Perjury and Subornation of Perjury.

Sec. 1. Definition and punishment of perjury and subornation of perjury. R. S. c. 124, § 1. Whoever, when required to tell the truth on oath or affirmation lawfully administered, wilfully and corruptly swears or affirms falsely to a material matter, in a proceeding before any court, tribunal or officer created by law, or in relation to which an oath or affirmation is authorized by law, is guilty of perjury; and whoever procures another to commit perjury is guilty of subornation of perjury; and shall be punished in either case, if the perjury was committed in a trial of a crime, punishable by imprisonment for life, by imprisonment for any term of years not less than ten, and if committed in any other case, by imprisonment for not more than ten years.

See c. 7, § 19; c. 8, § 110; c. 23, § 5; c. 35, § 53; c. 44, § 6; c. 49, § 17; c. 54, § 44; c. 60, § 14; c. 61, § 18; c. 73, § 5; c. 79, § 6; c. 100, § 77; c. 158, § 18; 26 Me. 36, 71; 39 Me. 339; 49 Me. 413; 50 Me. 217; *59 Me. 141; 69 Me. 219; *76 Me. 66; 106 Me. 507; 115 Me. 251.

Sec. 2. Attempted subornation of perjury; penalty. R. S. c. 124, § 2. Whoever wilfully and corruptly endeavors to incite or procure another to commit perjury, although it is not committed, shall be punished by imprisonment for not more than five years.

Sec. 3. Proceedings by any court, on presumption of perjury committed before such court. R. S. c. 124, § 3. When a witness or party, legally sworn and examined, or making affidavit in any proceeding in a court of record, testifies in such a manner as to raise a reasonable presumption that he is guilty of perjury therein, the court may immediately order him committed to prison, or take his recognizance with sureties for his appearance to answer to a charge of perjury; and may bind over any witnesses present to appear at the proper court to prove such charge, order the detention so long as necessary of any papers or documents produced and deemed necessary in the prosecution of such charge, and cause notice of such proceedings to be given to the state's attorney for the same county.

Sec. 4. Form of indictment for perjury in court. R. S. c. 124, § 4. Indictments against persons for committing perjury before any court or tribunal drawn substantially as hereinafter provided, are sufficient in law, viz.:

“STATE OF MAINE.

_____, ss. At the _____ court begun and held at _____, within and for said county of _____, on the _____ Tuesday of _____, in the year of our Lord nineteen hundred and _____.

The jurors for said state, upon their oath present, that A. B., of _____, in the county of _____,” (addition,) “at _____, in the said county of _____, on the _____ day of _____, in the year of our Lord nineteen hundred and _____, appeared as a witness in a proceeding in which C. D. and E. F. were parties, then and there being heard before a tribunal of competent jurisdiction, and committed the crime of perjury, by testifying as follows:” (here set out the matter sworn to and alleged to be false,) “which said testimony was material to the issue then and there pending in said proceeding, against the peace of said state and contrary to the form of the statute in such case made and provided.

A true bill.

_____, Foreman.

_____, County Attorney.”

Bribery and Corrupt Agreements.

Sec. 5. Bribery and acceptance of bribes by public officers; penalty. R. S. c. 124, § 5. Whoever gives, offers or promises to an executive, legislative or judicial officer, before or after he is qualified or takes his seat, any valuable consideration or gratuity whatever, or does, offers or promises to do, any act beneficial to such officer, with intent to influence his action, vote, opinion or judgment, in any matter pending; or that may come legally before him in his official capacity, shall be punished by a fine of not more than three thousand dollars, or by imprisonment for not more than five years; and whoever accepts such bribe or beneficial thing, in the manner and for the purpose aforesaid, shall forfeit his office, be forever disqualified to hold any public office, trust or appointment under the state, and shall be punished by a fine of not more than five thousand dollars, or by imprisonment for not more than ten years. Sheriffs, deputy sheriffs, within the several counties, and constables, marshals, deputy marshals, and other officers of police of the several cities and towns, are declared to be executive officers within the meaning of this section. But the enumeration of such officers shall not be held to exclude any other executive officer not specially mentioned herein.

Sec. 6. Corrupt solicitation of influence to procure places of trust; acceptance thereof; penalty. R. S. c. 124, § 6. Whoever directly or indirectly gives, offers, or promises a valuable consideration or gratuity to any person not included in the preceding section, with intent to induce such person to procure for him by his interest, influence or any other means, any place of trust in the state; and whoever, not included as aforesaid, accepts the same in the manner and for the purpose aforesaid, shall be forever disqualified to hold any place of trust in the state, and be punished by a fine of not more than three hundred dollars, and by imprisonment for less than one year.

Sec. 7. Bribery of jurors, referees, masters in chancery, appraisers or auditors, and acceptance thereof by them; penalty. R. S. c. 124, § 7. Whoever corruptly gives, offers or promises, a valuable consideration or gratuity to any person summoned, appointed, chosen or sworn, as a juror, arbitrator, umpire or referee, auditor, master in chancery or appraiser of real or personal estate, with intent to influence his opinion or decision in any matter pending, or that may come legally before him for decision or action; and whoever corruptly or knowingly receives the same, in the manner and for the purpose aforesaid, shall be punished by a fine of not more than one thousand dollars, or by imprisonment for not more than five years.

Sec. 8. Informer is exempted from punishment. R. S. c. 124, § 8. Whoever, offending in the manner described in the three preceding sections, gives information, under oath, against the other party so offending, and duly prosecutes him, shall be exempt from the disqualifications and punishments therein provided.

Sec. 9. Malfeasance in office; penalty. R. S. c. 124, § 9. Any officer authorized and empowered to serve criminal processes, who shall hire, attempt to hire or give money or other valuable thing by way of inducement to any person to consent or suffer himself to be arrested for, prosecuted for or convicted of any criminal offense, or who shall cause the same to be done, or who shall enter into any pecuniary agreement with any person whereby he is to suffer himself to be so arrested, prosecuted or convicted, whether such person be guilty of such offense or not, shall be deemed guilty of malfeasance in office, and shall be punished by a fine of not more than one thousand dollars, or by imprisonment for not more than two years.

Sec. 10. Attempts to corrupt jurors or referees, etc.; penalty. R. S. c. 124, § 10. Whoever attempts improperly to influence a juror, or any one drawn, appointed or sworn as such, or an arbitrator, referee or commissioner appointed by a court of probate in relation to any matter pending, or that may come legally before him for action or decision; and whoever, drawn, summoned or sworn, as a juror promises or agrees to give a verdict for or against a person in any case, or receives any paper, information or evidence relating to any matter, for the trial of which he is sworn, without the authority of the court or officer before whom such matter is pending, and without immediately disclosing it to such court or officer, shall be punished by a fine of not more than two hundred dollars, and by imprisonment for not more than three months.

*99 Me. 316.

Sec. 11. Sheriffs and other officers, receiving bribes, for neglect of official duty; penalty. R. S. c. 124, § 11. If any sheriff, deputy sheriff, or constable, receives from any person money or other valuable thing, as an inducement for omitting or delaying to sell property on execution, to arrest any defendant and carry him before a magistrate or to prison, or to perform any other official duty, he shall be deemed guilty of malfeasance in office and shall be punished by a fine of not more than one thousand dollars, or by imprisonment for not more than two years.

Sec. 12. Corrupt agreements by attorneys and others; penalty. R. S. c. 124, § 12. Whoever loans, advances or promises to loan or advance any money, gives or promises to give day of payment on any demand left with him for collection, gives or promises any valuable consideration, becomes liable in any manner for the payment of anything, becomes surety for another for such payment, or requests, advises or procures another person to become responsible or surety as aforesaid, with intent thereby to procure any account, note or other demand for the profit arising from its collection by a suit at law or in equity, or brings, prosecutes or defends, or agrees to bring, prosecute or defend, any suit at law or in equity upon shares, shall be punished by fine of not less than twenty dollars, nor more than one thousand dollars, or by imprisonment for not more than eleven months.

See c. 93, § 30; 70 Me. 272; 79 Me. 42; 81 Me. 38; 82 Me. 495; 84 Me. 587; 85 Me. 172.

Escapes.

Sec. 13. Officers, refusing or omitting to execute processes; penalty. R. S. c. 124, § 13. If an officer, authorized to serve process, wilfully and corruptly refuses to execute any lawful process to him directed, requiring him to arrest or confine any person charged with or convicted of any offense; or thus omits or delays to execute it, whereby the offender escapes, he shall be punished by a fine of not more than five hundred dollars, and by imprisonment for less than one year.

Sec. 14. Voluntarily suffering criminals to escape. R. S. c. 124, § 14. If a jailer or other officer voluntarily suffers any prisoner in his custody to escape, he shall be punished, if such prisoner was convicted of a felony punishable by imprisonment for life, by a fine of not more than one thousand dollars, and by imprisonment for life; if charged with such felony, by imprisonment for not less than five years nor more than fifteen years; if charged or convicted of any other offense, by the same penalties and punishments that such prisoner would have suffered or been liable to suffer, if he had not escaped.

Sec. 15. Negligent escapes, and refusal to receive prisoners. R. S. c. 124, § 15. If a jailer or other officer through negligence suffers any prisoner in his custody for a criminal offense to escape, or wilfully refuses to receive into his custody any prisoner committed to him on a lawful process, he shall be punished by a fine of not more than five hundred dollars, and by imprisonment for not more than two years.

See c. 94, § 52.

Sec. 16. Escapes from jail. R. S. c. 124, § 16. Whoever, being lawfully detained for any criminal offense in any jail or other place of confinement, except the state prison, breaks or escapes therefrom, or forcibly attempts to do so, shall be punished, if such prisoner was in custody for a felony, by imprisonment for not less than one year, nor more than seven years; and if for any other offense, by imprisonment for not more than eleven months; such imprisonment shall commence after the completion of any sentence imposed for the crime for which he was then in custody.

Sec. 17. Forcibly rescuing, furnishing means, or otherwise aiding an escape. R. S. c. 124, § 17. Whoever forcibly rescues a prisoner lawfully detained for any criminal offense; conveys into a jail or other place of confinement any disguise, arms, instruments, or other things adapted and intended to aid, or in any way aids him to escape, although such escape is not effected or attempted; or whoever secretes, or with a design to aid the prisoner in his escape, harbors; or with such design in any way assists such prisoner who has escaped, or is at large, shall be punished, if such prisoner was in custody for a felony, by imprisonment for not less than one year, nor more than seven years; and if for any other offense, by a fine of not more than five hundred dollars, and by imprisonment for less than one year.

Compounding Felonies.

Sec. 18. Compounding felonies, how punishable. R. S. c. 124, § 18. Whoever, having knowledge of the commission of an offense, takes any valuable consideration, gratuity, or promise thereof with an agreement or understanding, express or implied, to compound, conceal, not to prosecute, or not to give evidence of such offense, shall be punished, if such offense is punishable with imprisonment for life, or an unlimited term of years, by a fine of not more than five hundred dollars, or by imprisonment for not more than five years; but if the offense is punishable by imprisonment in the state prison for a limited term of years, he shall be punished by a fine of not more than five hundred dollars, and by imprisonment for less than one year.

Refusing to Aid Officers and Obey Magistrates.

Sec. 19. Refusing to aid officers. R. S. c. 124, § 19. Whoever, when required in the name of the state, by any sheriff, deputy sheriff, or constable neglects or refuses to aid him in the execution of his office in any criminal case, or in the preservation of the peace, or in arresting and securing any person for a breach of the peace, or in preventing the escape or rescue of persons arrested on civil process, shall be punished by a fine of not more than fifty dollars, or by imprisonment for not more than thirty days.

See c. 94, § 62; 122 Me. 296.

Sec. 20. Refusing to obey justices of the peace, when required to aid. R. S. c. 124, § 20. Whoever neglects or refuses to obey any justice of the peace, when, in view of a breach of the peace, or other offense proper for his cognizance, he requires such person to arrest and bring the offender before a court of competent jurisdiction shall be punished as in section seventeen; and if the justice made known or declared his office to such person, he shall not plead ignorance thereof.

Sec. 21. Obstructing officer serving criminal process. R. S. c. 124, § 21. Whoever wilfully obstructs an officer, or other person authorized, in the service of any process for an offense punishable by imprisonment for more than one year, shall be punished by a fine of not more than five hundred dollars, or by imprisonment for not more than two years.

Sec. 22. Obstructing officer in service of civil process. R. S. c. 124, § 22. Whoever wilfully obstructs such officer or person in the service of any civil process or order, or of any process for an offense punishable by imprisonment and fine, or either, or whoever obstructs a fish warden while in the lawful discharge of his official duty, whether with or without process, shall be punished by a fine of not more than three hundred dollars, and by imprisonment for not more than eleven months.

96 Me. 152; 108 Me. 240.

Sec. 23. Assaults upon or interference with officers. R. S. c. 124, § 23. 1917, c. 16. Whoever assaults, intimidates, or in any manner wilfully obstructs, intimidates, or hinders any sheriff, deputy sheriff, constable, fish warden, inland fish and game warden, or police officer while in the lawful discharge of his official duties, whether with or without process, shall be punished by a fine of not more than five hundred dollars, or by imprisonment for not more than eleven months.

See c. 135, § 66; 108 Me. 240.

Sec. 24. Jurisdiction. R. S. c. 124, § 24. In offenses under the preceding section, not of an aggravated nature, trial justices may try and punish by a fine of not more than twenty dollars, or by imprisonment for sixty days, and municipal or police courts may punish by a fine of not more than thirty dollars, or by imprisonment for sixty days.

Falsely Assuming to be a Justice or Officer.

Sec. 25. Penalty for falsely assuming to be an officer. R. S. c. 124, § 25. 1923, c. 100. Whoever falsely assumes to be a justice of the peace, sheriff, deputy sheriff, health inspector, or health officer, constable, inland fish and game warden, commissioner of inland fisheries and game, or state highway police and who acts as such or who requires anyone to aid him in a matter pertaining to the duties of such office, shall be punished by a fine of not more than five hundred dollars, or by imprisonment for not more than eleven months, or by both fine and imprisonment.

6 Me. 282.

Disguising to Obstruct the Execution of the Laws.

Sec. 26. Penalty for disguising to obstruct the execution of the laws. R. S. c. 124, § 26. Whoever disguises himself in any manner with intent to obstruct the due execution of the laws, or to intimidate any officer, surveyor, or other person in the discharge of his duty, although such intent is not effected, shall be punished by a fine of not more than five hundred dollars, and by imprisonment for less than one year.

Extortion.

Sec. 27. Penalty for extorting illegal fees, etc. R. S. c. 124, § 27. If any person, for performing any service or official duty for which the pay is fixed by law, wilfully and corruptly demands and receives, or takes security for any greater sum, or if any witness falsely and corruptly certifies that as such he traveled more miles or attended more days than he actually did, or certifies that he attended as such for more than one party in the same case, he shall be punished by a fine of not less than thirty dollars for each offense, to be recovered for the state, by indictment found within one year after the offense is committed, or by action of debt commenced within the same time, to the use of the person first suing therefor in his own name.

11 Me. 145.
