have waiting periods as long as 10 days, while others are as short as 24 hours for some guns, putting Maine's 72 hour waiting period on the shorter end of the spectrum. I add there is an exemption in this bill, as I'm sure you all know, for firearm purchases by law enforcement officers, by security guards, and by sales of firearms to gun dealers. For those of us who have lost a loved one or a friend in a way that might have been prevented, we wish that we could go back, that we could somehow have safeguarded that person. L.D. 1099 offers a useful tool that would help safeguard families, our children, and our communities. I respectfully ask that you vote yes to pass L.D. 1099. Thank you, Mr. President.

THE PRESIDENT: The Chair recognizes the Senator from Cumberland, Senator L. Sanborn.

Senator L. SANBORN: Thank you, Mr. President. Mr. President, colleagues in the Senate, I rise in support of the pending motion. In many places there is more rigorous screening of people who want to adopt dogs than of people who want to purchase firearms. That is certainly true of my experience in adopting a rescue from Arkansas a few years ago. After each incident of gun violence we mourn the deaths and sympathize with the victim's families but we do nothing fundamental to reduce our vulnerability. The phrase 'our thoughts and prayers are with you' has worn thin, become insincere, and even, to some like me, become irritating as it is a reminder of our lack of action. As our youth have shouted out enough is enough and no more, it is time to address this public health crisis for what it is, preventable, not inevitable. Gun enthusiasts often protest cars kill about as many people as guns and we don't ban them. No, but automobile related deaths are actually a model for the public health approach that we need to help our gun violence crisis. We don't ban cars but we work hard to regulate them and limit access to them so as to reduce the death rate for hundreds of millions of miles driven by 95% since 1921. For skeptics who think that gun safety laws don't make a difference consider what happened in two states, Missouri and Connecticut. In 1995, after the Sandy Hook School shooting that was mentioned just moments ago, Connecticut tightened licensing laws while Missouri eased licensing laws. The upshot, after tightening gun laws firearm homicide rates dropped 40% in Connecticut. After Missouri eased gun laws gun homicide rates rose 25%. Likewise, estimated changes in rates of gun suicides followed suit, decreasing by 15% in Connecticut and increasing by 16% in Missouri. Efforts by states and other entities to pass firearm legislation introduces a unique opportunity for research on the efficacy and effectiveness of such laws and policies to decrease firearm related morbidity and mortality.

L.D. 1276 provides one such opportunity. This bill would require background checks of the purchasers of firearms for all private gun sales at gun shows or private sales resulting from advertising or marketing. Currently, Maine has no background check requirements for firearms purchased in the state, only federal law mandates that gun stores require a background check for all purposes. This leaves a substantial loophole for individuals prone to committing gun violence to purchase guns whether it's at a gun show, on Craig's List, or through Uncle Henry's. This bill would close that loophole by requiring all gun sales in Maine be conducted at a federally licensed gun store. For private sales, both parties would present the firearm and necessary identifying information to the federally licensed dealer who would run the background check. If the buyer passes, the sale can continue. If not, the dealer must inform the seller. The arguments against this bill when it was presented as a referendum question now ring false. Valid arguments have been addressed in this bill by explicitly exempting family members from the background check requirement when transferring a firearm amongst themselves. It also exempts hunters and sport shooters who are simply loaning each other guns for the purposes of engaging in sport. The Committee has further amended this bill to exempt transfers of a firearm between unlicensed persons if the firearm is a curio, relic, or antique, or if the transfers are done in the line of law enforcement work or as a member of the armed forces. One of the lessons of gun research is that we often focus just on the firearms themselves when it may be more productive to focus on who gets access to them. About 80% of firearms acquired for criminal purposes and 96% of those acquired by prohibited people are obtained in private party transfers. Many of these guns are trafficked from states with weak gun laws to states with strong gun laws, undermining existing background check laws. Although there are important areas where Mainers disagree on guns, large majorities of both gun owners and non-gun owners strongly support this measure, in both the first and second C.D. and in all political parties. Let us take a public health approach to figuring out just what these policies do or what policies do and do not work to lower the risk of gun violence and violence is one of the leading preventable causes of death in the U.S. We must close senseless loopholes, easy access for felons, domestic abusers, the seriously mentally ill, and others prohibited from owning firearms by requiring background checks for all commercial gun sales, including those at gun shows and through classified ads with limited exemptions. Lives depend upon it. I hope that you'll follow my light. Thank you.

THE PRESIDENT: The Chair recognizes the Senator from Knox, Senator Miramant.

Senator MIRAMANT: Thank you, Mr. President. Men and women of the Senate, I brought one of the bills that became this bill, because it took several pieces that we had determined during the Citizen Referendum were the reasons that people weren't going to vote for it. They told me at the doors over and over. I took the notes. I came back. I put that down for when we'd need it. Each one, as our colleague has just mentioned, were ticked off for 'this makes no sense, why is it in here.' We took it out, we took it out, we took it out. This places an unfair burden on legitimate businesses, legitimate firearm dealers who set up a brick and mortar shop and they can't get around this law, but someone can just set up a business selling it privately, no sales. Who's going to be drawn to that? Someone who has something to hide maybe? Not every time. Maybe there's a good deal once in a while. But you're undermining the very businesses that you want to be there when you want to go and get your legitimate gun and pick it up three days later. So this bill was thought out and would be a great step to close that loophole that allows people to get around and we do them a service. We have one of our own colleagues in the other Body who forgot he was a felon and for years possessed firearms. So, you know, we would have been helping him to remember that he was a felon and not get in any trouble. So there's a few reasons right there that we could be helping out our colleagues. So we should vote for this. Thanks.

(In House, the Majority OUGHT TO PASS AS AMENDED Report READ and ACCEPTED and the Bill PASSED TO BE ENGROSSED AS AMENDED BY COMMITTEE AMENDMENT "A" (H-518).)

On motion by Senator LIBBY of Androscoggin, supported by a Division of one-fifth of the members present and voting, a Roll Call was ordered.

THE PRESIDENT: The Chair recognizes the Senator from Lincoln, Senator Dow.

Senator DOW: Thank you, Mr. President. Ladies and gentlemen of the Chamber, this bill, which would make education policy negotiable, is really about local control over how our public schools are run and whether decisions should be made in the best interest of children in full view, in full public view, or done behind closed doors in negotiations with teachers' unions. It is also about protecting property tax payers from having outside arbitrators decide the cost of education in our communities. Current law, that bans the negotiation of education policies, is grounded and defined in pages of court cases over the last 50 years, but that prohibition boils down to this fundamental point articulated by the Maine Supreme Court. Education policies, the court said, involves value choices so fundamental that binding decisions concerning them should be made by persons directly responsible to the people. Those people are the school boards. Such value choices include what subjects should be taught, how students should be graded, the proper rules of student behavior, choice of textbooks, if the parent-teacher conferences should be held, the length of the school day, and dozens of other matters directly involving the welfare and instruction of our children. The court essentially put the elected school board in charge of adopting education policies that effect students and parents because they have to answer to the people in the districts they serve. I have a resolve from my own school board, the school that I taught at, one of the schools in the district, SAD 40. It's a Resolution in opposition to L.D. 240 and it says, 'Whereas the RSU 40 school board believes strongly in the value of collaboration with its employees as a means of improving education for all students. Whereas L.D. 240, an Act to Allow Public Employers of Teachers to Negotiate Regarding Educational Policies, would be the first step in requiring local education policies to be bargained with unions and ultimately be decided by outside arbitrators and thereby severely limiting local control over our schools.' I won't read the rest of the whereas, but here's the conclusion, 'Be it resolved therefore by the RSU 40 school board that it strongly and unequivocally urges its local legislators, and legislature as a whole, to reject L.D. 240.' SAD 40, RSU 40, is a school comprised of five towns, one of them is in Lincoln County and the other four are in Knox County. Thank you, Mr. President.

THE PRESIDENT: The Chair recognizes the Senator from Kennebec, Senator Bellows.

Senator BELLOWS: Thank you, Mr. President. Ladies and gentlemen of the Senate, I want to clarify the original bill was negotiation over educational policy without limitations. The amendment that the Committee spent many hours working on in consultation with stakeholders would simply allow teachers to negotiate over planning and prep periods. That's it. Planning and prep periods. Educators use planning and prep periods to prepare for lessons, to prepare for the classroom, and it used to be, 10 years ago, 20 years ago, that this was routine. This was part of the work day. Unfortunately, I'm sure we've all heard the horror stories of teachers without planning and prep periods in the work day being forced to work long hours after the school day has ended and on weekends. It's become, unfortunately, not only an underpaid profession but a profession in which there is no meaningful regular work day. So I ask you to support the pending motion. This is simply to allow negotiations that brings Maine in line with every single other New England state and it is simply about planning and prep periods. I urge you to support the pending motion, support our teachers, support learning at the local level, and the ability to have a conversation. Thank you.

THE PRESIDENT: The Chair recognizes the Senator from Penobscot, Senator Guerin.

Senator GUERIN: Thank you, Mr. President. Mr. President, ladies and gentlemen of the Senate, while the original L.D. 240 started out trying to make all education policies negotiable, it is now down to just this one. That is by no means good news for our children, local school districts, or property taxpayers. The teacher preparation time this bill now references is hardly insignificant. It will disrupt current schedules, require the hiring of additional staff, or limit class options for students or both. It ignores the reality, particularly in rural Maine, that there is no additional money or time to make this mandate work. The truth is teachers have preparation periods now and they vary in length and frequency. Negotiating these periods would make the system ridged, affect a number of courses district offer, likely require additional teachers or ed techs, and change class schedules during the day and the week. I'm told one option would be to extend the school day or year, but that would require an increased commitment from the state and local property taxpayers. I don't see a consensus around a longer school year in this Body or in the communities I represent. I have also heard that the real issue is providing teachers with more collaborative time to support students who are struggling. This bill, even in its amended form, is focused on preparation time for the adults in the building. As a former second grade teacher, I believe the focus should be how we can spend more time helping our students.

THE PRESIDENT: The Chair recognizes the Senator from Cumberland, Senator Millett.

Senator MILLETT: Thank you, Mr. President. Ladies and gentlemen of the Senate, I'm puzzled because the argument in the opposition is we already have them but then in the same statement it says but if we have them we're going to have to make all these changes. That makes absolutely no sense to me. Yes, there are planning prep time in some districts of some amounts, but the point is that not all do and not all teachers are included in that collaborative process. I happen to represent a district where collaboration does exist but, after serving in the Education Committee my full term here in the State House, I'm here to tell you that there is inconsistency across the state, district by district, to the point that in the last Legislature there was bi-partisan agreement between the Republican Senator and the Democratic House Chair to work harder on developing leadership capacity here in the State of Maine. It has such a huge impact on what happens in our schools. We are reminded over and over again that what happens in one district is not representative of what's happening in all the other districts. It's unfortunate. We hear stories of educators who are threatened the loss of their teaching prep time if they do not follow the request of the leadership in that district. That's not okay. Teacher prep time is about the kids and planning is about the kids. Our teachers are being asked to do more and more every year. The problems that we are sending into those schools are increasingly unmanageable and they are burning out. We need to allow them to be a part of that process to discuss how much time, as professionals, they can put into their preparation to support the learning that happens in their classrooms. This should be a fundamental right, to be able to have the conversation. We're not mandating what it's going to look like. We're not mandating it has to be 30 minutes or an hour, once a week, once every other week. We are just saying to allow the teachers the opportunity to have that conversation in negotiations. It's as simple as that. These dedicated, passionate professionals deserve our respect and our support. We have seen we are facing a crisis. We do not have enough people being trained to be educators and we have a huge tidal wave of retirements coming up. If we continue to treat our educators as somehow undeserving of basic respect we are not going to turn this tide around. This is the first step that we can take here. Thank you, Mr. President.

THE PRESIDENT: The Chair recognizes the Senator from Cumberland, Senator H. Sanborn.

Senator H. SANBORN: Thank you, Mr. President. I rise, too, as a former public school teacher and my experiences in working as a public school teacher lead me to believe very strongly that we need to pass L.D. 240 tonight. We already have given our teachers the ability to negotiate in good faith with respect to wages, hours, and working conditions and I put forward to you today, men and women of the Senate, that if we do not allow for those teachers to negotiate their planning and their prep periods then we are effectively gutting their right to negotiate their wages and their hours because, Mr. President and men and women of the Senate, planning and preparation for teaching are not optional. They are a required part of the profession and so if we can't do them during our negotiated hours of work we do them at home. We do them in the morning before our kids get out of bed and before we head off to school. We do them while we're balancing a toddler on our hip before we take her or him to daycare. We do them in the evening after we put our kids to bed and we burn the midnight oil grading tests, prepping the next days' lessons, and planning units to align with our learning results. Those things are not optional. They are part of our profession as teachers when we serve as public school teachers. So they are, in fact, directly related to our wages and our hours because our teachers, if we were to divide out the number of hours that they are truly devoting to their profession, are among the most poorly compensated professionals in this state and so we really need to include planning and preparation periods because they are not educational policies, they are instead part of the hours that every great public school teacher works, regardless of whether they're being paid for them. Thank you, Mr. President.

THE PRESIDENT: The Chair recognizes the Senator from Penobscot, Senator Dill.

Senator DILL: Thank you, Mr. President. May I pose a question through the Chair?

THE PRESIDENT: The Senator from Penobscot, Senator Dill, would like to pose a question through the Chair to anyone who can answer.

Senator DILL: I'm holding the summary of the bill and it says, 'this amendment specifies that planning and preparation periods are mandatory items of collective bargaining and may not be considered matters of educational policy exempted from mandatory collective bargaining.' Therefore, does that mean that this is a mandate and we need two-thirds?

THE PRESIDENT: The Senator from Penobscot, Senator Dill, has posed a question through the Chair to anyone who can answer. I would imagine that OFPR would probably tell us that subsequently. The Chair recognizes the Senator from Cumberland, Senator Millett.

Senator MILLETT: Thank you, Mr. President. I'm looking at the fiscal note to the amendment and there is no mandate.

THE PRESIDENT: The Chair recognizes the Senator from Kennebec, Senator Bellows.

Senator BELLOWS: Yes, and I would just point the direction of the Chamber to the language in the amendment itself and, basically, the amendment itself simply states, it's very simple, we struck and replaced the whole bill and we replaced it with adding planning and preparation periods immediately after working conditions, which is in the permissive section of law for collective bargaining, and then adding the sentence 'planning and preparation periods are not educational policy' because, as my good colleague from Cumberland pointed out, essentially planning and prep periods have become working conditions because not having planning and prep periods during the work day has extended the work day for so long. So the mandate or mandatory do not appear in statute itself and there is no mandate preamble on this nor was it part of the committee amendment.

THE PRESIDENT: The pending question before the Senate is Acceptance of the Majority Ought to Pass as Amended Report. If you are in favor of accepting that report you will be voting yes. If you are opposed you will be voting no. Is the Senate ready for the question?

THE PRESIDENT: The Chair recognizes the Senator from Androscoggin, Senator Libby.

Senator LIBBY: Thank you, Mr. President. Men and women of the Senate, this amendment is fairly straight forward. It provides a pretty significant income tax reduction for many tens of thousands of working class folks who work a lot of overtime each week, make that sacrifice to bring in some additional income and sacrifice their time with their family. I think it provides that relief from overtime income tax in a more fiscally responsible way than the original committee report. The original committee report would cut a fairly significant hole in the next biennium in terms of the revenue we need to balance our budget, to pay for schools, to pay for roads, to pay for healthcare for Mainers and the amendment that I'm proposing strikes the right balance by providing that income tax reduction for folks who are working overtime by asking Maines top one-tenth of 1% to pay just a little bit more in income taxes. I think that's fair. I think it's fair in consideration of the fact that the last seven or eight years Maines one-tenth of 1%, the very wealthiest Mainers, have done pretty well. They were the beneficiaries of some pretty significant income tax cuts that weren't needed, that weren't asked for, but they got them anyways and they've been reaping those savings, they've been growing their stock portfolios, they've been growing those estates that they're going to pass on to others, and they're going to pass those on without taxes as well because of significant estate tax cuts that the top one-tenth of 1% of Mainers received in the last seven or eight years. So what we're asking for is for those multi-millionaires in Maine to pay just a little bit more and that little bit more provides some humungous tax cuts for Maine's working people. So I'd ask you to support this pending amendment. It's really aimed at helping out Maine's working class. It's a good amendment. I thank the Senate President for offering it today. Thank you, Mr. President.

THE PRESIDENT: The Chair recognizes the Senator from Androscoggin, Senator Libby.

Senator LIBBY: Thank you, Mr. President. Men and women of the Senate, I rise in support of the pending motion and as a co-sponsor, the lead co-sponsor, on this bill. As I think a lot of folks know, I represent the second largest city in the state that happens to be home to the second largest community of New Mainers. Folks that I represent in Lewiston largely moved to Maine in 2001, so they've been here for about 17 or 18 years, and over that period of time the community's changed fairly dramatically. One of the big ways it's changed is with regards to workforce. We discovered quite a while ago that the New Mainers that were coming to Lewiston possessed enormous skills that they received overseas and when they came to Maine their talents were not fully utilized. In our community we have engineers trained in Africa who are working as carpenters and landscapers. We have doctors who are working as CNAs and medical assistants. We've got enormous talent that isn't fully utilized and it's largely due to credentialing barriers set up in our state. So this bill is about breaking down those barriers and helping to integrate more New Mainers into the workforce and filling those gaps in the workforce and helping to address labor shortage. So I'd ask you to vote in favor of the pending motion. Thank you, Mr. President.

On further motion by same Senator, supported by a Division of one-fifth of the members present and voting, a Roll Call was ordered.

THE PRESIDENT: The Chair recognizes the Senator from Penobscot, Senator Guerin.

Senator GUERIN: Mr. President, ladies and gentlemen of the Senate, the majority of Mainers do not support taxpayer funded abortion. Planned Parenthood and Maine Family Planning have been proclaiming that the majority of Mainers support L.D. 820. There are a number of problems with the poll they referenced. First, none of the questions in the survey directly asked Mainers if they approve their taxpayer dollars funding abortions. That question was not asked clearly. Second, the firm hired by the abortion industry was the number three donor to the Legislative Majority PAC which is committed to promoting Democrat majorities in State Legislatures, according to OpenSecrets.Org., bringing into question the subjectivity of Union Park's strategies. Third, the idea that Mainers support taxpayer funded abortions flies in the face of every national and local poll that have consistently showed the nation's lack of support for this concept, regardless of age, race, or geography. Citizens who value the lives of pre-born children should not be forced to pay for the ending of these children's lives.

Members of this Body may wonder why a strong-willed, independent woman like me would be Pro-Life. Well, it's a personal story. I had never given abortion much thought one way or the other. I had two healthy sons and was pregnant with my third son when I started bleeding. I lost that baby and had to have a DNC due to the complications. This procedure was done in the very next room to where I had many times joyfully listened to my baby's beating hearts. I asked the nurse if this is where they did abortions and she said yes it was. In weeks following my DNC, I had many times questioned the decision of having the procedure, agonizing over it actually. One day as I was pondering this and I thought of the women who had been in the same room who had heard a beating heart and had chosen to silence that heart. My heart broke for those women. If I had heartache for a post-miscarriage procedure, what silent torture were many of these women living with? Since then many medical advances have shown us the beauty of pre-born babies through pregnancy sonograms. These are real children, boys and girls, precious humans who can feel pain and deserve love and protection by society if they are not wanted by their parents. Please vote against the pending motion that will force unwilling Mainers to pay for abortions against their religious and moral convictions. Personally, I have lost many votes in this Chamber this session and I've had to live with that as a difference in policy. I am, however, horrified that those of you in this Chamber who vote for this retched bill tonight will be forcing me to pay for the murder of innocent children.

Senate at Ease.

On motion by Senator LIBBY of Androscoggin, ADJOURNED until Thursday, June 13, 2019 at 10:00 in the morning.

The Senate was called to order by the President.

THE PRESIDENT: The Chair would like to remind members that it is not appropriate to impugn the motives of any other member of the Body. The Chair recognizes the Senator from Cumberland, Senator Breen.

Senator BREEN: Thank you, Mr. President. I just want to be a little bit more explicit about what this amendment that I moved tonight does. It simply restores a small amount of General Fund to the original fiscal note on the bill. We have debated this bill in the past. I just want to remind folks of some of the basic fundamentals of this bill does. L.D. 820 prevents discrimination in insurance coverage for the full range of healthcare services available under Maine law. It ends discrimination in coverage for low income families in Maine. Lastly, it equalizes all insurance coverage with the coverage that all of us in this Body enjoy in the taxpayer funded State employee health plan. Thank you, Mr. President.

THE PRESIDENT: The pending question before the Senate is Enactment. Is the Senate ready for the question?

The Doorkeepers secured the Chamber.
