Sec. 6. If defendant is entitled to custody of plaintiff. R. S. c. 106, § 6. If it appears that the defendant is bail for the plaintiff, or that, as his child, ward, apprentice, or otherwise, he is entitled to his custody, he shall have judgment for a redelivery of his body, to be held or disposed of according to law.

Sec. 7. If defendant has eloigned the plaintiff, he may be arrested and give bail. R. S. c. 106, § 7. If it appears that the defendant has eloigned the plaintiff's body, so that the officer cannot deliver him, the court, on motion, shall issue a writ of reprisal to take the defendant's body and him safely keep, so that he may be at the next term of the court, to traverse the return of said writ for replevying the plaintiff; and he may be enlarged by giving bail for his appearance at court, with two sufficient sureties, in such sum as the officer requires.

Sec. 8. Defendant, if guilty, to be imprisoned; writ of reprisal to issue; suggestion of plaintiff's death. R. S. c. 106, § 8. The defendant may traverse the return on the writ for replevying the plaintiff; and if it appears that he is not guilty of eloigning the plaintiff, he shall be discharged and recover costs; but if he does not traverse it, or if, on such traverse, it appears that the defendant did eloign the plaintiff, an alias writ of reprisal shall issue, substantially in the form heretofore established and used in the state, on which he shall be committed to jail to remain irrepleviable, until he produces the body of the plaintiff or proves his death. He may suggest the plaintiff's death, and the court shall impanel a jury to try the fact at the defendant's expense; and if the death is proved, he shall be discharged.

See 1821, c. 63, § 10. Writs of Withernam.

Sec. 9. Proceedings, if plaintiff is produced. R. S. c. 106, § 9. If the defendant, after the return of eloignment, produces the body of the plaintiff in court, the court shall deliver him from imprisonment, upon his giving the defendant such bond as hereinbefore directed to be taken by the officer, when the plaintiff is delivered by him; and for want thereof, he shall be committed to abide the judgment on the writ for replevying the plaintiff; and, in either case, the suit shall be tried as aforesaid.

Writs of Error.

Sec. 1. Issue of writs of error. R. S. c. 107, § 1. Writs of error in civil cases may issue out of the supreme judicial court or the superior court in vacation or term time, returnable to the same court.

16 Me. 82; 19 Me. 220; 23 Me. 253; 24 Me. 438; 26 Me. 420; 28 Me. 237; 29 Me. 360; 30 Me. 199, 423; 31 Me. 59, 420; 32 Me. 187; 33 Me. 251, 266, 351, 368, 511; 36 Me. 200; *59 Me. 149; 60 Me. 521; *64 Me. 204.

Sec. 2. Execution not stayed, unless bond is given and approved. R. S. c. 107, § 2. No writ of error shall stay or supersede execution in any civil action, unless the plaintiff in error, or some person in his behalf, gives bond to the defendant, conditioned, that the plaintiff shall prosecute his suit with effect, and satisfy the judgment rendered therein, in such sum and with such sureties as a justice of the court, or the clerk from whose office the writ issued, approves, according to the rules of court.

47 Me. 175.

Sec. 3. Filing of bond is deemed a delivery; effect thereof. R. S. c. 107, § 3. When the bond is given, the filing of it in the clerk's office for the defendant's use is a delivery thereof; no execution shall be issued on the judgment complained of, while such suit is pending; and if execution has already issued, the clerk shall make a certificate of the issue of the writ and filing of the bond; and after notice thereof to the officer holding the execution, further proceedings thereon shall be stayed.

Sec. 4. Costs to prevailing party; damages and costs, if defendant prevails. R. S. c. 107, § 4. The prevailing party in such writ in a civil action shall be entitled to costs; and if the judgment is affirmed, the defendant in error shall be entitled to not less than six, nor more than twelve per cent a year on the amount of his former judgment, as damages for his delay, and the court may allow him double costs.

12 Me. 459; 14 Me. 196; 72 Me. 260.

Sec. 5. Reversal of judgment does not vitiate sale of real estate; levy is void. R. S. c. 107, § 5. When a debtor's property has been sold on an execution, and the judgment on which it was issued is afterwards reversed on writ of error, the title of the purchaser is not affected thereby; but the defendant in the original suit may maintain an action of assumpsit against the original plaintiff for so much of said judgment as is satisfied. But the levy of an execution upon real estate is void, when the original judgment upon which it issued is reversed by writ of error, brought within a year thereafter; and a copy of the final judgment duly certified by the clerk of courts in the county where such judgment is rendered shall be recorded within thirty days from the rendition thereof, in the registry of deeds where such levy is recorded.

51 Me. 152, 556.

Sec. 6. One co-defendant may bring writ of error, on giving security to the others. R. S. c. 107, § 6. When there were several defendants in the original judgment, either may bring a writ of error in the name of all, on furnishing to each co-defendant requiring it, such security against all liabilities arising therefrom, as the court deems reasonable; and at any stage of the proceedings, the court shall, on motion of any such co-defendant, require such security.

Sec. 7. Form of writ of error. R. S. c. 107, § 7. The writ of error may be a scire facias issued substantially as follows, without any assignment of errors, or other preliminary proceedings:

The scire facias shall specify the errors of fact and law, upon which the plaintiff relies; and a transcript of the record, process, and proceedings, attested by the clerk of the court or trial justice rendering the judgment, without further authentication or the introduction of the record, is competent evidence in such trial; and in case of mistake in the transcript, the court may grant leave to amend.

Writs of Mandamus.

Sec. 17. Presentation of petition; questions of law reserved; issue and return of writ. R. S. c. 107, § 17. A petition for a writ of mandamus may be presented to a justice of the supreme judicial court or of the superior court in any county in term time or vacation, who may, upon notice to all parties, hear and determine the same, or may reserve questions of law arising thereon, upon exceptions or otherwise, for the determination of the law court, which may hear and determine the same as hereinafter provided; but in all cases where exceptions are alleged to any rulings, findings, or decrees made upon such petition, the case shall be proceeded with as if no exceptions had been taken, until a decision shall be had and the peremptory writ shall have been ordered, so that the overruling of such exceptions would finally dispose of the case, which shall then be certified to the chief justice of the supreme judicial court as provided in the following section. When a writ of mandamus issues, the person required to make return thereto shall make his return to the first writ, and the person suing the writ may by an answer traverse any material facts contained in such return, or may demur. If the party suing the writ maintains the issue on his part, his damages shall be assessed, and a judgment rendered that he recover the same with costs, and that a peremptory writ of mandamus be granted; otherwise the party making the return shall recover costs. No action shall be maintained for a false return to a writ of mandamus. After judgment and decree that the peremptory writ be granted, the justice of the court before which the proceedings are pending shall forthwith certify to the chief justice for decision, all exceptions which may be filed and allowed to any rulings, findings, or decrees made at any stage of the proceedings. The excepting party shall, within fifteen days thereafter, forward to the chief justice his written argument upon such exceptions and shall, within said fifteen days, furnish the adverse party, or his attorney, with a copy of such argument; the adverse party shall, within fifteen days after receipt of such copy, forward to the chief justice his written argument in reply; and thereupon the justices of said court shall consider said cause immediately, and decide thereon and transmit their decision to the clerk of the court where the petition is pending, and final judgment shall be entered accordingly. If such person appears, he shall be heard in such manner as the court may direct, and in proper cases he may be allowed to frame and sign the return to the first writ, and to stand as the real party in the proceedings.

Quo Warranto.

Sec. 21. Quo warranto proceedings regulated. R. S. c. 107, § 21. Petitions, informations, and other processes in quo warranto proceedings may be made returnable before the supreme judicial court or the superior court, in term time or in vacation, as and when the court or any justice thereof may order, and by like order the cause may be heard in vacation if the justice hearing the same shall determine that justice so requires.
