The State Government Committee amended the bill to provide for legislative participation in the allocation of tax exempt bonds for various uses.

The amendment authorizes the Governor to allocate the state ceiling on the issuance of tax-exempt bonds by Executive Order for the year 1986 only. Beginning in 1987, the allocation of the state ceiling requires the approval of the Legislature with respect to the formula for making the allocations and the uses to which the tax-exempt bonds will be put.

In the event that the Tax Reform Act establishes the effective date for the 1987 allocation prior to the enactment of legislation by the Governor and Legislature providing for the 1987 allocation, the Governor, with the approval of the Legislature, shall provide an emergency temporary allocation effective until the Legislature enacts the allocation as provided by law.

The amendment also provides for the joint standing committee of the Legislature having jurisdiction over State Government to establish a procedure by which emergency allocations may be made for the period between January 1, 1987, and the date on which the allocation of the state ceiling becomes effective.
