LD AN ACT TO ALLOW RECALL OF COUNTY OFFICERS
111

ONTP

Sponsor: VOSE, Moholland, Tammaro
Committee Report: ONTP

SUMMARY: Some 15 Maine municipalities have recall provisions. There is currently no provision for recall of county or state officers.

This bill would allow the recall of all elected county officers except the Sheriff. The position of Sheriff is a Constitutionally created position. This recall is allowed only for the specific offenses of misfeasance, misconduct, incompetence or failure to perform prescribed duties. The recall requires an application for a recall petition requiring 25 signatures and a statement of the reason for recall. The recall itself must be supported by 25% of the registered voters.

The person to be recalled would have an opportunity to submit a statement which will appear on the recall ballot. He may also petition the superior court as to the sufficiency of the charge.

Recalled county commissioners would be replaced by election. The voters are to determine whether other recalled officers are to be replaced by appointment or election.
