Orders of the Day

The SPEAKER: The Chair has in its possession a proclamation which the Clerk will read:

PROCLAMATION

By virtue of the authority of the power vested in the Council of State Governments by thirty-seven states of the United States, a call is hereby issued announcing The Fourth General Assembly of the Council of State Governments, to be held for three days beginning January eighteenth, nineteen hundred thirty-nine, A. D., at the Mayflower Hotel in Washington, District of Columbia.

Said Fourth General Assembly will consider and discuss problems bearing on cooperative relationships among the various areas of government in the United States of America.

Each of the forty-eight states of the Union will be represented by three official delegates, one chosen from among the members of the State Administrative Services, one from among the members of the State Senate, and one from among the members of the State House of Representatives. In the thirty-seven states equipped with official commissions on interstate cooperation these designations shall be made by the chairman of the Commission on Interstate Cooperation. In the other eleven states designations shall be made by the Governor and by the presiding officers of the Senate and the House of Representatives, respectively.

The Governor of each state is ex-officio an honorary member of the Fourth General Assembly.

(Signed) Robert L. Cochran, President The Council of State Governments.

(Signed) Henry Parkman, Jr., President The American Legislators' Association.

(Signed) G. L. Porterie, President The National Association of Attorney-Generals.

(Signed) C. John Satti, President The National Association of Secretaries of State.

On motion by Mr. Varney of Berwick, the proclamation was placed on file.

On motion by Mr. McGlaufflin of Portland, it was voted to take from the table the communication from the Secretary of State transmitting the returns of votes cast for Representatives to the Legislature, tabled by that gentleman on January 4th pending reference; and on further motion by the same gentleman the communication was referred to the committee on Elections.

On motion by Mr. Young of Old Orchard Beach,

Adjourned until ten o'clock tomorrow morning.
