SEC. 3. Every itinerant vendor, whether principal or agent, before commencing business, shall take out a state license and local licenses in the manner hereinafter set forth, but nothing herein contained shall affect the right of any municipal officers to make such regulations relative to itinerant vendors as may be permissible under the general law or under any municipal charter.

Every itinerant vendor desiring to do business in this state shall deposit with the secretary of state the sum of five hundred dollars as a special deposit, and after such deposit, upon application in proper form and the payment of a further sum of twenty-five dollars as a state license fee, the secretary of state shall issue to him an itinerant vendor's license, authorizing him to do business in the state in conformity with the provisions of this chapter for the term of one year from the date thereof. Every license shall set forth a copy of the application upon which it is granted. Such license shall not be transferable nor give authority to more than one person to sell goods as an itinerant vendor, either by agent or clerk or in any other way than in his own proper person, but any licensee may have the assistance of one or more persons in conducting his business, who may aid that principal but shall not act for or without him. The payment of said local license fee to said collector shall authorize such applicant who has complied with all other requirements of law to sell within the limits of said town, such goods, wares and merchandise as are described in his application, and for that purpose to carry in stock in said town, goods only of the kind or line specified in his application, and not to exceed in amount at any one time the valuation on which his local license fee for such town was computed, and to continue in force so long as such licensee shall in good faith continuously keep, offer and expose for sale the same kind or line of goods specified in his application, except that such license and authority shall in any event terminate and expire on the first day of April next following the date of application. Any itinerant vendor, who after applying or paying for a local license shall increase his stock kept, offered or exposed for sale in the town for which such local license fee was paid above the valuation on which such local license fee was computed, without first making seasonable written application to the collector of such town for a supplemental license for such excess of stock shall be fined not less than twenty, nor more than fifty dollars, and for each day such excess of stock is kept, offered or exposed for sale without payment of local license fee therefor shall be fined not less than twenty, nor more than fifty dollars,
