Sec. 1. Bonds of trustees. R. S. c. 70, § 1. Every testamentary trustee, except those hereinafter exempted, before entering on his duties, shall give bond to the judge of probate for the county where the will is proved, with sufficient sureties, resident in the state, or with a surety company authorized to do business in the state, as surety, in such sum as the judge prescribes, conditioned as follows:

I. That he will faithfully execute such trust according to the will of the testator, so far as is consistent with law.

II. That he will make a true and perfect inventory of the real estate, goods and chattels, rights and credits of such estate, to be returned into the probate office at such time as the judge orders.

III. That he will render an account of the income and profits thereof, and of his payments and expenses, once in three years, and oftener if required by the judge.

CHAP. 73

IV. That at the expiration of such trust he will settle his accounts with the judge; pay and deliver over all balances, sums of money, or other property, that are due, and give possession of the other estate, with which he is entrusted, to the persons entitled thereto.

See c. 52, § 63; c. 53, § 156; 17 Me. 140; 37 Me. 275; 61 Me. 98; 62 Me. 450; 111 Me. 255.

Sec. 2. Bonds may not be required. R. S. c. 70, § 2. In the following cases bonds shall not be required of such trustees, unless, for special reasons, the judge determines it to be necessary; but when no bond is required, they shall settle their account with the judge of probate annually:

I. When the testator has requested or directed that a bond should not be required, or that a bond without sureties be accepted.

II. When all the parties interested in the trust fund, if of full age and legal capacity, in writing signify to the judge their request that a bond shall not be required.

84 Me. 48.

Sec. 3. Trustee, neglecting to give bond; examination of bond. R. S. c. 70, § 3. Every person appointed a testamentary trustee, who neglects to give bond within the time allowed therefor by the judge, shall be considered to decline the trust. And whenever any trustee settles an account in probate court, unless such account is a final one, the judge of probate shall examine his bond, and the same proceedings shall be had in relation thereto as are provided in section twenty-five of chapter seventy-two relating to bonds of guardians.

See c. 77, § 2.

Sec. 4. Non-resident testamentary trustee shall appoint an agent in the state. 1915, c. 239. Any testamentary trustee, who is appointed in but resides out of this state, shall not enter upon the duties of his trust until he shall, by a writing filed and recorded in the registry of probate for the county in which he is appointed, have appointed an agent residing in this state, and, by such writing, shall have agreed that the service of any legal process against him as such testamentary trustee, or that the service of any such process against him in his individual capacity in any action founded upon or arising out of any of his acts or omissions as such testamentary trustee shall, if made on said agent, have like effect as if made on himself personally within the state, and such service shall have such effect. The bond of a non-resident testamentary trustee shall not be approved until such appointment, with the acceptance in writing of the person appointed, is so filed. If any agent appointed under this section dies or removes from the state before the final settlement of the accounts of his principal, another appointment shall be made, filed and recorded as above provided, and the powers of an agent appointed under the provisions of this section shall not be revoked prior to the final settlement of the estate unless another appointment shall be made as herein provided. The name and address of such agent shall be indorsed by the agent upon every account of the guardian before same is allowed. Neglect or refusal by a testamentary trustee to comply with any provision of this section shall be cause for removal.

Sec. 5. Trustee may resign, or be removed, after notice. R. S. c. 70, § 4. Such trustee at his own request may be allowed to resign his trust, when it seems proper to the judge; no person succeeding to such trust as executor or administrator of a former trustee, is required to accept or retain it against his will; and when any trustee, appointed either by the testator or the judge, becomes insane or otherwise evidently unsuitable to discharge his trust, the judge, upon notice to him and all others interested, may remove him and appoint another.

Sec. 6. Power of a trustee thus appointed. R. S. c. 70, § 5. Every trustee, appointed by the judge, shall have and exercise the same powers, rights and duties, as sole or joint trustee, as if he had been appointed by the testator, and the trust estate vests in him accordingly; and the judge may order such conveyances to be made by the former trustee or his representatives, or by the remaining trustees, as are proper to vest in the new trustee, solely or jointly, such estate and effects.

Sec. 7. Bond. R. S. c. 70, § 6. Every trustee, appointed by the judge, shall, before entering on his duties, give bond as aforesaid; but the judge may dispense with the making and returning of an inventory by any substituted trustee, when he thinks it unnecessary, and the condition of the bond shall be altered accordingly; but without such bond, accepted by the judge, no right or authority vests in such trustee.

Sec. 8. Inventory shall be returned by trustee. R. S. c. 70, § 7. 1915, c. 297. When a trustee is required to return an inventory, the estate and effects shall be appraised by disinterested appraisers, appointed and sworn, as in case of the estates of deceased persons. Only one appraiser may be appointed if in the opinion of the judge or register the nature of the property makes it desirable so to do; otherwise three appraisers shall be appointed. Warrants for inventories may be revoked by the judge for cause, and new ones issued, if deemed necessary.

Sec. 9. Reference or compromise. R. S. c. 70, § 8. The judge may authorize any trustee to refer or compromise claims by or against the trust estate.

Sec. 10. Courts may direct trust estates to be sold, and moneys to be invested. R. S. c. 70, § 9. Any judge of probate, having jurisdiction of the trust, and the supreme judicial court in any county, on application of the trustee, or of any person interested in the trust estate, after notice to all interested, may authorize or require him to sell any real or personal estate held by him in trust, and to invest the proceeds thereof, with any other trust moneys in his hands, in real estate, or in any other manner most for the interest of all concerned therein; and may give such further directions as the case requires, for managing, investing and disposing of the trust fund, as will best effect the objects of the trust.

See c. 82, § 6, ¶ x; 33 Me. 553; 50 Me. 541; 84 Me. 555.

Sec. 11. Equity power as to trusts. R. S. c. 70, § 10. Either of said courts may hear and determine, in equity, all other matters relating to the trusts herein mentioned.

Sec. 13. Executors becoming trustees by operation of law. R. S. c. 70, § 12. The foregoing provisions are applicable to executors, who, by the provisions of a will, become trustees by operation of law without express appointment; but they are not required to return another inventory.

Such new trustee, upon giving the bonds and security required, shall have and exercise the same powers, rights and duties, whether as a sole or joint trustee, as if he had been originally appointed, and the trust estate vests in him in like manner as it had or would have vested in the trustee in whose place he is substituted.
