REPORT.

STATE ASSESSORS' OFFICE,

AUGUSTA, MAINE, December 1, 1913.

To His Excellency, William T. Haines, Governor, and the Honorable Executive Council:

GENTLEMEN:—In accordance with the statutes of the State, we herewith submit for your consideration the Twenty-Third Annual Report of the Board of State Assessors. We include tabulations of statistics returned to us by all the municipal boards of assessors throughout the State, as made by them on April first, 1913, also lists of corporations on which taxes have been assessed during the present year.

The total valuation of the cities, towns and plantations on April first, 1913, as made and returned to us by the local boards of assessors is $430,025,462.

This is an increase of $13,134,198 as compared with the returns of April first, 1912, and is very satisfactory, not only in amount of gain, but from the fact that it is to a great extent based on new property.

The following comparison is given of the counties in 1912 and 1913, exclusive of the unorganized townships.

As provided by statute, we have met with the local boards of assessors in all the counties, at regularly advertised meetings, which have been well attended at all times. In some counties we have held but one meeting, and in others as many as four, adjusting the number in accordance with the size of the county, transportation facilities, etc.

During the year we have visited all the cities, also many of the towns, making comparisons of values placed by local assessors on properties of the same class, personally viewing much property of all kinds, and bringing about adjustments in cases of inequality where possible to do so.

Many needed revisions have been fully made during the year by municipal boards, and in other cases changes have been made in part, to be followed by further adjustment another year.

A substantial number of towns have made complete revaluations of real estate during the year, and many others should carefully undertake the same work, as changing conditions of many kinds should be closely followed, making revisions in values where found necessary.

We have visited factories, and different industries, in many parts of the state, also farms and timberlands to such extent as possible; in fact our purpose has been to inform ourselves as fully as possible in regard to all matters having any bearing on taxation, seeking to better conditions, but realizing more and more the magnitude of the problem of taxation.

We extend to all local boards of assessors our sincere thanks for their co-operation in our work, and we feel that the pleasant relationship of the past, has been continued this year, between this Board and the municipal assessors.

Seeking to comply with the statute which requires us to investigate methods of taxation in other states, we attended the Third Annual Conference of the Association of New England State Tax Officials, which was held in Boston on December 4, 5, and 6.

This Conference was attended by the state tax officials of all the New England States, students of the subject of taxation, and representatives of different public service corporations.

The meetings of this Association seem to be of particular value, as the conditions, and needs, of the New England States are similar to such an extent.

We are pleased to state that the fourth annual meeting will be held at Augusta some time late in 1914.

WILD LANDS.

By chapter 325, resolves of 1913, the sum of $10,000.00 was appropriated by the Legislature, for exploration of wild lands during the years 1913 and 1914.

After careful consideration, and some preliminary work, we decided to investigate towns situated on the St. John and Allagash Rivers, and in accordance with this plan, eighteen towns have been explored on these rivers and their tributaries. This work has been done by R. E. Mullaney of Bangor, and C. E. Packard of Guilford.

Following plans made early in the season for the examination of this particular section, two of the members of the Board, E. M. Johnston and J. J. Dearborn, accompanied by F. H. Sterling, Secretary, spent sixteen days traveling by canoe and on foot, from North East Carry on Moosehead Lake, to Fort Kent on the St. John River, ascending in this time Allagash and Priestly mountains, where by the use of glasses a very large area of country could be observed. In this manner much first hand knowledge of a general character was secured, to be used in conjunction with the more specific work done by the explorers who spent practically the whole season in this territory.

Respectfully submitted,

REPORT OF THE DELEGATES TO THE SEVENTH
ANNUAL CONFERENCE OF THE NATIONAL TAX ASSOCIATION.

December 24, 1913.

To the Honorable Governor and Council:

By virtue of chapter 60 of the Resolves of 1913 the following were appointed in 1913 to represent the State of Maine at the Conference of the National Tax Association in 1913 and 1914: William J. Thompson of South China, Clement F. Robinson of Portland, and Bertrand G. McIntire of East Waterford. E. M. Johnston of Brownville, and J. J. Dearborn of Newburgh were added by later appointment, to attend the Conference held at Buffalo, New York, October 23 to 25, 1913.

The delegates in attendance submit the following report: The Conference was attended by representatives officially representing nearly all the states of the Union, by many delegates from educational institutions and by other experts in both the theory and practice of taxation. It was the opinion of all the representatives from Maine that the Conference was valuable both for the discussions at the meetings, and for the opportunity given to make the personal acquaintance of men of wide experience in taxation from all parts of the country, and to discuss with them personally the tax problems that arise in the different states.

The sessions of the Conference were presided over by Prof. Edwin R. A. Seligman of Columbia University, President of the National Tax Association, assisted by Hon. Zenas Bliss of the Rhode Island Tax Commission, Hon. W. H. Corbin, Tax Commissioner of Connecticut, and others.

Among the most interesting of the subjects discussed at the stated meetings of the Conference were the following: The Term, Salary and Method of Selecting Assessors and the Frequency of Assessments, opened by Hon. Dan. M. Link, State Tax Commissioner of Indiana, and Professor Charles Lee Raper of the University of North Carolina; Methods of Equalizing Local Assessments for the purpose of Making the State Tax Uniform, opened by Hon. J. Frank Adams, State Tax Commissioner of Colorado; the so-called "Somers System" of private assessments by an appraisal company employed by cities, advocated by the President of the Manufacturers' Appraisal Company of Cleveland, Ohio, and criticised by Mr. A. C. Pleydell of the New York Tax Reform Association; 'Tax Legislation and Progress in Tax Reforms in 1913, opened by Hon. Joseph E. Davies, United States Commissioner of Corporations, and Hon. L. E. Birdzell, Chairman of the State Tax Commission of North Dakota, and participated in by representatives of the various states present; Is Less Taxation Practicable, opened by Adelbert Moot, Esq., of Buffalo, New York; 'The so-called "Single Tax," opened by Professor Joseph French Johnson of New York University and Mr. Charles H. Shields of Seattle, Washington; Taxation of Banks, opened by Thomas B. Paton, Esq., General Counsel of the American Bankers' Association; Taxation of Public Service Corporations, opened by Professor Charles J. Bullock of Harvard University; Taxation of Forests, opened by Professor Fred R. Fairchild of Yale University; Classification of Property for Taxation, opened by A. S. Dudley, Esq., Tax Expert of the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul Railway Company.

The resolutions unanimously adopted at the close of the Conference laid particular stress on the need of educating the people and their representatives in the legislatures and city governments to demand less taxation. The concensus of opinion at the Conference was that although great progress has been made throughout the country since the first Conference in 1907 in developing more scientific systems of state and local taxation and more efficient administration of the tax laws, the demand for more money to be raised by taxation has increased disproportionately, so that the reforms that have been accomplished have not actually benefitted the individual tax payer so much as they should.

The selection of the place and date for the Conference of 1914 was left to the executive committee; and several important committees were appointed to investigate and report on various problems of taxation at that time.

Respectfully submitted,

(Signed) W. J. THOMPSON,
CLEMENT F. ROBINSON,
B. G. McINTIRE,
E. M. JOHNSTON.

Delegates.
