Taking a deposition, affidavit or disclosure of a trustee, in any cause not pending before himself, twenty cents; for writing the same with the caption, and for the notification to the parties and witnesses, at the rate of twelve cents a page; the justice who takes such affidavit, deposition or disclosure, shall certify the fees of himself, of the witnesses, or party disclosing, and of the officers serving the notifications.

CHAP. 118

Taking a deposition in perpetual memory of the thing, the same fees as in taking other depositions.

Administering an oath in all cases, except on a trial or examination before himself, and to qualify town and parish officers, and a certificate thereof, twenty-five cents, whether administered to one or more persons at the same time.

Taking the acknowledgment of a deed with one or more seals, if it is done at the same time, and certifying the same, twenty-five cents.

Granting a warrant of appraisal in any case, and swearing appraisers, fifty cents.

Receiving a complaint, and issuing a warrant in criminal cases, fifty cents.

Entering a complaint in a criminal prosecution, swearing witnesses, rendering and recording judgment, examining, allowing, and taxing the costs, and filing the papers, seventy-five cents.

Trial of an issue in a criminal case, eighty cents; and when more than one day is used in the trial, two dollars for each day after the first, actually employed.

Recognizing persons charged with crimes for their appearance at the supreme judicial or superior courts, and for certifying and returning the same, with or without sureties, twenty-five cents.

Mittimus for the commitment of any person on a criminal accusation, twenty-five cents.

In a bastardy process, the fees may be charged as for like services in a criminal prosecution.

Drawing a rule for submission to referees, and acknowledging the same, thirty-three cents.

Writ to remove a nuisance, thirty-three cents.

Calling a meeting of a corporation, fifty cents.

For an examination of a debtor under chapter one hundred and fifteen, two dollars for each day employed in such examination, in full payment for all official services and expenses in such examination, exclusive of travel. For travel on official duty, twelve cents a mile one way; but not to be taxed for over ten miles one way, and in no case shall there be constructive travel.

In all cases where the attendance of two or more justices is required, each is entitled to the fees prescribed for all services rendered by him personally.

Sec. 3. Fees of judge of police or municipal court. R. S. c. 117, § 3. Except when otherwise expressly provided by a fixed salary, the fees of the judge of any municipal or police court, in civil proceedings, shall be the same as provided by law, and criminal proceedings shall be taxed in the same manner and at the same rate as the fees of trial justices, so far as applicable. When such judge receives a stated salary for his services from the treasury of a county, he shall account under oath to the treasurer thereof for all fees accruing to him in said capacity, towards his salary, including ten cents for the blank writ in every action entered before him; and if such fees exceed the amount of his salary for such quarter, the excess shall be by him paid over to such treasurer.

Fees of the Clerks of the Judicial Courts.

Sec. 4. Clerks of the courts. R. S. c. 117, § 4. 1909, c. 105, § 10. 1913, c. 208, § 5. For services as clerks of the supreme judicial and superior courts:

For every blank writ of attachment with a summons, or of scire facias, or an original summons, four cents.

Blank writ of replevin with the seal, signature and blank bond, eight cents.

Entry of an action, entering up and recording the judgment whether on a verdict, demurrer, nonsuit or default, sixty cents.

Copies, twelve cents a page.

Recording a petition for partition, and any order thereon, at the rate of twelve cents a page.

Recording petition and proceedings for release of attachment, and making copy and certificate, two dollars.

Making certificate of dissolution of attachment by judgment for defendant, twenty-five cents.

Entry of a rule of court upon the parties submitting a cause to referees, fifteen cents.

Proving a deed in court and certifying the same, twenty cents.

Making certificate of approval by judge, of sale of real estate and price, when husband or wife refuses to release interest and right by descent, fifty cents.

Authenticating the official signature of a magistrate, twenty-five cents.

Original or other writ of execution in personal matters, and filing the same when returned, fifteen cents.

Writ of possession in real actions, twenty-five cents.

Writ of protection or habeas corpus, twenty-five cents.

Subpoena for one witness or more, or with a duces tecum, ten cents.

Recording certificate of discharge of a soldier or seaman from the army or navy of the United States, twenty-five cents, and for a copy of such record, twenty-five cents.

Recording certificate of registration in optometry, or veterinary surgery, fifty cents.

For making up the record in an equity case, the court may allow a further sum, not exceeding ten cents a page in the whole, to be taxed by the clerk.

For each certificate, or copy of judgment or decree, in equity, twenty-five cents, which, together with the fees of the register of deeds for recording such certificate or copy, may be taxed in the costs of suit.

See § 18; c. 82, §§ 13, 30; c. 96, § 39.

Writ of review, seventy-five cents.

Writ of scire facias, forty cents.

Every writ and seal, other than before mentioned, forty cents.

Fees of Sheriffs and Their Deputies.

Sec. 5. Sheriffs and their deputies. R. S. c. 117, § 5. 1907, c. 138. 1913, c. 179. For the service of an original summons or scire facias, either by reading or copy, or for the service of a capias or attachment with summons on one defendant, fifty cents; if served on more than one defendant, fifty cents more for each.

If the sheriff, or his deputy, by written direction of the plaintiff, his agent or attorney, makes special service of any writ of attachment by attaching property, he shall receive therefor seventy-five cents, including the summons thereon; and for taking the body on a capias, fifty cents for each defendant on whom such writ is so served.

Where the officer is by law directed to leave a copy, or gives a copy of any precept upon demand, he may charge at the rate of twelve cents a page, which, in the latter case, shall be paid by the party demanding it.

If real estate is attached, the officer may charge twenty-five cents for leaving with the register of deeds an attested copy of his return and other particulars, as required by law, and instead of travel, legal postage; and the usual rate of travel from the residence of such officer to the nearest post-office; and he shall pay the register ten cents, and tax the same with his own fees.

For a bail-bond and writing the same, including principal and sureties, to be paid by the person admitted to bail, and taxed for him, if he prevails, twenty cents.

For the service of a subpoena, notice to an adverse party, or other process in which there is no command to make return, twenty-five cents; if by copy, at the rate of twelve cents a page for the copy; and travel as in other cases; and service on an adverse party, by giving him an attested copy of the notice in hand, is valid.

For levying and collecting executions in personal actions, for every dollar of the first hundred dollars, three cents; for every dollar above one hundred, and not exceeding two hundred dollars, two cents; and for every dollar above two hundred dollars, one cent.

17 Me. 433.

For serving a writ of possession, one dollar and ten cents; and if on more than one piece of land, seventy-five cents for each piece of land after the first; and the fees for levying and collecting the costs shall be the same as above provided for executions in personal actions.

For serving an execution upon a judgment of court for partition of real estate, or assignment of dower, one dollar a day and four cents a mile from the officer's place of abode to the place of service. For service of a petition to the legislature, thirty cents, and twelve cents for each page of copy, with usual travel.

For causing appraisers to be sworn, and making return of levy on real estate, fifty cents.

For each appraiser of real estate, for extending execution, or assigning dower, one dollar a day, and travel at the rate of four cents a mile going out and returning home, to be paid by the officer and charged in his return.

For advertising, in a newspaper, a right in equity of redeeming mortgaged real estate, to be sold on execution, such sum as he pays the printer therefor; for writing and posting notices of the sale of such equity in the town where the land lies, and in two adjoining towns, one dollar and for making out a deed and return of the sale of such equity, one dollar.

When the estate or interest of any person, held by a possession or improvement, is seized and sold on execution, or the franchise or other property of a corporation, or the property of an individual, is sold on execution by a process similar thereto, and advertising in like manner, the officer is entitled to the same as in the sale of an equity of redemption.

The fees of the register of deeds for recording a levy upon real estate, or the deed of the officer for the sale of real estate on execution, and all sums paid by the officer for internal revenue stamps to be affixed to such deed, shall be taxed by the officer in his return; and every officer, making a levy on real estate by appraisal, shall cause the execution and his return thereon to be recorded by the register of deeds for the district where the land lies, within three months after such levy.

For the service of a warrant, the officer is entitled to fifty cents, and fifty cents for service of a mittimus to commit a person to jail or to the house of correction, and usual travel, with reasonable expenses incurred in the conveyance of such prisoner.

87 Me. 294.

For each aid, necessarily employed in criminal cases, including expenses, one dollar a day, and in that proportion for a longer or shorter time, and four cents a mile for travel in going out and returning home.

For the service of a subpoena in criminal cases, fifty cents; unless in special cases, when the court may increase the fees to what it judges reasonable.

For attending court, and keeping the prisoner in criminal cases, seventy-five cents for every twelve hours, and in that proportion for a greater or less time.

For travel actually performed for the service of a writ, warrant, execution or other process, six cents a mile each way, from the officer's residence to the place of the service of the precept, by the usually traveled route, with all reasonable sums actually paid for boat hire, ferriage and for crossing any toll-bridge, and postage for returning the process by mail to the court to which it is returnable. Only one travel shall be allowed for any one precept, and no constructive travel; but if the same is served on more than one person, the travel may be computed from the place of service most remote from the place of return, with all further necessary travel in serving such precept.

69 Me. 597.

No charge of such officer for service, travel or expenses paid, shall be allowed, unless the items thereof are expressly stated, and the amount of each; and no fees for constructive travel shall be allowed him for the service of a subpoena, notice to an adverse party, or other process in which there is no command to make return.

For transmitting to the selectmen of towns precepts from the governor for calling special meetings for the election of representatives to congress from any district, with copies of the lists of persons previously voted for, for each town, fifty cents.

Every deputy sheriff, while in attendance upon the supreme judicial court in the several counties, and while in attendance on any court where jury trials may be held, shall receive for said attendance three dollars per day. The sheriff, at its opening, shall present to the court a list of the officers attending, with a statement of the duties of each; and the court shall determine the number necessary, and disallow charges for others.

The remuneration of the officer appointed to attend the superior court for the county of Cumberland shall be three dollars a day for such attendance.

For services under chapter one hundred and fifteen, as follows; taking a debtor before a justice or justices for disclosure, travel as in service of a writ, and attendance, twenty-five cents; for a bail or other bond, twenty-five cents; and for recommitment of a prisoner when remanded, twenty-five cents; but no dollarage or commission shall be allowed to the officer for an arrest or commitment upon execution or mesne process, except upon the money actually collected; for arresting a debtor on execution, when he discloses without giving bond, fifty cents, and travel as aforesaid; for keeping him, one dollar a day for himself and each necessary aid; for notifying the creditor and justices, twenty-five cents each, and travel as aforesaid; and no officer is required to arrest a debtor on execution, unless a written direction to do so, signed by the creditor or his attorney, is indorsed thereon, and a reasonable sum for such fees is paid or secured to him, for which he shall account to the creditor as for money collected on execution.

15 Me. 469; 71 Me. 414; 103 Me. 132; 111 Me. 35.

Fees of Coroners and Constables.

Sec. 6. Coroners' fees. R. S. c. 117, § 6. Coroners are entitled to the same fees as sheriffs for similar services, except where otherwise expressly provided.

For attending court in every trial where the sheriff is concerned, twenty-five cents, and the same for attending the jury therein.

Sec. 7. Constables' fees. R. S. c. 117, § 8. 1905, c. 59. 1909, c. 163. The fees of constables for the service and return of each venire, one dollar and fifty cents, and for actual travel six cents a mile each way in posting and delivering the notices mentioned in section nine of chapter one hundred and eleven; and in notifying the juror or jurors drawn as provided in section fourteen of said chapter, to be paid out of the county treasury; and for services which may be performed either by a deputy sheriff or a constable, the constable is allowed the same fees as a deputy sheriff, unless otherwise provided.

20 Me. 481.

Jurors and Witnesses.

Sec. 8. Fees of jurors. R. S. c. 117, § 12. 1907, c. 8. Grand and traverse jurors, attending the supreme judicial court or superior courts, and jurors attending on any other occasion prescribed by law, shall each be allowed three dollars a day for their attendance, and six cents a mile for their travel out and home, to be paid out of the county treasury.

56 Me. 307; 69 Me. 597.

Sec. 9. Fees of witnesses. R. S. c. 117, § 13. 1907, c. 66. 1909, c. 195. 1911, c. 30; c. 124. Witnesses in the supreme judicial court or superior courts or in the probate courts shall receive two dollars, and before referees, auditors or commissioners specially appointed to take testimony, one dollar and fifty cents, or before the county commissioners one dollar, for each day's attendance and six cents a mile for each mile's travel going and returning home; but the court in its discretion, may allow at the trial of any cause, civil or criminal, in said supreme judicial court or superior courts, a sum not exceeding twenty-five dollars per day for the attendance of any expert witness or witnesses at said trial, in taxing the costs of the prevailing party; but such party or his attorney of record, shall first file an affidavit, during the term at which such trial is held, and before the cause is settled, stating the name, residence, number of days in attendance and the actual amount paid or to be paid each expert witness, in attendance at such trial. And no more than two dollars per day shall be allowed or taxed by the clerk of courts, in the costs of any suit, for the per diem attendance of a witness, unless the affidavit herein provided, is filed, and the per diem is determined and allowed by the presiding justice; and before a justice of the peace, a trial justice, a judge of the municipal court, fifty cents a day attendance, and for travel, the same as the courts aforesaid.

107 Me. 288.

Allowance to Parties and Attorneys in Civil Causes.

Sec. 10. Costs to be taxed for parties, and attorneys. R. S. c. 117, § 14. Costs allowed to parties and attorneys in civil actions shall be as follows: to parties recovering costs before a trial justice, thirty-three cents for each day's attendance, and the same for every ten miles' travel; to parties recovering costs in the supreme judicial or superior courts, thirty-three cents for every ten miles' travel, and three dollars and fifty cents for attendance at each term until the action is disposed of, unless the court otherwise directs.

54 Me. 398; 55 Me. 598; 56 Me. 306; 107 Me. 157.

Costs for travel shall be taxed for the prevailing party in civil suits, according to the distance of said party or his attorney who resides nearest to the place of trial, unless said prevailing party or his attorney who resides farthest from said place of trial actually travels the greater distance for the special purpose of attending court in such cause, in which case costs shall be taxed for said last named distance, and when the action is in the name of an indorsee, and the plaintiff is the prevailing party, such costs for travel shall be taxed according to the distance of the attorney, payee or indorsee, who is nearest to the place of trial, unless the attorney, payee or indorsee, residing the greater distance from said place of trial, actually travels such greater distance for the special purpose of attending court in said cause. But no costs for travel shall be allowed for more than ten miles' distance from any justice, municipal or police court, nor for more than forty miles' distance from any other court, unless the plaintiff prevailing actually travels a greater distance, or the adverse party, if he recovers costs, by himself, his agent or attorney, in fact travels a greater distance for the special purpose of attending court in such cause.

For a power of attorney, fifty cents; and for the plaintiff's declaration, fifty cents in the supreme judicial or superior courts, but no fee for a power shall be taxed before any municipal or police court or trial justice, unless otherwise specially provided in the act establishing such court. For an issue in law or fact, there shall be allowed for an attorney's fee, two dollars and fifty cents in the supreme judicial or superior courts. A fee of five dollars shall be taxed in the plaintiff's costs for making up a conditional judgment under section ten of chapter ninety-five.

In cases of forcible entry and detainer, parties shall be allowed the same costs as in ordinary civil actions.

A party summoned as trustee and required to attend court and make a disclosure, shall be entitled to costs as follows: If the claim sued for does not exceed twenty dollars, such trustee shall be entitled to travel and attendance and twenty-five cents for the oath; and if the claim sued for exceeds twenty dollars, such trustee shall be entitled to two dollars and fifty cents in addition to the above fee, and when required to attend court for further examination such trustee shall be entitled to travel and attendance.

In all municipal and police courts the amount of costs allowed in civil actions shall depend upon the amount recovered and not upon the ad damnum in the writ; and the allowance for travel and attendance to parties recovering costs in municipal and police courts, or before any trial justice shall be limited to three terms, except that the court may, for good and sufficient cause, order such allowance for additional terms.

No costs shall accrue, be taxed or allowed, for any precept required in legal proceedings, whether in law or equity, unless the same shall issue from and bear the indorsement of an attorney at law.

Costs Taxable for the State in Criminal Prosecutions.

Sec. 11. Costs taxable for the state in criminal prosecutions. R. S. c. 117, § 15. Costs taxable for the state in criminal prosecutions shall be as follows: For the attorney acting for the state, in all cases in the supreme judicial court or superior courts, one dollar and twenty-five cents, unless there is a trial by jury, or an issue in law at the law court, in which case there shall be an additional charge of one dollar.

For the indictment in the supreme judicial court or superior court, one dollar and twenty-five cents.

For attendance, thirty-three cents a day, not to extend beyond the second week of any one term; but no fees for travel shall be allowed in any case in which the state is a party.

No attendance shall be taxed in cases of defaulted recognizances, other than is taxed in the prosecutions in which they are taken, until the return of a writ of scire facias issued thereon.

In indictments against towns for neglecting to make or repair a way, not tried by the jury, the fees taxed for the state are limited to three dollars; and the costs shall not be taxed until the action is finally disposed of.

No fees shall be allowed to complainants before the grand jury against towns for neglecting to make or repair roads; nor to any other witnesses in such cases, unless summoned by the county attorney or grand jury.

Sec. 12. Costs and expenses, how to be audited. R. S. c. 117, § 16. The established forms and mode of proceedings in criminal prosecutions shall not be changed, and the costs and expenses thereof shall be examined and audited like other county expenses, but the supreme judicial court or superior courts shall continue to allow such bills of costs.

See c. 138, § 1.

Fees Payable to State Officers.

Sec. 13. Secretary of state. R. S. c. 117, § 17. 1911, c. 152. 1913, c. 139. The secretary of state shall receive:
