RULES OF THE SENATE

1. The President shall take the chair at the time to which the Senate stands adjourned; but in case of his absence at such time, the Secretary shall preside until a President pro tempore be chosen.

2. At the first session of each day, on the appearance of a quorum, the journal of the preceding day shall be read; and the President shall ascertain whether a quorum is present before such reading.

3. When the President speaks he shall address the Senate; when a senator speaks he shall stand in his place and address the President.

4. The President, when he speaks to any member of the Senate, and the members, when referring to each other in debate, shall use in their addresses the title of senator, and by way of distinction name the county in which he resides.

5. The President shall have the right to name a senator to perform the duties of the Chair during his absence; but the substitution shall not extend beyond an adjournment.

6. The President shall rise to put a question, and shall declare all votes, but if any senator doubt the vote, all those voting in the affirmative, when called upon by the President, shall rise and stand until they are counted, and also those in the negative, in like manner, to make the vote certain.

7. The President shall consider a motion to adjourn as always first in order, and it shall be decided without debate.

8. When a question is under debate, no motion shall be received but—

(1) to adjourn, (2) to reconsider, (3) to lay on the table, (4) to postpone to a day certain, (5) to commit, (6) to amend, (7) to postpone indefinitely; which several motions shall have precedence in the order in which they stand arranged.

Questions of concurrence or otherwise with the House shall have precedence of each other in the following order:

- 1st. To recede.
- 2d. To concur.
- 3d. To insist.
- 4th. To adhere.

A motion to adjourn shall always be first in order, and shall be decided without debate.

9. A motion shall be reduced to writing, if desired by the President or any senator, and shall then be deemed to be in possession of the Senate, to be disposed of by the Senate; but the mover may withdraw it at any time before a decision, or any amendment be made to it.

10. No senator shall address the Senate until recognized by the President, nor more than once to the exclusion of any other senator, without leave of the Senate, if objection is made, unless he be the mover of the matter under debate, and not then more than three times without leave.

11. No motion or proposition on a subject different from that under consideration shall be admitted under color of amendment; nor shall an amendment proposing to ingraft a general provision of law upon a private bill be in order; nor any amendment beyond the second degree.

12. An amendment proposed may be amended before it is adopted, but not afterwards; unless the vote adopting it be first reconsidered, and no senator shall be competent to move any reconsideration unless he voted with the majority and upon the same or a succeeding day; and a motion to reconsider any vote shall not be laid upon the table unless a time shall be specially assigned for its consideration.

13. A motion to reconsider shall take precedence of all other questions except a motion to adjourn, but if made while another question is pending, it shall not be put until the other question is disposed of, but simply entered.

14. Questions of order shall be decided by the President without debate; but if an appeal is taken, the same may be debated like other questions, and the decision thereon shall be entered upon the journal.

15. A question containing two or more propositions capable of division shall be divided whenever desired by any member.

16. In filling up blanks, the largest sum and longest time shall be put first.

17. Every paper shall be once read at the table before any senator shall be obliged to vote on it, but when the reading of a paper is called for, that has been before read to the Senate, if any senator object, the question shall be determined by the Senate.

18. All bills and resolves in the second reading shall be committed to the Committee on Bills in the Second Reading, to be by them examined, corrected, and so reported to the Senate.

19. Upon a second reading of a bill or resolve, after the same shall be read through, and before the question is put on its passage, it shall be read and considered by paragraphs, at the request of any member of the Senate; and no bill or resolve shall have a second reading unless a time (not less than one hour after the first reading) be assigned therefor.

20. No bill or resolve shall pass to be engrossed without being twice read; and all bills and resolves, immediately after the same shall have been engrossed, shall be committed to the Committee on Engrossed

Bills, whose duties shall be to examine the same, and to see that the same have been truly engrossed; and before any bill shall pass to be enacted, or any resolve be finally passed, it shall be reported by the committee for the examination of engrossed bills to be truly and strictly engrossed, and the title thereof be read by the President.

21. No resolve of any kind, or order making any grant of money, lands, or other public property shall be passed without being read on two several days; the time for the second reading shall be assigned by the Senate.

22. After the reading of the journal, the following shall be the order of business:

1st. House papers not acted upon; and if accompanied by a bill or resolve, the first reading of such bill or resolve.

2d. Messages and documents from the executive and heads of departments.

3d. The reception and reference of petitions and such other papers as require action by a committee.

4th. Orders.

5th. Bills and resolves printed under joint rules.

6th. Reports of committees.

7th. Bills and resolves reported by the Committee on Bills in the Second Reading.

8th. Bills on their passage to be enacted, and resolves on their final passage.

9th. Orders of the day.

It shall be the duty of the Secretary to number bills and resolves in the order in which they shall be reported by said Committee on Bills in the Second Reading, and enter them upon the calendar in such order. They shall be taken up for their second reading and passage to be engrossed, or other disposition, in the order in which they stand upon the calendar. When a bill or resolve, after it is put on the calendar, is laid on the table, and no time assigned for its further consideration, it shall go to the foot of the calendar as it then stands. Papers from the House, concerning which there has been a disagreeing vote of the two houses, shall be disposed of before commencing with the calendar. This rule shall not apply to or interfere with motions to reconsider, or special assignments or other privileged questions.

23. When the yeas and nays are taken, the names of the senators shall be called alphabetically.

24. After a question is put to vote, no senator shall speak on it. Every senator who may be present shall vote unless excused by the Senate, or excluded by interest.

25. The unfinished business, in which the Senate was engaged at the time of the last adjournment, shall have precedence in the orders of the day.

26. No engrossed bill or resolve shall be sent to the House without notice thereof being given to the Senate by the President.

27. Every member who shall present a bill, resolve or a petition shall place his signature thereon and a brief descriptive title of its contents.

28. All confidential communications made by the Governor to the Senate, shall be by the members thereof kept inviolably sacred until the Senate shall by their resolution take off the injunction of secrecy.

29. No rule shall be dispensed with, except by the consent of two-thirds of the members present.

30. Members of the Senate may exchange seats on consulting the President and obtaining his permission.

31. No member shall absent himself from the Senate without leave, unless there be a quorum left present.

32. All committees shall be nominated by the President (unless when it may be determined that the election shall be by ballot), and appointed by the Senate.

33. At the commencement of the session the President shall appoint a committee on bills in second reading to consist of four members, and a committee on engrossed bills to consist of twelve members. The Director of Legislative Research shall serve as clerk of the committee on bills in second reading.

Any one of the first and any two of the second shall constitute a quorum.

34. No member of the Senate shall act as counsel for any party before any committee of the Legislature.

35. All messages from the Senate to the House, and to the Governor, or Governor and Council shall be carried by the Secretary, unless the Senate shall direct some other mode of transmission, and all papers shall be transmitted to the Governor and Council and the House by the Secretary or his assistant.

36. The Senate may at any time, upon motion, by a vote of a majority of the members present, resolve itself into a committee of the whole for the purpose of considering any subject named in the motion; and a chairman shall be appointed by the President. If a message is announced while the Senate is in such committee, the President shall resume the chair for the purpose of receiving it; immediately after which the committee shall proceed, until dissolved in the usual manner.

37. The rules of parliamentary practice comprised in Reed's Rules and Cushing's Law and Practice of Legislative Assemblies, shall govern the Senate in all cases to which they are applicable, and in which they are not inconsistent with the standing rules of the Senate, or of the joint rules of the two houses.

38. A copy of each Senate order requiring action by any department, bureau, commission, board or agency of the state which is passed by both branches of the legislature shall be forwarded to such department, bureau, commission, board or agency by the Secretary of the Senate immediately after the adjournment of the legislative day in which the order was passed by the concurring branch of the legislature. Another copy of such order shall be sent to the Director of Legislative Research and shall be published in the official volume of the public law.

RULES OF THE HOUSEDUTIES AND POWERS OF THE SPEAKER

1. It shall be the duty of the Speaker to take the chair at the hour to which the House shall have adjourned, call the members to order, and after the appearance of a quorum, cause the journal of the preceding day to be read;

To announce the business before the House in the order in which it is to be acted upon;

To receive and submit to vote all motions and propositions regularly moved or that necessarily arise in the course of proceedings, and announce the result;

To restrain the members when engaged in debate, within the rules of order, and to enforce on all occasions, the observance of order and decorum among the members;

To decide all questions of order, subject to an appeal to the House;

To receive all messages and other communications and announce them to the House;

To authenticate by his signature bills that have passed to be enacted and resolves finally passed;

To name the members who are to serve on committees, unless the House otherwise direct;

To appoint the member who shall take the chair when the House has determined to go into committee of the whole;

And to name a member to perform his duties during his absence for a time not exceeding the remainder of the day.

2. The Speaker may address the House on points of order, in preference to other members; and may vote in all cases.

DUTIES OF THE CLERK

3. The Clerk shall keep a journal of what is done by the House; read papers when required by the House or Speaker; call the roll alphabetically, and note the answers of members, when the House orders or when a question is taken by yeas and nays; notify committees of their appointment and of the business referred to them; authenticate by his signature all the orders and proceedings of the House not authenticated by the Speaker; have charge of all the documents and papers of every kind confided to the care of the House; bear all messages and transmit all papers from the House to the Governor or to the Senate, unless the House shall otherwise order; make up the pay-roll of the members; and in the absence of the Speaker at the hour for meeting, shall preside until a Speaker pro tem be chosen; and at the close of the session shall file in an orderly manner all papers and documents in possession of the House, passed upon or received during the session; and at the commencement of the next legislature shall preside until the election of Speaker; and record the doings of the House until a new Clerk shall be chosen and qualified; and in the absence of the Clerk, the Assistant Clerk shall be Clerk pro tempore, with power to appoint an assistant.

CHAPLAINS

4. Every morning the House or assembling shall join with the Chaplains in religious service followed by the National Anthem on the first Legislative day of each week.

5. The Chaplains may change duties with each other or with the Chaplains of the Senate.

MONITORS

6. One monitor shall be appointed by the Speaker for each division of the House, whose duty shall be to see to the observance of the rules of the House, and on demand of the Speaker, to return the number of votes and members in his division.

7. If any member shall transgress any of the rules of the House, and persist therein, after being notified thereof by any monitor, it shall be the duty of such monitor to give information thereof to the House.

COMMITTEES

8. The following standing committees shall be appointed at the commencement of the session, whose duty shall be to consider all subjects referred to them and report thereon:

On Ways and Means,
On Leave of Absence,
On Bills in the Third Reading,
On Engrossed Bills,
On Elections,

To consist of seven members each.

On County Estimates.

To consist of one member from each county.

On Rules and Business of the House,

To consist of three members and the Speaker ex officio.

9. In all elections by ballot, of committees of the House, the persons having the highest number of votes shall act as chairman. In case two or more persons receive the same number of votes, the committee by a majority of their members shall elect a chairman.

RIGHTS AND DUTIES OF MEMBERS

10. The seat which a member draws at the commencement of the session shall be his during the session, unless he shall have leave of the Speaker to change it and no other person shall be permitted to occupy a member's seat at any time during a session of the House.

11. No member shall sit at the desk of the Speaker or Clerk, except by the permission of the Speaker.

12. When two or more members rise at the same time, the Speaker shall name the person to speak, but in all cases the member who shall rise first and address the Chair shall speak first.

13. No member shall interrupt another while speaking, except to call to order or correct a mistake.

14. No member shall speak more than twice to the same question, without first asking leave of the House.

15. No member shall speak out of his place without leave from the Chair, nor without first rising and addressing the Speaker; and he shall sit down as soon as he has done speaking.

16. No member shall act as counsel for any party, before a joint committee of the legislature, or a committee of the House.

17. No member shall be allowed to stand up to the interruption of another while any member is speaking, or pass unnecessarily between the Speaker of the House and the person speaking; or stand in an alley, or sit or stand covered, during the session of the House.

18. Every member shall make out and deliver to the Clerk or to the Committee on Pay-roll a statement of the number of miles usually travelled in going from his residence to the seat of government.

19. Every member who shall neglect to give his attendance to the House for more than six days after the session commences shall, on making his appearance therein be held to render the reason for such neglect; and in case the reason assigned shall be deemed by the House sufficient, such member shall be entitled to receive pay for his travel, and not otherwise; and no member shall be absent more than two days without leave of the House; and no member shall have such leave, unless it be reported by the committee on leave of absence; and no leave of absence shall avail any member who retains his seat more than five days from the time the same was obtained.

20. Any member having obtained leave of absence, and having in his possession any papers relating to the business before the House, shall leave the same with the Clerk.

21. When any member shall be guilty of a breach of any of the rules and orders of the House and the House has determined he has so transgressed, he shall not be allowed to vote or speak, unless by way of excuse for the same, until he has made satisfaction.

22. Every member who shall be in the House when a question is put where he is not excluded by interest shall give his vote, unless the House for special reasons shall excuse him, and when yeas and nays are ordered, no member shall leave his seat until the vote is declared; in all elections by the House, or on joint ballot of the two houses, no member shall leave his seat, after voting, before a return of the House is had.

23. When the galleries shall be ordered to be cleared or shut, the matter which may occasion such order shall be kept secret by each member, until the House shall order such injunction of secrecy to be taken off.

24. No person not a member or officer of the House, except members of the Senate, its secretary and assistants, the Governor and Council, heads of state departments and bureaus, Judges of the Supreme Judicial Court, Chaplains of the Senate and reporters of the proceedings and debates of the House, shall be admitted within the Representatives' hall, unless invited by some member of the House. While the House is in session only members and officers of the House and officers of the Senate on official business shall be admitted inside the rail, except members of the press, who shall occupy places at the press table, and except guests bearing cards issued by the Speaker.

25. Smoking is prohibited in the Hall of the House of Representatives while the House is in session.

PROCEEDINGS AND DEBATES

26. After reading of the journal, the following shall be the order of business:

1st. Senate papers, and first reading of accompanying bills and resolves.

2d. Messages and documents from the executive and heads of departments.

3d. Reception of petitions, bills and resolves requiring reference to any committee.

4th. Orders.

5th. Reports of committees and first reading of accompanying bills and resolves.

6th. First reading of bills and resolves printed under the rules.

7th. Bills and resolves reported by Committee on Bills in the Third Reading, and on their passage to be engrossed.

8th. Bills on their passage to be enacted.

9th. Orders of the day.

The Speaker shall announce each item of business in its turn, and no paper shall be taken up out of its regular order, except by the unanimous consent of the House. No business shall be transacted in the House after the hour of 9:00 p.m. The orders of the day shall take precedence of all other business at the expiration of the morning hour.

27. It shall be the duty of the Clerk to make up daily a calendar of bills, resolves and other papers, assigned for that day's consideration, and also a calendar of bills and resolves which have had their first reading, and showing the disposition that has been made of each.

28. The unfinished business in which the House was engaged at the time of the last adjournment, shall have preference in the orders of the day and shall continue to be among the orders of the day for each succeeding day until disposed of and no motion or other business shall be received, without special leave of the House, until the former is disposed of.

29. When a question is under debate no motion shall be received but—

1st. To adjourn.

2d. To lay on the table.

3d. For the previous question.

4th. To commit.

5th. To postpone to a day certain.

6th. To amend.

7th. To postpone indefinitely.

Which several motions shall have precedence in the order in which they are arranged.

Questions of concurrence or otherwise with the Senate shall have precedence of each other in the following order:

- 1st. To recede.
- 2d. To concur.
- 3d. To insist.
- 4th. To adhere.

30. A motion to adjourn shall always be first in order, and shall be decided without debate.

31. A vote to lay a proposition on the table shall not preclude the further consideration of it on the same day.

32. When motion for the previous question is made, the consent of one-third of the members present shall be necessary to authorize the Speaker to entertain it. No debate shall be allowed until the matter of consent is determined. The previous question shall be submitted in the following words: Shall the main question be put now? No member shall speak more than five minutes on the motion for the previous question, and while that question is pending a motion to lay on the table shall be decided without debate. A call for the yeas and nays, or for division of a question, shall be in order after the main question has been ordered to be put. After the adoption of the previous question, the vote shall be taken forthwith upon amendments, and then upon the main question.

33. Propositions to amend by striking out and inserting dates, numbers and sums, are not divisible; but all propositions, otherwise divisible, shall be divided at the request of any ten members. A motion to strike out being lost, shall neither preclude amendments, nor a motion to strike out and insert.

34. In filling blanks and assigning times for the consideration of business, the largest sum and longest time shall be put first.

35. When a proposition consists of several paragraphs or sections, amendment of one of them shall not preclude amendment of a prior paragraph or section.

36. No motion or proposition on a subject different from that under consideration shall be admitted under color of amendment.

No amendment to a bill or resolve shall be acted upon by the House until the same has been printed or reproduced and distributed to the members under the direction of the Clerk of the House, unless the same shall bear the recommendation of the Committee on Rules and Business of the House that such printing or reproduction be dispensed with; and any amendment not so printed or reproduced or bearing such recommendation, shall lie on the table until printed or reproduced or until said Committee has recommended that such printing or reproduction be dispensed with. All amendments presented or filed with the Clerk for printing or reproduction shall bear the signature of the member presenting or filing the same.

37. After a motion or order is stated or read by the Speaker, and seconded, it shall be regarded as in the possession of the House, and shall be disposed of by the vote of the House. But any motion or order may be withdrawn by the mover at any time before a decision or amendment, except a motion to reconsider, which shall not be withdrawn except by consent of the House.

38. Every motion shall be reduced to writing, if required by the Speaker or by any member.

39. No member shall be permitted to lay a motion in writing on the table, until he shall have read the same in his place.

40. When a vote having been declared by the Speaker, is doubted, the members for and against the question, when called on by the Speaker, shall rise and stand till they are counted, and the vote made certain without further debate. But a call for the yeas and nays shall be in order at any time before such a vote is made certain and declared.

41. When a motion has once been made and carried in the affirmative or negative, it shall not be in order for any member who voted in the minority to move a reconsideration thereof; but any member who voted with the majority, or in the negative on a tie vote, may move to reconsider on the same or succeeding day. A motion to reconsider shall not be postponed or laid on the table without a certain time assigned for its further consideration. When a motion for reconsideration has been decided the vote shall not be reconsidered. A motion to reconsider shall not be in order more than once on the same question.

42. When a member shall move or give notice of his intention to move, a reconsideration of any vote, the papers to which the motion relates shall remain in possession of the Clerk until the question of reconsideration shall have been decided, or the right to move such a question is lost.

43. In all elections by ballot, of the House, a time shall be assigned for such election, at least one day previous thereto.

44. When the reading of a paper is called for which has been before read to the House, and the same is objected to by any member, the question of reading shall be determined by a vote of the House.

45. Every question of order which shall be decided on appeal shall be entered on the journal of the House with the decision thereon.

46. A proposition to require the opinion of the judges of the Supreme Court, as provided by the Constitution, shall not be acted upon until the next day after such proposition is made.

47. All petitions, memorials and other papers addressed to the House, and all bills and resolves to be introduced in the House, shall bear the signature of the member presenting them and a brief descriptive title and shall be deposited by the member presenting them in a box placed for that purpose in front of the Clerk's desk. All such petitions, memorials, papers, bills and resolves, which are deposited in said box before one o'clock in the afternoon of each day shall be removed therefrom by the Clerk, and shall be introduced and received in the House on the following day, at which time they shall be presented to the House by the Speaker or such other person as the Speaker may request, and referred to the proper committees, unless the House shall otherwise order.

48. All bills in their third reading, and resolves in their second reading shall be committed to the standing Committee on Bills in the Third Reading, to be by them examined and corrected. The director of legislative research shall be the clerk to the committee on bills in the third reading.

49. All resolves appropriating money or land, shall have their second reading on such day subsequent to that of their first reading as the House may assign.

50. All engrossed bills and resolves shall be committed to the Standing Committee on Engrossed Bills to be strictly examined; and if found by them to be truly and strictly engrossed, they shall so report to the House, and the question shall be taken without any further reading, unless on motion of any member, a majority of the House shall be in favor of reading the same as engrossed.

51. Every bill or resolve, providing for the grant of money, land, or other public property, which may be laid on the table by leave, and any report of a grant, shall be accompanied by a written statement of facts in each case; and no such bill or resolve shall be considered before such statement is made, or pass without being read on two several days.

52. No new bill or resolve of a public nature shall be received, except it be reported by a committee, unless the House otherwise order, and all bills and resolves not reported by a committee, shall be laid upon the table for one day, before further action thereon.

53. No act or resolve shall be passed affecting the rights of individuals or corporations, without previous notice to such individuals or corporations.

54. No bill shall pass to be engrossed until it shall have had three several readings; the time for the second and third readings shall be assigned by the House; but if no objection is made, the second reading may be by the title, and at the time of the first. Every resolve which shall require the approval of the Governor, shall have two several readings; and the second reading shall be subject to the provisions of the third reading of bills.

55. No engrossed bill or resolve shall be sent to the Senate, without notice thereof being given to the House by the Speaker.

56. When a bill or resolve shall be returned by the Governor with his objections, the question shall be stated by the Chair, Shall this bill become a law notwithstanding the objections of the Governor? and the same in substance in case of a resolve; which question may be postponed to a day within the session, not exceeding one week, or may be committed. But no other question shall apply to bills and resolves originating in either branch.

57. The rules of parliamentary practice comprised in Reed's Rules, shall govern the House in all cases to which they are applicable, and in which they are not inconsistent with the standing rules and orders of the House, and the joint rules of the Senate and House of Representatives.

58. No rule or order of the House shall be dispensed with, unless two-thirds of the members present shall consent thereto.

59. No rule or order of the House shall be altered or repealed, nor shall any new standing rule or order be adopted, unless one day's previous notice thereof be given in each case; and such notice shall be entered on the journal.

JOINT RULES

1. The following Joint Standing Committees shall be appointed at the commencement of the session, viz:—

- On Agriculture
- On Appropriations and Financial Affairs
- On Business Legislation
- On Claims
- On Correctional Institutions
- On Education
- On Highways
- On Inland Fisheries and Game
- On Judiciary
- On Labor
- On Legal Affairs
- On Liquor Control
- On Natural Resources
- On Public Health
- On Public Utilities
- On Reference of Bills
- On Retirements and Pensions
- On Sea and Shore Fisheries
- On Taxation
- On Towns and Counties
- On Transportation
- On Veterans and Military Affairs
- On Welfare

And each of said committees, except the Committee on Reference of Bills, shall consist of three on the part of the Senate and seven on the part of the House, with leave to report by bill or otherwise. The Committee on Reference of Bills shall consist of two on the part of the Senate and three on the part of the House, with the President of the Senate and Speaker of the House, members ex officio.

2. Joint select committees shall consist of three on the part of the Senate, and seven on the part of the House, unless the order creating the same shall provide a different number.

3. Whenever a select committee shall be appointed by either house and be joined by the other, it shall be the duty of the Secretary of the Senate, or the Clerk of the House, as the case may be, to transmit, one to the other, the names of the members so joined, in order that they may be entered upon the journal of each house.

4. In presenting a report upon any matter referred to a committee, such report shall set forth the subject referred, and the substance shall also be briefly endorsed on the back of the same.

5. Orders directing inquiry in relation to an existing statute shall state the subject matter of such statute—also the chapter and section to which the inquiry is directed.

6. The title of all bills and resolves shall state, briefly, the subject matter of the same.

7. The enacting clause of every bill shall follow its title, in these words, viz:

“Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows.”

All bills and resolves reported by any joint committee shall be written in a fair, legible hand, on not less than a sheet of paper. And in all bills having more than one section, the sections shall be consecutively numbered, beginning with “Section 1.”

Mistakes in bills and resolves, merely clerical, may be corrected upon suggestion without a motion to amend.

8. When a bill, resolve, order or memorial shall pass one assembly, if rejected in the other assembly, it shall be returned to them by the Secretary or Clerk, as the case may be, for further consideration. Every bill that shall have passed both houses to be enacted, and all resolutions having the force of law, that shall have finally passed both houses, shall be presented by the Secretary of the Senate to the Governor for his approval; and the Secretary of the Senate shall enter on the journal of the Senate the day on which such bills or resolutions are so presented to the Governor.

9. All endorsements on papers, while on their passage between the two houses, shall be under the signature of the Secretary of the Senate or the Clerk of the House, respectively; but after the final passage of bills and resolves, they shall be signed by the presiding officer of each house.

10. Every bill or resolve reported in either house by a committee, or laid upon the table by leave, shall be printed and distributed in both houses, before having its first reading. Bills not already printed and new drafts shall be printed immediately after the reports are deposited in the office of the Secretary of the Senate or the Clerk of the House. The printed copies shall show by what committee the bill or resolve was reported, or by what member laid upon the table.

11. It shall be the duty of the Committee on Reference of Bills to suggest the reference to appropriate committees of all bills, resolves, orders and petitions offered in either house, and to recommend the printing of documents before reference to committees, in their discretion, suggesting the number of copies to be printed. Whenever a document shall be printed under the Joint Rules governing the procedure following a favorable committee report, the number of copies shall be five hundred, unless otherwise ordered. Sufficient copies shall be delivered to the Sergeants-at-Arms of the two houses for the members and officers thereof and the balance shall be delivered to the Document Clerk, who shall reserve one hundred copies for the Departments and for binding, twenty copies for the committee having the same under consideration, and shall be responsible for the equitable distribution of the remainder.

12. No business shall be transacted in convention of the two houses unless by unanimous consent, except such as may be agreed upon before the convention is formed.

13. Committees of conference shall consist of three members on the part of each house, representing its vote, and their report, if agreed to by a majority of each committee, shall be made to the branch asking the conference, and may be either accepted or rejected; but no other action shall be had, except through another committee of conference.

14. When any measure shall be finally rejected, it shall not be revived except by reconsideration; and no measure containing the same subject matter shall be introduced during the session unless three days' notice is given to the house of which the mover is a member.

15. Whenever a message shall be sent from the Senate to the House, it shall be announced at the door by the Sergeant-at-Arms of the Senate, and it shall be communicated respectfully to the Chair by the bearer of it. In like manner messages from the House shall be communicated to the Senate—the Sergeant-at-Arms of the House announcing them at the door of the Senate.

16. No joint rule or order shall be suspended without the consent of two-thirds of the members present in each house.

17. No member shall be permitted to vote on any question in either branch of the Legislature, nor in committee, whose private right, distinct from public interest, is immediately involved.

18. Every act, resolve or order appropriating money, shall be referred to the appropriate committee for consideration, and no further action shall be had thereon in either branch until the same shall have been reported back by said Committee.

19. The several clerks of the committees to which are referred bills, orders or resolves involving the appropriation or expenditure of money shall forthwith upon receipt of such bills transmit a copy thereof of carrying endorsement of reference, to the Committee on Appropriations and Financial Affairs. No bill shall be in order for advertising for hearing or any other procedure until such copy is so transmitted. The appropriation committee shall issue a printed report and tabulation of such bills weekly.

20. All bills and resolves that are ordered printed, shall be corrected as to matters of form by the Director of Legislative Research before printing.

21. Every act, resolve, or order involving the appropriation or expenditure of money shall be presented to the committee on Appropriations and Financial Affairs for examination and recording before it is engrossed, and no further action shall be had on such act, resolves, or orders until proper endorsement thereon is made by said committee.

22. The salaries of all committee clerks, stenographers and messengers shall be established by the chairman of all joint legislative committees together with the Committee on Appropriations and Financial Affairs not later than the fourth week of any legislative session, and no such employee shall draw any advance of salary in excess of $50.00 from the state treasury until said salaries are so established, and then only upon written order of the chairman of the committee involved, which order must further bear the endorsement of the chairman of the Committee on Appropriations and Financial Affairs.

MEMORANDA AND SUGGESTIONS

In order to facilitate the work of the various departments through which the acts and resolves presented to the legislature pass, prior to their final disposition, the following suggestions, tending to uniformity, are respectfully suggested:

1. Orders, motions in writing, and reports of committees, should never be presented on less than a half sheet of paper.
2. When a report of a committee is made to either house it should be accompanied by the order or other paper appointing said committee to consider the subject.
3. Petitions, memorials and remonstrances from towns in their corporate capacity, should be endorsed thus, "Petition of town of _____," [stating concisely the subject matter thereof]

4. Petitions, memorials and remonstrances from individuals should be endorsed thus, "Petition of _____ and others of the town of _____," [stating concisely the subject matter thereof].
5. Petitions, memorials and remonstrances from corporations should be endorsed thus, "Petition of _____," [naming the corporation and stating concisely the subject matter thereof].
6. The signature of the member presenting bills, resolves, petitions, memorials and remonstrances, should be endorsed on the back thereof, near the bottom, with the county (in the Senate), and town (in the House) in which he resides.
7. The member presenting an order should put his name thereto on the inside, at the bottom of the page, on the left, with the county (in Senate) and town (in House) in which he resides.
8. Petitions, memorials and remonstrances, on which leave to withdraw was ordered by a former legislature, cannot be recalled from the files, with a view of being again referred. The original, however, may be taken from the files, and the subject presented de novo.
9. Bills and resolves refused a passage, rejected or postponed indefinitely by a former legislature, cannot be called from the files with a view of being considered by the present legislature.
10. The heading or caption of bills should be as follows:

STATE OF MAINE

In the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and _____

An act _____

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

11. The caption of resolves, as follows:

STATE OF MAINE

In the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and _____

Resolve _____

12. The caption of orders, as follows:

STATE OF MAINE

In Senate, _____, 195

[or]

In House of Representatives, _____, 195

Ordered.—

13. All public laws enacted previous to the 1954 revision not specifically exempted in the repealing act, which is found at the end of the statutes, have been repealed: therefore, amendments should be drawn to the 1954 statutes.
14. In amending any section now in force, the following form should be followed:

First. Put in a headnote describing briefly the change desired.

Second. Use the following phraseology: "Section _____ of chapter _____ of the revised statutes is hereby amended to read as follows:"

Third. Copy the section as it read before, with a line drawn through the words you wish to remove and underlining any new words that you wish to insert.

This will make it clear just how you wish to amend the law.

15. If you wish to insert a new section in a chapter, the following wording is used:

First. Headnote.

Second. "Chapter_____of the revised statutes is hereby amended by inserting therein a new section to be numbered section_____A." Then insert the new section. If the section is to follow section 29, its number will be 29-A. If more than one section, use B, C, etc.

16. Whenever there are so many changes in a section that the crossing out and underlining would be more confusing than helpful, the old section should be repealed and a new one enacted, "to read as follows:".
17. Any law relating to a local fish and game matter, as the closing or opening of a brook, should be in the following form of a resolve:

"Resolved, that the commissioner of inland fisheries and game be, and hereby is, directed to issue a rule and regulation", following with whatever the purpose of the resolve is.

18. Titles of acts and resolves should give, in so far as possible, a clear idea of the subject matter in as brief a compass as possible. References to sections amended should not be included in titles.
19. The amendments should in all cases be amended to the original bill which is being considered. In counting the lines for an amendment the headnotes are not to be counted.
20. All the principal words in a title should be capitalized and the title on the inside of the bill should in all cases coincide with the caption on the outside cover. Emergency acts, so-called, are provided for by the thirty-first constitutional amendment, which became operative on the first Wednesday of January, 1909, known as the "Initiative and Referendum." An emergency, in this meaning, comprises only such measures as are immediately necessary for the preservation of the public peace, health or safety. Such acts must begin with a preamble setting forth the facts which constitute the emergency, and there must be an "emergency clause" at the end, the form of which is as follows: "In view of the emergency cited in the preamble, this act shall take effect when approved."

21. In referring to dates and figures, numerals should be used instead of words, thus "1951" rather than "nineteen hundred fifty-one."
22. The words "public laws" "revised statutes," "state," etc., should be written without capitals, when occurring in the body of a bill.
23. Titles, names of departments, commissions, etc., except when used as addresses, should be written without capitals.
24. Headnotes are no part of the statute.
25. The numbering of the lines within any section of the revised statutes begins with the first light-faced type therein, which is line number "one."
26. When an act or resolve contains but one section the section caption and the number is omitted in the final printing, and it is, therefore, preferable to omit the same in the original.
27. All resolves presented, carrying appropriations, must be accompanied by a statement of facts.
28. To facilitate reading and printing, bills and resolves should be typewritten with double-spacing.
29. Blanks for use in the preparing of bills and resolves may be obtained from the Secretary of the Senate, the Clerk of the House or the Director of Legislative Research.
