The Executive.

Sec. 1. The governor. R. S. c. 117, § 1. The governor shall receive an annual salary of five thousand dollars. He shall have his official residence at Augusta during his term of office, and shall keep his office at the state house open, either personally or by his private secretary, for the transaction of the business of the state during four business days of each week.

Sec. 2. The private secretary and stenographer of the governor. R. S. c. 117, § 2. The private secretary of the governor shall receive an annual salary of eighteen hundred dollars. He shall devote his entire time to the duties of his office.

The stenographer to the governor shall receive an annual salary of one thousand dollars.

The private secretary of the governor and the stenographer to the governor shall be appointed by, and hold their respective offices during the pleasure of the governor.

Sec. 3. The executive council. R. S. c. 117, § 3. Each member of the executive council shall receive the same compensation and travel as a representative to the legislature, for services as a councilor during the session of the council commencing in January and closing immediately after the adjournment of the legislature. For services at other sessions of the council, each member thereof shall receive twenty dollars for each session, and actual expenses; for authorized services on committees when the council is not in session, and for services on the committee to examine the state prison, each councilor shall receive five dollars a day and actual expenses.

Sec. 4. The messenger to the governor and council. R. S. c. 117, § 4. The messenger to the governor and council shall receive an annual salary of two thousand dollars, in full for all services by him performed. The council shall determine what services he shall perform.

The Judiciary.

Sec. 5. The supreme judicial court. R. S. c. 117, § 5. 1917, c. 170. 1921, c. 87, § 1. 1927, c. 71, § 1. 1927, c. 157. The justices of the supreme judicial court shall each receive an annual salary of eight thousand dollars. Each justice shall be reimbursed by the state for his expenses actually and reasonably incurred in attending meetings appointed by the chief justice under the provisions of section forty-four, of chapter ninety, and the sessions of the law court, upon presentation to the state auditor of a detailed statement of such expenses. When any justice of said court holds nisi prius terms of said court in any town other than the town in which he resides, or when any hearing of a cause in law or in equity is had in vacation before a justice of said court other than the one residing in the town where said hearing is had, such justice shall be reimbursed by the state for his expenses actually and reasonably incurred in holding such terms, or in attending said hearing, upon presentation to the state auditor of a detailed statement of such expenses. The counties wherein such justices reside, have their offices, or are holding court, shall also receive from the state the expenses necessarily incurred by such justices for postage, stationery, express, and telephone tolls. Each justice of said court shall be reimbursed by the state for expenses actually and reasonably incurred by him for clerical assistance, upon presentation to the state auditor of an itemized statement of such expense. But such expense shall not exceed one thousand dollars for any one justice in any one year.

Sec. 6. The superior courts. R. S. c. 117, § 6. 1917, c. 260, § 9. 1919, c. 9, § 9. 1921, c. 192. 1927, c. 248. The justices of the superior courts shall each receive an annual salary of six thousand dollars together with actual expenses as provided by law. [in case of the supreme judicial court.] But such expense shall not exceed one thousand dollars for any one justice in any one year. The justice of the superior court for the county of Kennebec shall also receive for the purpose of meeting his extra expenses, [and in lieu thereof] entailed by holding said court at the city of Waterville, the sum of one hundred dollars for each and every term of said court so held at the city of Waterville.

Sec. 7. Active retired justices. 1923, c. 156. 1927, c. 55. Each active retired justice shall receive during the rest of his life a salary equal to three-fourths of that of a regular justice of his court to be paid in the same manner as the salary of said justice is paid.

See c. 90, § 113.

Sec. 8. Compensation of judges upon retirement. R. S. c. 117, § 7. 1919, c. 226. 1921, cc. 7, 206. 1923, c. 47. 1927, c. 55. Any justice of the supreme judicial court or superior court who, having attained the age of seventy years, and having served as such justice for at least seven consecutive years, resigns his said office or ceases to serve at the expiration of any term thereof, shall during the remainder of his life receive an amount equal to three-fourths the salary which is by law payable to him at the time of such resignation or termination of service; to be paid by the state in the same manner as the salaries of justices of said court are paid. The provisions of this paragraph shall apply to present and former justices of said courts. Provided, however, that such justice shall within one year after attaining the age of seventy years and having served as such justice for at least seven consecutive years cease to serve as such justice. Any justice of the supreme judicial court or superior court who, having attained the age of seventy years and having served as such justice for at least seven consecutive years, continues to serve as such justice for more than one year, shall waive his right to the compensation hereinbefore mentioned in this and the preceding section and shall make no claim therefor at the close of his term of service as such justice whether such term of service is ended by resignation or by the expiration of the term for which he is appointed.

Note. This and the preceding section have been slightly rearranged. The portion defining the status and duties of active retired justice has been transferred to c. 90, § 113.

Sec. 9. The attorney-general and assistant attorney-general. R. S. c. 117, § 8. 1923, c. 218. The attorney-general shall have an office in the state capitol and shall receive an annual salary of four thousand dollars, in full for all services and in lieu of all fees, except costs awarded under section six of chapter seventy-seven. He shall also receive his actual expenses incurred in the performance of his official duties while away from his home, and provided however, that commencing January first, nineteen hundred and twenty-five, he shall receive his actual expenses incurred in the performance of his official duties only while away from the capital.

Sec. 10. The reporter of decisions. R. S. c. 117, § 9. 1921, c. 185. The reporter of decisions shall receive an annual salary of twenty-seven hundred dollars.

Sec. 11. Stenographers in the supreme judicial court. R. S. c. 117, § 10. 1917, c. 216. 1919, c. 31. 1921, c. 116. Stenographers appointed by the justices of the supreme judicial court shall receive annual salaries of twenty-five hundred dollars each, in full for all services formerly chargeable to the counties. They shall also receive from the county in which the court is held, their expenses when in attendance upon court away from their place of residence, but not otherwise; a detailed statement of such expenses, actually and reasonably incurred, shall be approved by the presiding justice.

Sec. 12. Stenographers in the superior courts. R. S. c. 117, § 11. 1917, cc. 249, 260, § 11. 1919, c. 9, § 11. 1919, c. 198. 1921, cc. 104, 160. 1923, c. 8. 1925, cc. 165, 166. The salaries of the stenographers of the superior courts to be paid quarterly from the treasuries of their counties, in full for all services formerly chargeable to the counties are as follows: Androscoggin, twenty-one hundred dollars a year; Cumberland, twenty-five hundred dollars a year; Kennebec, twenty-one hundred dollars a year; Penobscot, twenty-five hundred dollars a year.

They shall also receive from the county in which the court is held, their expenses when in attendance upon court away from their places of residence, but not otherwise; a detailed statement of such expense actually and reasonably incurred shall be approved by the presiding justice.

Sec. 13. Retirement pay of stenographers of supreme judicial and superior courts. 1927, c. 253. Stenographers of the supreme judicial and superior courts, after having served twenty-five years in either or both courts may, by reason of disability and with the approval of the governor and council, retire, and shall receive from the state such amount as the governor and council may determine, not exceeding twelve hundred dollars per annum to be paid by the treasurer of state in monthly payments.

Note. Salaries of municipal court judges, c. 144, § 1.

The Legislature.

Sec. 14. The members of the legislature. R. S. c. 117, § 12. 1927, c. 159. Each member of the senate and house of representatives shall receive six hundred dollars for the regular session of the legislature, and two dollars for every ten miles' travel from his place of abode once in each session. He is entitled to mileage on the first day of the session, and one hundred dollars of his salary on the first day of each month thereafter, during the session, and the balance at the end thereof; but two dollars shall be deducted from the pay of every member for each day that he is absent from his duties, without being excused by the house to which he belongs.

The president of the senate and speaker of the house of representatives, shall each receive seven hundred dollars for each session with the same mileage as other members, and subject to the same deduction in case of each absence. Any member acting as president pro tempore of the senate, or speaker pro tempore of the house, shall receive two dollars a day extra therefor.

When an extra session is called by the governor, the members of the senate and house of representatives shall each be paid two dollars for every day's attendance, and mileage as aforesaid.

The president of the senate and speaker of the house of representatives at such extra session shall receive, in addition, two dollars for every day's attendance.

Sec. 15. The subordinate officers and employees of the senate. R. S. c. 117, § 13. 1921 c. 107. 1927, c. 73, § 1. The secretary of the senate shall perform the usual duties of the office during the session of the legislature, file and index all papers, which have been subject to adverse legislative action, index and supervise the publication of the senate journal, and in addition thereto devote the month of December of the year following the legislative session to the work of making preparation for the incoming legislature. He shall also perform the duties required of him by sections thirty-eight and forty-one of chapter two. He shall also deliver to the librarian of the Maine State Library all papers on file in the office of the secretary of the senate which were considered by a session of the legislature held more than ten years previously and the state librarian shall inspect said papers and preserve all those having any historical or permanent value. He shall receive a salary of fifteen hundred dollars in full for all official services by him performed during the term for which he is chosen, as follows: Eleven hundred dollars at the end of the session of the legislature, three hundred dollars when the journal of the senate is completed, and one hundred dollars when the index of papers is completed.

The assistant secretary of the senate shall receive a salary of nine hundred dollars; his work to be performed under the direction of the secretary.

The messenger of the senate shall receive a salary of four hundred dollars; the assistant messenger, folder, assistant folder, postmaster and doorkeeper shall each receive a salary of three hundred dollars; the pages shall each receive a salary of one hundred fifty dollars; the official reporter shall receive a salary of one thousand dollars.

All of the above officers shall work under the direction of the president of the senate. The above salaries shall be in full for all official services by them performed during the term for which they are chosen, and no other compensation shall be allowed them, except in case of an adjourned or special session of the legislature.

Sec. 16. The subordinate officers and employees of the house of representatives. R. S. c. 117, § 14. 1927, c. 73, § 2. The clerk of the house of representatives shall perform the usual duties of his office during the session of the legislature, and index and supervise the publication of the house journal. He shall also perform the services required of him by sections thirty-nine and forty-two of chapter two. He shall receive a salary of fourteen hundred dollars in full for all official services by him performed during the term for which he is chosen, as follows: eleven hundred dollars at the close of the session of the legislature, and three hundred dollars when the journal of the house is completed.

The assistant clerk of the house shall receive a salary of nine hundred dollars; his work shall be performed under the direction of the clerk.

The messenger shall receive a salary of four hundred dollars; the assistant messenger, document clerk, first folder, second folder, postmaster, mail-carrier and doorkeeper shall each receive a salary of three hundred dollars; the pages shall each receive a salary of one hundred fifty dollars; the official reporter of the house shall receive a salary of one thousand dollars.

All of the above mentioned officers shall work under the direction of the speaker of the house. The above salaries shall be in full for all official services by them performed during the term for which they are chosen, and no other compensation shall be allowed them, except in case of an adjourned or special session of the legislature.

Note. Employment of clerks and other clerical help by committees of the legislature subject to authorization by governor and council. P. & S. Laws, 1915, c. 25.

The Executive Departments.

Sec. 17. The state department. R. S. c. 117, § 15. 1921, c. 212. 1927, c. 156. The secretary of state shall receive an annual salary of four thousand dollars. He and his deputy shall also receive such actual travelling expenses incident to the administration of his department as shall be necessary.

Sec. 18. The state treasury. R. S. c. 117, § 16. 1917, c. 196. 1919, c. 215. 1921, c. 155. The treasurer of state shall receive an annual salary of three thousand dollars; he shall receive no other fee, emolument, or perquisite.

The chief clerk in the office of the treasurer of state shall be designated as "Deputy Treasurer of State" and his salary shall be fixed in accordance with section 42.

Sec. 19. The state auditor's office. R. S. c. 117, § 17. 1917, c. 199. 1919, cc. 215, 224. 1921, c. 56. The state auditor shall receive an annual salary of four thousand dollars, and the said four thousand dollars shall be appropriated each year and paid to the state auditor. He may employ in his department one permanent clerk at a salary to be fixed by the governor and council and such additional assistants as the governor and council may approve, and as may be necessary for the dispatch of public business.

Sec. 20. The superintendent of public printing. R. S. c. 117, § 17. 1921, c. 56. The governor shall appoint a superintendent of public printing, as provided in section fourteen of chapter three, whose appointment shall be approved by the council. He may employ one or more clerks and assistants as the business of his office may demand, their number and the amount of their compensation to be subject to the approval of the governor and council. His salary shall be fifteen hundred dollars a year.

Sec. 21. The insurance department. R. S. c. 117, § 18. The insurance commissioner shall receive an annual salary of two thousand five hundred dollars.

The deputy insurance commissioner shall receive an annual salary of eighteen hundred dollars.

The governor and council may allow such reasonable sum for postage, clerk hire, and actual expenses incurred in the proper enforcement of the laws relating to insurance as they deem proper.

Sec. 22. The banking department; part of expense chargeable to banks; penalty for failure to pay. R. S. c. 117, § 19. 1917, c. 220. 1923, c. 144, § 139. The bank commissioner shall receive an annual salary of five thousand dollars; he shall receive his actual traveling expenses incurred in the performance of his official duties, and the reasonable and necessary expenses of his office, the payment of which shall be subject to the approval of the governor and council. He may employ at the expense of the state a deputy bank commissioner and as many examiners, assistant examiners, and clerks as the business of the office may require, whose compensation shall be fixed by the governor and council. The deputy bank commissioner shall perform the duties of the commissioner whenever the latter shall be absent from the state or whenever he shall be directed by the commissioner, or whenever there shall be a vacancy in the office of commissioner. The deputy bank commissioner and all examiners and assistant examiners shall receive their actual expenses incurred in the performance of official duties, subject to the approval of the governor and council.

The expenses of the banking department necessarily incurred in the examination of the institutions under its supervision, including salaries, general office expenses, and verification of savings accounts, shall be chargeable in part to such institutions and shall be appropriated and paid as follows: Every savings bank, institution for savings, trust company, loan and building association, industrial bank, credit union, title company, loan society, and other institutions whose affairs the bank commissioner is required by law to examine, shall annually, on or before the first day of January, pay to the state treasurer a sum equivalent to two dollars and fifty cents for each hundred thousand dollars, or major portion thereof, of the resources, (exclusive of trust assets) of such institution, as shown by its books to have existed on the first day of December preceding. The aggregate of such payments shall be credited to a special account for the use of the banking department, to be available for the payment of expenditures lawfully incurred and regularly audited and chargeable to the appropriations for salaries, general office expenses, or verification of savings accounts, after the regular appropriations therefor shall have been exhausted.

Any institution which shall fail to make such payment within the time specified herein, shall be subject to a penalty of not less than fifty, nor more than two hundred dollars, which, together with the amount due under the foregoing provisions of this section, may be recovered in an action of debt in the name of the state. All institutions so delinquent on the tenth day of January of each year, shall be reported by the treasurer of state to the attorney general for the purpose of such action.

Sec. 23. The department of education. R. S. c. 117, § 20. 1919, c. 179. 1919, cc. 147, 215. 1921, c. 194. The state commissioner of education shall receive an annual salary of five thousand dollars. He shall also receive his actual cash expenses incurred in the performance of his official duties which shall be paid out of such funds as may be provided for that purpose. He shall appoint a deputy, and shall employ such agents as may be authorized by law and such clerical assistance as he may deem necessary and as may be approved by the governor and council for carrying on the work of his office. The deputy state commissioner of education and the agents employed by the state commissioner in accordance with the provisions of this section shall receive such salaries as the governor and council may approve within the appropriation made by the legislature and shall also receive their necessary traveling expenses incurred in the performance of their official duties.

Sec. 24. The department of agriculture. R. S. c. 117, § 21. 1921, c. 144. 1927, c. 149. The commissioner of agriculture shall receive an annual salary of three thousand five hundred dollars. He shall also receive his actual expenses incurred in the performance of his official duties but not exceeding the sum of one thousand dollars a year. He may expend for such clerical labor as may be required, not exceeding one thousand dollars a year to be approved by the governor and council.

Fees of Sheriffs and Their Deputies.

Sec. 5. Sheriffs and their deputies. R. S. c. 118, § 5. 1919, cc. 222, 244. 1921, c. 205. 1923, c. 112. 1925, c. 85. 1927, cc. 107, 108. For the service of an original summons or scire facias, either by reading or copy, or for the service of a capias or attachment with summons on one defendant, seventy-five cents; if served on more than one defendant, seventy-five cents more for each.

If the sheriff, or his deputy, by written direction of the plaintiff, his agent or attorney, makes special service of any writ of attachment by attaching property, he shall receive therefor fifty cents and seventy-five cents for serving the summons thereon; and for taking the body on a capias, one dollar for each defendant on whom such writ is so served.

Where the officer is by law directed to leave a copy, or gives a copy of any precept upon demand, he may charge at the rate of twenty cents a page, which, in the latter case, shall be paid by the party demanding it.

If real estate is attached, the officer may charge twenty-five cents for leaving with the register of deeds an attested copy of his return and other particulars, as required by law, and instead of travel, legal postage; and the usual rate of travel from the residence of such officer to the nearest postoffice; and he shall pay the register ten cents, and tax the same with his own fees.

For a bail-bond and writing the same, including principal and sureties, to be paid by the person admitted to bail, and taxed for him, if he prevails, one dollar.

For the service of a subpoena, notice to an adverse party, or other process in which there is no command to make return, fifty cents; if by copy, at the rate of twenty cents a page for the copy; and travel as in other cases; and service on an adverse party, by giving him an attested copy of the notice in hand, is valid.

For levying and collecting executions in personal actions, for every dollar of the first hundred dollars, three cents; for every dollar above one hundred, and not exceeding two hundred dollars, two cents; and for every dollar above two hundred dollars, one cent.

17 Me. 433.

For serving a writ of possession, one dollar and ten cents; and if on more than one piece of land, seventy-five cents for each piece of land after the first; and the fees for levying and collecting the costs shall be the same as above provided for executions in personal actions.

For serving an execution upon a judgment of court for partition of real estate, or assignment of dower, one dollar a day and ten cents a mile from the officer's place of abode to the place of service. For service of a petition to the legislature, fifty cents, and twenty cents for each page of copy, with usual travel.

For causing appraisers to be sworn, and making return of levying on real estate, one dollar.

CHAP. 126

For each appraiser of real estate, for extending execution, or assigning dower, one dollar a day and travel at the rate of ten cents a mile going out and returning home, to be paid by the officer and charged in his return.

For advertising, in a newspaper, a right in equity of redeeming mortgaged real estate, to be sold on execution, such sum as he pays the printer therefor; for writing and posting notices of the sale of such equity in the town where the land lies, and in two adjoining towns, three dollars and usual travel and for making out a deed and return of the sale of such equity, two dollars.

When the estate or interest of any person, held by a possession or improvement, is seized and sold on execution, or the franchise or other property of a corporation, or the property of an individual, is sold on execution by a process similar thereto, and advertising in like manner, the officer is entitled to the same as in the sale of an equity of redemption.

The fees of the register of deeds for recording a levy upon real estate, or the deed of the officer for the sale of real estate on execution, and all sums paid by the officer for internal revenue stamps to be affixed to such deeds, shall be taxed by the officer in his return; and every officer, making levy on real estate by appraisal, shall cause the execution and his return thereon to be recorded by the register of deeds for the district where the land lies, within three months after such levy.

For the service of a warrant, the officer is entitled to one dollar, and one dollar for service of a mittimus to commit a person to jail or to the house of correction, and usual travel, with reasonable expenses incurred in the conveyance of such prisoner.

87 Me. 294.

For each aid, necessarily employed in criminal cases, including expenses, two dollars a day, and in that proportion for a longer or shorter time, and ten cents a mile for travel in going out and returning home.

For the service of a subpoena in criminal cases, one dollar; unless in special cases, when the court may increase the fees to what it judges reasonable.

For attending court, and keeping the prisoner in criminal cases, one dollar and fifty cents for every twelve hours, and in that proportion for a greater or less time.

For travel actually performed for the service of a writ, warrant, execution, or other process, ten cents a mile each way, from the officer's residence to the place of the service of the precept, by the usually traveled route, with all reasonable sums actually paid for boat hire, ferriage, and for crossing any toll bridge, and postage for returning the process by mail to the court to which it is returnable. Only one travel shall be allowed for any one precept, and no constructive travel; but if the same is served on more than one person, the travel may be computed from the place of service most remote from the place of return, with all further necessary travel in serving such precept.

69 Me. 597.

No charge of such officer for service, travel, or expenses paid, shall be allowed, unless the items thereof are expressly stated, and the amount of each, and no fees for constructive travel shall be allowed him for the service of a subpoena, notice to an adverse party, or other process in which there is no command to make return.

For transmitting to the selectmen of towns precepts from the governor for calling special meetings for the election of representatives to congress from any district, with copies of the lists of persons previously voted for, for each town, fifty cents.

Every deputy sheriff and court messenger while in attendance upon the supreme judicial court or the superior court in their several counties shall receive for said attendance and service five dollars a day; and the sheriff, at its opening, shall present to the court, a list of the officers attending, with the statement of the duties of each; and the court shall determine the number necessary, and disallow charges for others.

Every deputy sheriff, while performing special duties under order of the sheriff shall receive for such services four dollars a day, together with necessary, incidental expenses, to be paid from the county treasury, the bills for which shall be audited as provided in section one, chapter one hundred and forty-eight of the revised statutes.

For services under chapter one hundred and twenty-three, as follows: Taking a debtor before the justice or justices for disclosure, travel as in service of a writ, and attendance, seventy-five cents; for a bail or other bond, twenty-five cents; and for recommitment of a prisoner when remanded, twenty-five cents; but no dollarage or commission shall be allowed to the officer for an arrest or commitment upon execution or mesne process, except upon the money actually collected; for arresting a debtor on execution, when he discloses without giving bond, one dollar, and travel as aforesaid; for keeping him, two dollars a day for himself and each necessary aid; for notifying the creditor and justices, fifty cents each, and travel aforesaid; and no officer is required to arrest a debtor on execution, unless a written direction to do so, signed by the creditor or his attorney is endorsed thereon, and a reasonable sum for such fees is paid or secured to him, for which he shall account to the creditor as for money collected on execution.

15 Me. 469; 71 Me. 414; 103 Me. 132; *111 Me. 35.

For serving bills in equity or the subpoena issued thereon, divorce libels, notices of foreclosure of mortgages of real estate, subpoena and application for debtor to disclose before a commissioner, or copies of writs of entry served upon tenants in possession of demanded premises when defendant is not in possession, the sheriff or his deputy shall receive the sum of one dollar and twenty-five cents when such service is made in hand, and seventy-five cents when service is made by leaving copy of such of the above as are not required by law to be served in hand at the last and usual place of abode, in addition to his travel, and for the copy, when required to be attested by him, at the rate hereinbefore provided, and in all cases, the officer making service shall make a return of his service on the bill or subpoena, libel, notice of foreclosure, citation or other precept, without charge or fee for so doing.

For any of the above enumerated services in civil cases which a constable may legally perform he shall receive the same fees as are provided above for deputy sheriffs.

Fees of Coroners and Constables.

Sec. 6. Coroners' fees. R. S. c. 118, § 6. Coroners are entitled to the same fees as sheriffs, for similar services, except where otherwise expressly provided.

For attending court in every trial where the sheriff is concerned, twenty-five cents, and the same for attending the jury therein.

Sec. 7. Constables' fees. R. S. c. 118, § 7. The fees of constables for the service and return of each venire, one dollar and fifty cents, and for actual travel six cents a mile each way in posting and delivering the notices mentioned in section nine of chapter one hundred and nineteen; and in notifying the juror or jurors drawn as provided in section fourteen of said chapter, to be paid out of the county treasury; and for services which may be performed either by a deputy sheriff or a constable, the constable is allowed the same fees as a deputy sheriff, unless otherwise provided.

20 Me. 481.

Jurors and Witnesses.

Sec. 8. Fees of jurors. R. S. c. 118, § 8. 1921, c. 36. 1927, c. 163. Grand and traverse jurors, attending the supreme judicial court or superior courts, and jurors attending on any other occasion prescribed by law, shall be allowed five dollars a day for their attendance, and six cents a mile for their travel out and home, to be paid out of the county treasury.

56 Me. 307; 69 Me. 597.

Sec. 9. Fees of witnesses. R. S. c. 118, § 9. 1919, c. 3. 1927, c. 165. Witnesses in the supreme judicial court or superior courts or in the probate courts and before a trial justice or a municipal court, shall receive two dollars, and before referees, auditors, or commissioners specially appointed to take testimony, or special commissioners on disputed claims appointed by probate courts, one dollar and fifty cents, or before the county commissioners one dollar, for each day's attendance and six cents a mile for each mile's travel going and returning home; but the court in its discretion, may allow at the trial of any cause, civil or criminal, in said supreme judicial court or superior courts, a sum not exceeding twenty-five dollars per day for the attendance of any expert witness or witnesses at said trial, in taxing the costs of the prevailing party; but such party or his attorney of record, shall first file an affidavit, during the term at which such trial is held, and before the cause is settled, stating the name, residence, number of days in attendance, and the actual amount paid or to be paid each expert witness, in attendance at such trial. And no more than two dollars per day shall be allowed or taxed by the clerk of courts, in the costs of any suit, for the per diem attendance of a witness, unless the affidavit herein provided, is filed, and the per diem is determined and allowed by the presiding justice.

Allowance to Parties and Attorneys in Civil Causes.

Sec. 10. Costs to be taxed for parties, and attorneys. R. S. c. 118, § 10. 1923, c. 122. Costs allowed to parties and attorneys in civil actions shall be as follows: to parties recovering costs before a trial justice, thirty-three cents for each day's attendance, and the same for every ten miles' travel; to parties recovering costs in the supreme judicial or superior courts, thirty-three cents for every ten miles' travel, and three dollars and fifty cents for attendance at each term until the action is disposed of, unless the court otherwise directs.

54 Me. 398; 55 Me. 598; 56 Me. 306; 107 Me. 157.

Costs for travel shall be taxed for the prevailing party in civil suits, according to the distance of said party or his attorney who resides nearest to the place of trial, unless said prevailing party or his attorney who resides farthest from said place of trial actually travels the greater distance for the special purpose of attending court in such cause, in which case costs shall be taxed for the last named distance, and when the action is in the name of an indorsee, and the plaintiff is the prevailing party, such costs for travel shall be taxed according to the distance of the attorney, payee or indorsee, who is nearest to the place of trial, unless the attorney, payee or indorsee, residing the greater distance from said place of trial, actually travels such greater distance for the special purpose of attending court in said cause. But no costs for travel shall be allowed for more than ten miles' distance from any justice, municipal or police court, nor for more than forty miles' distance from any other court, unless the plaintiff prevailing actually travels a greater distance, or the adverse party, if he recovers costs, by himself, his agent or attorney, in fact travels a greater distance for the special purpose of attending court in such cause.

For a power of attorney, fifty cents; and for the plaintiff's declaration, fifty cents in the supreme judicial or superior courts, but no fee for a power shall be taxed before any municipal or police court or trial justice, unless otherwise specially provided in the act establishing such court. For an issue in law or fact, there shall be allowed for an attorney's fee, two dollars and fifty cents in the supreme judicial or superior courts. A fee of five dollars shall be taxed in the plaintiff's costs for making up a conditional judgment under section ten of chapter ninety-five.

In cases of forcible entry and detainer, parties shall be allowed the same costs as in ordinary civil actions.

A party summoned as trustee and required to attend court and make a disclosure, shall be entitled to costs as follows: If the claim sued for does not exceed twenty dollars, such trustee shall be entitled to travel and attendance and twenty-five cents for the oath; and if the claim sued for exceeds twenty dollars, such trustee shall be entitled to two dollars and fifty cents in addition to the above fee, and when required to attend court for further examination such trustee shall be entitled to travel and attendance.

In all municipal and police courts the amount of costs allowed in civil actions shall depend upon the amount recovered and not upon the ad damnum in the writ; and the allowance for travel and attendance to parties recovering costs in municipal and police courts, or before any trial justice shall be limited to three terms, except that the court may, for good and sufficient cause, order such allowance for additional terms.

No costs shall accrue, be taxed, or allowed, for any precept required in legal proceedings, whether in law or equity, unless the same shall issue from and bear the indorsement of an attorney at law.

The allowance for travel and attendance to parties recovering costs in the supreme judicial or superior courts shall be limited to two terms and every other term at which a trial is had except in addition thereto in case a demurrer, plea in abatement, or motion to dismiss is filed by the defendant, the prevailing party in such three last named proceedings shall be allowed travel and attendance in such action for not exceeding two additional terms. The court may for good and sufficient cause order such allowance for additional terms in all actions before it. No referee shall allow costs in any proceedings in excess of the above provisions.

Costs Taxable for the State in Criminal Prosecutions.

Sec. 11. Costs taxable to the state in criminal prosecutions. R. S. c. 118, § 11. Costs taxable for the state in criminal prosecutions shall be as follows: For the attorney acting for the state, in all cases in the supreme judicial court or superior courts, one dollar and twenty-five cents, unless there is a trial by jury, or an issue in law at the law court, in which case there shall be an additional charge of one dollar.

For the indictment in the supreme judicial court or superior court, one dollar and twenty-five cents.

For attendance, thirty-three cents a day, not to extend beyond the second week of any one term; but no fees for travel shall be allowed in any case in which the state is a party.

No attendance shall be taxed in cases of defaulted recognizances, other than is taxed in the prosecutions in which they are taken, until the return of a writ of scire facias issued thereon.

In indictments against towns for neglecting to make or repair a way, not tried by the jury, the fees taxed for the state are limited to three dollars; and the costs shall not be taxed until the action is finally disposed of.

No fees shall be allowed to complainants before the grand jury against towns for neglecting to make or repair roads; nor to any other witnesses in such cases, unless summoned by the county attorney or grand jury.

Sec. 12. Costs and expenses, how to be audited. R. S. c. 118, § 12. The established forms and mode of proceedings in criminal prosecutions shall not be changed, and the costs and expenses thereof shall be examined and audited like other county expenses, but the supreme judicial court or superior courts shall continue to allow such bills of costs.

See c. 148, § 1.

Fees Payable to State Officers.

Sec. 13. Secretary of state. R. S. c. 118, § 13. 1923, c. 88, § 33; c. 220, § 6. 1925, c. 185, § 4. The secretary of state shall receive:
