The bill modified the definition of affiliate outfitters to exclude those buying outfitters to whom the Department of Inland Fisheries and Wildlife had transferred a selling outfitter's allocation.

The bill permitted allocation transfers to the Kennebec River under high water conditions on the Penobscot River and prohibited allocation transfers to the Penobscot River under any conditions.

The bill removed the privilege of occasionally exceeding allocations.

The bill created a noncommercial whitewater trip registration procedure to monitor private rafting use and to advise rafters that persons offering raft trips for remuneration without appropriate licenses are violating the law.

The bill extended the term of the whitewater advisory committee to 1990.

Committee Amendment A reinstated the provision allowing occasional overbooking but required that the average number of passengers during the 10 best days of the season not exceed the allocation.

LD AN ACT REGARDING FUNDS GENERATED BY THE SALES PL 1985
1817 OF DUCK STAMPS AND PRINTS c. 573

Sponsor: MCGOWAN, Matthews Z, Jacques, Weymouth
Committee Report: OTP-A

H-521 CA H S

SUMMARY: This bill required that funds derived from the sale of the duck stamp be allotted for the purchase of waterfowl habitat and for waterfowl management activities.

The Department objected to the bill because the stamp program was originally designed to assist in the general funding needs of the Department and these needs still exist.

Committee Amendment A postponed the effective date of the Act until July 1, 1987.
