CHAPTER 4.

TOWNS, THEIR MEETINGS, OFFICERS, POWERS AND DUTIES.

SEC. 1. The inhabitants of each town are a body corporate, capable of suing and being sued, and of appointing attorneys and agents. (a)

SEC. 2. Every town meeting, except in the cases mentioned in the two following sections, shall be called by a warrant signed by the selectmen.

SEC. 3. The first town meeting shall be called and notified in the manner prescribed in the act of incorporation; and if no mode is therein prescribed, by any justice of the peace in the same county. When a town, once organized, is destitute of officers, a meeting may be called on application to such justice for his warrant for the purpose, made in writing by any three inhabitants thereof. When, by reason of death, removal, or resignation, a majority of the selectmen do not remain in office, a majority of those remaining in office may call a town meeting.

SEC. 4. If the selectmen unreasonably refuse to call a town meeting, any ten or more legal voters therein may apply to a justice of the peace in the county, who may issue his warrant for calling such meeting. When ten or more voters in writing request the selectmen to insert a particular thing in a warrant, they shall insert it in the next warrant issued, or shall call a special meeting for the consideration thereof.

SEC. 5. In either case, the warrant shall specify the time and place at which the meeting shall be held; and in distinct articles shall state the business to be acted upon at such meeting; and no other business shall be there acted upon. (b)

SEC. 6. The warrant may be directed to any constable of the town, or any person by name, directing him to warn and notify all persons qualified to vote at such meeting, to assemble at the time and place appointed.

SEC. 7. Such meeting shall be notified by the person to whom the warrant is directed by posting an attested copy thereof in some public and conspicuous place in said town seven days before the meeting, unless the town has appointed, by vote, in legal meeting, a different mode, which any town may do. In either case, the person who notifies the meeting shall make return on the warrant, stating the manner of notice, and the time when it was given. (c)

SEC. 8. Sections four, five, six and seven apply to cities and the municipal officers of cities, the same as to towns and the selectmen of towns, and when any meeting thus provided for is called in cities, it shall be by warrants posted in each ward.

SEC. 9. The meetings of any village corporation may be notified by the person to whom the warrant is directed, by posting attested copies in two or more public and conspicuous places within the corporation limits seven days before the meeting, instead of in the manner provided by the act creating such corporation; provided, that such corporation shall first, at a legal meeting, designate at what and how many places such notices shall be posted.
