STATE OF MAINE
ONE HUNDRED AND THIRTY-FIRST LEGISLATURE
FIRST REGULAR SESSION
JOURNAL OF THE SENATE

In Senate Chamber
Tuesday
March 7, 2023

Senate called to order by President Troy D. Jackson of Aroostook County.

Prayer by Cantor Beth Strassler and Dr. David Strassler of Biddeford Cultural and Heritage Center.

CANTOR STRASSLER: Good morning. It's an honor to be with you this morning. You know, there's a story that almost every day as a Jewish holiday, but today really is a Jewish holiday and it's called Purim and tradition suggests that we read a story that's 2,500 years old and took place in Persia. The story is about Queen Esther, who gives hope to an oppressed and scattered people and says that they may prevail no matter how desperate their circumstances, and that happens and their leaders use courage and wisdom to make a difference. How relevant is this lesson for now, for all of us, for all minorities?

DR. STRASSLER: Inspiration for our leaders. The fulfillment of our dreams depends in large measure on the wisdom and courage of our leaders. May you, our leaders, have the wisdom to seek and find solutions to the challenges you face and the courage to implement them. May you practice justice; strive for the good for all, all the people that are society. May you use your powers wisely and well.

CANTOR STRASSLER: And to this we all say Amen. Amen in the sense of may this be true and may this really happen. May you be blessed as you begin your day. May you be guided in peace. May grace and compassion remain within your soul. May this be your blessing. Amen. Amen, Amen, may this be your blessing. Amen. Amen, may this be your blessing. Amen. Thank you.

Pledge of Allegiance led by Senator Nicole C. Grohski of Hancock County.

ORDERS

Joint Order

Expressions of Legislative Sentiment recognizing:

Sam Leal, of Farmington, Coach of the University of Maine at Farmington Men's Basketball Team, who was named the North Atlantic Conference Men's Basketball Coach of the Year. We extend our congratulations and best wishes;
SLS 190

Sponsored by Senator BLACK of Franklin.

Cosponsored by Representative: LANDRY of Farmington.

The Joint Order was READ.

THE PRESIDENT: The Chair recognizes the Senator from Franklin, Senator Black.

Senator BLACK: Thank you, Mr. President. Good morning, ladies and gentlemen of the Senate. It is my honor to have the University of Maine at Farmington's Head Coach, basketball coach, Sam Leal, with us this morning for being named the North Atlantic Conference Men's Basketball Coach of the Year. Coach Leal has been at the Head Coach at the University of Maine Farmington's Men's Basketball Team for two seasons after taking over the program in April of 2020 from the legendary Coach Dick Meader, which is very, very big shoes to fill. In his two seasons as Head Coach of the Beavers, Coach Leal has amassed an overall record of 35-16 with a conference record of 21-4. This season the team went 17-7 and 13 won in NAC conference play and was able to host the NAC tournament at UMF. Unfortunately, they fell short in the championship game to SUNY but with Coach Leal's leadership, I believe, we will see the Beavers right back in the mix next season. It is great to have Coach Leal at University of Maine Farmington as he played for the Beavers under Coach Meader and was a 2014 graduate of UMF as well. It is great to keep some of our best talent right here in Maine. Coach Leal is only the second Maine basketball head coach at University of Maine Farmington history to receive the NAC Coach of the Year honor as he joins Coach Meader, who received the award four times during his career. With all that success Coach Leal is having in his early career, I can only see him coming to have this honor again in the future. In closing, thank you, Coach Leal, for all that you do for the student athletes at University of Maine Farmington and congratulations on your well-deserved honor. Thank you, Mr. President.

The Joint Order was PASSED.

Sent down for concurrence.

THE PRESIDENT: The Chair is pleased to recognize in the rear of the Chamber Coach Sam Leal and his parents, Dave and Claire Leal. They are from the towns of Farmington and Kennebunk. They are the guests today of the Senator from Franklin, Senator Black, and the Senator from York, Senator Rafferty. Would they please all rise and accept the greetings and congratulations of the Maine Senate.

Joint Resolution

Joint Resolution in Memoriam:

WHEREAS, the Legislature has learned with deep regret of the death of:

Gakunzi "Yves" Senzara, of Scarborough. Mr. Senzara, a native of Tulambo, Democratic Republic of the Congo, immigrated to the United States in 2002. He had worked at the Ministry of Mines in Goma, Democratic Republic of the Congo before becoming a staff accountant for a nongovernmental organization based in the United States. He later worked as an accounting technician for the United States Department of Defense before he transitioned into consulting with OCTO, a Virginia-based technology firm providing advisory services on projects for the United States Government. Mr. Senzara will be long remembered and sadly missed by his family and friends;

SLS 206

Sponsored by Senator BRENNER of Cumberland. Cosponsored by Senator: CARNEY of Cumberland, Representatives: GATTINE of Westbrook, MURPHY of Scarborough, WARREN of Scarborough.

The Joint Resolution was READ.

THE PRESIDENT: The Chair recognizes the Senator from Cumberland, Senator Brenner.

Senator BRENNER: Thank you, Mr. President. Mr. President, esteemed colleagues of the Senate, today I would like to honor and celebrate the life of Yves Senzara, a man who dedicated his life to his family and his community. I'm truly inspired by Yves' life story, which was full of resilience and joy. When the First Congo War began in 1996 he was forced to flee from his home in the Democratic Republic of Congo to Burundi and then finally to the United States. Despite being uprooted from his home and having his life turned upside-down, Yves remained dedicated to getting an education. He earned his Masters in Business Administration from Eastern Mennonite University, going on to a career working in accounting at numerous organizations, including the United States Department of Defense. As a Federal employee, he was a proud public servant who worked for the government and provided services for the men and women in his new home. However, Yves' legacy is larger than his working career. While I did not have the joy of knowing him, I've learned that he has touched the lives of many and his generosity - with his generosity and kindness. He was devoted to his family, his faith, his community. He was a good man which, at the end, is all any of us can really hope to be. Yves helped many other new Mainers settle in to the state and rebuild their lives here, whether that was adjusting to the weather, finding a doctor, or enrolling their children in school. His dedication is an inspiration for us to continue his work and give back to our own communities. He will be remembered fondly for many years to come. The entire Senzara family has my condolences and sympathy.

The Joint Resolution was ADOPTED.

Sent down for concurrence.

THE PRESIDENT: The Chair would like to recognize in the rear of the Chamber Pascasie Senzara; Reverend Mutima Peter; Councilor Claude Rwaganje; Felix Mutunzi; Albert Mukiza; Deborah Nabaganwa; Daniel Senzara; and Glory Mukiza. All from Scarborough. They are the guests today of the Senator from Cumberland, Senator Brenner. Would they please rise and accept the condolences of the Maine State Senate.

ORDERS OF THE DAY

Out of order and under suspension of the Rules, the Chair laid before the Senate the following Tabled and Later Assigned (2/28/23) matter:

JOINT ORDER - Expression of Legislative Sentiment Recognizing Kevin Jamison, of Rumford, recipient of a Spirit of America Foundation Award. The Spirit of America Foundation was established to encourage and promote volunteerism, and the foundation presents awards to honor local individuals, organizations or projects in appreciation of community service. (In Senate, February 28, 2023, READ.)

The Joint Order was READ.

THE PRESIDENT: The Chair recognizes the Senator from Oxford, Senator Keim.

Senator KEIM: Thank you, Mr. President. Ladies and gentlemen of the Senate, I'm honored to rise today to recognize Kevin Jamison of Mexico. Kevin is a recipient of the Spirit of America Award and I cannot think of a more deserving person. Kevin is the manager of Aubuchon Hardware in Rumford. He enjoys working there because it is a place where everyone knows everyone and people care for one another. He has taken my mindset of caring for people outside of the store, to the broader community, and regularly gathers people in our area to assist others in need. Whether it's gathering clothing and goods for families burned out of their homes, starting a GoFundMe page for someone in financial need, or raising money to help a family whose little girl needs heart surgery, Kevin is always ready to help his neighbors. Kevin participates in almost every large event in the River Valley, including the Roxbury ATV Club Ice Fishing Derby and Pumpkin Fest and has assisted Team Hailey Hugs in raising money for childhood cancer patients. Kevin is gold to the River Valley area. Part of his motivation to help others is because of the kindness that was shown to him and his family when he was having a difficult time, proving that one act of kindness can spur many more. He has dedicated much of his free time to paying it forward and the River Valley area is blessed to have him. Thank you.

The Joint Order was PASSED.

Sent down for concurrence.

THE PRESIDENT: The Chair is very pleased to recognize in the rear of the Chamber Kevin Jamison and his wife, Kim. They are from the town of Mexico and the guests today of the Senator from Oxford, Senator Keim. Would they please rise and accept the greetings of the Maine Senate.

S.P. 128 L.D. 269

Reported that the same Ought to Pass.

Report READ.

THE PRESIDENT: The Chair recognizes the Senator from Oxford, Senator Keim.

Senator KEIM: Thank you, Mr. President. Ladies and gentlemen of the Senate, it's unnecessary to stand and speak on a bill that had unanimous support but this one is fun and sometimes it's nice to celebrate the things that don't go through with any political reasons behind them. So, I am standing in support of this legislation. The bill idea was brought to me by my constituent, Myles Felch, Curator and Staff Geologist at the Maine Mineral and Gem Museum located in Bethel. Myles did a tremendous amount of work drumming up support for this bill from other legislators, which is a testament to his passion for rocks, geology, and the State of Maine. Myles started his testimony in the State and Local Government Committee by giving us all a quick geology lesson. He explained that Granitic Pegmatite is a rock that has the composition of granite but with exceeding large crystals. Some pegmatites also contain rare mineral species, such as Maine's state gemstone, tourmaline. Pegmatites also contain several quartz varieties, including amethyst, rose, and smoky varieties. Granitic Pegmatite's importance to Maine comes from its prevalence in the state. It can be found in at least 14 of Maine's counties and is still being quarried in many Maine towns, including Auburn, Newry, Paris, and Poland. Pegmatites have brought, and continue to bring, Maine international recognition. In 1820, the year of Maine's statehood, the first discovery of gem Tourmaline was made at Mt. Mica in Paris. The Roebbling apatite, considered one of the great mineral specimens in the world, from the Pulsifer Quarry in Auburn is displayed at the Smithsonian Institution. Some of these pegmatites in Maine also host economic quantities of spodumene, a mineral resource that is essential to the development of Lithium-ion battery, which are key to meeting the demands of energy and technological development. This legislation sailed through committee with the support of the Department of Agriculture, Conservation, and Forestry. This is because it makes perfect sense Maine's state rock should be Granitic Pegmatite. It has significant historical significance to the State and the potential to be a critical part of our future. I thank you in voting for this measure today.

Expression of Legislative Sentiment recognizing:

Kenneth Lyle Cianchette, of Pittsfield. Mr. Cianchette was a veteran of the United States Army, serving as a radio mechanic in Germany, France and England before returning home in 1946. He went to work with his brothers, incorporating Cianchette Brothers, Inc. in 1949. He invented and patented the pipe grab and beam clamp, the success of which led to the creation and distribution of tools worldwide. Living in Pittsfield for almost 80 years, he served on the Town Council, the Planning Board, the Industrial Park Board, the School Administrative District 53 School Board and the Pinnacle Ski Club. He served 24 years on the Unity College Board of Trustees and was awarded an honorary doctorate degree by the college, which later named a dormitory after him. He served on the Maine Land Use Regulation Commission in the 1970s and chaired an advisory council for the Maine Department of Commerce and Industry. He also served as President of the Associated General Contractors of Maine and on various other boards and committees. A pilot, he performed aerobatic stunts on weekends at Owl's Head Transportation Museum, which he served as a trustee, and was a member of many aviation associations. He was inducted into the Maine Central Institute Hall of Fame in 1989. Mr. Cianchette will be long remembered and sadly missed by his family and friends and all those whose lives he touched.

THE PRESIDENT: The Chair recognizes the Senator from Somerset, Senator Farrin

Senator FARRIN: Thank you, Mr. President. Ladies and gentlemen of the Senate, there was a sentiment down in the House this morning and we're not going to have it up here this afternoon but I would like to - it's my honor to rise today and recognize the life of Kenneth Cianchette. After graduating from the Maine Central Institute, he was drafted into the Army where he served as a radio mechanic in England, Germany, and France. Upon returning to Maine, he and his brothers began Cianchette Bros to serve an industry where - that we are all very familiar with, construction. He then went on to form Ken Cianchette Inc., which focused on sewer, water, bridge, and building projects prior to returning to Cianchette Bros, later incorporated as Cianbro. With the construction business a bit quieter in the off-season, Ken used his GI Bill to become a private pilot. This quickly became a lifelong passion, one shared with many members of his family and business, and came in handy while courting his future wife as they were known to fly to baseball games. In 1949, he married Nina "Evie" Lancaster with whom he built a home, raised five children, and enjoyed hosting large gatherings for family and friends. He lived in Pittsfield for nearly 80 years before moving to North Yarmouth. In addition to forming one of Maine's most well-known and established construction companies and inventing tools to make life in the construction industry a bit easier, he was also incredibly giving of his time as a Trustee of the Owl's Head Transportation Museum, the Pittsfield Town Council, and the SAD 53 School Board, amongst numerous other boards. He also served as President of the Associated General Contractors of Maine and on the Maine Land Use Regulation Commission, as Chairman of an advisory council for the Maine Department of Commerce and Industry. He truly lived an incredible life and, while his presence will certainly be missed amongst his family, friends, and those in the construction and aviation industries, I know the values he held close of commitment, service to our state and our country are being carried out by his children and grandchildren. Thank you, Mr. President.

THE PRESIDENT: The Chair is pleased to recognize in the rear of the Chamber Eric Cianchette of Falmouth; Andrea Cianchette-Maker of North Yarmouth; Mike Cianchette and Ken Cianchette, both of Cumberland. They are the guests today of the Senator from Somerset, Senator Farrin, and the entire Legislature. Would they please rise and accept the greetings and condolences of the Maine Senate.
