SUMMARY:

This bill allows full-time deputy sheriffs to also hold a municipal office if appointed or elected to such an office. They may not hold another county office or a state office.

House Amendment A eliminates the word elected in the title thereby bringing the title in line with the text of the bill. The amendment also restricts the municipal offices that a deputy can hold.

SUMMARY:

This bill authorizes a statewide referendum on the subject of abolishing county government. If the bill were to pass, the Legislature is to enact legislation to assign the current county responsibilities to the state or to local municipalities.

Committee Amendment A is to add a fiscal note to the bill.
