LD 473 AN ACT MAKING CHANGES TO THE DIETITIAN REGISTRATION ACT

PL 1987
c. 313

Sponsor: BUSTIN, Gill, Telow, Allen
Committee Report: OTP-AM
Amendments Adopted:
S-112 COMMITTEE

SUMMARY: Dietitians are currently regulated under the provisions of a law passed in 1985 as part of an omnibus bill entitled "AN ACT Affecting the Statutes of Agencies within the Dept. of Business, Occupational and Professional Regulation." During 1985 there was also a bill introduced to license dietitians. This bill was passed on a divided report and was vetoed by the Governor.

Currently dietitians are regulated under the term "registration". There are certain experience and education requirements but no requirement for an examination. Persons may be dietitians without registering but are not allowed to call themselves registered dietitians. A survey of other states conducted by the office of Audit and Program Review indicated that certification is the term most generally used for regulation similar to that currently in place for dietitians.
