Form of Monition and Notice Case of Automobile

STATE OF MAINE

“—, ss.

[L. S.] To all persons interested in the automobile, liquors and vessels described in the foregoing libel:

The libel of — — hereunto annexed, this day filed with the Judge—Recorder—of our municipal court for the City of —, in the County of —, shows that he has seized said automobile, liquors and vessels because the same were used, kept and deposited as set forth in said libel, and said automobile was then and there knowingly used for the illegal transportation of intoxicating liquors, and prays for a decree of forfeiture of the same, according to the provisions of law in such case made and provided.

You are, therefore, hereby notified thereof, that you may appear before said court, at the municipal court room, in said —, on the — day of —, A. D., 19—, at — o'clock, A. M. and then and there show cause why said automobile, liquors and vessels in which they are contained should not be declared forfeited.

Witness, — —, — —, Esquire, our said Judge—Recorder—at — aforesaid, this — day of —, A. D., 19—.”

CHAPTER 58.

SUPERINTENDENT OF PUBLIC BUILDINGS.

Sec. 1. Superintendent of public buildings; appointment and compensation. 1943, c. 176, § 1. The governor, with the advice and consent of the council, shall appoint a superintendent of public buildings for a term of 3 years, or at the pleasure of the governor and council. He shall serve until a successor has been appointed and qualified. He shall be a full-time employee of the state and his compensation shall be fixed by the governor and council.

Sec. 2. Definition of general supervision. 1943, c. 176, § 2. General supervision shall mean supervision of all maintenance, repairs, and construction made on state owned or leased property as hereinafter provided.

Sec. 3. Superintendent of public buildings, qualifications required. 1943, c. 176, § 3. The qualifications for the superintendent of public buildings shall be an ability to interpret engineering plans, estimates, specifications, and reports, together with knowledge of building supplies and materials; and experience in active building construction.

Sec. 4. Duties of superintendent of public buildings. 1937, c. 221. 1943, c. 176, § 4. The superintendent of public buildings shall have general supervision of the state house and the public grounds, buildings, and property connected with the state house, and make or supervise the making of all construction, repairs, alterations, and improvements in and about such grounds and buildings.

Upon the request of department heads concerning buildings and property under their control, the superintendent shall supervise the construction, repairs, alterations, and improvements to said buildings and property. The superintendent shall regularly inspect all buildings and property in the state and report to the department head concerned whatever construction, repairs, alterations, and improvements are necessary, and he shall, if he deems it advisable, make a similar report to the governor and council.

The powers and duties of the superintendent shall not include those already granted by law to the Maine State Office Building Authority.

The superintendent shall assign the rooms in all buildings used by the state for offices and may determine the occupancy thereof in such manner as the public service may require. The superintendent may employ, subject to the provisions of the personnel law, such help as may be reasonably necessary to enable him to perform his duties. The superintendent, with the consent of the governor and council, may, in such manner as he may deem proper, provide for food service in the state house.

See c. 9, § 10, re room for press; c. 32, § 29, re state park in Augusta; c. 38, § 3, re library; c. 63, § 1, re room for board of registration for nurses; c. 76, §§ 1-2; re art commission; P. & S. L. 1941, c. 76, re Maine State Office Building Authority.

Sec. 5. To examine and approve contracts. 1943, c. 176, § 5. All contracts for repairs and construction of state buildings shall be examined and approved by the superintendent of public buildings prior to their submission to the governor and council for their final approval and acceptance.

Sec. 6. Plans for new institutions to be submitted to department. R. S. c. 157, § 7. 1933, c. 1, § 305. 1939, c. 223. All plans and specifications for new institutions and buildings for charitable or correctional purposes, which are to be in any way under the inspection of the department of institutional service, shall be submitted to said department for criticism and suggestions before the same are accepted.

Sec. 7. Report. 1943, c. 176, § 7. The superintendent of public buildings shall submit an annual report to the governor and council, and such other reports as the governor and council may require.
