CHAP. 24.

Penalty.
If not paid,
vessel may be sold.
R. S., c. 32,
§ 56.

years. The said officers, instead of such bond, may require payment of a sum not exceeding two dollars for each passenger.

SEC. 40. The master of such vessel, for a violation of any provision of the preceding section, forfeits two hundred dollars for each passenger coming on shore, to be recovered in an action of debt, by the municipal officers of the town, one half to the use of the town, and the other to the use of the state; and there shall be a lien on such vessel to secure such penalties, which may be enforced by an attachment of the vessel within sixty days, though the defendant is not its owner; and it may be sold on execution like other personal property, and after deducting the amount of penalties and costs, the balance shall be paid to the owner on demand.

Towns may appoint officers to prevent passengers
landing.
R. S., c. 32,
§ 58.

SEC. 41. A town accessible by vessels may appoint visiting officers, who, on the arrival of a vessel with passengers on board, are to go on board of her, and there remain until the provisions of section thirty-nine are complied with; and they are to prevent the landing of any passenger in violation of such provisions; and to inform the municipal officers of any violation or attempt to violate such provisions. They are to be paid by the master a reasonable compensation to be fixed by said officers.

Who are liable to keep watch
and ward.
R. S., c. 31, § 1.

SEC. 1. Every male person except ministers of the gospel, twenty-one years of age or upwards, who is able bodied or has estate sufficient to hire a substitute, when duly warned, shall be liable to watch and ward in his town, either in person or by a sufficient substitute; unless he resides more than two miles from the place where the watch or ward is kept.

Power of selectmen and

SEC. 2. The justices of the peace and municipal officers resident in any town have power, from time to time, to direct and order suitable watches to be kept nightly therein from such hour in the evening as they appoint until sun rises in the morning; and wards to be kept in the day time and evening, when they think such watches and wards necessary. They may designate the time, place, and number of persons to be so employed; and give written orders accordingly, signed by a majority of them, directed to any constable of the town, requiring him to warn such watch or ward, and to see that all persons so warned attend and perform their duty as required; and in the warning, to take care that some able householders, or other sufficient persons, are joined in each watch or ward.

SEC. 3. Such constable shall charge the watch to see that all disturbances in the night are prevented or suppressed; and for that purpose the watch may examine all persons found walking abroad in the night after ten o'clock, and suspected of any unlawful intention, as to their business and where they are going; enter houses of ill-fame for the purpose of suppressing any disturbance or riot therein; and arrest any person there found engaged in such riot or disturbance; and all suspicious persons thus abroad, who do not give a satisfactory account of themselves; and all persons so arrested shall be secured until morning, and then be carried before one of the nearest justices of the peace for trial.

SEC. 4. The watchman shall walk in and about the streets, wharves, lanes, and principal inhabited parts of each town, to prevent fires, and see that good order is kept; and suitably observe the charge given them as aforesaid.

SEC. 5. Each constable, when attending watch or ward, shall carry with him the usual badge of his office; and the watchmen shall carry a suitable badge, provided by the municipal officers of their town.

SEC. 6. When the inhabitants of a town determine to keep a watch in any other manner than is provided herein, the expense thereof shall be defrayed as other town charges.

SEC. 7. When a watch is established under the preceding section, the town shall determine the number and qualifications of the persons to be employed for that purpose, and the municipal officers shall appoint a suitable person to be captain of the watch. Every watchman shall be equipped as the municipal officers determine; and the powers and duties of the captain and watchmen shall be the same as before prescribed in the case of a constable's watch.

SEC. 8. If any person liable to watch and ward is duly warned by such captain or constable, or by any person appointed by either, and refuses or neglects to appear and perform his duty, by himself or a sufficient substitute, without a just and reasonable excuse, he shall forfeit, for each offence, not less than one, nor more than ten dollars to the use of the town.

SEC. 9. If a constable or captain of the watch neglects or refuses to obey the orders given him, he shall forfeit not less than ten dollars to the use of the town.

SEC. 10. When said justices of the peace and municipal offi-

ENGINE MEN, FIRES, AND THE PREVENTION OF FIRES.

ENGINE MEN AND FIRES.

- SEC. 1. Appointment of engine men in towns where there is an engine for public use, and the number to each engine.
2. Engine men excused from serving as jurors; tenure of office; annual meeting to choose officers, make rules and regulations, and affix penalties.
3. Engine companies to meet once a month, and promptly endeavor to extinguish any fire that may occur in their town.
4. Discharge of negligent engine men, and selection of engine men for other duties at fires.
5. Election of fire wards, notice to same, and penalty for not entering acceptance or refusal of office in three days.
6. Duty of fire wards, and in their absence of other civil and military officers to direct proceedings at fires.
7. Powers of fire wards to require aid, appoint guards and suppress tumults; and penalty for refusing to obey them.
8. Officers appointed under special laws to have the same powers as fire wards; towns subject to same liability for damages; firemen to have same privileges and duty as other firemen, but their election not hereby controlled.
9. Compensation to owner of building demolished, whereby fire is stopped. Exception. Person dissatisfied may apply to county commissioners. Their powers.
10. Plundering at fires declared larceny.
