STATE OF MAINE.

To His Excellency, William T. Haines, Governor of Maine:

The Commissioners of Inland Fisheries and Game have the honor to present to Your Excellency their report for the year ending December 31, 1914, as required by section 19 of chapter 32 of the Revised Statutes, as amended by chapter 206 of the Public laws of 1913.

HARRY B. AUSTIN, Chairman,
WALTER I. NEAL,
BLAINE S. VILES,

Commissioners of Inland Fisheries and Game.

Since the last annual report of this department was issued our fish and game resources have not suffered material reduction, yet the time has come when, in order to conserve them, further restrictive legislation seems to us to be necessary.

REVISION OF 1913.

Experience has shown that private and special legislation is not usually so effective a means of conservation as are laws applicable to larger sections of the State rather than to the smaller units of a particular lake or town, and the general revision of our fish and game laws in 1913 was based upon this principle and upon the idea that shorter open season and smaller bag limits would be easier of enforcement, and thus tend towards better conservation, than the former idea of private and special legislation covering the multitude of our inland waters and hunting grounds.

After eighteen months' trial of this revision we believe that, with a very few additions, to cover present needs, and some changes in phraseology, the laws will meet with the hearty approval of all of our citizens who are interested in the development and conservation of Maine's fish and game resources.

FISH PROPAGATION.

During the past year all hatcheries have been put in first-class condition and a new hatchery has been built upon the outlet of Tunk pond, near Cherryfield, which, from its location and liberal supply of clear cold water, promises to be one of our most efficient hatcheries.

The buildings are constructed upon the plans of the more recent hatcheries and are well suited for the purposes for which they were designed.

This hatchery will serve the southeastern part of the State which abounds in fine natural trout waters and which is developing rapidly as a popular resort for both fishing and hunting.

In future we hope to be able to use an increasingly large number of spawn from our large native trout as we believe them to be better adapted for stocking our waters than fish raised from the spawn of immature trout.

WARDEN SERVICE.

Our forests are so extensive and our lakes and streams so numerous that it would be impossible with any funds at hand to employ a force of wardens large enough to cover the whole State thoroughly.

Yet, with the means at our disposal, we are trying to so arrange our warden service that the largest measure of protection possible shall be given.

The warden's work is of such a nature that he must be put upon his own responsibility and upon his honor to render service for weeks at a time when we can have no other knowledge of his whereabouts or work than that furnished by his weekly reports and when the warden alone knows whether such services have been honestly rendered to the State.

Naturally men working for the State, or for an individual, under such circumstances are sometimes tempted to take advantage of this lack of personal supervision, and for this reason it is especially necessary that men of strict integrity and of good repute be selected for this service.

With the coöperation of our many efficient wardens, the various Fish and Game Associations and interested citizens we hope to weed out whatever abuses may have crept into the service and render it more and more efficient and worthy of public approval.

SUMMARY OF HATCHERY REPORTS.

We submit herewith detailed report of the operation of the fish hatcheries and feeding stations for fish in the State for the year 1914:

As will be noted by the following reports of the Superintendents of the hatcheries, 4,407,950 fish were raised at the several hatcheries and planted in the public waters of the State during the season just closed, as follows: 2,900,850 square-tailed trout, 1,415,100 land-locked salmon, 59,500 togue and 32,500 brown trout.

343,175 land-locked salmon and 66,900 square-tailed trout are being wintered in the hatcheries, to be planted as yearlings and two-year-olds next season.

1,551,000 land-locked salmon eggs, 375,000 square-tailed trout eggs and 40,000 brown trout eggs have been taken this season.

As the supply of eggs secured this season will not be sufficient, we have purchased several million trout eggs from private hatcheries within the State. We have also made application to the U. S. Fish Commission for a supply of land-locked salmon, trout and togue eggs.

REPORT OF THE DEAD RIVER HATCHERY, EUSTIS,
FRANKLIN COUNTY, FOR THE YEAR 1914.

GEO. L. RICKER, Supt.

This was formerly a private hatchery, which, however, had never been operated. The State acquired possession of it last year with the idea of raising therein fish for stocking waters in the Dead River region, which heretofore had been supplied from the Oquossoc hatchery, thus doing away with transporting the fish a long distance overland from the hatchery to the waters to be stocked.

LAND-LOCKED SALMON.

50,000 land-locked salmon eggs were placed in this hatchery last year. 7,000 were lost up to time of hatching and 3,000 from time of hatching to time of planting, leaving 40,000 for planting. These fish were planted as fry—soon after hatching—in the following waters:

Jim pond, Franklin county . . . . .	10,000
Chain of Ponds, Franklin county . . . . .	10,000
T pond, Franklin county . . . . .	10,000

SQUARE-TAILED TROUT.

200,000 trout eggs were placed in this hatchery. 50,000 were lost from time of receipt to time of hatching. Owing to unanticipated conditions—mud having washed into the pools where the fish were hatching—most of these eggs were lost. We succeeded in keeping 4,000 fry until July 27th when they were planted in North Branch of Dead River.
