If it be established that the defendant has been or is committing an act declared to be a misdemeanor by this chapter, the court or any judge thereof shall enter a decree perpetually enjoining said defendant from further committing such act. In case of violation of any injunction issued under this section, the court or any judge thereof may summarily try and punish the offender for contempt of court. Such injunction proceedings shall be in addition to, and not in lieu of, all penalties and other remedies provided in this chapter. (1959, c. 303, § 1. 1961, c. 317, § 212.)

Effect of amendment.—The 1961 amendment substituted "superior court" for "supreme judicial court and the superior court" and deleted "in equity" following "jurisdiction" in the first sentence of this section.
