SUMMARY:

The original bill changed the cutoff date for eligibility to buy military service time from those beginning membership in the Retirement System prior to January 1, 1976 to January 1, 2000. The Committee Amendment made provision for veterans who served during the Vietnam conflict to buy military time under the present provisions. It provided a mechanism for other military veterans to buy service time at a rate to reflect the actual rate of contribution or active members during the period of time covered by the military service.
