Sponsor: CLARK N, Brannigan, Carroll, Allen
Committee Report: New Draft of LD 464

SUMMARY: This bill addresses the difficulties experienced in hiring and retaining qualified nursing assistants in nursing homes. The original bill establishes a single source of certification for nursing assistants, establishes a register of certified nursing assistants (CNA), requires incentive payments for facilities recruiting and retaining CNA's, and addresses minimum staffing patterns. The new draft deleted the incentive payments and required that one member of the State Board of Nursing be currently practicing long-term care nursing.
