SUMMARY: Original LD 2236 was titled "An Act to Increase the Minimum Wage to $3.55" and proposed to raise the minimum wage from $3.35/hr. to $3.55/hr., effective 90 days after the session ended. Senate Amendment "A" extended the effective date to January 1, 1985 and House Amendment "C" changed the wage amounts to $3.45 starting January 1, 1985, $3.55 starting January 1, 1986 and $3.65 starting January 1, 1987.

TIVE DATE OF INTEREST CHARGES Swazey PL 1983, C. 733
ON OVERDUE CONTRIBUTIONS TO Hayes
THE UNEMPLOYMENT COMPENSATION Willey
FUND

SUMMARY: The bill adds a provision to the unemployment compensation statute concerning overdue contributions. Employers are charged interest at the rate determined by the State Tax Assessor. This rate, which is set in December each year, shall stay in effect for the purposes of the unemployment laws for the full calendar year following the year in which it is determined. This enables the Bureau of Employment Security to send one mailing each year without the need to send out a second mailing if the interest rate is changed.

2278 AN ACT RELATING TO TIME OF PAY- McCollister OTP ND MENT UNDER THE MAINE LABOR LAW SEE LD 2422

SUMMARY: See LD 2422.

2315 AN ACT CONCERNING BENEFITS Study bill ND OF LD 2031 UNDER THE UNEMPLOYMENT COM-PENSATION ACT PL 1983, C. 750

SUMMARY: LD 2031, the original study recommendation, freezes the maximum weekly unemployment benefit amount during 1985 and 1986 at the level in effect at the end of 1984 and also repeals the seasonality provisions of the unemployment laws. Following much changed financial projections by the Department of Labor, the Committee voted out a new draft by a majority vote. LD 2315 does not eliminate seasonality but reduces the maximum length of a permissible season from 40 weeks, the nation's longest, to 26 weeks. Any hotel, motel, camp or restaurant operating for a period of less than 26 weeks is deemed seasonal. Any potato packing business operating for a period of 26 or more weeks is not seasonal, but can petition for seasonal status if operating for less than that time period.
