II. HOMICIDE CASES, IN THE PREPARATION OF WHICH, OR TRIAL OF WHICH THIS DEPARTMENT TOOK PART.

AROOSTOOK COUNTY.

STATE VS. CHARLES N. EMELIUS, ANNIE JACOBSON AND EDGAR JACOBSON.

Charged with murder of C. A. Jacobson, husband of Annie Jacobson. Tried at November Term, 1912. Verdict not guilty as to all defendants.

Counsel for State, William R. Pattangall, Attorney General, and Perley C. Brown, County Attorney. Counsel for respondents, Shaw & Shaw.

CUMBERLAND COUNTY.

STATE VS. SEMBLICE D'ANDREA.

Charged with shooting a man in an affray in an Italian boarding house. After the shooting D'Andrea ran down to the dock and threw away the revolver, then went to the police station and told them there was trouble at the boarding house. Indicted for murder. Pleaded guilty to manslaughter at the January Term 1911. Sentenced to twelve years in the State Prison.

STATE VS. JASPER HARDY.

A negro, formerly with a wild west show, in jail much of the time for drunkenness, killed a white man, cutting him to pieces with a razor. The killing took place during a row in a hovel on Fore street, where both men had been drinking. Hardy indicted for manslaughter. Convicted at September Term, 1911. Sentenced to sixteen years in the State Prison.

FRANKLIN COUNTY.

STATE VS. MARSHALL TAYLOR.

On the afternoon or evening of May 12th, 1911, Marshall Taylor killed his wife, Etta Taylor, in the town of Freeman in the County of Franklin. He disposed of the body by burying it some fifty rods from the house in a thicket of evergreens.

Nothing was known of her disappearance until the first of June when suspicion was aroused by her continued absence from the premises and a search was made and the body discovered. Taylor was arrested on the 11th day of June. The following day he confessed to the officers to the murder of his wife and the disposition of her body. The grand jury returned an indictment of murder at the September Term, 1911, against Marshall Taylor for the murder of Etta Taylor, to which indictment he pleaded guilty.

Taylor was represented by Hon. Frank W. Butler, of Farmington.

FRANKLIN COUNTY.

STATE VS. GUISEPPE CASTIGLIA AND GIOVANNI NOTO.

On the night of May 7th, 1911, Dominico Ventrelli was found dying near his home at Chisholms, in the town of Jay. The parties discovering him saw two other Italians flee from the spot as they approached Ventrelli who was mortally wounded by knife wounds and wounds made by a blunt instrument. Guiseppe Castiglia and Giovanni Noto fled the town that night in company with a third Italian, and the three were apprehended near Rumford, Maine, on the following day. Upon investigation of the case it was found that a feud had existed between Ventrelli and Castiglia and Noto over family matters. In their flight Castiglia and Noto had thrown away a knife and pick with which they claimed to their companion they had murdered Ventrelli. They were indicted separately at the September Term, 1911, but were tried together by consent of counsel.

They were represented by John Merriman, of Livermore Falls, and H. E. Holmes, of Lewiston. Both were convicted of murder.

STATE VS. AUDUBON S. WILSON.

On the 30th day of May, 1911, Gideon O. Chase, a prosperous farmer of Wilton, was shot dead in his own house by someone standing near a window on the outside of the house. Suspicion at once pointed to Audubon S. Wilson, a son-in-law of Chase's wife whom it was found was present at the Chase homestead on the night of the murder, with Frank G. Colburn, a son of Mrs. Chase by a former marriage. Wilson was arrested on the following day and that night confessed to the officers to the shooting of Chase. The circumstances in the case showed that Chase and his wife had been having family differences, to which Wilson was knowing and although he was indicted at the September Term, 1911, for murder, it was considered that the ends of justice would be met by accepting a plea of manslaughter. He was sentenced to a term of fifteen years in State's Prison.

Wilson was represented by Hon. J. C. Holman of Farmington.

STATE VS. ERNEST H. SWAIN.

In February, 1911, Ernest H. Swain was stopping at the home of his father, John Swain, in Farmington. He was in the barn attending to the chores. Albert S. Phillips entered the barn and the two men engaged in a quarrel. During the quarrel Swain drew his revolver and fired several shots, one of which entered the body of Phillips and ultimately caused his death about two weeks afterward. An indictment of murder was returned against Swain at the September Term, 1911. He was defended by Sumner P. Mills, Esquire, of Farmington, and Frank A. Morey, Esquire, of Lewiston. The jury returned a verdict of manslaughter and he received a sentence of five years in State's Prison.

KENNEBEC COUNTY.

STATE VS. ELSIE HOBBS RAYMOND.

Elsie Hobbs Raymond, wife of Bertrand Raymond of Turner, was indicted at the April Term 1912 for the murder of Mattie Hackett at Readfield on August 17, 1905, by strangling. The evidence showed that Mrs. Raymond, who was far gone with child, had been jealous of real or fancied attentions paid Miss Hackett by her husband; that on the evening when the murder occurred she had left her home and was absent for several hours, returning in an exhausted condition; that a woman who has never been accounted for was seen going to and returning from the direction of the murder, that such woman resembled the respondent and was believed by one witness to be her; that tracks which fitted a pair of shoes worn by the defendant up to the time of the murder were found in the vicinity, that the respondent had burned these shoes together with some burlap a day or so after the murder and had given the officers shoes which did not fit her, that she had denied burning her shoes and had not given a reasonable account of her whereabouts or dress during the evening. The defense claimed that the respondent was physically incapable of committing the crime, and certain facts regarding a tramp living in Lincoln, Maine, who was said to have confessed the crime to his mother and others before his suicide, were admitted in evidence, his mother and relatives testifying thereto.

The respondent was defended by Hon. D. J. McGillicuddy and Hon. F. A. Morey. A verdict of not guilty was rendered.

STATE VS. GRACE E. ROYCE.

Grace E. Royce of Augusta was indicted in September, 1911, for the murder of her new born child at East Augusta in the previous August by administering carbolic acid in the mouth. Mrs. Royce was tried in October, 1911, and was defended by Thos. Leigh, Esq. and Walter M. Sanborn, Esq.

She denied administering the poison. The evidence showed strong motive, the child having evidently been begotten before she became acquainted with her husband, and exclusive opportunity. She was convicted of manslaughter and given the maximum penalty for that offense.

STATE VS. EDWARD NORTON.

Edward Norton, of Dover, N. H., was indicted for the murder of Patrick Lucy of Willimantic, Connecticut at the railroad station in Augusta by pistol shots in August, 1912. The evidence showed that Lucy and Norton were chums, that Norton while intoxicated bought a pistol about an hour before the shooting and that he fired three shots, two of which entered Lucy's body.

Norton was defended by Hon. Benedict F. Maher of Augusta. He claimed that he bought the pistol for Lucy, that Lucy was dissatisfied with it and demanded back his money and that in the altercation which followed the pistol was discharged. He was convicted of manslaughter and given the maximum penalty.

KNOX COUNTY.

STATE VS. JOHN H. FELLOWS.

On December 23, 1911, John H. Fellows, a cook in one of the boarding houses at Long Cove, St. George, Maine, reported that he had killed Richard Ingram, a paving cutter working at Long Cove and boarding in the house where Fellows was employed.

On investigation the body of Ingram was found lying on its back in a large pool of blood, on the floor of the dining room of the boarding house. An autopsy disclosed that death had resulted from a knife cut in the throat five inches deep, that had cut open the back of the tongue and severed the coronary artery.

Fellows was indicted and tried for murder at the January Term, 1912. The defense was that the knife with which the deed was done, and which had a blade eight inches long, was used in self defence to repel an attack made upon him by Ingram who was drunk and armed with an iron poker. The evidence showed that prior to the killing both Fellows and Ingram had been drinking, and while the latter was quiet and peaceful Fellows was the reverse.

Strong circumstantial evidence was presented to show that Fellows' account of the affair was highly improbable and that the death blow must have been given while Ingram was in a helpless condition. The location and appearance of the poker with bloody finger prints on it found under the dead body showed that it must have been placed there by Fellows after Ingram's death. The furniture had also been arranged to give the appearance of a struggle.

The jury found the defendant guilty of manslaughter, and on January 17th, twenty-five days after the crime, he was sentenced and committed to State's Prison for the term of five years.

OXFORD COUNTY.

STATE VS. IGNAZIO ALBANES ALIAS JOE BILL.

Charged with the killing of his wife, Rosina Albanes, at Rumford on May 11, 1911; respondent arraigned the same day at Rumford before Matthew McCarthy, Judge of the Rumford Falls Municipal Court, on the charge of murder; plea, not guilty; case continued until May 18th. At hearing on May 18th probable cause was found and the respondent held without bail for his appearance at the October Term of the Supreme Judicial Court; indictment returned October Term, 1911, charging murder. On the twelfth day of term respondent arraigned; plea, not guilty; jury returned verdict of guilty, and respondent appealed to the Law Court. Decision of Law Court received June 7, 1912, dismissing appeal, overruling exceptions and rendering judgment for the State. At the October Term, 1912, respondent sentenced to life imprisonment.

Counsel for the state, Ralph T. Parker, County Attorney, and William R. Pattangall, Attorney General. Counsel for respondent, McGillicuddy & Morey, and Lucien W. Blanchard.

This respondent was an Italian fruit vender who had been in this country for over twenty years, was a naturalized citizen and had lived in Rumford for about ten years prior to the tragedy. He was forty-four years old.

In the winter of 1911 he had trouble with his wife, Rosina Albanes, who was considerably younger, and cross divorce libels were brought, each against the other, and were pending in the Supreme Court for this county. These libels were in order for hearing at the May term, 1911, of the Supreme Court, held at Rumford, and on the eleventh day of May the divorce cases were continued by Chief Justice Emery against the protest of the respondent.

The respondent had made threats that if the cases were not heard at this term of court he would kill his wife. Immediately after the cases were continued he went to his home, where his wife was still living, and had dinner with his wife and son John Zocalli, who was a clerk in the employ of the respondent. As soon as the dinner was over Zocalli left and a quarrel ensued between the respondent and his wife. The respondent drew a revolver which he carried and fired three times at close range, the shots taking effect, two in the breast and one in the abdomen of his victim. Supposing her dead he immediately left the house and returned to the court room and gave himself up to Deputy Sheriff Niles, stating that he had killed his wife.

After he left the house tenants living in another part of the house came to the assistance of Mrs. Albanes removed her clothes and got her onto a bed. A doctor and priest were summoned and she lived about two hours and made a dying declaration in regard to the shooting before she expired.

PENOBSCOT COUNTY.

STATE VS. LUCA OTTOBRE.

Charged with murder. Tried at February Term, 1911. Acquitted.

STATE VS. JOHN T. MCTIGUE AND PATRICK E. MCTIGUE.

Charged with manslaughter. Tried at August Term, 1911. Acquitted.

STATE VS. HERBERT G. DIBBLE.

Charged with manslaughter. Tried at February Term, 1912. Pleaded guilty. Sentenced to pay a fine of five hundred dollars and costs and to serve sixty days in the county jail.

STATE VS. J. SHERMAN GRAY.

Charged with murder. Tried at August Term, 1912. Pleaded guilty. Sentenced to serve in the State Prison in Thomaston for life.

SAGADAHOC COUNTY.

STATE VS. MILDRED I. KEEFE.

On the morning of October 21st, 1911, the body of Martin Howard K. Keefe, the four year old child of the respondent, was found on the banks of a pond on the outskirts of the city, known as the "Mill Pond." The child was last seen alive on the afternoon of Oct. 20th in the company of its mother going in the direction of the pond. As results of investigation the respondent was arrested, brought before the Bath Municipal Court, bound over to the Grand jury of the December Term, 1911, and by it indicted for murder. The case was tried at that term and the jury returned a verdict of manslaughter upon which the respondent was sentenced to a term of twenty years in State Prison. The respondent admitted going to the pond with the child and said that while playing he fell over the bridge and she was unable to find him, although she did not call for any assistance or notify anybody until some four hours after. She stated the roads she took to get to the pond while the State introduced a number of witnesses showing that she had gone and returned in an entirely different direction from what she stated. The theory of the State was that the child was killed by strangling or smothering and then placed in the water.

Keegan & Bridgam for respondent. Attorney General Pat-tangall, and County Attorney Arthur H. Stetson for the State.

WALDO COUNTY.

STATE VS. EARL D. BEAN.

On Sunday, December 3rd, 1911, while hunting deer in the town of Liberty, Ralph W. Emerson of said town was shot through the bowels by Earl D. Bean of Corinth. Emerson died the next morning about 4.00 A. M., while being moved to the Waldo County Hospital at Belfast. Bean was arrested at 9.30 P.M. on the same day. At the coronor's hearing held on December 5th, the defendant confessed to the shooting. He also plead guilty at a hearing before the Belfast Municipal Court and was bound over to the Grand Jury. Bean was indicted by the Grand Jury at the January term, 1912; he plead not guilty in the upper court and was acquitted.

WASHINGTON COUNTY.

STATE VS. LEONA MARSHALL AND ADA B. DODGE.

March 30th, 1912, Leona Marshall, unmarried, aged about eighteen years, and Ada B. Dodge, married, aged about twenty years, who had been living in Woodland, in the town of Baileyville, ten miles above Calais, appeared in Calais with the infant child, aged seven days, of Leona Marshall. They endeavored during the day to find some one who would take the child to board, but were unsuccessful. About five o'clock in the afternoon of that day they called at a small grovery store located part way from Calais to Milltown, and about one-half mile from the St. Croix river, and asked permission to leave their suit case, which was granted. They then left the store, and went with the infant in arms toward the river. They returned for the suit case at about six thirty, and did not then have the baby.

Their actions aroused the suspicions of Deputy Marshal Howard Eye, who is stationed in that locality, and he detained and questioned them, and not being satisfied with the explanation given by them, he escorted them to the police station where they were further questioned by City Marshal, John Crosman. They told a fairly reasonable story which somewhat allayed the suspicion of the police, and were allowed to depart. During the same evening the police endeavored to verify the story told by the girls, and then discovered that the story told by the girls was untrue. Whereupon the girls, who had been kept under surveillance, were arrested and confessed to the City Marshal that they had drowned the baby in the river. The next morning (Sunday) the County Attorney was notified, and he visited the police station, and the girls, after being cautioned as to their rights, gave to him in detail the manner in which they had drowned the child.

At the April Term, A. D. 1912, Supreme Judicial Court of Calais, the girls were indicted for murder, and at the same term, by agreement between Counsel for the respondent and the Attorney General a plea of guilty to manslaughter was entered and the respondents each sentenced to three years in the State prison at Thomaston.
