receive a salary of $8,000 per year and any necessary traveling expenses; (1951, c. 412, § 1. 1955, c. 473, § 1.)

Effect of amendment.—The 1955 amendment increased the salary of the director of legislative research from $7,000 to $8,000 per year. As only subsection VII was changed by the amendment, the rest of the section is set out.

Sec. 27. Certain specific functions and services of the director.

VII-A. After each session of the legislature to cause to be published cumulative pocket supplements of the volumes of the revised statutes, and any replacement or recompiled volumes thereof, which shall contain an accurate transcription of all public laws, the material contained in the next preceding pocket supplement, complete and accurate annotations to the statutes, appendix and other material accumulated since the publication of the next preceding pocket supplement and a cumulative index of said material. (1955, c. 463, § 1.)

Effect of amendment.—The 1955 amendment, which became effective on approval, May 21, 1955, added the above subsection VII-A to this section. As the rest of the section was not changed, only the subsection added by the amendment is set out.

Commission on Uniform State Laws.

Sec. 33-A. Commission on uniform state laws.—The commission on uniform state laws, as heretofore established, shall consist of 3 members to be appointed for a term of 4 years by the governor with the advice and consent of the council. The commission shall examine subjects on which uniformity of legislation in the different states is desirable; ascertain the best means to effect uniformity; cooperate with the commissioners of other states in the consideration and drafting of uniform acts for submission to the legislature of the several states; and prepare bills for introduction in the legislature.

Each commissioner shall serve without compensation, but shall be entitled to receive his actual disbursements for his expenses in performing the duties of his office. (1955, c. 405, § 3.)

Editor's Note.—Section 4 of the act 1895, c. 138, which relates to the commission which inserted this section repealed P. L. 1895, c. 138, which relates to the commission on uniform state laws.

Chapter 11.

Executive Department. Council.

Governor.

Sec. 2-A. Expense account of governor-elect.—There shall be established the "governor-elect's expense account" to which shall be credited the sum of $1,500 as a continuing reserve. At the close of each fiscal year there shall be transferred from unappropriated surplus an amount sufficient to restore such expense account to $1,500.

This appropriation shall be available for expenditure by the governor-elect at his discretion, provided he is governor-elect to his first term in office. This account shall not be subject to audit, except as to total amount to be paid. (1955, c. 476.)

Chapter 12.

State Civil Defense and Public Safety Council.

Sec. 4-A. Rules and regulations.—The director shall make, amend or rescind, after public hearing thereon, notice of which has been duly advertised in
