STATE OF MAINE
ONE HUNDRED AND THIRTY-FIRST LEGISLATURE
FIRST SPECIAL SESSION
JOURNAL OF THE SENATE

In Senate Chamber
Wednesday
April 5, 2023

In compliance with a proclamation of Governor JANET T. MILLS, the Senators convened in the Senate Chamber at ten o'clock in the morning and were called to order by President TROY D. JACKSON of Aroostook County.

Prayer by Rev. Susan Reisert of Old South Congregational Church, United Church of Christ in Hallowell.

REVEREND REISERT: Thank you. Good morning. Let us pray. Gracious, Holy, and Merciful God, as we have gathered this day, we are mindful that this is a holy time for so many. Holy week for Christians, Ramadan for Muslims, and Passover for the Jewish community, and as we gather this day we pray for strength and wisdom, courage and blessing, that those assembled in this place will, in their work, keep in mind and in heart all of those who may serve in this state, that they'll be filled with the spirit of cooperation and of honesty and integrity. As we have been taught through holy scripture, may these makers of law and policy look out for the wellbeing of those in need, that in their deliberations always seeking the good of all, that Your blessing and Your light, O' God, may rise among us. May these good women and men assembled here work together, listening and speaking to each other to model for all of those who live in the beautiful state, you and old and in between, a respect for the image of God that lives in each of us. As we look at the chaos and violence of this world, may we never take for granted the freedoms we enjoy, nor for those who work so hard to protect us. Shower upon us Your grace and Your blessing, O' God. Help us to be humble, helpful, and hopeful, appreciating that we are stronger when we recognize our common humanity, when we take seriously the biblical command to love neighbor as we love ourselves. As our diversity reflects Your image, O' God, we offer this prayer in the many names to which You are known. Amen.

Pledge of Allegiance led by Senator James D. Libby of Cumberland County.

Reading of the Journal of Thursday, March 30, 2023.

Sponsored by Senator BRENNER of Cumberland.
Cosponsored by Representatives: BOYLE of Gorham, TERRY of Gorham.

The Joint Orders were READ.

THE PRESIDENT: The Chair recognizes the Senator from Cumberland, Senator Brenner.

Senator BRENNER: Thank you, Mr. President. Mr. President and esteemed colleagues of the Senate, it's my true pleasure to welcome and recognize these three up and coming artists from Gorham High School. Aera, Emma, and Sofia performed on state, and behind the scenes, at the recent 2023 Maine Drama Festival. As part of the student artists of Gorham High School Theater, they brought the play The Terezin Promise by Celeste Raspanti to life. Over 1,300 students at 70 schools all across the state competed to be selected to perform at the State finals. Gorham High School Theater was one of only eight high schools to make it to the Class A State finals of the Maine Drama Festival. Such an accomplishment shows their dedication to their craft and wealth of talent. It's no easy feat performing a work that tells the stories of child survivors of the Holocaust. I'm moved by the bravery of these students to take on that challenge of embodying themes of survival, trauma, and resilience, and I'm so proud that Aera, Emma, and Sofia were rewarded for their part in making The Terezin Promise come to fruition. Every award they each received is well-deserved. I'm so happy that they're able to come up today and I look forward to seeing what they do next. Thank you.

The Joint Orders were PASSED.

Sent down for concurrence.

THE PRESIDENT: The Chair is very pleased to recognize in the rear of the Chamber Aera, Emma, and Sofia. They're all from the town of Gorham. They're the guests today of the Senator Cumberland, Senator Brenner. Would they please rise and accept the greetings of the Maine Senate.

THE PRESIDENT: The Chair recognizes the Senator from Cumberland, Senator Pierce.

Senator PIERCE: Thank you so much, Mr. President. Mr. President, I rise today to honor Jonah Magnason of Falmouth. Jonah is the 2022 National Junior Olympic Track and Field Champion in the 1,500 meter run with the time of 5 minutes and 8 seconds. After Jonah made his past to take the lead, he never looked back. Jonah cruised to victory. His athleticism and determination is impressive at such a young age. Jonah has been running since kindergarten. As he prepares to head - he is in sixth grade at Falmouth Middle School, his running has only improved so much so that it has brought him to the national stage. Jonah said, 'I like running around, again and again, again and again.' He is also well versed in the 800 meter run and the javelin throw. Jonah told News Center Maine that one day he wants to run in the Olympics. He also has his sights set on breaking the Junior Olympic records as he continues on his athletic journey. On behalf of the entire town of Falmouth and the Maine State Senate, I want to congratulate Jonah and I look forward to seeing what success brings to him and hope to watch him in the Olympics one day. Thank you, Mr. President.

THE PRESIDENT: The Chair is very pleased to recognize in the rear of the Chamber future Olympian Jonah Magnason, who is joined today with his parents, Amy and Keith Magnason. They're all from the town of Falmouth. They're the guests today of the Senator Cumberland, Senator Pierce, and the entire Maine Legislature. Would they please rise and accept the greetings of the Maine Senate.

Joint Resolution

On motion by Senator BRAKEY of Androscoggin (Cosponsored by Senator: KEIM of Oxford, Representatives: BOYER of Poland, GREENWOOD of Wales, LIBBY of Auburn, MORRIS of Turner), the following Joint Resolution:

JOINT RESOLUTION
MAKING APPLICATION TO THE CONGRESS OF
THE UNITED STATES CALLING A CONSTITUTIONAL CONVENTION
UNDER ARTICLE V OF THE UNITED STATES
CONSTITUTION LIMITED TO PROPOSING AN AMENDMENT TO THE UNITED STATES
CONSTITUTION TO REQUIRE A BALANCED FEDERAL BUDGET

WHEREAS, under the United States Constitution, Article V, the Congress of the United States, whenever two-thirds of both Houses shall deem it necessary, shall propose amendments to the United States Constitution, or, on the application of the legislatures of two-thirds of the several states, shall call a convention for proposing amendments that, in either case, shall be valid to all intents and purposes, as part of the United States Constitution, when ratified by the legislatures of three-fourths of the several states, or by conventions in three-fourths thereof, as the one or the other mode of ratification may be proposed by the Congress; and

WHEREAS, with each passing year, this nation becomes more deeply in debt as its expenditures grossly and repeatedly exceed available revenues, so that the public debt now exceeds hundreds of billions of dollars; and

WHEREAS, the annual federal budget is a continual demonstration of an unwillingness or inability of both the legislative and executive branches of the Federal Government to curtail spending to conform to available revenues; and

WHEREAS, unified budgets do not reflect actual spending because of the exclusion of special outlays that are neither included in the budget nor subject to the legal public debt limit; and

WHEREAS, knowledgeable planning, fiscal prudence and plain good sense require that the budget reflect all federal spending and be in balance; and

WHEREAS, believing that fiscal irresponsibility at the federal level, with the inflation that results from this policy, is the greatest threat that faces our nation, we firmly believe that constitutional restraint is necessary to bring about the fiscal discipline needed to restore financial responsibility; and

WHEREAS, we believe action on amendments to the United States Constitution concerning federal expenditures to be vital; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED: That the Legislature of Maine respectfully applies to the Congress of the United States, under the provisions of Article V of the United States Constitution, for the calling of a convention of the states limited to proposing an amendment to the United States Constitution requiring that, in the absence of a national emergency, the total of all federal outlays made by the Congress of the United States for any fiscal year may not exceed the total of all estimated federal revenues for that fiscal year, together with any related and appropriate fiscal restraints; and be it further

RESOLVED: That this application is to be considered as covering the same subject matter as the presently outstanding balanced budget applications from other states, including but not limited to previously adopted applications from Alabama, Alaska, Arkansas, Colorado, Delaware, Florida, Georgia, Indiana, Iowa, Kansas, Louisiana, Maryland, Michigan, Mississippi, Missouri, Nebraska, Ohio, Nevada, New Hampshire, New Mexico, North Carolina, North Dakota, Oklahoma, Pennsylvania, South Dakota, Tennessee, Texas, Utah and West Virginia; and this application must be aggregated with same for the purpose of attaining the two-thirds of states necessary to require the calling of a convention for proposing amendments, but may not be aggregated with any applications on any other subject; and be it further

RESOLVED: That this application constitutes a continuing application in accordance with Article V of the United States Constitution until the legislatures of at least two-thirds of the several states have made applications on the same subject. It supersedes all previous applications by this Legislature on the same subject; and be it further

RESOLVED: That suitable copies of this resolution, duly authenticated by the Secretary of State, be transmitted to the Secretary of the Senate and presiding officers of both houses of the legislatures of each of the several states in the nation, the Speaker and Clerk of the United States House of Representatives, the President and Secretary of the United States Senate and each member of the Maine Congressional Delegation.

The Joint Resolution was READ.

THE PRESIDENT: The Chair recognizes the Senator from Androscoggin, Senator Brakey.

Senator BRAKEY: Thank you, Mr. President and fellow Senators. I rise today in support of this Resolution which I put forward in support of an Article V Convention of States to propose a balance budget amendment to the United States Constitution. As well all know, the national debt of the United States has been growing at an alarming rate for several decades now and it stands at over, presently, $31 trillion, nearly a quarter million dollars in debt for every U.S. taxpayer. More alarmingly, that figure does not even account for the unfunded liabilities of our general government, the future promises made with unclear funding sources, which adds another $182 trillion to the financial obligations of our country. That is an obligation of $1.7 million for every single American taxpayer. Mr. President and members of this Body, I don't know if we all have many constituents with an extra $1.7 million to hand over to the federal government, but even if they did I'm sure that's the last things they'd want to do with it. This is a staggering amount of debt and financial obligation that poses a significant threat to our country's economic stability and future prosperity. It is clear that something needs to be done to address this issue and those solutions will not come from inside Washington D.C. Over my lifetime I've watched Republicans and Democrats in Washington both, in a bipartisan - with a bipartisan continuation of this problem, pledge fiscal restraint while out of power, only to spend worse than any who came before them the moment that ring of power slips onto their fingers. Neither wing of the Washington establishment has the fortitude to throw that ring into Mount Doom. As such, the only viable path to save our country from economic ruin runs through the state legislatures. That is why, Mr. President, I submit to this Body a Joint Resolution for a limited Article V Convention of States for a balanced budget amendment to the U.S. Constitution. Such an amendment would require the federal government to balance its budget every year, just like the majority of American households and businesses are required to do. A balanced budget amendment would not only help to rein in the federal government's spending and reduce our national debt, but it would also send a powerful message to the rest of the world that the United States is serious about its fiscal responsibilities. But in order to achieve this goal, we need to take action and that's where the Convention of States comes in. This process allows state legislatures to propose amendments to the Constitution without the need for Congress to take action. It is a powerful tool that our founding generation included in the U.S. Constitution for a reason and it is beyond time for us to use it. If passed, this Resolution would have Maine join the 29 other states who have already passed such applications out of the 34 required for a Convention to take place. Those states include, in alphabetical order: Alabama, Alaska, Arkansas, Colorado, Delaware, Florida, Georgia, Indiana, Iowa, Kansas, Louisiana, Maryland, Michigan, Mississippi, Missouri, Nebraska, Ohio, Nevada, New Hampshire, New Mexico, North Carolina, North Dakota, Oklahoma, Pennsylvania, South Dakota, Tennessee, Texas, Utah, and West Virginia. I hope to be able to add Maine to that list. I understand that some have concerns about the Convention of States process or about the specific language of a balanced budget amendment but, let me be clear, a convention of states would have no more power to propose amendments than Congress has every day that they are in session. In fact, this Convention would have less power than Congress to propose amendments because their directive would be limited to one single issue, drafting and proposing a balanced budget amendment. Moreover, a balanced budget amendment is not a radical or partisan idea. It has been proposed by both Democrats and Republicans in the past and has the support of a majority of Americans. We owe it to the people we represent to take action and put our nation on a more sustainable fiscal path. In conclusion, I urge my fellow Senators to support this Resolution calling for an Article V Convention of States to propose a balanced budget amendment to the U.S. Constitution. Let us work together to ensure a brighter future for our state and our country. Thank you for your time and your consideration.

THE PRESIDENT: The Chair recognizes the Senator from Androscoggin, Senator Rotundo.

Senator ROTUNDO: Thank you, Mr. President. Mr. President and Senate Colleagues, I'm reminded as I read this Joint Resolution and listen to remarks from my Senate colleague how fortunate we are here in Maine that our Constitution, our State Constitution, requires us to have a balanced budget, a fact that many in our state don't realize. We take our fiscal responsibilities very seriously here in Maine. Thank you.

On motion by Senator VITELLI of Sagadahoc, supported by a Division of one-fifth of the members present and voting, a Roll Call was ordered.

The Doorkeepers secured the Chamber.

The Secretary opened the vote.

(In House, March 30, 2023, the Majority OUGHT NOT TO PASS Report READ and ACCEPTED.)

(In Senate, April 5, 2023, the Majority OUGHT NOT TO PASS Report READ and ACCEPTED, in concurrence.)

Senator STEWART of Aroostook requested a Roll Call.

THE PRESIDENT: Just for the Senate - realizes, I believe, we were quick on item 5-2. I think Senator Stewart wanted a roll call on that issue and didn't get it and that's why we allowed the reconsideration. So, we're back on item 5-2. There was a motion by Senator Brenner for the Ought to Pass Amended report. Senator Stewart has just asked for a roll call on that. So, that's where we are right now, about to request a roll call on item 5-2.

On motion by Senator STEWART of Aroostook, supported by a Division of one-fifth of the members present and voting, a Roll Call was ordered.

THE PRESIDENT: The Chair recognizes the Senator from Cumberland, Senator Brenner.

Senator BRENNER: Thank you, Mr. President. I just want to speak to this bill for a few minutes and let folks know what it does. So, this bill would seek to roll-back the good work that the ENR Committee and the Legislature did in the 129th by repealing the ban on single-use plastic bags here in the state of Maine. The repeal of this ban is opposed by the DEP, the Maine Municipal Association, Maine Audubon, Don't Waste Maine, Eco Maine, and RCM, The Retail Association of Maine, and the Maine Groceries and Food Producers' Association. You don't often, in our committee, get all of those entities on the same side. The bill sponsor cited a study that was completed that looks at bacterial content on reusable bags and I just want to talk about that study for a second. It was funded by the American Chemistry Councils' Plastic Division and this is a study where you take swabs of the bag and you grow out - you rub the swab on a agar petri dish and you grow it out to figure out what kind of bacteria exists on a bag. What's interesting is that they don't give you a background of what the rest of society's surfaces hold for bacteria like, for example, the button that you could push to support the Ought Not to Pass report. It might actually have E.coli on it as well if we were to swab it and grow it out on a petri dish like the study funded by the American Chemistry Council. I urge you to vote Ought Not to Pass. Thank you.

THE PRESIDENT: The Chair recognizes the Senator from Oxford, Senator Bennett.

Senator BENNETT: Thank you, Mr. President. Fellow members of the Senate, if there's one thing that I hear from the business community is that they want out of the Legislature is consistency and predictability. This bill, as the good Senator from Cumberland said, this law was passed a few years ago. It was done as a compromise because there were municipalities across this state creating their own rules, their own regulations, regarding the use of single-use plastic bags. It was very difficult for businesses, large and small, to comply with a patchwork quilt of regulations. That's why the bill was passed. It's working well and keeping litter off our streets and out of our neighborhoods. Yes, it required some adjustment, and adjustment is ongoing for some, but it is a good measure and I'm very pleased to support the Ought Not to Pass report and let's leave this law in place. Let it work and give some consistency to retailers and the people of Maine. Thank you.

THE PRESIDENT: The Chair recognizes the Senator from Kennebec, Senator Pouliot.

Senator POULIOT: Thank you, Mr. President. I wasn't in caucus this morning and so I want to let my colleagues know why I'm going to be supporting the Ought Not to Pass motion on this bill, which might surprise some of you because I literally hate that this went into effect. I mean, every time that I get groceries I'm like 'this is ridiculous, I'm having to pay 5¢ for these bags' but Senator Bennett made a really good point, which is the consistency piece. So, I'm concerned that if we go back on this that it's going to create this patchwork quilt of Whack-A-Mole and as much as I'd like to get rid of this, which would be great, unless it came with a preemption from the municipalities, which we can't really do, I don't think, from creating these policies locally, and it wouldn't really do much good, in my opinion. So, thank you, Mr. President.

THE PRESIDENT: The pending question before the Senate is Acceptance of the Majority Ought Not to Pass Report. A roll call has been ordered. Is the Senate ready for the question?

The Doorkeepers secured the Chamber.

The Secretary opened the vote.
