Sec. 1. Forms of writs remain until changed by court. R. S. c. 83, § 1. The forms of writs in civil actions remain as established; but the supreme judicial court, by general rules, may make such alterations therein, for all courts, as changes in the law or other causes require.

62 Me. 165.

Sec. 2. Actions to be commenced by original writs; framed to be capias and attachment, or original summons. R. S. c. 83, § 2. All civil actions, except scire facias and other special writs, shall be commenced by original writs; which, in the supreme judicial court, may be issued by the clerk in term time or vacation, and framed to attach the goods and estate of the defendant, and for want thereof to take the body, or as an original summons, with or without an order to attach goods and estate; and in actions against corporations and in other cases where goods or estate are attached, and the defendant is not liable to arrest, the writ and summons may be combined in one. A writ issued by the clerk of any county, may be made returnable in any other county in which the action might be legally brought.

See c. 82, § 5; 12 Me. 196; 34 Me. 10; 39 Me. 142, 503; 60 Me. 352; 63 Me. 30; 66 Me. 251; 71 Me. 28, 406; 81 Me. 291; 87 Me. 436; 111 Me. 92.

Sec. 3. Justice writs. R. S. c. 83, § 3. Writs issued by a trial justice, or judge of a municipal or police court, shall be signed by him, or by the clerk or recorder of such court, and sealed.

See c. 88, § 7.

Sec. 4. Attachment and arrest on scire facias. R. S. c. 83, § 4. All writs of scire facias may contain a direction to the officer serving them, to attach the property of the defendants and to arrest their bodies, when liable to arrest, as in writs of attachment.

71 Me. 406.

Sec. 5. Unknown defendant may be sued by assumed name. R. S. c. 83, § 5. When the name of a defendant is not known to the plaintiff, the writ may issue against him by an assumed name; and if duly served, it shall not be abated for that cause, but may be amended on such terms as the court orders.

Indorsement of Writs.

Sec. 6. Indorsement of writ, petition or bill. R. S. c. 83, § 6. Every writ original, or scire facias, of error, of audita querela, petition for writ of certiorari, for review, or for partition, and bill in equity shall, when the plaintiff, petitioner or complainant is not an inhabitant of the state, upon motion filed in court at the first term, as of course, be indorsed by some sufficient inhabitant of the state, or security for costs furnished by deposit in court, in such amount as the court shall direct; and if pending such suit the plaintiff, petitioner or complainant removes from the state, such an indorser shall be procured or security for costs furnished on motion of the defendant or other party to the suit; but if one of such plaintiffs, petitioners or complainants is an inhabitant of the state, no indorser or security shall be required except by special order of court.

3 Me. 28, 217; 10 Me. 46; 38 Me. 460; 39 Me. 132; 43 Me. 178; 51 Me. 479; 56 Me. 147; 72 Me. 374; 76 Me. 599; 79 Me. 51; 81 Me. 291; 92 Me. 247.

Sec. 7. Liability of indorser; must be sued within a year. R. S. c. 83, § 7. In case of avoidance or inability of the plaintiff or petitioner, the indorser is liable, in an action on the case, brought within one year after the original judgment, in the court in which it was rendered, to pay all costs recovered against the plaintiff. A return upon the execution by an officer of the county, where the indorser lives, that he has demanded of the indorser payment thereof, and that he has neglected to pay, or to show the officer personal property sufficient to satisfy the execution, or that he cannot find the indorser within his precinct, is conclusive evidence of his liability in the suit.

11 Me. 445, 467, 492; 15 Me. 67; 16 Me. 20; 20 Me. 388; 24 Me. 228, 241, 355; 26 Me. 42; 39 Me. 132; 43 Me. 177; 47 Me. 341; 78 Me. 166.

Sec. 8. Court may require new indorser or additional deposit. R. S. c. 83, § 8. If pending such suit, petition or process, any such indorser or deposit becomes insufficient or such indorser removes from the state, the court may require a new and sufficient indorser or additional deposit, and by consent of the defendant the name of the original indorser may be struck out; and such new indorser shall be liable or such deposit holden for all costs from the beginning of the suit; and if such new indorser is not provided or security furnished within the time fixed by the court, the action shall be dismissed and the defendant shall recover his costs.

Actions, Where to be Brought.

Sec. 9. Personal and transitory actions, where to be commenced; transfer from one county to another. R. S. c. 83, § 9. 1915, c. 167. When the plaintiff and defendant live in different counties at the commencement of any such action, except process of foreign attachment, and during its pendency one party moves into the same county with the other, it may on motion of either, be transferred to the county where both then live, if the court thinks that justice will thereby be promoted; and be tried, as if originally commenced and entered therein; provided, however, that suits by the assignee of a non-negotiable chose in action, when brought in the supreme judicial court or a superior, municipal, or police court, shall be commenced in the county in which the original creditor might have maintained his action; and when brought before a trial justice, the writ shall be made returnable before a magistrate who would have had jurisdiction had the chose in action not been assigned.

Sec. 12. Jurisdiction obtained by attachment. R. S. c. 83, § 12. In all actions commenced in any court proper to try them, jurisdiction shall be sustained, if goods, estate, effects or credits of any defendant are found within the state and attached on the original writ; and service shall be made as provided in section twenty-one.

81 Me. 462.

Sec. 15. Certain actions in behalf of the state may be brought in any county. R. S. c. 83, § 15. An action in behalf of the state to enforce the collection of state taxes upon any corporation, or to recover of any person or corporation moneys due the state, public funds or property belonging to the state, or the value thereof, may be brought in any county; provided, that on motion of the defendant, any justice of the supreme judicial court, holding the term at which such action is returnable, may, for sufficient reasons shown, remove the same to the docket of said court in any other county for trial, and may upon such removal, award costs to the defendant for one term, to be paid by the treasurer of state on presentation of the certificate of the amount thereof, from the clerk of courts of the county from which said action is transferred.

When goods or estate are attached on either of said writs, a separate summons, in form by law prescribed, shall be delivered to the defendant, or left at his dwelling-house or last and usual place of abode, fourteen days before the sitting of the court to which it is returnable, which is sufficient service.

Such personal property may be attached on writs issued by a trial justice, or judge of a police or municipal court in any county, when directed to the proper officer.

If the defendant, in writing, requests the officer making the attachment to allow said property attached to remain upon the premises where found until he may give a bond dissolving said attachment, the officer shall not remove said property until the defendant has had a reasonable opportunity to give said bond.

Sec. 26. Attachment of hay and animals, left in hands of debtor. R. S. c. 83, § 26. When hay in a barn, horses or neat cattle are attached, and are suffered to remain, by permission of the officer, in the defendant's possession on security given for their safe-keeping and delivery to the officer, they are not subject to a second attachment to the prejudice of the first.

The clerk shall receive the copy, noting thereon the time, enter it in a suitable book, and keep it on file for the inspection of those interested therein. When the attachment is made in an unincorporated place, such copy shall be filed and recorded in the registry of deeds, for the registry district in which said unincorporated place is located.

Sec. 30. Attachments on same writ may be made in different counties and by different officers. R. S. c. 83, § 30. Different attachments in one or more counties may be made successively upon the same writ, and by different officers, before service of the summons upon the person whose property is attached; but none after such service. Personal property attached by a coroner may be again attached by a sheriff, deputy sheriff or constable, subject to the former attachment, by giving notice thereof to the coroner and furnishing him with a copy of the precept within a reasonable time, and so property attached by the last named officers may be again attached by a coroner in like manner; and personal property attached by a constable may be again attached by a coroner or by a deputy in the same manner.

At the request of either party interested, the officer shall give notice of the time and place of appraisal, with the names of the parties to the action, and of the supposed owner of the property, by posting notices thereof in two or more public places in the town where it was attached, or by giving personal notice thereof to all parties to the suit in which it is attached, four days at least before the appraisal. He shall prepare a schedule of the property, and cause three disinterested appraisers, acquainted with the nature and value of such goods, to be appointed, one by the creditor, one by the debtor, and one by himself; and if the creditor or debtor neglects to appoint, he shall appoint one in his behalf.

The appraisers shall be sworn by the officer without fee, or by a justice of the peace or trial justice, and shall examine such property; and if in their opinion, any part of it is liable to perish, be wasted, be greatly reduced in value by keeping, or kept at great expense, they shall appraise it at its value in money.

CHAP. 86

Sec. 35. Property to be delivered to debtor on depositing money or giving bond to satisfy judgments; bond to be returned with officer's doings. R. S. c. 83, § 35. Thereupon, at the request of the debtor, the property shall be delivered to him, on his depositing with the officer the appraised value thereof, in money, or giving bond to him with two sufficient sureties, conditioned to pay him said value, or satisfy all judgments recovered in the suits in which the property is attached, if demanded before the attachments expire, or within thirty days after the time when the creditors might demand payment out of the proceeds of the property if sold as hereinafter provided; and he shall return such bond with the writ on which the first attachment is made, with a return of his doings in relation thereto.

31 Me. 155; 36 Me. 166.

Sec. 36. Bond may be sued by any creditor. R. S. c. 83, § 36. If the bond is forfeited, any one or more of the creditors may bring an action of debt thereon in the name of the officer, and shall indorse their names on the writ. If judgment is for the defendants, execution for costs shall be issued against them jointly, or one against each for his proportion, as the court thinks just. If judgment is for the plaintiffs, the money recovered shall be applied to pay their necessary expenses in prosecuting the suit, not reimbursed by costs recovered of the defendants; and the residue belongs to the attaching creditors according to their priorities; but no execution shall be awarded for the use of any creditor, without reserving what may be due on any prior attachment, whether the creditor therein is a party to the suit on the bond or not.

Sec. 37. Attaching creditor, not a party to the suit on the bond, may avail himself thereof, or of the judgment therein. R. S. c. 83, § 37. An attaching creditor not a party to such suit, on his motion before final judgment therein, may become a party on such terms as the court orders, as if he had been a party originally; and his name shall then be indorsed on the writ; or he may bring scire facias on the judgment and recover the sum due him on the bond. But no creditor whose cause of action on the bond accrued more than a year prior to the suit thereon, shall have judgment or execution therein; nor bring such scire facias unless within a year after the cause of action accrued.

Sec. 38. Sale after appraisal. R. S. c. 83, § 28. If such property, after its appraisal, is not delivered to the debtor as aforesaid, the officer shall sell it, make return of all his doings relating thereto, and hold and dispose of the proceeds as in a sale by consent.

48 Me. 535; 61 Me. 531.

Sec. 39. Proceeds may be further attached in hands of the officer. R. S. c. 83, § 39. The proceeds of such property sold by consent or after an appraisal, may be further attached by the officer as property of the defendant while remaining in his hands; and held and disposed of as if the property itself had been attached; but after retaining enough to satisfy all attachments existing thereon at any time, nothing herein shall prevent his paying the surplus to the debtor.

48 Me. 538; 69 Me. 388.

Sec. 40. Right by priority in case of sale, preserved. R. S. c. 83, § 40. When goods, which are sold, or appraised and delivered to the debtor in the manner before provided, have been attached by several creditors, any one of them may demand and receive satisfaction of his judgment, notwithstanding any prior attachments, if he is otherwise entitled to demand the money, and a sufficient sum is left of the proceeds of the goods, or of their appraised value, to satisfy all prior attachments.

Sec. 41. Replevin of property attached and claimed by one not a party to suit; sale. R. S. c. 83, § 41. When personal property, attached on mesne process, is claimed by a person not a party to the suit, he may replevy it within ten days after notice given him therefor by the attaching creditor, and not afterwards; and after that, the attaching officer, without impairing the rights of such person, at the request and on the responsibility of the plaintiff, and with consent of other attaching creditors, if any, may sell it at auction as on execution, unless the debtor claims it as his, and forbids the sale.

59 Me. 112; 75 Me. 444.

How Property of Part Owners, When Attached, May Be Disposed Of.

Sec. 42. Property of part owner attached, shall be appraised and delivered to another owner, on giving a bond; bond shall be returned with writ. R. S. c. 83, § 42. When personal property is attached in a suit against one or more part owners thereof, at the request of another part owner, it shall be appraised as hereinbefore provided, one appraiser to be chosen by the creditor, one by the officer and the other by the requesting part owner; and thereupon it shall be delivered to such part owner on his giving bond to the officer with two sufficient sureties, conditioned to restore it in like good order, pay the appraised value of the defendant's share therein, or satisfy all judgments recovered in the attaching suits, if demanded within the time during which it would be held by the attachments. Such bond shall be returned with the writ, with the doings of the officer thereon, and if forfeited, like proceedings may be had as are provided in section thirty-six.

50 Me. 397.

Sec. 43. Part owner so paying, has lien on property, and may sell; but if attachment is dissolved, must restore it. R. S. c. 83, § 43. If any part of such appraised value is so paid, the defendant's share of the property is thereby pledged to the party paying; and if not redeemed, he may sell it, and account to the defendant for the balance, if any; but if the attachment is dissolved, he shall restore such share to the defendant or to the attaching officer for him.

Attachment of Property Mortgaged or Pledged.

Sec. 44. Attachment of personal property mortgaged, pledged, or under lien. R. S. c. 83, § 44. Personal property not exempt from attachment, mortgaged, pledged or subject to any lien created by law, and of which the debtor has the right of redemption, may be attached, held and sold as if unencumbered, if the attaching creditor first tenders or pays to the mortgagee, pledgee or holder, the full amount unpaid on the demand so secured thereon.

50 Me. 128, 397; 58 Me. 419; 60 Me. 378; 84 Me. 232; 85 Me. 241; 113 Me. 64.

CHAP. 86

Sec. 45. When mortgaged property is attached, no action against officer until after notice. R. S. c. 83, § 45. When personal property, attached on a writ or seized on execution, is claimed by virtue of such mortgage, pledge or lien, the claimant shall not bring an action against the attaching officer therefor, until he has given him at least forty-eight hours' written notice of his claim and the true amount thereof; and the officer or creditor may, within that time, discharge the claim by paying or tendering the amount due thereon, or he may restore the property.

58 Me. 31; 59 Me. 114; 60 Me. 378; 63 Me. 465; 72 Me. 71; 73 Me. 199; 78 Me. 81; 82 Me. 420; 83 Me. 351, 381; 84 Me. 232; 100 Me. 289; 113 Me. 62, 64.

Sec. 46. Mortgagee must account within ten days after notice; penalty for false account. R. S. c. 83, § 46. The officer may give the claimant written notice of his attachment; and if he does not, within ten days, thereafter, deliver to the officer a true account of the amount due on his claim, he thereby waives the right to hold the property thereon; and if his account is false, he forfeits to the creditor double the amount of the excess, to be recovered in an action on the case.

58 Me. 31, 419; 59 Me. 114; 60 Me. 378; 83 Me. 350; 84 Me. 232; 113 Me. 61.

Sec. 47. If creditor redeems, and officer sells, proceedings. R. S. c. 83, § 47. If the creditor redeems such property, and it is subsequently sold by the officer, he shall, from the proceeds, first pay to the creditor the amount with interest paid by him to redeem, and apply the balance, if any, to the debt on which it was attached or seized on execution.

When Attaching Officer Dies, or Is Removed, or Property Is Replevied.

Sec. 48. Goods attached by an officer, are not assets of his estate. R. S. c. 83, § 48. Personal property attached by an officer and in his possession, and his claim for damages when it is taken from him, remain subject to such attachment in case of his death, as if he were alive, and are not assets belonging to his estate.

Sec. 49. If replevied, are liable to further attachments. R. S. c. 83, § 49. Such property replevied from the officer, is liable to further attachments, as if in his possession; and if there is judgment for a return in the replevin suit, the plaintiff and his sureties are liable for the whole property or its value, although some attachments were made after the replevin.

Sec. 50. If officer dies or is removed, property attached by him is liable to further attachments by other officers; how such attachments may be made. R. S. c. 83, § 50. If an attaching officer dies or is removed from office while the attachment is in force, whether the property was in his possession or not, it and its proceeds may be further attached by any other officer, the same as it might have been by the first officer. Such further attachments shall be made by a return setting forth an attachment in common form and by whom the property was previously attached; and if the goods have not been replevied, by leaving a certified copy of the writ, omitting the declaration, and of the return of that attachment, with the former officer, if living, or if dead, with his executor or administrator, or if none has been appointed, with the person having possession of the goods; or if the goods have been replevied, and the officer who made the original attachment is dead, such copy shall be left with his executors or administrators, or with the plaintiff in replevin; and the attachment shall be considered as made, when such copy is delivered in either of the modes before described.

Sec. 51. Limitation of right to attach goods replevied. R. S. c. 83, § 51. Goods, taken by replevin from an attaching officer, shall not be further attached as property of the original defendant in any other manner, than that provided in the two preceding sections, so long as they are held by the person who replevied them, or by any one holding under him, unless the original defendant has acquired a new title to the goods.

Attachment and Actions When a Party Dies.

Sec. 52. Attachments, when dissolved by death of insolvent. R. S. c. 83, § 52. The attachment of personal property continues in force after the death of the debtor as if living, unless before a sale thereof on execution, his estate is decreed insolvent; but it is dissolved by such decree, and the officer, on demand thereafter, shall restore such property to the executor or administrator on payment of his legal fees and charges of keeping.

See §§ 69, 70; 1 Me. 333; 46 Me. 353; 73 Me. 421.

Sec. 53. Liability if property is sold before demand; set-off not allowed. R. S. c. 83, § 53. If, after such decree and before such demand, the officer has sold the property on execution, he is liable to the executor or administrator in an action, not of trespass, but for money had and received, for the proceeds, if in his hands; but if paid over to the judgment creditor, such creditor is so liable; and he shall not set off any demand which he has against the executor or the administrator, or against the estate of the deceased.

Sec. 54. Appraisal of property under attachment. R. S. c. 83, § 54. After the death of a defendant and before a decree of insolvency on his estate, the executor or administrator may demand of the attaching officer a certified copy of his return on the writ, with a description of the property attached, so that it may be described in the inventory of the estate subject to the attachment, and the appraisers may demand a view thereof so as to appraise it; and if the officer fails to comply with either demand, he forfeits to the executor or administrator not less than ten, nor more than thirty dollars.

Sec. 55. Actions by officers for goods attached and taken from them, do not abate by party's death. R. S. c. 83, § 55. An action, brought by an officer for taking from him personal property attached by him, does not abate by the death of either party; but may be prosecuted by or against his executor or administrator. If the officer is dead and his representative recovers the property or money, it shall be held and applied as if he were alive; but if he fails to recover, he shall return the property or pay the damages awarded in full, although the estate of the deceased is insolvent.

Sec. 56. If officer dies pending suit and no administrator is appointed, party in interest may carry on suit. R. S. c. 83, § 56. If an officer authorized to serve precepts, dies pending a suit for or against him for official neglect or misconduct, and no administration is granted on his estate within three months thereafter, the party for whose benefit the suit is so prosecuted or defended, may carry it on in his own name by entering his appearance and giving security for costs, as the court directs.

Attachment of Real Estate.

Sec. 57. Real estate and interests subject to attachment; officer need not view. R. S. c. 83, § 57. All real estate liable to be taken in execution as provided in chapter eighty-one; the right to cut and carry away grass and timber from land sold by this state or Massachusetts, the soil of which is not sold; and all other rights and interests in real estate, may be attached on mesne process, and held to satisfy the judgment recovered by the plaintiff; but the officers need not enter on or view the estate to make such attachment.

See c. 81, §§ 1, 32; c. 100, § 7; 10 Me. 119; 14 Me. 34; 19 Me. 52; 23 Me. 166, 172; 27 Me. 451; 28 Me. 414; 35 Me. 523; 39 Me. 344; 42 Me. 286, 325; 46 Me. 437, 481; 52 Me. 357; 55 Me. 571; 77 Me. 296; 88 Me. 292; 95 Me. 250; 97 Me. 495.

Sec. 58. Real estate may be attached on writs from certain municipal or police courts. R. S. c. 83, § 58. If a municipal or police court has a regular seal, and a recorder, and has jurisdiction in any action where the amount of damage claimed exceeds twenty dollars, real estate and interests in real estate attachable on writs from the supreme judicial court, may be attached on writs, or taken on executions from such court, where the amount of the debt or damage, exclusive of costs, exceeds twenty dollars.

Sec. 59. When attachment of right of redemption, holds premises free. R. S. c. 83, § 59. When a right of redeeming real estate mortgaged or taken on execution, is attached; and such estate is redeemed or the encumbrance removed before the levy of the execution, the attachment holds the premises discharged of the mortgage or levy, as if they had not existed.

39 Me. 24; 43 Me. 249.

Sec. 60. No attachment of real estate is valid, unless recorded in registry of deeds and claim is specified in writ; seizure on execution creates no lien on real estate, unless filed in registry of deeds; seizure takes effect from the time of filing. R. S. c. 83, § 60. No attachment of real estate on mesne process creates any lien thereon, unless the nature and amount of plaintiff's demand is set forth in proper counts, or a specification thereof is annexed to the writ, nor unless the officer making it, within five days thereafter, files in the office of register of deeds in the county or district in which some part of said estate is situated, an attested copy of so much of his return on the writ, as relates to the attachment, with the value of the defendant's property which he is thereby commanded to attach, the names of the parties, the date of the writ, and the court to which it is returnable. If the copy is not so filed within five days, the attachment takes effect from the time it is filed, if before the entry of the action, although it is after service on the defendant. No seizure of real estate on execution where there is no subsisting attachment thereof made in the suit in which such execution issues, creates any lien thereon, unless the officer making it, within five days thereafter files in the office of the register of deeds in the county or district in which some part of said estate is situated, an attested copy of so much of his return on said execution as relates to the seizure, with the names of the parties, the date of the execution, the amount of the debt and costs named therein, and the court by which it was issued. If the copy is not so filed, the seizure takes effect from the time it is filed. And such proceedings shall be had in such office, by the register of deeds, as are prescribed in chapter twelve. Provided, however, that all recorded deeds take precedence over unrecorded attachments and seizures.

Sec. 61. Action is not effectual against person not party thereto, until attachment is made and recorded. R. S. c. 83, § 61. No action commenced, either by original writ or bill in equity inserted in a writ of attachment, in which the title to real estate is involved, is effectual against any person not a party thereto or having actual notice thereof, until an attachment of such real estate is duly made and recorded in the registry of deeds in and for the county or district in which such real estate is situated, in the same manner as attachments of real estate in other cases are now recorded.

See c. 82, §§ 12, 13, 30; 94 Me. 322.

Sec. 62. When right of redemption or to a deed by contract, is attached, the creditor may redeem or pay. R. S. c. 83, § 62. When a right to redeem real estate under mortgage, levy, sale on execution or for taxes, or a right to a conveyance by contract, is attached, the plaintiff in the suit, before or after sale on execution, may pay or tender to the person entitled thereto, the amount required to discharge such encumbrance or fulfil such contract; and thereby the title and interest of such person vest in the plaintiff, subject to the defendant's right to redeem; but such redemption by the defendant or any person claiming under him by a title subsequent to the attachment, shall not affect such attachment, but it shall continue in force, and the prior encumbrance as against it, shall be deemed discharged.

72 Me. 515; 84 Me. 285.

Sec. 63. The mortgagee or contractor shall state, on demand, the sum due him; and on payment, shall release his interest in premises. R. S. c. 83, § 63. Such person, on written demand, shall give the plaintiff a true written statement of the amount due him; and on payment or tender thereof, shall release all his interest in the premises; and if he refuses, he may be compelled to do so by a bill in equity. But such release shall recite that under authority of this and the preceding section, the plaintiff had attached the premises and paid or tendered the amount due the grantor; the plaintiff shall thereupon hold such title in trust for the defendant, and subject to his right of redemption, without power of alienation until after one year from the termination of said suit, or from the sale of the equity on any execution recovered therein.

72 Me. 515; 84 Me. 285.

Dissolution of Attachments.

· Sec. 69. Attachment continues for thirty days after judgment; attachment of real estate expires in five years subject to certain exceptions. R. S. c. 83, § 69. 1915, c. 119. An attachment of real or personal estate continues for thirty days, and no longer, after final judgment in the original suit, and not in review or error; except attachments of real estate taken on execution; or equities of redemption sold on execution; or an obligee's conditional right to a conveyance of real estate sold on execution; or property attached and replevied; or property attached belonging to a person dying thereafter, or specially provided for in any other case; but an attachment of real estate shall expire at the end of five years from the date of filing the same in the office of the register of deeds in the county or district where the said real estate or some part of it is situated, unless the said register shall, within said period, at the request of the plaintiff or his attorney bring forward the same upon the book of attachments, and at the expiration of five years from the time of such first, or any subsequent bringing forward, such attachment shall expire unless within said period it is again brought forward in like manner. The register shall be entitled to the same fee for bringing forward such attachment upon the said book of attachments, as for the original entry thereof.

See c. 81, § 40; 4 Me. 278; 7 Me. 351; 14 Me. 431; 19 Me. 422; 43 Me. 472; 49 Me. 241, 310; 53 Me. 415; 55 Me. 527; 57 Me. 88, 89; 58 Me. 331; 59 Me. 101; 65 Me. 129; 73 Me. 421; 93 Me. 430.

ment is, in whole or in part, discharged; which the register of deeds shall record, with a reference thereto on the margin of the record of the attachment; such attachment may be discharged on the record thereof in the registry of deeds by an attorney at law authorized in writing by the plaintiff in such suit; provided, however, that said writing is first recorded or filed in said office, with a reference thereto made by the register on the margin of the record of the attachment.

73 Me. 79; 76 Me. 417.

Sec. 72. Debtor may petition for a valuation and release. R. S. c. 83, § 72. Any defendant, whose interest in real estate is attached on mesne process, may petition in writing to a justice of the supreme judicial court, in term time or vacation, setting forth the names of the parties to the suit, the court and county in which it is returnable or pending, the fact of the attachment, the particular real estate, and his interest therein, its value, and his desire to have it released from the attachment. Such justice shall issue a written notice, which shall be served on all parties to the suit living in the state, including trustees mentioned in section seventy-seven, and on the plaintiff's attorney, ten days at least before the time fixed therein for a hearing.

Sec. 73. Valuation and release on bond of debtor. R. S. c. 83, § 73. If, at the hearing, such justice finds that such interest is worth as much as the amount ordered in the writ to be attached, he shall order such defendant to give bonds to the plaintiff, with sufficient sureties, conditioned to pay the judgment recovered by the plaintiff, with his costs on the petition, within thirty days after judgment. If he finds that it is worth less, the bond shall be conditioned to pay the value of such interest so found and costs on the petition, within said time.

Sec. 74. Proceedings and bond to be filed in clerk's office. R. S. c. 83, § 74. The petition and proceedings thereon shall be filed in the clerk's office in the county where the action is pending or returnable, and recorded as a part of the case; and the bond, when approved by such justice, shall also be filed therein for the use of the plaintiff.

Sec. 75. Certificate of proceedings from clerk recorded in registry of deeds. R. S. c. 83, § 75. The clerk shall give the petitioner an attested copy of the petition and proceedings, with a certificate, under seal of the court, attached thereto, that such bond has been duly filed in his office; and the recording of such copy and certificate in the registry of deeds in the county where such real estate or interest therein lies, vacates the attachment.

Sec. 76. Same proceedings vacate attachment of personal property. R. S. c. 83, § 76. When personal property is attached, the same proceedings may be had, as provided in the four preceding sections, and the officer shall also be notified of the hearing; and the delivery to him of the copy and certificate mentioned in the preceding section, vacates the attachment, and he shall return the property to the petitioner on demand. When the property attached is stock in a banking or other corporation, or is such that the attachment must be recorded in the town clerk's office, such copy and certificate shall be filed with the officer of such corporation who shall be entitled to twenty cents for filing the same and necessary certificate thereof, or with the town clerk with whom the attachment is filed; and thereby the attachment is vacated.

Sec. 77. Foreign attachments are vacated by same proceedings. R. S. c. 83, § 77. In cases of foreign attachment, the same proceedings originated by any principal defendant may be had, except that the bond to the plaintiff shall be conditioned to pay the amount, if any, which he may finally recover against the trustees, with costs on the petition, within thirty days after judgment, not exceeding the amount of the judgment against the principal defendant. The justice shall also require the petitioner to give bond to each trustee named in the petition, with sureties, in a sum sufficient to protect him against any judgment recovered by the plaintiff and paid by him, and his legal costs in the suit, and the costs allowed him by such justice at the hearing on the petition, if he appears. Such bonds, when approved by such justice, shall be filed in the clerk's office for the use of the trustees. The delivery of the copy and certificate, hereinbefore mentioned, to the trustees, vacates the attachment of any goods, effects or credits in their hands belonging to the petitioner.

Sec. 78. Costs. R. S. c. 83, § 78. The party finally prevailing in the suit shall recover the costs of these proceedings, taxed as costs of court in other cases, and certified by such justice, and execution shall issue therefor.

Sec. 79. Attachment may be vacated on bond, conditioned to pay the judgment. R. S. c. 83, § 79. When real estate or personal property is attached on mesne process, and in all cases of attachment on trustee process, the attachment shall be vacated, upon the defendant, or some one in his behalf, delivering to the officer who made such attachment, or to the plaintiff or his attorney, a bond to the plaintiff in such sum not less than the ad damnum of the writ and with such sureties as may be approved by the plaintiff or his attorney, or by any justice or clerk of the supreme judicial or superior courts; conditioned that within thirty days after the rendition of the judgment, or after the adjournment of the court in which it is rendered, or after the certificate of decision of the law court shall be received in the county where the cause is pending, he will pay to the plaintiff or his attorney of record, the amount of said judgment including costs; the bond shall be returned by the officer with the process, for the benefit of the plaintiff, and thereupon all liability of the officer to the plaintiff by reason of such attachment shall cease. Upon request the plaintiff or his attorney, shall give to the defendant a certificate acknowledging the discharge of such attachment, which may be recorded in the registry of deeds or town clerk's office, as the case may be, in which the return of the attachment is filed. If stock in any corporation is attached, such certificate shall be filed with the officer of the corporation, with whom the return of such attachment is filed, and he shall record the same. In trustee process the alleged trustee shall not be liable to the principal defendant for the goods, effects and credits in his hands or possession until such certificate shall be delivered to him, and upon receiving such certificate, he shall be discharged from further liability in said trustee action, and need not disclose, and shall not recover costs.

Cross Actions Against Non-Residents.

Sec. 80. In cross actions and set-offs against parties out of the state, service may be made on their attorneys. R. S. c. 83, § 80. When an action is brought by a person not an inhabitant of the state, nor to be found therein to be served with process, he shall be held to answer to any action brought against him here by the defendant in the first action, if the demands in the two cases are of such a nature that the judgment or execution in one can be set off against the judgment or execution in the other; and if there are several defendants, each may bring such cross action, and set off his judgment against the judgment recovered against him and his codefendants, as if against him alone; and the service of the writs in such cross actions, made on the attorney of the plaintiff in the original suit, is as valid as if made on the party himself within the state.

Sec. 81. Actions may be continued for absent party to defend, or to set off judgment or execution. R. S. c. 83, § 81. The court in which either of such actions is pending, may grant continuance, to enable the absent party to defend, or either party to set off his judgment or execution against the other; but they shall not be delayed by the neglect or default of either party.
