Mr. LEAVITT of Cumberland: Mr. President, this bill and the three companion bills which have been reported "Ought Not to Pass" are relative to compulsory voting. I have another bill which will go before the Committee on Judiciary very soon. I believe that bill takes the best features of these four bills. I am not retreating from my position relative to my desire to see something of this nature passed in this legislature, but I am not going to oppose the motion to have the "Ought Not to Pass" reports accepted. Later on I shall fight for the other bill when it comes up. I just want everyone to know that I am not sitting here letting these bills go by.

Thereupon, the report was read and accepted.

Sent down for concurrence.
