CHAPTER 309

SARDINES

Sec.

1701. Trademarks.

1702. License.

1703. Price.

1704. Rules and regulations.

1705. Fees.

1706. Enforcement; jurisdiction.

§ 1701. Trademarks

In order to carry out better the objectives of the Maine Sardine Tax Law, the Maine Sardine Council may develop and register trademarks. The Commissioner of Agriculture may delegate to the Maine Sardine Council the authority to regulate the use of the State of Maine trademark when used in the processing and sale of Maine sardines.

1963, c. 366.

§ 1702. License

After notice of establishment of a trademark by the council, it shall be unlawful to use such trademark without first securing a permit or license from the Maine Sardine Council. Any violations of this section shall be punishable for the first offense by a fine of not more than $50 and for each subsequent offenses a fine of not more than $200.

1963, c. 366.

§ 1703. Price

The Maine Sardine Council shall have the authority to establish minimum prices for which canned sardines bearing a council regulated trademark may be sold by a processor.

1963, c. 366.

§ 1704. Rules and regulations

The Maine Sardine Council may prescribe rules and regulations for carrying out the purposes of this chapter, and may issue licenses to processors who request authority to use the trademark and who shall abide by such rules and regulations. The council may charge a fee on a case basis for the use of trademarks established by the council or of the State of Maine trademark used on canned sardines. The council shall have the right to cancel any license, for a period of time to be determined by the council, for failure to abide by the rules and regulations prescribed by the council; and the council shall have the right to cancel all outstanding licenses at any time that the council deems such action necessary to the best interest of the sardine industry as a whole.

1963, c. 366.

§ 1705. Fees

All fees charged for use of the trademarks and from the issuance of licenses shall be paid to the Treasurer of State and the same are appropriated for carrying out this chapter, and for promoting the prosperity of this State and the sardine industry by fostering and promoting better methods of processing, merchandising and advertising of Maine sardines under the direction of the Maine Sardine Council.

1963, c. 366.

§ 1706. Enforcement; jurisdiction

The council or a duly authorized representative may recover penalties imposed for violation of section 1702 in a civil action brought in the name of the council, and if it prevails in such action shall recover full costs; or the council may prosecute for violations thereof by complaint or indictment. The District Court and the Superior Court shall have concurrent jurisdiction of actions brought for the recovery of penalties imposed by section 1702, and of prosecutions for violations thereof. All fines received under section 1702 by county treasurers shall be paid by them to the Treasurer of State and the same are appropriated for carrying out this chapter.

1963, c. 366.
