History of section.—See Eaton v. MacDonald, 154 Me. 227, 145 A. (2d) 369.

Specific devises and bequests not at the outset subject to payment of debts.—The import of §§ 6 and 7 of this chapter is to the effect that specific devises and bequests are not at the outset subject to the payment of debts of the estate, and that resort must be had to other classes of assets first. Eaton v. MacDonald, 154 Me. 227, 145 A. (2d) 369.

Sec. 10. Certain devisees die before testator, lineal heirs take devise.

A brother of a devisee is not a lineal descendant under this section. See Ber- man v. Frenzel, 154 Me. 337, 148 A. (2d) 93.

Sec. 15. Will to be effective, proved and allowed.

Title of devisee dates from testator's death only after will proved and allowed.—The title of a devisee dates from the date of a testator's death only after a will has been proved and allowed, and an assessment against decedent's heirs is valid when made prior to the proof and allowance of a will. Gray v. Hutchins, 150 Me. 96, 104 A. (2d) 423.

Chapter 170.Title by Descent.*Rules of Descent. Advancements.

Sec. 1. Rules of descent.—The real estate of a person deceased intestate, being subject to the payment of debts, including a woodlot or other land used with the farm or dwelling house although not cleared and also including wild lands of which he dies seized, but excepting wild lands conveyed by him, though afterwards cleared, descends according to the following rules:

I. If he leaves a widow and issue, $\frac{1}{3}$ to the widow. If the deceased leaves no issue, $\frac{1}{2}$ to the widow. If the deceased leaves no issue, and if it appears on determination as provided in section 20-A that he and the surviving widow were living together at the time of his decease

A. And the residue of the estate determined as provided in section 20-A is $10,000 or less, all of the real estate to the widow; or

B. If the residue of the estate determined as provided in section 20-A is more than \$10,000, of the real estate, $\frac{2}{3}$ to the widow and $\frac{1}{3}$ to the next of kin of equal degree, not beyond kin in the 2nd degree.

If no kindred within the 2nd degree, the whole to the widow; and to the widower shall descend the same shares in his wife's real estate. There shall likewise descend to the widow or widower the same share in all such real estate of which the deceased was seized during coverture, and which has not been barred or released as herein provided. In any event, $\frac{1}{3}$ shall descend to the widow or widower free from payment of debts, except as provided in section 22 of chapter 163. (1949, c. 439, § 1. 1957, c. 290, § 1) (1957, c. 290, § 1.)

Effect of amendment. — The 1957 amendment, which became effective on its approval, May 17, 1957, rewrote subsection I of this section. As the rest of the section was not changed by the amendment, only the first paragraph and subsection I are set out.

But widow is not heir of husband.

In accord with 2nd paragraph in original. See Linnell v. Smith, 153 Me. 288, 137 A. (2d) 357.

Reference to "statutes of descent" does not enlarge phrase "legal heirs."—A reference to the "statutes of descent" does not create an enlargement of the phrase "legal heirs." Linnell v. Smith, 153 Me. 288, 137 A. (2d) 357.

Applied, as to rule 1, in Wood v. LeGoff, 152 Me. 19, 121 A. (2d) 468.

(2d) 126.

Probate court without authority to approve or disapprove election made by guardian.—There is no provision of statute, express or implied, which gives the probate court authority to approve or disapprove the election made by the guardian under this section. In re Thaxter, 154 Me. 288, 147 A. (2d) 126.

Descent of Personal Property.

Sec. 20. Personal estate distributed.—The personal estate of an intestate, except that portion assigned to his widow by law and by the judge of probate, shall be applied first to the payment of his debts, funeral charges and charges of settlement; and the residue shall be distributed or shall escheat by the rules provided for the distribution of real estate, except that in intestate estates and it having been determined by the probate court that the deceased and the surviving widow were living together at the time of his decease and that he left no issue, there shall be distributed to the widow

A. If the residue found by the probate court as provided in section 20-A, was $10,000 or less, all of the remaining personal property, or

B. If the residue found by the probate court was more than \$10,000, the sum of \$10,000, and of the remaining personal property, $\frac{1}{2}$ to the widow and $\frac{1}{2}$ to the next of kin of equal degree, not beyond kin in the 2nd degree. If no such kindred, the whole of the remaining personal property to the widow. If the personal property is insufficient to pay said \$10,000, the deficiency shall, upon the petition of any party in interest, be paid from the sale or mortgage, in the manner provided for the payments of debts or legacies, of any interest of the deceased in real property not descending to the widow as provided in section 1 which he could have conveyed at the time of his death; and the surviving husband or wife shall be permitted, subject to the approval of the court, to purchase at any such sale, notwithstanding the fact that he or she is the administrator of the estate of the deceased person. And to the widower shall be distributed the same share in his wife's personal property. (R. S. c. 156, § 20. 1957, c. 290, § 2.)

Effect of amendment. — The amendment, which became effective on its approval, May 17, 1957, added the exception appearing as the last clause of the first paragraph and paragraphs A and B.

Sec. 20-A. Determination of value of estates when deceased is survived by widow and no issue.—If a deceased died intestate leaving a widow and no issue, the probate court, upon petition of any party in interest, or on its own motion, and after such notice as the court shall order, and after hearing thereon taking into consideration the inventory in the estate and such other evidence as the court shall deem necessary, the court shall determine

A. That the deceased was or was not survived by a widow with whom he was living at the time of his decease.

B. That the deceased left issue or no issue.

C. The value of residue of the estate real and personal, at the date of death over and above the value of $\frac{1}{3}$ the real estate, the amount necessary to pay the debts of the deceased, funeral charges and charges of administration and widow's allowance. Such decree of determination shall include a finding as to what part of decedent's estate passes to the widow and shall be binding upon all parties.

Within 30 days after such determination by the probate court, the register of probate shall file in the registry of deeds for the county or registry district in which any real estate of the deceased is situated, an attested copy of such decree, and the register of deeds shall receive and record the same as abstracts of wills are received and recorded. The fees for making and recording said copy shall be the same as for making and recording abstracts of wills.

If additional property is later discovered, the right or title to the estate covered by such decree shall not be affected thereby, but the court may make such further orders and decrees as are necessary to effect the distribution provided for in section 20. (1957, c. 290, § 3.)

Effective date.—The act inserting this section became effective on its approval, May 17, 1957.

Chapter 171.

Title to Real Estate by Levy of Execution.

Levy by Appraisement.

Sec. 19. When title fails after record, alias execution; debtor may convey title by deed.—When the execution has been recorded and the estate levied on does not pass by the levy for causes named in section 18, the creditor may by motion in the court issuing the execution require the debtor to show cause why an alias execution should not be issued on the same judgment. If the debtor does not show sufficient cause, the levy may be set aside, and an alias execution issued for the amount then due on the judgment, unless during its pendency the debtor tenders in court a deed of release of the land levied on, and makes it appear that the land, at the time of the levy, was and still is his property, and pays the expenses of the levy and the taxable costs of the action. The judgment shall be satisfied for the amount of the levy. (R. S. c. 157, § 19. 1959, c. 317, § 302.)

Effect of amendment.—The 1959 amendment divided this section into three sentences, substituted "section 18" for "the preceding section" and "by motion in the court issuing the execution require" for "sue out of the office of the clerk issuing the execution, a writ of scire facias, requiring" in the first sentence, deleted "after being duly summoned" following "debtor" near the beginning of the second sentence, and substituted "action" for "suit" at the end of the second sentence.

Effective date and applicability of Public

Laws 1959, c. 317. — Section 420, chapter 317, Public Laws 1959, provides as follows: "This act shall become effective December 1, 1959. It shall apply to all actions brought after December 1, 1959 and also to all further proceedings in actions at law or suits in equity then pending, except to the extent that in the opinion of the court the application of this act in a particular action pending on December 1, 1959 would not be feasible or would work injustice, in which event the laws in effect prior to December 1, 1959 would prevail."
