REPORT.

To the Legislature of Maine :

In obedience to the provisions of the statutes, the Librarian of the Maine State Library respectfully presents his annual report for the year ending Dec. 31st, 1873.

The means available for the increase of the library, and for expenses during the year, were the balance from the previous year, of eight hundred and seventy-one dollars, and the appropriation of five hundred dollars, making a total amount of thirteen hundred and seventy-one dollars.

The expenditure for the purchase of books for the library, and incidental expenses for the same period, have been eight hundred and fifty-seven dollars, leaving a balance now on hand of five hundred and fourteen dollars.

The additions to the library for the year, from all sources, have been ten hundred and forty-nine volumes and pamphlets. Of these there were acquired by purchase, two hundred and ninety-six volumes; by donations, two hundred and twenty-eight volumes and pamphlets; and by exchange, five hundred and twenty-five volumes and pamphlets.

The amount expended in the purchase of books has been expended in procuring standard works in law, science and general literature. The catalogue herewith communicated, contains a full exhibit of the additions made during the year. The books are all in good condition, and well arranged upon the shelves. During the year quite a large number of books have passed through the hands of the binders. Some were books and magazines bought and donated in paper covers, and newly bound; the balance were old books repaired and rebound. This work has been well and neatly done, so that this class of books makes a good appearance upon the shelves.

It will be observed that our volume of exchanges is constantly on the increase. We now exchange our laws, reports, and documents with nearly every State in the Union, and with Canada. I have taken much pains to keep up this exchange, and to enlarge it. I hope the present year to be able to secure exchanges with all the States. Canada is very liberal with us in exchanges, sending to the library many very valuable books. The books which are received by exchange are of incalculable value.

We have received, as will be noticed, many very valuable books by donation. To all those who have donated books to the library, my grateful acknowledgments are tendered for their generous gifts.

I have no special recommendations to make, feeling confident that you fully appreciate the necessity of a well supplied library, and that the same generous support which has been extended to it heretofore, will be continued, thus enabling the library to increase in usefulness from year to year, and continue to be an honor and a benefit to the State.

J. S. HOBBS, State Librarian.
