General Provisions as to Procedure.

Sec. 1. Entry of actions; further service; orders of notice. R. S. c. 84, § 1. 1911, c. 149. No action can be entered after the first day of the session of the supreme judicial court without special permission. When it appears that the defendant has not had sufficient notice, the court may order such further notice as it deems proper. Any justice of the supreme judicial or of either superior court may order notice concerning any civil proceeding, in or out of term time, directing how it shall be given; and such order, when made in vacation, shall be indorsed on the process. Any order of notice that the court may grant may be ordered by a justice in vacation.

See c. 86, § 23; c. 94, § 2; 56 Me. 425; 79 Me. 42; 93 Me. 251; 100 Me. 547; 104 Me. 81; 107 Me. 276; 111 Me. 69.

Sec. 2. Appointment of auditor, surveyor and referee, in vacation. 1909, c. 240. In all civil cases pending in the supreme judicial court, or in either superior court, any justice of either court in vacation may appoint and commission an auditor or surveyor, and upon the written agreement and request of the parties or their attorneys of record such justice may, in vacation, appoint a referee and make any other order or decree, interlocutory or final, in any such case, and the clerk of said court in each county shall enter upon the docket either in term time or vacation, all such appointments and orders in any pending case.

Sec. 3. When default may be recorded; when taken off. R. S. c. 84, § 2. When service of the writ has been made, and the defendant does not appear by himself or attorney within the first three days of the term, his default may be recorded, and the charge in the declaration taken to be true. If the defendant, before the juries are dismissed for the term, enters his appearance and pays to the plaintiff such costs as the court orders, the default shall be taken off. The court may permit it to be taken off for sufficient cause.

When the defendant was an inhabitant of the state and absent from it at the time of service, and it does not appear that he has returned, or has had actual notice of the suit, the court may continue the action, not exceeding twice unless for special cause, or enter judgment on default. If the defendant was not an inhabitant of the state or within it, and had actual notice of the suit, the court may order a continuance if he does not appear at the first term.

63 Me. 360; 72 Me. 337; 81 Me. 475.

Sec. 5. Execution shall be stayed one year, unless bond is given; continuance of attachment on original writ. R. S. c. 84, § 4. When judgment is rendered on default of an absent defendant in a personal action as provided in the preceding section, execution cannot be issued thereon within one year thereafter, unless the plaintiff first gives bond to the defendant, with one or more sureties in double the amount of damages and costs, conditioned to repay the amount to the defendant if the judgment is reversed on review, to which he is entitled of right, if brought within one year, or so much of the amount recovered, as is recovered back on such review, and any attachment made on the original writ continues for one year and thirty days after said judgment is so rendered, when no bond is given; and when a bond is given, it continues for thirty days after said bond is filed with the clerk of said court.

See c. 81, § 52; 5 Me. 386; 57 Me. 599; 59 Me. 567; 63 Me. 360; 66 Me. 166;
72 Me. 337.

Sec. 6. Bond to be left with clerk; petition for review. R. S. c. 82, § 5. The bond shall be deposited with the clerk, who shall decide upon the sufficiency of the sureties, subject to an appeal to a justice of the court, and if the review of right is not so prosecuted, the defendant may, within one year after he first has notice of the judgment, petition the court for a review, and the court may grant it on such terms as it deems reasonable.

72 Me. 338.

Sec. 8. Court may allow entry of appeals at another term. R. S. c. 84, § 7. When an appeal is taken from a judgment of a trial justice or municipal or police court, and the action by mistake or accident is not entered, and the judgment has not been affirmed, the court may, on petition of either party, allow the action or complaint to be entered at another term of the court, upon reasonable terms, with the same effect as if it had been entered at the proper term.

Sec. 10. On appeals, original papers sent up, except writ and pleadings. R. S. c. 84, § 9. In cases carried from a trial justice, municipal or police court, to a higher court, all depositions and original papers, except the process by which the suit was commenced, the return of service thereon, and the pleadings, shall be certified by the proper officer, and carried up without leaving copies, unless otherwise ordered by the court having original cognizance.

Sec. 11. Proceedings not abated, etc., for want of form. R. S. c. 84, § 10. No process or proceeding in courts of justice shall be abated, arrested or reversed, for want of form only, or for circumstantial errors or mistakes which by law are amendable, when the person and case can be rightly understood. Such errors and defects may be amended, on motion of either party, on such terms as the court orders.

If the law court deems such exceptions frivolous, it shall award treble costs against the party excepting from the time the exceptions were filed. If the declaration is adjudged defective and is amendable, the plaintiff may amend upon payment of costs from the time when the demurrer was filed. If the demurrer is filed at the first term and overruled, the defendant may plead anew on payment of costs from the time when it was filed, unless it is adjudged frivolous and intended for delay, in which case judgment shall be entered. At the next term of the court in the county where the action is pending, after a decision on the demurrer has been certified by the clerk of the district to the clerk of such county, and not before, judgment shall be entered on the demurrer, unless the costs are paid, and the amendment or new pleadings filed on the second day of the term; but by leave of court the time therefor may be enlarged, or further time may be granted by the court within which to pay said costs and to file such amendment or new pleadings.

Any such justice may in vacation render judgment in any case heard by him in term time. Parties shall have the right of exception to such orders and judgments, and to other rulings on questions of law, as if judgment had been rendered in term time. Bills of exceptions in such cases shall be filed within such time as the justice orders. The account annexed shall state the number of the policy and the amount claimed as due, both as principal sum, and interest, if any. The fact that the amount claimed in the account annexed varies, from the amount found to be due the plaintiff shall not defeat the action unless there be a fraudulent claim of an excessive amount. If the defendant relies upon the breach of any condition of the policy by the plaintiff, as a defense, it shall set the same up by brief statement or special plea, at its election; and all conditions the breach of which is known to the defendant and not so specially pleaded shall be deemed to have been complied with by the plaintiff. The plaintiff by counter brief statement or replication may set up any matter waiving or legally excusing his non-compliance with conditions as alleged by the defendant. The clerk shall then place separately upon tickets in a box, the names of all jurors legally summoned and in attendance, and not excused, and the names shall be drawn from the box by the clerk, after having been thoroughly mixed, one at a time, and the first twelve persons whose names are drawn from the box shall compose the first jury; and shall be impaneled by the first two being sworn, and then the other ten in succession as they were drawn, and in such divisions as the court directs, or all at the same time; and the next twelve so drawn shall be impaneled and sworn in like manner, and shall compose the second jury; but before proceeding to the trial of any civil or criminal case, other than for an offense punishable by imprisonment for life, the clerk may, under direction of court, at the request of either party, place the names of all jurors legally summoned and in attendance, and not engaged in the trial of any other cause, separately upon tickets in a box, and the names shall be drawn from the box by the clerk, after having been thoroughly mixed, one at a time, for the purpose of constituting a jury; and each party may peremptorily challenge four jurors; but in such case all peremptory or other challenges and objections to a juror drawn, if then known, shall be made and determined, and the juror sworn or set aside, before another name is drawn, and so on until the panel is completed; provided, that the right to challenge
