The report was accepted and sent down for concurrence.

Orders of The Day

Mr. HINCKLEY of Cumberland: Mr. President, I move we take from the table the Resolve in connection with the Kennebec Bridge.

The motion was agreed to and, on further motion by the same Senator, the Resolve was referred to the committee on ways and bridges, in concurrence with the House.

On motion by Mr. Powers of Aroostook, the motion whereby H. D. No 13 was referred to the committee on banks and banking in concurrence with the House, was reconsidered, and on further motion by the same Senator the matter was tabled pending reference.

The PRESIDENT: The Senate will be at ease until the adjournment order comes back from the House.

Subsequently the Chair announced that the Senate order in relation to adjournment has been concurred in by the House.

Mr. WADSWORTH of Kennebec: Mr. President, if I am in order, I would like to move that there be 500 copies printed of the several bridge resolves referred to this morning.

The motion was agreed to.

Mr. POWERS of Aroostook: Mr. President, during the recess I have found out what I wished to know about H. D. No. 13, which I tabled this morning. I move to take it from the table.

The motion was agreed to, and on further motion by the same Senator, it was referred to the committee on banks and banking in concurrence with the House.

On motion by Mr. Clarke of Hancock,

Adjourned until Tuesday, January 27, at 4.30 o'clock P. M., in accordance with the order heretofore passed.
