AN ACT TO LIMIT THE PARTY SIZE TO 12 PERSONS FOR ALL GROUPS OPERATING WITH A GUIDE ON INLAND WATERS.

PL 1987
c. 44
EMERGENCY

Sponsor: JACQUES, Rotondi
Committee Report: New draft of LD 153
Amendments Adopted:
S-7 ERWIN E

SUMMARY: This bill sought to limit the number of persons in a party led by a registered guide to 12 on inland waters.

In the new draft, an emergency preamble was included because the boating season runs through the summer months. A study on the laws relating to Maine guides proposed in LD 1339 will review this issue and make further recommendations, thus, the Committee put a 2 year sunset on the change. The new draft attempted to clarify the language to specify that total party size was not the issue as long as one guide was in attendance for each twelve persons. The bill was further amended in the Senate to reword the intent.
